CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTION PROVISION OF AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING SERVICES

On 28 October 2008, the Company and CEA Development have entered into an automobile repairing service agreement, under which, CEA Development agrees to provide automobile repairing service to the Company for a term commencing from 1 January 2008 to 31 December 2010.

On or about the end of August 2007, CEA Development has become a non-wholly owned subsidiary of CEA Holding, a controlling shareholder of the Company and hence a connected person of the Company. As such, the Service constitutes a continuing connected transaction of the Company under the Listing Rules.

As the relevant applicable percentage ratios set out in the Listing Rules in respect of the Service is expected to be less than 2.5% on an annual basis, such transaction is only subject to the reporting and announcement requirements and is exempted from the approval of the independent shareholders of the Company pursuant to the Listing Rules.

THE SERVICE AGREEMENT

Service

On 28 October 2008, the Company entered into the Service Agreement with CEA Development pursuant to which, CEA Development will from time to time provide maintenance and repair service to the Company's automobiles that are used in ground services and daily operations.

Term

The term of the Service Agreement commenced from 1 January 2008 to 31 December 2010. The parties to the Service Agreement may extend the term of the Service Agreement upon mutual agreement in writing pursuant to the Service Agreement.

Pricing

The service fees payable to CEA Development for the Service shall be based on prevailing market rates by reference to the service fees charged by independent third party service providers: (1) in or around the area where the Service is provided; or (2) in the PRC under comparable conditions. Such service fees shall be determined based on arm's length negotiations, and shall be no less favourable than those offered by CEA Development to any independent third parties.

Such service fees are payable quarterly in arrears.

Reasons for and benefits of the transaction

The Directors believe that it is in the best interests of the Group to procure the Service from CEA Development considering that CEA Development has special strengths that independent third party service providers generally do not possess. Such strengths include the aviation industry expertise, knowledge and qualification of CEA Development to meet the demand of certain types of work and its track record of quality and timely service.

Historical figures

The historical figures of the total amounts paid by the Company to CEA Development for each of the three financial years ended 31 December 2005, 2006 and 2007 are approximately RMB22.82 million, RMB27.97 million and RMB18.75 million respectively.

Annual caps

Based on such historical figures, and the expected expansion and developments of the Group's business, in particular, the expected expansion of the Company's aircraft fleet and as a result an expansion of its automobiles for providing ground services, the total amounts payable by the Company to CEA Development under the Service Agreement for the three financial years ending 31 December 2008, 2009 and 2010 are not expected to exceed RMB31 million, RMB35 million and RMB42 million respectively, taking into account the anticipated gradual and organic growth of the Group's business over these years.

IMPLICATION UNDER THE LISTING RULES

On or about the end of August 2007, CEA Development has become a non-wholly owned subsidiary of CEA Holding, a controlling shareholder of the Company and hence a connected person of the Company. As such, the Service constitutes a continuing connected transaction of the Company under the Listing Rules.

As the relevant applicable percentage ratios set out in the Listing Rules in respect of the Service is expected to be less than 2.5% on an annual basis, such transactions fall within Rule 14A.34 of the Listing Rules and are subjected to the reporting and announcement requirements only and are exempted from the approval by the independent shareholders of the Company under the Listing Rules.

Based on the information described above, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) believe that the Service Agreement is on normal commercial terms, in the ordinary and usual course of business, fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company's shareholders as a whole.

INFORMATION OF THE PARTIES

The Company is principally engaged in the business of civil aviation.

CEA Development is principally engaged in the business of providing various repairing and maintenance services, including but not limited to, ground equipments, metal materials, construction materials, chemical materials, telecommunication equipment and electronic appliances.
