position and we believe our financial resources continue to permit the payment of dividends while meeting our other financial requirements. We want our shareholders to participate directly in our financial success by sharing our profits with them".

He further stated: "Bonso's dividend policy remains contingent on performance. This combination of performance and financial stability puts us in position to continue our planned growth and earnings for the future. Thanks to the hard work and efforts of our management team, we are preparing to execute on some new and exciting initiatives in this fiscal year. Among these are the expansions of our branded product offerings and increased marketing and sales initiatives in our OEM sales channels."

On July 11, 2005 Bonso reported a year-end earnings increase of 48% over last year, while revenues were down 7.2% over the prior comparable fiscal period.

Based on the closing price on July 15, 2005 ($5.67 per share), the forthcoming dividend would represent an annual yield of approximately 1.76%.
