PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Sanmina-SCI Corporation (the Company) will be unable to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 on a timely basis. As previously announced, the Company's Board of Directors formed an independent special committee of the Board to review certain matters concerning the Company's stock option administration policies and practices dating back to January 1, 1997 and the related accounting implications. As previously disclosed, the Company's management has determined, and the audit committee of the Company's Board of Directors concurred, that restatement of the Company's historical financial statements will be necessary because the Company will need to record additional stock-based compensation expenses as a result of the findings of the Special Committee. The Company is completing its preparation of, and its outside independent accounting firm is in the process of auditing the Company's Form 10-K. The Company intends to file its Form 10-K as soon as practicable, and in any event within the 15-day extension period afforded by SEC Rule 12b-25 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

David L. White (Name) 408 (Area Code) 964-3500 (Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).
 Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?
 Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates that there will be significant changes in the results of operations for the prior fiscal years due to additional stock-based compensation expenses. The Company cannot provide a reasonable estimate of the results as it is currently finalizing the impact of the charges.
