Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Election of Directors

Effective January 10, 2006, the directors of Tri-Valley Corporation appointed G. Thomas Gamble, age 44, as director, filling a vacancy on the board of directors left by the resignation of Harold Noyes. Mr. Gamble will serve the unexpired one year term of Dr. Noyes and until the next annual meeting of shareholders.

Since 1986, Mr. Gamble has been self-employed as a successful farmer and investor, with current investments in agriculture, food processing, educational services, oil, gas and minerals. He has received a Bachelor of Arts degree from UCLA.

In 2003, the California State Senate proclaimed privately owned Davies and Gamble, which produces critically acclaimed wines in California's Napa Valley, its Green Entrepreneur of The Year. In 2005, Mozzarella Fresca, the nation's premier producer of fresh Italian cheeses, of which Mr. Gamble is a director and original investor, received the Certificate of Special Congressional Recognition as business of the year. He is also a director and original investor in Boston Reed College which provides educational opportunities to busy adults seeking stable and growing careers in the California health care industry.

Our board of directors has determined that Mr. Gamble is an independent director. There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Gamble and any other person regarding his appointment to or service on our board of directors.

Mr. Gamble is Tri-Valley's largest common stockholder. He currently owns 1,450,000 shares (6.35%) of Tri-Valley's outstanding common stock, including 33,333 shares issuable on the exercise of outstanding warrants. Since January 1, 2004, Mr. Gamble has purchased securities options from Tri-Valley in a series of privately negotiated transactions. The following table lists his acquisitions of securities directly from Tri-Valley since January 1, 2004.
