Dear Fellow CB Bancshares, Inc. Shareholder:

We, Central Pacific Financial Corp., or CPF, have offered to acquire all of the outstanding shares of the common stock (and associated share purchase rights) of CB Bancshares, Inc., or CBBI. We originally offered $21.00 in cash and 1.8956 shares of CPF common stock in exchange for each share of CBBI common stock, subject to certain conditions, which when adjusted for the effect of the 10% stock dividend CBBI announced on April 29, 2003, resulted in an offer $19.09 in cash and 1.7233 shares of CPF common stock. On May 4, CBBI's board of directors informed us that they had rejected our offer.

On May 9, 2003, we announced a new and enhanced offer, increasing the cash portion of our original offer. The terms of our new offer include $24.50 in cash and 1.7606 shares of CPF common stock in exchange for each share of CBBI common stock, subject to certain conditions, which when adjusted for the effect of the 10% stock dividend, would result in an offer of $22.27 in cash and 1.6005 shares of CPF common stock. On May 12, 2003, CBBI's board of directors informed us that they had rejected our new offer. If CBBI continues to refuse to negotiate with us, we intend to commence an exchange offer, as it may be amended from time to time, which we refer to as the proposed exchange offer. The detailed terms and conditions of the proposed exchange offer will be set forth in CPF's prospectus, which will be separately mailed to CBBI shareholders in the future.

Pursuant to the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute, CBBI called a special meeting for May 28, 2003 in response to an information statement we submitted to them in connection with our original offer, which we rescinded, revoked and withdrew on May 9, 2003. We asked CBBI to cancel the May 28, 2003 special meeting in order to allow all shareholders adequate time to review proxy materials. They refused.

We submitted a new information statement to CBBI on May 13, 2003, pursuant to which we are seeking shareholder approval for our acquisition of CBBI common stock by means of our proposed exchange offer or otherwise. As a result, shareholders owning approximately 30% of CBBI common stock have called a special meeting for June 26, 2003, the purpose of which is to allow CBBI shareholders to vote on our proposal to acquire CBBI common stock pursuant to our proposed exchange offer or otherwise, as described in our new information statement. This special meeting will be held on Thursday, June 26, 2003, at 11:00 a.m. at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, Honolulu, Hawaii. Proxy materials describing what shareholders will be asked to vote upon at the June 26, 2003 special meeting will be separately mailed to CBBI shareholders in the near future.

At the May 28, 2003 special meeting, CBBI is asking you to vote against a proposal to approve our acquisition of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of CBBI common stock pursuant to an exchange offer, the terms of which are set forth in Amendment No. 2 to our registration statement on Form S-4, as filed on May 9, 2003, as the same may be amended. This is not the proposal we want you to vote on. As set forth in our new information statement, we want your vote on a proposal to acquire at least a majority and up to 100% of the outstanding shares of CBBI common stock pursuant to our proposed exchange offer or otherwise. After receiving our new information statement, CBBI revised the proposal to be voted upon at the May 28, 2003 special meeting and, we believe, has done so incorrectly under Hawaii law.

CBBI has sent out requests for proxies for the May 28, 2003 special meeting. We urge you to boycott the May 28, 2003 special meeting and to revoke any proxy you may already have given CBBI in order to prevent the presence of a quorum for the May 28 special meeting. A quorum must be present in order for shareholders to transact business at a meeting. We urge you to boycott the meeting on May 28, 2003. Send the board of directors of CBBI a message that you want to consider our proposed control share acquisition at the June 26, 2003 special meeting.

