QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q1: WHO IS SOLICITING MY PROXY?

A: We, the board of directors of New Visual, are sending you this proxy statement in connection with our solicitation of proxies for use at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting" or the "Meeting"). Certain directors, officers and employees of New Visual also may solicit proxies on our behalf by mail, phone, fax or in person.

Q2: WHO IS PAYING FOR THIS SOLICITATION?

A: New Visual will pay for this solicitation of proxies. New Visual also will reimburse banks, brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable charges and expenses in forwarding our proxy materials to the beneficial owners of New Visual Common Stock.

Q3: WHAT AM I VOTING ON?

A: Two items: (1) the election of Brad Ketch, Ray Willenberg, Jr., Thomas J. Cooper and Jack L. Peckham to our board of directors; and (2) the ratification of Marcum & Kliegman, LLP, as our independent public accountants for the current fiscal year.

Q4: WHO CAN VOTE?

A: Only those who owned New Visual's common stock, par value $0.001 per share ("Common Stock"), at the close of business on June 15, 2005, the record date for the Annual Meeting, can vote. If you owned Common Stock on the record date, you have one vote per share for each matter presented at the Annual Meeting.

Q5: HOW DO I VOTE?

A: You may vote your shares either in person or by proxy.

There are generally three ways to vote:

- o by toll-free telephone at 1-800-690-6903;
- o by completing, executing and returning your proxy card; and
- o by written ballot at the meeting.

Please see your proxy card for the voting options available to you. If your shares are held in a brokerage account in your broker's name (this is called street name), you should follow the voting directions provided by your broker or nominee. You may complete and mail a voting instruction card to your broker or nominee or, in most cases, submit voting instructions by telephone. If you provide specific voting instructions by mail or telephone, your shares should be voted by your broker or nominee as you have directed.

We will pass out written ballots to anyone who holds shares in his or her own name and who wants to vote at the Meeting. If you hold your shares in street name, you must request a legal proxy from your broker to vote at the Meeting.

If you vote by telephone, your vote must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time on July 26th, the day before the meeting. Your shares will be voted as you indicate. If you return your proxy card but you do not mark your voting preference, the individuals named as proxies will vote your shares FOR the election of the four nominees for director named in this proxy statement and FOR ratification of Marcum & Kliegman, LLP as our independent public accountants.

Q6: WHAT CONSTITUTES A QUORUM?

A: Voting can take place at the Annual Meeting only if shareholders owning shares representing a majority of the total number of votes entitled to be cast are present in person or represented by effective proxies. On the record date, there were 111,579,643 shares of our Common Stock outstanding. Both abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for purposes of establishing the quorum necessary for the meeting to proceed. A broker non-vote results from a situation in which a broker holding your shares in "street" or "nominee" name indicates to us on a proxy that you have not voted and it lacks discretionary authority to vote your shares.

Q7: WHAT VOTE OF THE SHAREHOLDERS WILL RESULT IN THE MATTERS BEING PASSED?

A: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS. Director nominees need the affirmative vote of holders of a plurality of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting to be elected. The four nominees receiving the greatest number of votes at the Meeting will be deemed to have received a plurality of the voting power present. Neither abstentions nor broker non-votes will have any effect on the election of directors.

RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS. To ratify the appointment of Marcum & Kliegman, LLP, as our independent public accountants for the current fiscal year, shareholders holding a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting must affirmatively vote to approve the matter. Abstentions have the same effect as votes "against" the proposal, while broker non-votes have no effect.

Q8: HOW DOES THE BOARD RECOMMEND THAT I VOTE ON THE MATTERS PROPOSED?

A: The board of directors of New Visual unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR each of the proposals submitted at this year's Annual Meeting.

Q9: WILL THERE BE OTHER MATTERS PROPOSED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: New Visual's bylaws limit the matters presented at the Annual Meeting to those in the notice of the meeting (or any supplement), those otherwise properly presented by the board of directors and those presented by shareholders so long as the shareholder complies with certain advance notice requirements. Please refer to the section of this proxy statement captioned "Annual Meeting Advance Notice Requirements" for a description of these requirements. We do not expect any other matter to come before the Annual Meeting. However, if any other matter is presented, your signed proxy gives the individuals named as proxies authority to vote your shares in their discretion.

Q10: WHEN ARE 2006 SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS DUE IF THEY ARE TO BE INCLUDED IN THE COMPANY'S PROXY MATERIALS?

A: To be included in our proxy statement for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, a shareholder proposal must be received at New Visual's offices no later than February 25, 2006 (unless next year's meeting date is before June 28 or after August 26, in which case a proposal must be received a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail next year's proxy materials, and in compliance with the advance notice requirements of our bylaws). To curtail controversy as to the date on which the Company received a proposal, we suggest that proponents submit their proposals by certified mail, return receipt requested.

