INFORMATION STATEMENT

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY,
AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

This Information Statement is being furnished to the stockholders of NanoViricides, Inc. (the "Company" or the "Registrant") in connection with an amendment of the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to authorize the issuance of blank check preferred stock. This Information Statement has been prepared by our management.

"We," "us," "our," the "Registrant" and the "Company" refer to NanoViricides, Inc., a Nevada corporation. The amendment to the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation is sometimes referred to as the "Charter Amendment".

STATEMENTS REGARDING FORWARD INFORMATION

This information statement and the documents incorporated in this document by reference contain forward-looking statements within the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to our financial condition, results of operations and business, and on the expected impact of the merger on the combined company's financial performance. Words such as "anticipates," "expects," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates" and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results contemplated by the forward-looking statements.

SUMMARY OF THE CORPORATE ACTIONS

On March 18, 2009, our Board of Directors, approved an amendment to the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation which will authorize the creation of a class of Twenty Million (20,000,000) shares of blank check preferred stock (the "Charter Amendment"). The Charter Amendment was approved by written consent of the shareholders holding approximately 58% of our outstanding Common Stock (the "Majority Shareholders"). Pursuant to the Nevada Revised Statutes ("N.R.S."), the Charter Amendment is required to be approved by a majority of our stockholders. This approval could be obtained either by the written consent of the holders of a majority of our issued and outstanding voting securities, or it could be considered by our stockholders at a special stockholders' meeting convened for the specific purpose of approving the Charter Amendment. In order to eliminate the costs and management time involved in holding a special meeting, our Board of Directors voted to utilize the written consent of the Majority Shareholders. The elimination of the need for a special meeting of stockholders to approve the Charter Amendment and Amended By-Laws is made possible by Section 78.320 of the N.R.S., which provides that the written consent of the holders of outstanding shares of voting capital stock, having not less than the minimum number of votes which would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present.

The Charter Amendment authorizes the issuance of ‘blank check’ preferred stock with such designations, rights and preferences as may be determined from time to time by the board of directors. Accordingly, the board is empowered, without stockholder approval, to issue preferred stock with whatever rates of dividends, redemption provisions, liquidation preferences, voting rights, conversion privileges and other characteristics as it may deem necessary. If any preferred stock is issued, it may adversely affect the holders of the common stock. For example, in a liquidation, the holders of the preferred stock may be entitled to receive a certain amount per share of Preferred Stock before the holders of the common stock receive any distribution. In addition, the holders of Preferred Stock may be entitled to a certain number of votes per share of preferred stock and such votes may dilute the voting rights of the holders of common stock when the Company seeks to take corporate action. Furthermore, preferred stock may be issued with certain preferences over the holders of common stock with respect to dividends or the power to approve the declaration of a dividend. These are only examples of how shares of Preferred Stock, if issued, may dilute the interests of the holders of common stock. The Company has no present intention to issue any shares of preferred stock, we cannot assure you that we will not do so in the future.

In addition, the issuance of preferred stock may discourage, delay or prevent a takeover of the Company. When, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, this action will be in the best interest of the stockholders and the Company, such shares may be used to create voting or other impediments or to discourage persons seeking to gain control of the Company. Such shares also could be privately sold to purchasers favorable to the Board of Directors in opposing such action. In addition, the Board of Directors may authorize holders of a series of common or preferred stock to vote either separately as a class or with the holders of the Company's common stock, on any merger, sale or exchange of assets by the Company or any other extraordinary corporate transaction. The existence of the additional authorized shares may have the effect of discouraging unsolicited takeover attempts. The issuance of new shares also may be used to dilute the stock ownership of a person or entity seeking to obtain control of the Company should the Board of Directors consider the action of such entity or person not to be in the best interest of the stockholders of the Company. The issuance of new shares also may be used to entrench current management or deter an attempt to replace the Board of Directors by diluting the number or rights of shares held by individuals seeking to control the Company by obtaining a certain number of seats on the Board of Directors.

The date on which this Information Statement was first sent to stockholders is on or about April 23, 2009 (the "Mailing Date"). Inasmuch as we will have provided this Information Statement to our stockholders of record as of the record date of February 17, 2009 ("Record Date") no additional action will be undertaken pursuant to such written consent. Stockholders of record on the Record Date who did not consent to the Charter Amendment are not entitled to dissenter's rights under Nevada law. These rights are discussed in this Information Statement under "Dissenter's Rights" on page 8 of this Information Statement.

The Charter Amendment will be effective twenty (20) days after this Information Statement is first mailed to our Stockholders. No further vote of our Stockholders is required.

The entire cost of furnishing this Information Statement will be borne by the Company. We will request brokerage houses, nominees, custodians, fiduciaries and other like parties to forward this Information Statement to the beneficial owners of our voting securities held of record by them and we will reimburse such persons for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in forwarding such material.

ACTIONS BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND CONSENTING STOCKHOLDERS

In accordance with Sections 78.315 and 78.320 of the Nevada Revised Statutes the following actions were taken based upon the unanimous recommendation and approval by the Company's Board of Directors and the written consent of a majority of the Company's Stockholders.

AMENDMENT TO THE AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

On March 18, 2009, our Board of Directors, believing it to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, approved, and recommended that the stockholders of the Company approve the Charter Amendment. The Charter Amendment is reflected in the Form of Amendment to the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, and incorporated herein by reference.

Our Board of Directors has recommended and proposed adding 20,000,000 shares of authorized preferred stock to our capital structure. Our directors will have the discretion to fix and determine all classes or series of preferred stock, including their designations, preferences, voting rights, dividends, and other terms, and their variations from time to time. We have proposed the creation of this preferred stock in order to enhance our flexibility to attract future financing, to develop our business and to improve our ability to acquire future assets. The creation of the preferred stock provides the Company with increased flexibility by providing more shares of another type of security in addition to our common stock, as it will allow preferred stock to be available for issuance without immediate dilution to our existing common stock.

The Company anticipates that the Charter Amendment will be effective when permissible following the expiration of the twenty (20) day period mandated under Rule 14C; that is, it will be effective on approximately May 13, 2009, or shortly thereafter.
