The Company's fiscal year ends on December 31. The December 31 fiscal year end is in line with the calendar accounting year ends of the majority of comparable US and European hotel companies. IHG will continue to report on a December 31 fiscal year end basis, as the Group believes this facilitates more meaningful comparisons with other key participants in the industry. References in this document to a particular year are to the fiscal year unless otherwise indicated. For example, references to the year ended December 31, 2005 are shown as 2005 and references to the year ended December 31, 2004 are shown as 2004, unless otherwise specified, references to the fiscal period ended December 31, 2003, are shown as 2003 and references to other fiscal years are shown in a similar manner.

The Company's Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union (EU) which differ from the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (US GAAP). The significant differences applicable to the Group are explained in Note 32 of Notes to the Financial Statements.

IHG believes that the reporting of profit and earnings measures before other operating income and expenses provides additional meaningful information on underlying returns and trends to shareholders. The Group's key performance indicators used in budgets, monthly reporting, forecasts, long-term planning and incentive plans for internal financial reporting focus primarily on profit and earnings measures before other operating income and expenses. Throughout this document earnings per share is also calculated excluding the effect of all other operating income and expenses, special interest, special tax and gain on disposal of assets and is referred to as adjusted earnings per share.

The Company furnishes JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Depositary, with annual reports containing Consolidated Financial Statements and an independent auditor's opinion thereon. These Financial Statements are prepared on the basis of IFRS. The annual reports contain reconciliations to US GAAP of net income and shareholders' equity. The Company also furnishes the Depositary with semi-annual reports prepared in conformity with IFRS, which contain unaudited interim consolidated financial information. Upon receipt thereof, the Depositary mails all such reports to registered holders of American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) evidencing American Depositary Shares (ADSs). The Company also furnishes to the Depositary all notices of shareholders' meetings and other reports and communications that are made generally available to shareholders of the Company. The Depositary makes such notices, reports and communications available for inspection by registered holders of ADRs and mails to all registered holders of ADRs notices of shareholders' meetings received by the Depositary. The Company is not required to report quarterly financial information. During 2005, the Company reported interim financial information at June 30, 2005 in accordance with the Listing Rules of the UK Listing Authority. In addition, it provided a trading update at March 31, 2005 and at September 30, 2005 and intends to continue to provide quarterly financial information during fiscal 2006, although it has not made any decision with respect to reporting quarterly financial information after 2006.

The factors below should be considered in connection with any financial and forward-looking information in this Form 20-F and the cautionary note regarding forward-looking statements contained on pages 5 and 6.

The risks below are not the only ones that the Group faces. Some risks are not yet known to IHG and some that IHG does not currently believe to be material could later turn out to be material. All of these risks could materially affect the Group's business, revenue, operating profit, earnings, net assets and liquidity and/or capital resources.

The Group is reliant on the reputation of its brands and the protection of its intellectual property rights

An event that materially damages the reputation of one or more of the Group's brands and/or failure to sustain the appeal of the Group's brands to its customers could have an adverse impact on the value of that brand and subsequent revenues from that brand or business.

In addition, the value of the Group's brands is influenced by a number of other factors including consumer preference and perception, commoditisation (whereby the price/quality becomes relatively more important than brand identifications), failure by the Group or its franchisees to ensure compliance with the significant regulations applicable to hotel operations (including fire and life safety requirements), or other factors affecting consumers' willingness to purchase goods and services, including any factor which adversely affects the reputation of those brands.

In particular, the extent to which the Group is able to enforce adherence to its operating and quality standards, or the significant regulations applicable to hotel operations, pursuant to its management and franchise contracts may further impact brand reputation or customer perception and therefore the value of the hotel brands.

Given the importance of brand recognition to the Group's business, the Group has invested considerable effort in protecting its intellectual property, including by registration of trademarks and domain names. If the Group is unable to protect its intellectual property, any infringement or misappropriation could materially harm its future financial results and ability to develop its business.

The Group is exposed to a variety of risks related to identifying, securing and retaining management and franchise agreements

The Group's growth strategy depends on its success in identifying, securing and retaining management and franchise agreements. Competition with other hotel companies may generally reduce the number of suitable management, franchise and investment opportunities offered to the Group, and increase the bargaining power of property owners seeking to engage a manager or become a franchisee. The terms of new management or franchise agreements may not be as favourable as current arrangements and the Group may not be able to renew existing arrangements on the same terms.

There can also be no assurance that the Group will be able to identify, retain or add franchisees to the Group system or to secure management contracts. For example, the availability of suitable sites, planning and other local regulations or the availability of finance may all restrict the supply of suitable hotel development opportunities under franchise or management agreements. There are also risks that significant franchisees or groups of franchisees may have interests that conflict, or are not aligned, with those of the Group. In connection with entering into management or franchise agreements, the Group may be required to make investments in or guarantee the obligations of third parties or guarantee minimum income to third parties. Changes in legislation or regulatory changes may be implemented that have the effect of favouring franchisees relative to brand owners.