DO NOT SIGN ANY PROXIES FOR THE MAY 28, 2003 SPECIAL MEETING, INCLUDING THE WHITE PROXY CARD SENT TO YOU BY CBBI. REFUSE TO VOTE AT A MEETING FOR WHICH SHAREHOLDERS WILL NOT HAVE HAD ADEQUATE TIME TO RECEIVE AND REVIEW PROXY MATERIALS AND CAST A VOTE, AND AT WHICH WE BELIEVE AN INCORRECT VERSION OF OUR PROPOSAL WILL BE CONSIDERED. IF YOU HAVE SIGNED ANY PROXY, YOU HAVE THE POWER TO REVOKE ANY SUCH PROXY PRIOR TO THE MAY 28, 2003 SPECIAL MEETING.

THIS PROXY REVOCATION STATEMENT ONLY RELATES TO THE MAY 28, 2003 SPECIAL MEETING.

If you have any questions concerning the enclosed proxy revocation statement, please contact our Information Agent, MacKenzie Partners, toll free at (800) 322-2885. We thank you in advance for your support.

Sincerely,

Clint Arnoldus
Chairman President and CEO
Central Pacific Financial Corp.

THIS PROXY REVOCATION STATEMENT RELATES SOLELY TO THE SOLICITATION OF REVOCATIONS OF PROXIES WITH RESPECT TO THE MAY 28, 2003 SPECIAL MEETING AND IS NEITHER A REQUEST FOR THE TENDER OF SHARES OF CBBI COMMON STOCK NOR AN OFFER OF SHARES OF CPF COMMON STOCK. THE PROPOSED EXCHANGE OFFER WILL BE MADE ONLY BY MEANS OF A PROSPECTUS AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL WHICH WILL BE SEPARATELY MAILED TO CBBI SHAREHOLDERS IN THE FUTURE.

THIS PROXY REVOCATION STATEMENT IS PROVIDED BY CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP. AND NOT BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF CBBI.

This proxy revocation statement and the enclosed GOLD revocation of proxy card are first being sent or given to shareholders of CBBI on or about May 22, 2003.

VOTING AT THE MAY 28, 2003 SPECIAL MEETING

Proposal to be Considered

At the May 28, 2003 special meeting to be held at the Dole Cannery, Second Floor, Lanai Ballroom, 735 Iwilei Road, Honolulu, Hawaii, at 8:00 a.m. Hawaii Standard Time, CBBI is asking you to vote against a proposal to approve our acquisition of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of CBBI common stock pursuant to an exchange offer, the terms of which are set forth in Amendment No. 2 to our registration statement on Form S-4, as filed on May 9, 2003, as the same may be amended.

THIS IS NOT THE PROPOSAL WE WANT YOU TO VOTE ON

As set forth in our new information statement, we want your vote on a proposal to acquire at least a majority and up to 100% of the outstanding shares of CBBI common stock pursuant to our proposed exchange offer or otherwise. When we delivered our new information statement to CBBI, CBBI unilaterally revised the proposal to be voted on at the May 28, 2003 special meeting. However, CBBI's revised proposal describes a proposed control share acquisition that is narrower than the proposed control share acquisition we set forth in our new information statement. CBBI has narrowed the control share acquisition for which we are seeking your approval. We urge you to boycott the meeting on May 28, 2003 don't vote on their version of our proposal.

Based on our analysis of Hawaii law, we believe that under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute, our May 13, 2003 information statement represents a new offer and sets forth new terms for a proposed control share acquisition, and that we, acting as a shareholder and an agent for a small number of shareholders of CBBI, properly called for a special meeting under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute so that shareholders could determine whether to approve the proposed control share acquisition set forth in our new information statement. The purpose of a meeting held under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute is to determine whether a majority of the shares entitled to vote approve the proposed control share acquisition described by an acquiring person in its information statement. Section 414E-2(d) of the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute provides, in relevant part, that within 5 days after the receipt of an information statement delivered to the company by an acquiring person, a special meeting shall be called pursuant to Section 414-122 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act. Section 414-122 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act provides, in relevant part that: A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders: (1) On call of its board of directors or the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or (2) If the holders of at least ten per cent of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to the corporation's secretary one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held. CBBI's bylaws permit shareholders owning not less than 25% of the issued and outstanding stock to call a new special meeting. On May 13, 2003, we delivered our new information statement and called for a special meeting, acting as a shareholder and as an agent for a small number of shareholders of CBBI, for the specific purpose of considering a proposal consistent with our information statement, a proposal to acquire at least a majority and up to 100% of the outstanding shares of CBBI common stock pursuant to our proposed exchange offer or otherwise. The meeting was called pursuant to Section 414E-2(d) of the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute and Section 414-122 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act. We believe that CBBI is asking shareholders to vote on May 28, 2003 on a proposal that is inconsistent with the proposed control share acquisition we described in our May 13, 2003 information statement and improperly limits the means by which we may acquire shares of CBBI common stock.