ITEM 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors of New Visual has currently set the number of directors constituting the whole board at seven. At the Annual Meeting, you and the other shareholders will elect four individuals to serve as directors until the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and their successors are elected and qualified. All nominees are currently serving as directors of New Visual.

Directors need the affirmative vote of holders of a plurality of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting to be elected. The four nominees receiving the greatest number of votes at the Meeting will be deemed to have received the votes of a plurality of the shares present. Neither abstentions nor broker non-votes will have any effect on the election of directors.

The persons designated as proxies will vote the enclosed proxy for the election of all of the nominees unless you direct them to withhold your vote for any one or more of the nominees. If any nominee becomes unable to serve as a director before the meeting (or decides not to serve), the individuals named as proxies may vote for a substitute or we may reduce the number of members of the board. We recommend a vote FOR each of the nominees.

Below are the names and ages of the nominees for director, the years they became directors, their principal occupations or employment for at least the past five years and certain of their other directorships, if any.

ITEM 2.

RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The board of directors has appointed Marcum & Kliegman, LLP ("Marcum") to serve as our independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending October 31, 2005 and is soliciting your ratification of that appointment.

Marcum has served as our independent public accountants since September 2002. In their role as independent public accountants, Marcum reports on our financial statements. They also assist us with due diligence activities in connection with our acquisitions and provide general accounting and tax consulting. We do not anticipate that a representative of Marcum will be present at the Meeting.

Your ratification of the Board's selection of Marcum is not necessary because the board of directors has responsibility for selection of our independent public accountants. However, the board of directors and the Audit Committee will take your vote on this proposal into consideration when selecting our independent public accountants in the future.

Aggregate fees for professional services rendered for the Company by Marcum & Kliegman LLP for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004 and 2003 are set forth below. The aggregate fees included in the Audit category are fees billed for the fiscal years for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements and review of financial statements and statutory and regulatory filings or engagements. Edgar Filing: NEW VISUAL CORP - Form DEF 14A financial statements included in Quarterly Reports on Form 10-QSB, consents, and other assistance required to complete the year end audit of the consolidated financial statements.

Audit-Related Fees were for assurance and related services reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of financial statements and not reported under the caption Audit Fees.

Tax Fees were for professional services related to tax compliance, tax authority audit support and tax planning.

There were no fees that were classified as All Other Fees for each of our last two fiscal years.

To ratify the appointment of Marcum as our independent public accountants for the current fiscal year, shareholders holding a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting must affirmatively vote to approve the matter. Abstentions have the same effect as votes "against" the proposal, while broker non-votes have no effect.

We recommend a vote FOR the ratification of Marcum as our independent public accountants for the current fiscal year.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee's responsibilities are set forth in the Audit Committee Charter. The Audit Committee assists the full board of directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities. Our management prepares financial statements and establishes the system of internal control.

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements with management, including a discussion of the acceptability as well as the appropriateness, of significant accounting principles. The Audit Committee also reviewed with management the reasonableness of significant estimates and judgments made in preparing the financial statements as well as the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with our independent accountants, Marcum & Kliegman, LLP, its judgments as to the acceptability as well as appropriateness of the Company's application of accounting principles. Marcum has the responsibility for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the Company's audited financial statements with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit Committee also discussed with Marcum matters required to be discussed under Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communicating with Audit Committees).

In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with Marcum its independence from management and the Company, the matters included in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the impact on auditor independence of non-audit related services provided to us by Marcum during the 2004 fiscal year. The Committee concluded that Marcum is independent from the Company and its management.

Edgar Filing: NEW VISUAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Audit Committee discussed with Marcum the overall scope and plans for its audit. The Audit Committee meets with Marcum with and without management present to discuss the results of its audits, its opinions of the Company's system of internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

The Audit Committee held four meetings in fiscal 2004.

Ivan Berkowitz resigned from the Audit Committee in March 2005 upon his resignation as a director of the Company.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions noted above, the Audit Committee, then consisting of Mr. Berkowitz and Mr. Bruce Brown, recommended to the full board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended October 31, 2004 for filing with the SEC. The Audit Committee and the full board of directors have also recommended the selection of Marcum & Kliegman, LLP as the Company's independent public accountants for 2005.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS WITH EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

BRAD KETCH. On December 2, 2002, we entered into an employment agreement with Brad Ketch pursuant to which Mr. Ketch was retained as our Chief Executive Officer. The agreement entered into with Mr. Ketch in December 2002 replaced the agreements previously entered into with Mr. Ketch (and discussed below) pursuant to which he was retained in various other capacities. Mr. Ketch's current agreement with us began on December 2, 2002 for a three-year term and provided for Mr. Ketch to receive an initial base salary of $250,000, with an annual bonus to be paid at the discretion of the Board of Directors in either cash or stock. In addition, pursuant to the agreement Mr. Ketch was issued an option to purchase 1,500,000 shares of our Common Stock at a per share exercise price of $0.64 vesting in 12 quarterly installments of 125,000, beginning March 1, 2003. This option was cancelled in April 2005. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions - Brad Ketch".