Table of Contents

The Group is exposed to the risks of political and economic developments

These include the risks of global and regional adverse political, economic and financial market developments, including recession, inflation and currency fluctuations that could lower revenues and reduce income. A recession would adversely affect room rates and/or occupancy levels and other income-generating activities resulting in deterioration of results of operations and potentially affecting the value of properties in affected economies.

Further political or economic factors or regulatory action could effectively prevent the Group from receiving profits from, or selling its investments in, certain countries, or otherwise adversely affect operations. For example, changes to tax rates or legislation in the jurisdictions in which the Group operates could decrease the proportion of profits the Group is entitled to retain, or the Group's interpretation of various tax laws and regulations may prove to be incorrect, resulting in higher than expected tax charges. In addition, fluctuations in currency exchange rates between sterling, the currency in which the Group reports its financial statements, and the US dollar and other currencies in which the Group's international operations or investments do business, could adversely affect the Group's reported earnings and the value of its business. Fluctuations of this type have been experienced over recent years with the significant strengthening of the pound against the dollar. As the Group's profits have become increasingly weighted towards North America, such fluctuations may have greater impact on the Group's reported results.

The Group is dependent upon recruiting and retaining key personnel and developing their skills

In order to develop, support and market its products, the Group must hire and retain highly skilled employees with particular expertise. The implementation of the Group's strategic business plans could be undermined by failure to recruit or retain key personnel, the unexpected loss of key senior employees, failures in the Group's succession planning and incentive plans, or a failure to invest in the development of key skills. Additionally, unless skills are supported by a sufficient infrastructure to enable knowledge and skills to be passed on, the Group risks losing accumulated knowledge if key employees leave the Group.

The Group is exposed to certain risks in relation to technology and systems

To varying degrees, the Group is reliant upon certain technologies and systems (including Information Technology systems) for the running of its business, particularly those which are highly integrated with business processes, and disruption to those technologies or systems could adversely affect the efficiency of the business, notwithstanding business continuity or disaster recovery processes. The Group may have to make substantial additional investments in new technologies or systems to remain competitive. Failing to keep pace with developments in technologies or systems may put the Group at a competitive disadvantage. The technologies or systems that the Group chooses may not be commercially successful or the technology or system strategy employed may not be sufficiently aligned to the needs of the business or responsive to changes in business strategy. As a result, the Group could lose customers, fail to attract new customers or incur substantial costs or face other losses. Additionally, failure to develop an appropriate e-commerce strategy and select the right partners could erode the Group's market share.

The Group may face difficulties insuring its business

Historically, the Group has maintained insurance at levels determined by it to be appropriate in light of the cost of cover and the risk profiles of the business in which it operates. However, forces beyond the Group's control including market forces, may limit the scope of coverage the Group can obtain as well as the Group's ability to obtain coverage at reasonable rates. Other forces beyond the Group's control, such as terrorist attacks or natural disasters may be uninsurable or simply too expensive to insure against. Inadequate or insufficient insurance could expose the Group to large claims or could result in the loss of capital invested in properties as well as the anticipated future revenue from properties, and could leave the Group responsible for guarantees, debt or other financial obligations related to the property.

Table of Contents

The Group is exposed to the risks of the hotel industry supply and demand cycle

The future operating results of the Group could be adversely affected by industry over-capacity (by number of rooms) and weak demand or other differences between planning assumptions and actual operating conditions. Reductions in room rates and occupancy levels would adversely impact the results of operations of the Group.

The Group is exposed to the risk of events that adversely impact domestic or international travel

The room rates and occupancy levels of the Group could be adversely impacted by events that reduce domestic or international travel, such as actual or threatened acts of terrorism or war, epidemics (such as SARS and avian flu), travel-related accidents, travel-related industrial action, increased transportation and fuel costs and natural disasters resulting in reduced worldwide travel or other local factors impacting individual hotels. A decrease in the demand for hotel rooms as a result of such events may have an adverse impact on the Group's operations and financial results. In addition, inadequate preparedness, contingency planning or recovery capability in relation to a major incident or crisis may prevent operational continuity and consequently impact the value of the brand or the reputation of the Group.

The Group is reliant upon its proprietary reservation system and is exposed to the risk of failures in the system and increased competition in reservation infrastructure

The value of the brands of the Group is partly derived from the ability to drive reservations through its proprietary HolidexPlus reservation system, an electronic booking and delivery channel directly linked to travel agents, hotels and internet networks. Inadequate disaster recovery arrangements, or inadequate continued investment in this technology, leading to loss of key communications linkages, particularly in relation to HolidexPlus, internet reservation channels and other key parts of the IT infrastructure for a prolonged period, or permanently, may result in significant business interruption and subsequent impact on revenues.