Vote Required

A quorum will exist at the May 28, 2003 special meeting if holders of a majority of the shares of CBBI common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the May 28, 2003 special meeting are present in person or by proxy. If a quorum is present, the proposal to be considered will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to vote. Consequently, shares that are not voted in favor of the proposal to be considered will have the same effect as a "NO" vote. Under Hawaii law, however, shares that we beneficially own will not be included in determining whether a majority of the voting power has approved the proposal to be considered. We have acknowledged, for the purposes of a vote on our proposed control share acquisition only, beneficial ownership of 295,587 shares owned by TON Finance over which we currently have voting power pursuant to a voting agreement. In addition, we have released TON Finance, B.V. from all voting obligations under the voting agreement insofar as such obligations relate to proposed control share acquisitions pursuant to the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute.

Method of Counting Votes

The holders of a majority of the shares of CBBI common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the May 28, 2003 special meeting must be represented in person or by proxy in order to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists. After a quorum is determined to exist at the special meeting, abstentions or broker non-votes with respect to the proposal to be considered will have the same effect as a "no" vote. Broker non-votes occur when brokers do not receive voting instructions from their customers on non-routine matters and consequently have no discretion to vote on those matters.

WE STRONGLY RECOMMEND THAT YOU DO NOT SEND IN ANY PROXIES FOR THE MAY 28, 2003 SPECIAL MEETING, INCLUDING THE WHITE PROXY CARD YOU RECEIVED FROM CBBI. IF YOU HAVE SIGNED ANY PROXY, YOU HAVE THE POWER TO REVOKE ANY SUCH PROXY PRIOR TO THE MAY 28, 2003 SPECIAL MEETING. SEND A MESSAGE TO YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS THAT YOU WOULD LIKE TO BE ABLE TO CONSIDER OUR CONTROL SHARE ACQUISITION PROPOSAL AT THE JUNE 26, 2003 SPECIAL MEETING. LET THEM KNOW THAT YOU WANT TO PARTICIPATE IN A MEETING FOR WHICH ALL SHAREHOLDERS WILL HAVE RECEIVED ALL RELEVANT PROXY MATERIALS SUFFICIENTLY IN ADVANCE OF THE MEETING SO ALL SHAREHOLDERS CAN PARTICIPATE.

Revocability of Revocation of Proxy

Edgar Filing: CB BANCSHARES INC/HI - Form DEFC14A

Similar to the proxies that we are asking you to revoke, a revocation of proxy may be revoked by voting in person at the special meeting, although attendance at the special meeting will not in and of itself revoke a proxy or revoke a revocation of a proxy. A revocation of proxy may be revoked at any time prior to the casting of votes at the special meeting by delivering a written notice of revocation of proxy or later dated proxy for the special meeting to CB Bancshares Inc. c/o Innisfree M&A Incorporated; 501 Madison Avenue; 20th Floor, New York, New York 10022.

No Dissenters' Rights

Dissenters' rights are not available to the shareholders of an "issuing public corporation" in connection with the approval of a "control share acquisition" under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute.

3

REVOKING YOUR PROXY

DO NOT SEND IN THE WHITE PROXY!