Mr. Ketch's agreement provided that he may be terminated for "cause," as defined in his employment agreement. If Mr. Ketch is terminated without "cause" or left New Visual for "good reason," each as defined in the agreement, he will receive a severance payment equal to two years of his base salary on the date of his termination. If Mr. Ketch is terminated without cause or with good reason within one year after a "change of control," as defined in the agreement, he will receive a severance payment equal to two years of his base salary and an amount equal to two times the amount of his last bonus received.

Prior to our entering into the agreement with Mr. Ketch retaining him as our Chief Executive Officer, we entered into several agreements with him during fiscal year 2002. In March 2002, we entered into a one-year consulting arrangement with Mr. Ketch, in which we retained Mr. Ketch to provide consulting and advisory services with respect to our technology for transmitting high speed data over extended ranges of copper telephone wire. Pursuant to this consulting agreement, we agreed to pay Mr. Ketch $15,000 per month and granted him an option to purchase 50,000 shares of our Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.02 per share, exercisable upon grant. This option was cancelled in April 2005. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions - Brad Ketch".

In July 2002, we entered into an employment agreement and a second stock option agreement with Mr. Ketch whereby he become our Chief Marketing Officer. This employment agreement, which was for a three year term, began on July 1, 2002, and provided for a base salary of $15,000 per month and an annual bonus to be paid at the discretion of the Board of directors in either cash or stock. Pursuant to this employment agreement, we issued Mr. Ketch an option to purchase 405,000 shares of Common Stock, of which 105,000 vested on the date of grant and the remainder vested quarterly, beginning on May 31, 2003, in equal amounts of 37,500 shares, at an exercise price of $1.09 per share. This option was cancelled in April 2005. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions - Brad Ketch".

RAY WILLENBERG, JR. On March 3, 2005, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Willenberg pursuant to which he continues to serve as our Executive Vice President for a term of three years commencing on March 23, 2005, subject to the earlier (i) the death or Disability (as defined in the employment agreement) of Mr. Willenberg; (ii) the termination of the agreement by either party without cause upon written notice; or (iii) termination of the agreement by us for Cause (as defined in the employment agreement).

Under this employment agreement, Mr. Willenberg is entitled to receive a commission on any equity or long-term debt financing we may obtain during the term of the agreement or the twelve month period after the termination thereof from any source introduced to us by Mr. Willenberg or as a result of Mr. Willenberg's personal efforts. Mr. Willenberg's commission will equal 6% of the aggregate annual proceeds of such financings up to $2 million; 5% of the aggregate annual proceeds of such financings in excess of $2 million and up to $5 million; and 4% of the aggregate annual proceeds of such financings in excess of $5 million. Mr. Willenberg is also entitled to be paid a bonus equal to the amount, if any, paid as a bonus to our Chief Executive Officer in connection with the successful commercialization of our technologies. Mr. Willenberg will not be paid a fixed salary for his service under the employment agreement.

Under this employment agreement, we granted Mr. Willenberg the right of first refusal to purchase our equity interest in Top Secret Productions, LLC in case of a bona fide third-party offer to purchase that interest or our determination to offer that interest for sale at a specified price.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

BRAD KETCH. During our 2002 fiscal year we entered into several agreements with Brad Ketch, our current Chief Executive Officer. In March 2002, we entered into a one-year consulting arrangement with Mr. Ketch, in which we retained Mr. Ketch to provide consulting and advisory services with respect to our technology for transmitting high speed data over extended ranges of copper telephone wire. Pursuant to this consulting agreement, we agreed to pay Mr. Ketch $15,000 per month and granted him an option to purchase 50,000 shares of our Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.02 per share, exercisable upon grant. This option was among those cancelled in April 2005, as described below.

In July 2002, we entered into an employment agreement and a second stock option agreement with Mr. Ketch whereby he become our Chief Marketing Officer. This employment agreement, which was for a three year term, began on July 1, 2002, and provided for a base salary of $15,000 per month and an annual bonus to be paid at the discretion of the Board of Directors in either cash or stock. Pursuant to this employment agreement, we issued Mr. Ketch an option to purchase 405,000 shares of Common Stock, of which 105,000 vested on the date of grant and the remainder vested quarterly, beginning on May 31, 2003, in equal amounts of 37,500 shares, at an exercise price of $1.09 per share. This option was among those cancelled in April 2005, as described below.

