Item 5.05. Amendments to the Registrant's Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics.

On July 1, 2008, Force Protection, Inc.'s adoption of its restated Code of Conduct and Ethics (the Code of Ethics), which applies to all of Force Protection's employees, officers and directors, became effective. The Code of Ethics provides for the honest and ethical standard of conduct of its directors, officers and employees, including candor and cooperation; procedures for the resolution of conflicts of interests; a disclosure policy with respect to the disclosure of information to the public; the confidentiality of business information; special considerations for doing business with the United States government and compliance with applicable laws, such as accounting regulations, antitrust matters, environmental and safety regulations, export and import controls, equal employment opportunity, insider trading and the foreign corrupt practices act. The Code of Ethics also provides the procedures by which any officer or employee may report any suspected violation of the Code of Ethics. Compliance with the Code of Ethics by the directors, officers and employees of Force Protection is mandatory.

A copy of the Code of Ethics is filed as Exhibit 14.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein in its entirety by reference. The Code of Ethics is also available on Force Protection's website at www.forceprotection.net.