IF YOU HAVE SENT IN THE WHITE PROXY YOU CAN REVOKE IT.

CBBI has sent out requests for proxies for the May 28, 2003 special meeting. We urge you to boycott the May 28, 2003 special meeting and to revoke any proxy you may already have given CBBI in order to prevent the presence of a quorum for May 28, 2003 special meeting. A quorum must be present in order for shareholders to take action at a meeting. Send the board of directors of CBBI a message that you want to consider our proposed control share acquisition at the June 26, 2003 special meeting. Refuse to vote at a meeting for which shareholders will not have had sufficient time to receive and review proxy materials and cast a vote, and at which a revised version of our proposal inconsistent with our new information statement will be considered.

Do not sign any proxies for the May 28, 2003 special meeting, including the WHITE proxy card sent to you by CBBI. If you have signed any proxy, you have the power to revoke any such proxy prior to the May 28, 2003 special meeting by filing a revocation with CBBI. If you have signed any proxy we urge you to immediately revoke the same by writing a letter to CBBI at:

CB Bancshares, Inc.
c/o Innisfree M&A Incorporated
501 Madison Avenue
20th Floor, New York, New York 10022.

If your stock is in the name of your stock broker, we urge you to immediately notify your broker not to sign any proxy and if a proxy has been signed, to immediately revoke the same.

If your shares are registered in more than one name, the revocation card must be signed by all such persons to ensure that the proxy is properly revoked and will not be used at the May 28, 2003 special meeting.

We have included a "Revocation of Proxy" with this document. Once completed, you can forward this document via facsimile to MacKenzie Partners, Inc. at (212) 929-0308, and we will see that it is forwarded to CBBI.

If you deliver a revocation of a proxy to CBBI, please also send or fax a copy of such notice of revocation to:

Central Pacific Financial Corp.
c/o MacKenzie Partners, Inc.
105 Madison Avenue
New York, New York 10016
Fax: (212) 929-0308

It is important you inform us if you notified CBBI to revoke your proxy so we can make certain your proxy will not be used at the May 28, 2003 special meeting.

Prevent the presence of a quorum at the May 28, 2003 special meeting. Send CBBI a message that you want to participate in a meeting that all your fellow shareholders will have a meaningful opportunity to participate in as well.

Please read this proxy revocation statement carefully and make certain to follow the suggestions.

As soon as possible, we intend to again communicate with you and would appreciate any comments you care to make on the foregoing.

If you have questions about voting your shares of CBBI or the proposal related to our new offer, please call MacKenzie Partners, Inc., toll free at (800) 322-2885 or collect at (212) 929-5500.

On May 17, 2003, we sent a letter to the shareholders of CBBI requesting them to boycott and to withhold their votes from the May 28, 2003 special meeting.

The full text of the CPF letter is as follows:

[CPF LETTERHEAD]

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP. (CPF)

SEND CB BANCSHARES (CBBI) THE MESSAGE THAT YOU WANT TO MAKE YOUR OWN INVESTMENT DECISIONS!

PLEASE DON'T RETURN ANY PROXY UNTIL YOU RECEIVE
OUR BLUE PROXY CARD FOR THE JUNE 26, 2003 SPECIAL MEETING

May 19, 2003

Dear Fellow CB Bancshares Shareholder:

On May 9, 2003, CPF announced a new and enhanced offer to merge with CB Bancshares (CBBI), increasing the cash portion of our original proposal. You deserve an opportunity to decide whether to accept CPF's offer of $73.23 per share (based on the May 16 closing price of shares of CPF common stock) for your shares of CB Bancshares stock.

We think our new offer is good for you so we're asking you to do two things:

- 1. *Vote YES at the June 26 shareholder meeting called by your fellow shareholders.
- 2. *Don't vote at all in the May 28 shareholder meeting held by CBBI management.