The Group is also exposed to the risk of competition from third-party intermediaries who provide reservation infrastructure. In particular, any significant increase in the use of these reservation channels in preference to proprietary channels may impact the Group's ability to control the supply, presentation and price of its room inventory.

The Group may experience a lack of selected development opportunities

While the strategy of the Group is to extend the hotel network through activities that do not involve significant capital, in some cases the Group may consider it appropriate to acquire new land or locations for the development of new hotels. If the availability of suitable sites becomes limited, this could adversely affect its results of operations.

The Group is exposed to the risk of litigation

The Group could be at risk of litigation from its guests, customers, joint venture partners, suppliers, employees, regulatory authorities, franchisees and/or the owners of hotels managed by it for breach of its contractual or other duties. Claims filed in the US may include requests for punitive damages as well as compensatory damages. Exposure to litigation or fines imposed by regulatory authorities may affect the reputation of the Group even though the monetary consequences are not significant.

The Group is exposed to a variety of risks associated with its ability to borrow and satisfy debt covenants

The Group is reliant on having access to borrowing facilities to meet its expected capital requirements and to maintain an efficient balance sheet. The majority of the Group's borrowing facilities are only available if the financial covenants in the facilities are complied with. If the Group is not in compliance with the covenants, the lenders may demand the repayment of the funds advanced. If the Group's financial performance does not meet market expectations it may not be able to refinance its existing facilities on terms it considers favourable. The availability of funds for future financing is in part dependent on conditions and liquidity in the capital markets.

The Group is required to comply with data privacy regulations

Existing and emerging data privacy regulations limit the extent to which the Group can use customer information for marketing or promotional purposes. Compliance with these regulations in each jurisdiction in which the Group operates may require changes in marketing strategies and associated processes which could increase operating costs or reduce the success with which products and services can be marketed to existing or future customers. In addition, non-compliance with privacy regulations may result in fines, damage to reputation or restrictions on the use or transfer of information.

The Group is exposed to funding risks in relation to the defined benefits under its pension plans

The Group is required by law to maintain a minimum funding level in relation to its ongoing obligation to provide current and future pensions for members of its pension plans who are entitled to defined benefits. In addition, if any plan of the Group is wound-up, the Group could become statutorily liable to make an immediate payment to the trustees to bring the funding of these defined benefits to a level which is higher than this minimum. The contributions payable by the Group must be set with a view to making prudent provision for the benefits accruing under the plans of the Group.

Some of the issues which could adversely affect the funding of these defined benefits (and materially affect the Group's funding obligations) include: (i) poor investment performance of pension fund investments; (ii) long life expectancy (which will make pensions payable for longer and therefore more expensive to provide); (iii) adverse annuity rates (which tend in particular to depend on prevailing interest rates and life expectancy) as these will make it more expensive to secure pensions with an insurance company; and (iv) other events occurring which make past service benefits more expensive than predicted in the actuarial assumptions by reference to which the Group's past contributions were assessed.

The trustees of the UK defined benefits plans can demand increases to the contribution rates relating to the funding of those pension plans, which would oblige the relevant members of the Group to contribute extra amounts to such pension funds. The trustees must consult the plans' actuary and principal employer before exercising this power. In practice, contribution rates are agreed between the Group and the trustees on actuarial advice, and are set for three-year terms. The last such review was as at March 31, 2004. As at March 17, 2006, being the latest practicable date prior to publication of this document, the Directors are not aware of any circumstances that would cause the trustees to deem it necessary to unilaterally increase the contribution rates.

SUMMARY

Group Overview

The Group is a worldwide owner, operator and franchisor of hotels and resorts. Through its various subsidiaries it owned, managed, leased or franchised over 3,600 hotels and 537,000 guest rooms in nearly 100 countries and territories around the world, as at December 31, 2005. The Group's brands include InterContinental Hotels & Resorts, Crowne Plaza Hotels & Resorts, Holiday Inn Hotels & Resorts, Holiday Inn Express, Staybridge Suites, Candlewood Suites and Hotel Indigo. The Group also manages the hotel loyalty program, Priority Club Rewards.

With the disposal of the Group's interests in Britvic, a manufacturer and distributor of soft drinks in the United Kingdom, by way of an initial public offering (IPO) in December 2005, the Group is now focused solely on hotel franchising, management and ownership.

The Group's revenue and earnings are derived from (i) hotel operations, which include operation of the Group's owned hotels, management and other fees paid under management contracts, where the Group operates third-parties hotels, and franchise and other fees paid under franchise agreements and (ii) until December 14, 2005, the manufacture and distribution of soft drinks.

