Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 31, 2017, Shore Bancshares, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an amended and restated employment agreement (the “Employment Agreement”) with Lloyd L. Beatty, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The new Employment Agreement modified the change in control provision of his prior employment agreement, entered into on February 16, 2017, to permit Mr. Beatty to terminate his employment with the Company for “Good Reason” in connection with a “Change in Control” of the Company. Under the new provision, the Employment Agreement provides for the payment of a Change in Control benefit in the event Mr. Beatty is terminated (i) by the Company without Cause, or (ii) by Mr. Beatty for Good Reason within 12 months of a Change in Control of the Company (the terms “Cause,” “Change in Control” and “Good Reason” are defined in the Employment Agreement). There were no other changes from Mr. Beatty’s prior employment agreement. The description of this Employment Agreement contained herein is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Employment Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated into this Item 5.02 by reference.

On October 31, 2017, the Company or its wholly-owned subsidiary, Shore United Bank (the “Bank”), as the case may be, entered into employment agreements with Mrs. Donna J. Stevens, Chief Operating Officer of the Company, and Mr. Patrick M. Bilbrough, Chief Executive Officer of the Bank. Pursuant to the respective employment agreement, Mrs. Stevens will receive an annual base salary of $225,000 and Mr. Bilbrough will receive an annual base salary of $310,000, each subject to periodic review and adjustment. In addition, Mrs. Stevens and Mr. Bilbrough are entitled to: (i) participate in the Company’s bonus plans; (ii) receive employee benefits of the type offered by the Company and its affiliates to similarly-situated officers, including vacation, sick leave and disability leave; (iii) receive fringe benefits of the type customarily made available by the Company to its officers; and (iv) be reimbursed for employment-related expenses.

The employment agreements have a twelve-month term, which will automatically renew for successive twelve-month terms unless a party notifies the other party at least 60 days prior to the end of the then-current term of its, his or her decision not to renew the employment agreement. At least 120 days prior to the commencement of a new term, the board or a committee thereof of the Company or the Bank, as the case may be, will conduct a comprehensive performance evaluation and review of the executive to determine whether to give notice of non-renewal. The term of the executive’s employment under the employment agreements may be terminated at any time and for any reason by either the Company or the Bank, as the case may be, or the executive (upon 30 days’ prior written notice), and it will automatically terminate upon the executive’s death.

Upon the termination of employment, the executive is entitled to receive all unpaid base salary that has accrued through the date of termination, all bonus awards (prorated through the last day of the month in which termination occurs) that the executive would have received had he or she remained employed when bonuses are next declared or paid, and reimbursement of all unreimbursed expenses, all of which must be paid no later than the last day of the calendar quarter of the quarter in which the termination occurs. In addition, all unexercised or unvested equity awards, or portions thereof, held by the executive as of the date of termination shall vest or terminate and be exercisable in accordance with their terms.

If the executive's employment is terminated without "Cause" (as defined in the employment agreement) prior to the expiration of the term of the employment agreement, then, except in the case of termination following a "Change in Control" of the Company or the Bank, as the case may be, the executive will additionally be entitled to receive severance ("Severance") in the form of continued base salary (at the then-current level) for a period of 24 months following the date of termination (the "Severance Period"). The employment agreements provide that the first Severance payment will be made on the first regular payroll date that occurs on or after the 60th day following the termination of employment, provided that the executive has executed and delivered a release of claims and the statutory period during which he or she may revoke that release has expired on or before that 60th day.

In lieu of Severance, each employment agreement provides for the payment of a Change in Control benefit (the “CiC Benefit”) in the event the executive is terminated (i) by the Company or the Bank, as the case may be, without Cause, or (ii) by the executive for Good Reason within 12 months of a Change in Control of the Company or the Bank, as the case may be (the terms “Change in Control” and “Good Reason” are defined in the employment agreements). In this case, the executive will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the difference between (i) the product of 2.0 times the officer’s “base amount” as defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) and (ii) the sum of any other parachute payments as defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code that the officer receives on account of the Change in Control, provided that in no event shall the aggregate amounts payable under the employment agreement exceed 2.0 times the executive’s “base amount.” The CiC Benefit will be paid in one lump sum on the 60th day following termination of employment, provided that the executive has executed and delivered a release of claims and the statutory period during which he or she may revoke that release has expired on or before that 60th day.

The employment agreements of Mrs. Stevens and Mr. Bilbrough are attached as Exhibits 10.2 and 10.3, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K, which are incorporated by reference into this summary.

On October 31, 2017, the Bank or The Avon-Dixon Agency, LLC, the Company’s wholly-owned insurance producer subsidiary (“Avon-Dixon”), as the case may be, entered into Change in Control Agreements with Mr. Edward C. Allen, Chief Financial Officer of the Company and the Bank, and Mr. Richard C. Trippe, President and Chief Executive Officer of Avon-Dixon. Pursuant to the Change in Control Agreement, in the event the executive is terminated (i) by the Company, the Bank or Avon-Dixon, as the case may be, without Cause, or (ii) by the executive for Good Reason within 12 months of a Change in Control of the Company, the Bank or Avon-Dixon, as the case may be, the executive will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the difference between (i) the product of 1.5 times the executive’s “base amount” as defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code and (ii) the sum of any other parachute payments as defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code that the officer receives on account of the Change in Control (the terms “Cause,” “Change in Control” and “Good Reason” are defined in the Change in Control Agreement). The CiC Benefit will be paid in one lump sum on the 60th day following termination of employment, provided that the executive has executed and delivered a release of claims and the statutory period during which he or she may revoke that release has expired on or before that 60th day.

The foregoing description of the Change in Control Agreements is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Change in Control Agreements for Messrs. Allen and Trippe, which are attached as Exhibits 10.4 and 10.5, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are incorporated into this Item 5.02 by reference.