WHY OUR NEW OFFER IS GOOD FOR YOU

CPF's new offer maximizes shareholder value with:

A 50-plus percent premium to the price at which CBBI common stock was trading before we began buying CBBI shares

A 220 percent increase in dividends per share

A cash component of $24.50 per share (before the effect of the stock dividend CB Bancshares declared on April 29, 2003; after the effect of the stock dividend, the cash component is $22.27 per share).

The opportunity to elect as much of your consideration as possible in either cash or CPF common stock, subject to proration.

Ownership of a stock in a company with a proven track record of creating shareholder value.

And it's an offer that's good for customers, employees, and Hawaii itself which your own bank's management admitted just a few years ago!

WHY VOTE YES AT THE JUNE 26 MEETING?

The purpose of the meeting on June 26 is for CBBI shareholders to vote on CPF's proposal to acquire at least a majority and up to 100% of CBBI common stock by means of the proposed exchange offer or otherwise. Approval of this acquisition would remove one important obstacle to CPF's ability to proceed with its proposed exchange offer.

The meeting will be held on Thursday, June 26 at 11:00 a.m. at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, Honolulu, Hawaii. This is the only meeting with a real proposal before you and the only meeting called by your fellow shareholders.

WHY WITHHOLD YOUR VOTE FROM THE MAY 28 MEETING?

Holding a meeting on May 28 simply doesn't allow enough time for you and your fellow shareholders to receive, review, and return proxy materials related to CPF's proposed acquisition of CBBI common stock.

Many shareholders may not be able to vote at all if you have received the means to vote, don't.

You and you alone, the owners of CBBI have the right to determine if our offer is in your best interests.

Protect your rights by boycotting the May 28 meeting and voting at the June 26 meeting.

CBBI needs to have a certain number of shareholders represented on May 28 to hold their meeting.

Send them a powerful message by denying them your presence.

Soon, we will mail proxy materials to you, describing our new offer and what you will be asked to vote upon at the June 26 shareholder meeting.

PLEASE WAIT TO RECEIVE
OUR PROXY MATERIALS AND OUR BLUE PROXY CARD

PLEASE DESTROY ANY PROXY CARDS YOU RECEIVE FOR THE MAY 28 MEETING

VOTE YES AT THE JUNE 26 MEETING TO SEND A MESSAGE TO THE CBBI BOARD THAT YOU WANT THE OPPORTUNITY TO CONSIDER OUR OFFER YOURSELF

Edgar Filing: CB BANCSHARES INC/HI - Form DEFC14A

Once you've reviewed our materials for the June 26 meeting, we believe that you, too, will recognize the merits of creating a stronger, locally run, Hawaii-focused bank and will want the opportunity to realize the value of our offer yourself.

If you have any questions or concerns, we encourage you to call our proxy solicitors, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., toll-free at (800) 322-2885.

THE PROPOSED EXCHANGE OFFER

The following is a brief summary of the terms and conditions of our proposed exchange offer.

Pursuant to our proposed exchange offer, we intend to exchange each share of CBBI common stock for $24.50 in cash and 1.7606 shares of our common stock, before reflecting the effect of the 10% stock dividend CBBI recently announced. After adjusting for the announced stock dividend, the consideration is equivalent to $22.27 in cash and 1.6005 shares of our common stock for each CBBI share. Under the terms of the proposed exchange offer, you may elect to receive cash, shares of our common stock or a combination of cash and shares of our common stock in exchange for your shares of CBBI common stock. If you elect to receive the maximum amount of cash or the maximum amount of stock, your election may be subject to proration. Regardless of the type of consideration you elect to receive, the value of the cash, stock, or cash and stock, that you receive will equal the per share consideration, which is determined by adding $22.27 to the product of 1.6005 and the average closing price of our common stock over a 20-day period ending one trading day prior to the close of the proposed exchange offer.

