Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders

To be Held on December 29, 2005

Dear Shareholder:

We are pleased to invite you to attend our Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Idaho General Mines, Inc., which will be held at 1:30 PM, local Spokane time on December 29, 2005, at 10 North Post Street, Suite 610, Spokane, Washington. The primary business of the meeting will be to:

Elect seven (7) members to the Board of Directors for a one year term or until their respective successors are elected and qualified;

Transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Only Shareholders of record on the books of the Company at the close of business on November 17, 2005, the record date fixed by the Board of Directors, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and at any postponements or adjournments thereof.

It is important that your shares be represented at the meeting whether or not you are personally able to attend. You are therefore urged to complete, date and sign the accompanying Proxy and mail it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as promptly as possible. Your Proxy is revocable, either in writing or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting, at any time prior to its exercise. Thank you for your timely response.

We look forward to seeing you at the Shareholders Meeting on December 29, 2005.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Russell

President and Chairman

Idaho General Mines, Inc.

Spokane, Washington 99201

PROXY STATEMENT

Relating to
Annual Meeting of Shareholders
To be held on December 29, 2005

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is being furnished by the Board of Directors of Idaho General Mines, Inc., (the "Company") to holders of shares of the Company's $0.001 par value Common Stock (the "Common Stock") in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held on December 29, 2005, and any postponements or adjournments thereof (the "Annual Meeting"), for purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This Proxy Statement is first being mailed to the Shareholders on or about December 5, 2005.

Management is the record and beneficial owner of 3,437,276 shares (approximately 22.04%) of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. It is management's intention to vote all of its shares in favor of each matter to be considered by the Shareholders.

PURPOSE OF THE ANNUAL MEETING

Election of Directors

At the Annual Meeting, shareholders entitled to vote will be asked to consider and take action on the election of seven directors to the Company's Board of Directors, each to serve for a one year term or until their respective successors are elected and qualified.

Other Business

To transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any postponements or adjournments thereof.

As your vote is important, it is required that you complete and sign the enclosed proxy card and mail it promptly in the posted return envelope provided. Shares cannot be voted at the meeting unless the owner is present to vote or is represented by Proxy.

VOTING AT ANNUAL MEETING

1.

Record Date. The Board of Directors of the Company has fixed the close of business on November 17, 2005 as the record date for the purpose of determining Shareholders of the Company entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on that date, the Company had 15,606,893 issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock. A majority of such shares will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Proxies that are submitted but are not voted for or against (whether by abstentions, broker nonvotes, or otherwise) will be treated as present for all matters considered at the meeting.

2.

Solicitation of Proxies. The accompanying Proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company and the cost of solicitation will be borne by the Company. Following the original mailing of the Proxies and soliciting materials, directors, officers and employees of the Company may, but do not presently intend to, solicit Proxies by mail, telephone, telegraph, or personal interviews. The Company may request brokers, custodians, nominees, and other record holders to forward copies of the Proxies and soliciting materials to persons for whom they hold shares of the Company and to request authority for the exercise of Proxies. In such cases the Company will reimburse such holders for their reasonable expenses. The Company intends to utilize the services of Columbia Transfer Company, to assist in proxy solicitation.

3.

Revocation of Proxy. Any Proxy delivered in the accompanying form may be revoked by the person executing the Proxy by written notice to that effect received by the Secretary of the Company at any time before the authority thereby granted is exercised, by execution of a Proxy bearing a later date presented at the meeting or by attendance of such person at the Annual Meeting.

4.

How Proxies will be Voted. Proxies received by the Board of Directors in the accompanying form will be voted at the Annual Meeting as specified therein by the person giving the Proxy. If no specification is made with respect to the matters to be voted upon at the meeting, the shares represented by such Proxy will be voted FOR the nominees to the Board of Directors in the election of Directors. All shares represented by valid Proxy will be voted at the discretion of the proxy holders on any other matters that may properly come before the meeting. However, the Board of Directors does not know of any matters to be considered at the meeting other than those specified in the Notice of Meeting.

5.

Voting Power. Shareholders of the Common Stock of the Company are entitled to one vote for each share held. There is no cumulative voting for directors.

There are no arrangements known to the Company, the operation of which may at a subsequent time result in the change of control of the Company.

7.

Required Approvals. By unanimous consent the Board of Directors of the Company has adopted resolutions (1) to nominate Robert L. Russell, , John B. Benjamin, Norman A. Radford, Gene W. Pierson, R. David Russell, Richard Nanna, and R. Llee Chapman to the board of directors of the Company to serve for a one-year term or until their respective successors are elected and have qualified; and (2) recommending that the Company s Shareholders vote to approve the slate of nominees to the Board of Directors submitted to the Shareholders for consideration at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of the Common Stock meeting at which a quorum is present. Plurality means that the individuals who receive the largest number of votes cast are elected as Directors up to the maximum number of Directors to be chosen at the meeting. Consequently, any shares not voted (whether by abstentions, broker nonvotes or otherwise) have no impact in the election of Directors, except to the extent the failure to vote for an individual results in another individual receiving a larger number of votes. The election of Directors will be accomplished by determining the seven (7) nominees receiving the highest total votes.

Dissenters Rights. There are no dissenters rights applicable to any matters to be considered at the Annual Meeting.

Appointment of Auditors

The Audit Committee has appointed the firm of Williams & Webster as the Corporation's independent auditors for fiscal year 2004. Williams & Webster served as the Corporation's independent auditors since 2004. Representatives of Williams & Webster are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting with the opportunity to make statements and respond to appropriate questions from shareholders present at the meeting. Under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Audit Committee has the sole authority to appoint the independent auditors for the Corporation. Therefore, the Corporation is not submitting the selection of Williams & Webster to our shareholders for ratification.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditors

The Audit Committee is responsible for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditors. The Audit Committee has established a policy regarding pre-approval of all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditors. On an ongoing basis, management communicates specific projects and categories of services for which advance approval of the Audit Committee is requested. The Audit Committee reviews these requests and advises management if the Audit Committee approves the engagement of the independent auditors for specific projects. On a periodic basis, management reports to the Audit Committee regarding the actual spending for such projects and services compared to the approved amounts. The Audit Committee may also delegate the ability to pre-approve audit and permitted non-audit services to a subcommittee consisting of one or more Audit Committee members, provided that any such pre-approvals are reported on at a subsequent Audit Committee meeting.

Director Compensation

During 2004 the Directors received an attendance fee of 5,000 shares of common stock for each directors meeting attended for a total of 75,000 restricted shares were granted in 2004. On January 1, 2005 this compensation was changed so that each Director would receive a payment of $1,500.00 each quarter and each committee chairman would receive an additional $250.00 each quarter. Directors also receive reimbursement for out of pocket costs incurred relating to attendance at directors' meetings. The only arrangements that we have, standard or otherwise, pursuant to which directors are compensated by us for their services in their capacity as directors, or for committee participation, involvement in special assignments or for services as consultant or expert during the most recently completed financial year or subsequently, are the issuance of stock options. Since the end of the most recently completed financial year, we have not issued any incentive stock options to any of our directors.
