Item 4.	Description of Securities.
Not applicable.
Item 5.	Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.
Not applicable.
Item 6.	Indemnification of Directors and Officers.
Kapstone Paper and Packaging Corporation is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) provides that a corporation has the power to indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation and certain other persons serving at the request of the corporation in related capacities against amounts paid and expenses incurred in connection with an action or proceeding to which he is or is threatened to be made a party by reason of such position, if such person shall have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and, in any criminal proceeding, if such person had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; provided that, in the case of actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, no indemnification shall be made with respect to any matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the adjudicating court determines that such indemnification is proper under the circumstances.
	ticle Eighth of our certificate of incorporation provides: The Corporation, to the full extent permitted by Section 145 of the d from time to time, shall indemnify all persons whom it may