Consummation of our proposed exchange offer is subject to a number of conditions, some of which may be waived by us, including, but not limited to, the following: the receipt of all applicable regulatory approvals required to consummate our proposed exchange offer, including the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting periods; and the redemption of CBBI's Rights Agreement or the Rights Agreement having been found inapplicable or illegal.

We believe that the exchange of shares of CBBI common stock for CPF shares of common stock pursuant to the proposed exchange offer will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. If the transaction so qualifies, holders of shares of CBBI common stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes on the exchange of their shares of CBBI common stock for CPF common stock in the proposed exchange offer except for any gain or loss attributable to the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of CPF common stock. However, with respect to the cash portion of the proposed exchange offer (including any cash received in lieu of fractional shares), CBBI shareholders generally will recognize gain in an amount equal to the lesser of the total amount of cash received or the amount of gain realized on the exchange. Any gain recognized may be treated as a dividend or capital gain, depending on your circumstances. The treatment of the proposed exchange offer as component part of an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization for tax purposes is based in part on certain factual assumptions, but there can be no assurance at the present time that such factual assumptions will in fact be satisfied.

You are urged to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences to you of the proposed exchange offer including the applicable federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences.

RECENT EVENTS

On May 14, 2003, we filed in the Circuit Court for the State of Hawaii a motion for a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction to prevent CBBI from soliciting proxies for the May 28 special meeting and holding a shareholders' meeting on May 28, 2003. We believe that not all shareholders will have sufficient time to review proxy materials and vote at a meeting held as soon as May 28. On May 16, 2003, the court denied our motion for a temporary restraining order to prevent CBBI's solicitation of proxies for the May 28, 2003 meeting and set a hearing for May 22, 2003, to determine whether it would issue a preliminary injunction preventing CBBI from holding the May 28, 2003 special meeting. On May 20, 2003, however, we filed a Notice of Withdrawal and withdrew without prejudice our motion for a preliminary injunction. However, the underlying complaint has not been dismissed and the court has retained jurisdiction over the matter. In addition, we expressly reserve the right to challenge the legality and enforceability of any action taken at the May 28, 2003 special meeting.

On May 19, 2003, we received a letter from Ms. Ronald K. Migita, Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of CBBI, purporting to deny the validity of the June 26, 2003 meeting. On May 20, 2003, we sent a letter denying the basis for CBBI's claims of invalidity with respect to the June 26, 2003 meeting.

On May 20, 2003, CBBI filed an answer to our complaint and a cross-complaint against us alleging that our voting agreement with TON Finance, B.V. violates the Hawaii Control Share Acquisition statute and that Hawaii Control Share Acquisition statute sets forth the exclusive means to call a shareholder meeting. We plan to vigorously defend CBBI's cross-complaint to ensure that the rights of CBBI shareholders are protected and to use best efforts to hold the June 26, 2003 special meeting. If the June 26, 2003 special meeting does not occur, we intend to call for a new meeting at a later date so that shareholders can consider our proposed exchange offer.

We believe that the June 26, 2003 meeting should proceed unless the shareholders who called it rescind their call. First, there is no assurance that a quorum will be present at the May 28, 2003 meeting. We are soliciting shareholders not to attend the May 28, 2003 meeting either in person or by proxy. Second, if a quorum is present for the conduct of business, the outcome of any vote cannot be predicted. Third, we believe that the May 28, 2003 meeting was intended to impede a knowing and intelligent vote by shareholders of CBBI and will in fact deprive the shareholders of a full and fair opportunity to consider the terms of the proposed control share acquisition contained in the May 13, 2003 information statement. Finally, the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute does not preclude more than one meeting to be called to consider a control share acquisition proposal.

SOLICITATION OF REVOCATION OF PROXIES

Revocation of proxies may be solicited by mail, telephone, telecopier and in person. Solicitations may be made by our directors, officers, investor relations personnel and other employees, none of whom will receive additional compensation for such solicitations. We have requested banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward all of our solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of shares of CBBI common stock they hold of record. We will reimburse these record holders for customary clerical and mailing expenses incurred by them in forwarding these materials to their customers.

