PREPAYMENT OF CORPORATE NOTES

Buenos Aires, March 22, 2005 Petrobras Energía Participaciones S.A. (Buenos Aires: PBE, NYSE:PZE), controlling company of Petrobras Energía S.A. (Buenos Aires: PESA), announces that Petrobras Energía S.A. s on this date it has prepaid the aggregate remaining principal plus interest accrued as of the date of payment, of Class K notes with a nominal value of US$ 286,262,000 due 2007 (Class K) and Class M notes with a nominal value of US$ 181,824,000 due 2007 (Class M), both issued under the US$2.5 billion Medium-Term Notes Program.

The repaid principal amounted to US$113,805,330.00 for Class K notes and US$72,285,160.00 for Class M notes. These payments, in addition to those already made in February 2005 in the amount of US$90,872,000 for Class K and US$57,719,000 for Class M, total US$334,681,490. In all cases, the amount of principal repaid is related to the nominal value of debt issued.

Both Classes included a series of covenants which were fully complied with during the effective period. The notes in question were issued in October 2002 under the global process involving restructuring of the Company's financial obligations carried out during said year.

The notes mentioned above were partially repaid with the Company's own resources and with new financing operations, with improved terms: a reduced cost and a significant extension of the term with respect to that of the notes already repaid, allowing for better alignment of financial maturities with cash provided by our operations.
