AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors and Stockholders
Vox Consulting Group, Inc.
Miami, Florida

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Vox Consulting Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statement of revenue and expenses and accumulated deficit, and cash flows for the years then ended. The financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Vox Consulting Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the results of operations and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Use of Estimates

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Such financial statements include estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and the amount of revenue and expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers cash in bank accounts, certificate of deposits and investment instruments purchased with maturities of three months or less as cash and cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at its original cost and depreciated under the accelerated method over its estimated useful life (five to seven years). The cost of maintaining and repairing property and equipment are charged to expense as incurred.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized when earned, as services are provided.

7

VOX CONSULTING GROUP, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2003 AND 2002

Income Taxes

The Company, with the consent of its shareholders, has elected to be treated as an "S" Corporation, under the Internal Revenue Code. In lieu of paying corporate income taxes, the shareholders of an "S" Corporation are taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Therefore, there is no provision or liability for income taxes reflected in the accompanying statements.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

The Company provides for doubtful accounts based on experience rates. No provision for bad debts was deemed necessary at December 31, 2003.