We have retained MacKenzie Partners, Inc. for solicitation and advisory services in connection with this solicitation. MacKenzie Partners will be paid an aggregate fee of approximately $150,000 for acting as solicitor in connection with this proxy revocation statement and as Information Agent in connection with the proposed exchange offer. MacKenzie Partners may also receive additional reasonable and customary compensation for providing additional advisory services in connection with this solicitation. We have also agreed to reimburse MacKenzie Partners for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify MacKenzie Partners against certain liabilities and expenses, including liabilities and expenses under U.S. federal securities laws. MacKenzie Partners will solicit proxies from individuals, brokers, banks, bank nominees and other institutional holders.

We have also retained Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., or Bear Stearns, to act as our financial advisor in connection with the proposed exchange offer and the proposed merger. Bear Stearns will receive reasonable and customary compensation for these services and will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses, including reasonable expenses of counsel and other advisors. In addition, we have agreed to indemnify Bear Stearns and certain related persons against certain liabilities, including various liabilities and expenses under the U.S. federal securities laws. In connection with Bear Stearns' engagement as financial advisor, we anticipate that certain employees of Bear Stearns may communicate in person, by telephone or otherwise with a limited number of institutions, brokers or other persons who are CBBI shareholders for the purpose of assisting in the solicitation of proxies for the Special Meeting. Bear Stearns will not receive any fee for or in connection with such solicitation activities apart from the fees that it is otherwise entitled to receive as described above.

The entire expense of soliciting revocation of proxies for the special meeting is being borne by us. We will not seek reimbursement for such expenses from CBBI. Costs incidental to this solicitation include expenditures for printing, postage, legal and related expenses and are expected to be approximately $75,000. Total costs incurred to date in furtherance of or in connection with this solicitation are approximately $25,000.

If we should commence, or materially amend the terms of, the proposed exchange offer prior to the special meeting, we will disseminate information regarding such changes to CBBI shareholders and, in appropriate circumstances, will provide CBBI shareholders with a reasonable opportunity, as possible, to revoke their revocation of proxies prior to the special meeting.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Based on publicly available documents, in order for a shareholder proposal made pursuant to Rule 14a-8 to be eligible to be included in CBBI's proxy statement and form of proxy for its 2004 annual meeting of shareholders, such proposal must be received by CBBI no later than November 14, 2003. Proposals must be submitted in writing and sent to the Secretary of CBBI at CB Bancshares, Inc., 201 Merchant Street, Honolulu, Hawaii 96813.

A shareholder who intends to present a proposal at CBBI's annual meeting in 2004, other than pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, must provide CBBI notice of such proposal no later than January 28, 2004, or management of CBBI will have the discretionary voting authority at the 2004 annual meeting with respect to any such proposal without providing any advice on the nature of such proposal in CBBI's annual meeting proxy statement.

OTHER REPRESENTATIVES OF CPF WHO MAY ALSO SOLICIT THE REVOCATION OF PROXIES

Although Bear Stearns does not admit that it or any of its directors, officers, employees or affiliates are a "participant" as defined in Schedule 14A promulgated by the SEC under the Exchange Act, or that Schedule 14A requires that disclosure of certain information concerning them, employees of Bear Stearns may communicate with CBBi's shareholders in a manner that could involve or be deemed to be assisting CPF in soliciting the revocation of proxies from CBBi's shareholders.

SCHEDULE II

SHARES OF CBBI COMMON STOCK OWNED BY CPF, ITS DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS, AND BY OTHERS WHO MAY SOLICIT THE REVOCATION OF PROXIES

On the date hereof, CPF beneficially owns for its own account 88,741 shares of CBBI common stock. In addition, officers and directors of CPF own 1,437 shares of CBBI common stock. To the best of our knowledge, no other officers or directors own shares of CBBI common stock or have interests in CBBI.

