changes in legal and regulatory requirements, technological change or difficulties, product development risks, commercialization and trade difficulties and general economic conditions, as well as other risks previously disclosed in the Company's securities filings and press releases.

General

We are a wood products company which has been in business since 1980. Our business has increased over the years. We are almost wholly dependent on sales to Home Depot.

Results of operations

Quarter ended January 31, 2003 compared to the quarter ended January 31, 2002.

Net sales for the quarter ended January 31, 2003 were approximately $202,000, a decrease of $257,000 or 56% as compared to net sales of approximately $459,000 for the quarter ended January 31, 2002. Net sales decreased primarily due to decreased orders from Home Depot.

Cost of sales were approximately $121,000 for the quarter ended January 31, 2003, a decrease of approximately $109,000 or 47% over the comparable 2002 period cost of sales of approximately $230,000. Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales was approximately 60% for the quarter ended January 31, 2003 compared to approximately 50% for the quarter ended January 31, 2002. This increase is primarily attributable to an increase in product costs during the current year that was not passed on to Home Depot.

Selling, general and administrative expenses were approximately $136,000 for the quarter ended January 31, 2003, a decrease of approximately $94,000 or 41% over selling, general and administrative expenses of approximately $230,000 for the quarter ended January 31, 2002. This decrease was due primarily to decreases in salaries and related costs of approximately $72,000 and other general expenses of $22,000.

Interest income for the quarter ended January 31, 2003 was approximately $400 compared to $300 for the quarter ended January 31, 2002.

Other income for the quarter ended January 31, 2003 was $800, compared to $0 for the quarter ended January 31, 2002.

Arbor's net loss increased from approximately $3,900 for the quarter ended January 31, 2002 to a net loss of approximately $54,000 for the quarter ended January 31, 2003.

Nine months ended January 31, 2003 compared to the nine months ended January 31, 2002.

Net sales for the nine months ended January 31, 2003 were approximately $571,000, a decrease of $482,000 or 46% as compared to net sales of approximately $1,053,000 for the nine months ended January 31, 2002. Net sales decreased primarily due to decreased orders from Home Depot.

Cost of sales were approximately $343,000 for the nine months ended January 31, 2003, a decrease of approximately $185,000 or 35% over the comparable 2002 period cost of sales of approximately $528,000. Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales was approximately 60% for the nine months ended January 31, 2003 compared to approximately 50% for the nine months ended January 31, 2002. This increase is primarily attributable to an increase in product costs during the period that was not passed on to Home Depot.

Edgar Filing: ARBOR ENTECH CORP - Form 10QSB

Selling, general and administrative expenses were approximately $377,000 for the nine months ended January 31, 2003, a decrease of approximately $185,000 or 33% over selling, general and administrative expenses of approximately $562,000 for the nine months ended January 31, 2002. This decrease was due primarily to decreases in salaries and related costs of approximately $144,000 and other general expenses of $41,000.

Interest income for the nine months ended January 31, 2003 was approximately $1,200 compared to interest income of $4,700 for the nine months ended January 31, 2002.

Other income for the nine months ended January 31, 2003 was approximately $780, compared to $4,900 for the nine months ended January 31, 2002.

Arbor's net loss increased from a net loss of approximately $34,000 for the nine months ended January 31, 2002 to a net loss of approximately $147,000 for the nine months ended January 31, 2003.

Liquidity and capital resources

In the periods discussed above, Arbor's working capital requirements have been met primarily from sales of its wood products. At January 31, 2003 we had working capital of approximately $590,000.

As at January 31, 2003, we had cash and cash equivalents of approximately $345,000, which represented 52% of total assets. Arbor believes it has adequate working capital and will generate net revenues adequate to fund its operations for at least the next 12 months.

Net cash provided by operating activities amounted to approximately $53,000 for nine months ended January 31, 2003. Net loss of $147,000 was reduced by decreases in accounts receivable of $133,000 and inventories of $56,000. It was further reduced by a decrease in accounts payable of $28,000. Net cash provided by operating activities was increased by decreases in other current assets of $27,000 and non-cash depreciation charges of $11,000.

Net cash provided by financing activities was approximately $41,000 for the nine months ended January 31, 2003. This was primarily attributable to the capital contributions made by related parties.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

The Company's loans to third parties are at a fixed rate of interest. The Company has no loans outstanding.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures:

Within 90 days before filing this Report on Form 10-QSB, an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures was carried out by the Company under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of the date of their evaluation, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (i) are effective in timely alerting them to material information relating to the Company required to be included in the Company's periodic SEC filings and (ii) have been designed and are being operated in a manner that provides reasonable assurance that the information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports filed or submitted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms.

(b) Changes in Internal Controls:

Subsequent to the date the Company carried out its evaluation, there have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors which could significantly affect internal controls, including any corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.