This July 2002 employment agreement was replaced in December 2002, when we entered into a second employment agreement and third stock option agreement with Mr. Ketch, by which Mr. Ketch became our Chief Executive Officer. This agreement, which is for a three year term, provides for a base salary of $250,000 per year, an annual bonus to be paid at the discretion of the Board of Directors in either cash or stock, and a stock option grant of 1,500,000 shares. It will be automatically renewed for successive one-year terms unless earlier terminated pursuant to the terms of the agreement or with 60 days' notice prior to the end of a term. The stock options awarded to Mr. Ketch in connection with his employment as our Chief Executive Officer, which were to vest in 12 quarterly installments of 125,000 shares beginning on March 1, 2003 and were exercisable at $0.64 per share, were among those cancelled in April 2005, as described below.

In April 2005, we issued to Mr. Ketch 1,000,000 shares of Common Stock and an option to purchase 7,000,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $0.17 per share, which is equal to the closing price of the Common Stock on the Over the Counter Bulletin Board on the date of grant. 1,000,000 of the shares for which the option may be exercised vest upon our consummation of a capital financing from which we receive gross proceeds of at least $3.5 million and 6,000,000 of the shares for which the option may be exercised vest upon our release of a beta version of its semiconductor technologies. We consummated a capital financing from which we received gross proceeds of $3.5 million in May 2005. In consideration of this issuance of shares and options, options issued to Mr. Ketch in March, July and December 2002 to purchase an aggregate of 1,955,000 shares of Common Stock were cancelled.

RAY WILLENBERG, JR. In March 2005, we issued in favor of Ray Willenberg, Jr., our Executive Vice President, a convertible promissory note in the principal amount of $383,910.72 (the "Convertible Promissory Note"). The Convertible Promissory Note was issued in evidence of our obligation to Mr. Willenberg for deferred compensation. The Convertible Promissory Note is payable in monthly installments, on the first day of each month, beginning on April 1, 2005. Each month, we shall pay to Mr. Willenberg an amount not less than the monthly base salary paid to our Chief Executive Officer; provided, however, that if we determine in our sole discretion that we have the financial resources available therefor we shall pay Mr. Willenberg up to $20,833 per month. The Convertible Promissory Note does not bear interest. The Convertible Promissory Note is convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time and from time to time, into shares of Common Stock at a conversion price per share equal to the closing price of the Common Stock on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board on the date of conversion. Mr. Willenberg is entitled to require us to use our best efforts to include any shares of Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Convertible Promissory Note in any registration statement covering the sale of Common Stock that we may file, subject to certain limitations. Mr. Willenberg may, at his discretion, consider the Convertible Promissory Note immediately due and payable and may immediately enforce any and all of his rights under the Convertible Promissory Note or any other rights or remedies afforded by law, upon the occurrence of certain events specified in the Convertible Promissory Note.

On March 3, 2005, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Willenberg pursuant to which he continues to serve as our Executive Vice President for a term of three years commencing on March 23, 2005, subject to the earlier (i) the death or Disability (as defined in the employment agreement) of Mr. Willenberg; (ii) the termination of the agreement by either party without cause upon written notice; or (iii) termination of the agreement by us for Cause (as defined in the employment agreement).

Under this employment agreement, Mr. Willenberg is entitled to receive a commission on any equity or long-term debt financing we may obtain during the term of the agreement or the twelve month period after the termination thereof from any source introduced to us by Mr. Willenberg or as a result of Mr. Willenberg's personal efforts. Mr. Willenberg's commission will equal 6% of the aggregate annual proceeds of such financings up to $2 million; 5% of the aggregate annual proceeds of such financings in excess of $2 million and up to $5 million; and 4% of the aggregate annual proceeds of such financings in excess of $5 million. Mr. Willenberg is also entitled to be paid a bonus equal to the amount, if any, paid as a bonus to our Chief Executive Officer in connection with the successful commercialization of our technologies. Mr. Willenberg will not be paid a fixed salary for his service under the employment agreement.

Under this employment agreement, we granted Mr. Willenberg the right of first refusal to purchase our equity interest in Top Secret Productions, LLC in case of a bona fide third-party offer to purchase that interest or our determination to offer that interest for sale at a specified price.

In April 2005, we issued to Mr. Willenberg 1,000,000 shares of Common Stock and an option to purchase 7,000,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $0.17 per share, which is equal to the closing price of the Common Stock on the Over the Counter Bulletin Board on the date of grant. 1,000,000 of the shares for which the option may be exercised vest upon our consummation of a capital financing from which we receive gross proceeds of at least $3.5 million and 6,000,000 of the shares for which the option may be exercised vest upon our release of a beta version of its semiconductor technologies. We consummated a capital financing from which we received gross proceeds of $3.5 million in May 2005. In consideration of this issuance of shares and options, options previously issued to Mr. Willenberg to purchase an aggregate of 370,000 shares of Common Stock were cancelled.