The table below sets forth the shares of CBBI common stock purchased by CPF since February 26, 2003.

Bear Stearns engages in a full range of investment banking, securities trading, market-making and brokerage services for institutional and individual clients. In the ordinary course of its brokerage business Bear Stearns trades securities of CBBI and has engaged in numerous transactions for its own account and for the accounts of its customers during the past two years. The total number of such transactions during this period was approximately 1,478. Accordingly, it is impracticable to list each such transaction. As of May 20, 2003, Bear Stearns and its affiliates were the holders of record of 251,818 shares of CBBI common stock, of which 0 shares of CBBI common stock were held for its own account and 251,818 shares of CBBI common stock were held for customer accounts.

Except as disclosed above and in this proxy revocation statement, neither CPF, its directors, its executive officers nor any of the other persons named in Schedule I above, (i) is the beneficial or record owner of any securities of CBBI or (ii) has purchased or sold any securities of CBBI within the past two years, borrowed any funds for the purpose of acquiring or holding any securities of CBBI, or is or was within the past year a party to any contract, arrangement or understanding with any person with respect to any securities of CBBI.

On April 16, 2003, we entered into a voting agreement with TON Finance, B.V., or TON, pursuant to which TON agreed to vote 295,587 shares of its CBBI common stock in favor of the CBBI merger, and other proposals having the intended effect of facilitating such transaction, at any CBBI shareholders' meeting considering or in connection with the solicitation of consents from CBBI shareholders for approval of such transaction. Such shares, when added to the shares we own, represent slightly less than 9.9% of CBBI's outstanding shares. TON has agreed to vote the remaining 52,677 of its CBBI shares in favor of the CBBI merger only after any required shareholder approval under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute, but until such time, TON retains the right to vote these shares in its discretion. On April 25, 2003, we filed a Schedule 13D, as amended on May 5, 2003, and May 20, 2003, which describes the voting agreement. CPF has acknowledged, for the purposes of a vote on its proposed control share acquisition, beneficial ownership of 295,587 shares owned by TON over which it currently has voting power pursuant to a voting agreement. In addition, CPF has released TON from all voting obligations under the voting agreement insofar as such obligations relate to any proposed control share acquisitions pursuant to the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute.

Except as disclosed above, there have not been any transactions between CBBI and CPF or any of the other persons named in Schedule I above since the beginning of CBBI's last fiscal year and, other than the proposed acquisition of CBBI described in this document, none of CPF or any of such other persons, or any associate of the foregoing persons or any other person who may be deemed a "participant" in this proxy revocation solicitation has any arrangement or understanding with any person with respect to any future employment by CBBI or its affiliates, or with respect to any future transactions to which CBBI or its affiliates will or may be a party.

SCHEDULE III

BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF SHARES OF CBBI COMMON STOCK

Set forth below is information regarding shares of CBBI common stock owned by (i) those persons owning more than 5% of the outstanding shares of CBBI common stock, (ii) directors and executive officers of CBBI and (iii) directors and executive officers as a group. Such information regarding greater than 5% holders is derived from CBBI's Definitive Proxy Statement for its 2003 Annual Meeting and subsequent filings on Schedule 13D and Schedule 13G, as described in the footnotes below. Such information regarding directors and executive officers is derived from CBBI's Definitive Proxy Statement filed on May 19, 2003. All percentages regarding greater than 5% holders are based on the information in CBBI's Definitive Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on March 12, 2003 for its 2003 Annual Meeting ("2003 Annual Meeting Proxy Statement"), which reflects that, as of March 4, 2003, there were 3,902,309 shares of CBBI common stock outstanding. All percentages regarding directors and executive officers are derived from CBBI's Definitive Proxy Statement filed on May 19, 2003, which reflects that, as of May 5, 2003, there were 3,919,388 shares of CBBI common stock outstanding.
