Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Initial Merger (the Effective Time), each share of common stock of the Company, par value $1.00 per share (Company Common Stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned by the Company or Parent) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive (i) $18.58 in cash, without interest and (ii) 1.128 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of common stock of Parent, par value $0.01 per share (Parent Common Stock).

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each option to purchase shares of Company Common Stock, each restricted stock unit payable in shares of Company Common Stock (whether subject to performance-based or time-based vesting) and each stock unit credited to the account of any participant in the Company s deferred compensation plan, in each case, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled at the Effective Time with cash consideration paid therefor in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Parent and the Company have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. Subject to certain exceptions, Parent and the Company have agreed, among other things, to covenants relating to (i) calling and holding a special shareholders meeting, in the case of Parent, to approve the issuance of Parent Common Stock in connection with the Merger and, in the case of the Company, to adopt the Merger Agreement, (ii) not soliciting alternate transactions and (iii) the use of reasonable best efforts to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by each of the parties to the Merger Agreement. These representations and warranties were made solely for the benefit of the other party to the Merger Agreement and (i) are not intended to be treated as categorical statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate, (ii) may have been qualified in the Merger Agreement by confidential disclosure schedules that were delivered to the other party in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement, which disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations, warranties and covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement, (iii) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from what might be viewed as material to shareholders and (iv) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date or dates as may be specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by Parent or the Company.