On March 17, 2006, InterContinental Hotels Group PLC had a market capitalization of approximately £3.9 billion, and was included in the list of FTSE 100 companies, a list of the 100 largest companies by market capitalization on the London Stock Exchange. Following a capital restructuring in June 2005, InterContinental Hotels Group PLC became the holding company for the Group. Six Continents Limited (formerly Six Continents PLC), which was formed in 1967, is the principal subsidiary company.

InterContinental Hotels Group PLC was incorporated in Great Britain on May 21, 2004 and registered in, and operates under, the laws of England and Wales. Operations undertaken in countries other than England and Wales are under the laws of those countries in which they reside.

Group History and Recent Developments

The Group, formerly known as Bass and, more recently, Six Continents, was historically a conglomerate operating as, among other things, a brewer, soft drinks manufacturer, hotelier, leisure operator, and restaurant, pub and bar owner. In the last several years, the Group has undergone a major transformation in its operations and organization, as a result of the Separation (as discussed below) and a number of significant disposals during this period, which has narrowed the scope of its business.

On April 15, 2003, following shareholder and regulatory approval, Six Continents PLC (as it then was) separated into two new listed groups, InterContinental Hotels Group PLC (as it then was) comprising the Hotels and Soft Drinks businesses and Mitchells & Butlers plc comprising the Retail and Standard Commercial Property Developments businesses (the Separation).

Acquisitions and Dispositions

Since the Separation in April 2003, the Group has sold or announced the sale of 168 hotels for aggregate proceeds of approximately £2.5 billion (see Figure 1). Of these 168 hotels, 150 have remained in the IHG system under Group brands through either franchise or management agreements. As of March 17, 2006 the Group had on the market a further seven InterContinental hotels all in Continental Europe. The following are the more significant portfolio transactions:

On July 1, 2003, the Group completed the sale of a 16 property Staybridge Suites portfolio to Hospitality Properties Trust (HPT) for $185 million. The Group entered into a contract with HPT for the ongoing management of these hotels. In September 2003, HPT converted 14 other suite hotels to the Staybridge Suites brand under IHG management.

In October 2003, the Group announced the acquisition of the Candlewood Suites brand in the United States from Candlewood Hotel Corporation for a consideration of $15 million and an agreement to enter into a management contract with HPT to manage 76 Candlewood Suites properties. The transaction completed on December 31, 2003.

On December 17, 2004, the Group announced the sale of 13 hotels, in the United States, Puerto Rico and Canada, to HPT. The total consideration payable by HPT for the sale amounted to $425 million, before transaction costs, equivalent to net book value, of which $395 million was received upon the main completion of the sale on February 16, 2005, with the remaining $30 million received upon the completion of the sale of the InterContinental Hotel in Austin, Texas on June 1, 2005. The Group continues to manage the hotels

(other than the InterContinental in Puerto Rico) under a 25 year management contract with HPT. The Group has two consecutive options to extend the contracts for 15 years each, giving a total potential contract length of up to 55 years. The InterContinental San Juan in Puerto Rico has been leased back to the Group under a 25 year lease with two consecutive options to extend the lease for 15 years each, giving a total potential lease length of up to 55 years.

On February 28, 2005, the Group announced the acquisition by Strategic Hotels Capital, Inc. (SHC) of 85% interests in two hotels in the United States. IHG received approximately $287 million in cash before transaction costs, based upon a total value for both hotels of $303.5 million, $12 million in excess of net book value. This transaction completed on April 1, 2005. IHG continues to manage these hotels under a 20 year management contract with three options to extend for a further 10 years each.

On March 10, 2005, the Group announced the sale of 73 hotels in the United Kingdom to LRG Acquisition Limited (LRG), a consortium comprising Lehman Brothers Real Estate Partners, GIC Real Estate and Realstar Asset Management. The transaction completed on May 24, 2005, with IHG receiving an initial £960 million in cash, before transaction costs, with a further £40 million to be received subject to meeting performance targets over the following three years. IHG entered into a management agreement on completion of this transaction with LRG for 63 of the hotels and currently operates a further five hotels under a temporary management agreement. One of the 63 hotels managed by IHG was removed from the IHG system on March 14, 2006.

On September 1, 2005 the Group announced the sale of nine hotels in Australia and New Zealand to Eureka Funds Management Ltd (Eureka) for A$390 million in cash, before transaction costs, and the sale of the Holiday Inn, Suva, to a subsidiary of Fiji National Provident Fund (FNPF) for A$15 million in cash. Both transactions completed by October 31, 2005. IHG entered into management agreements on completion of these transactions with Eureka and FNPF for these hotels.

On September 8, 2005 the Group announced the sale of InterContinental Hotel Paris for 315 million. The transaction completed on November 1, 2005 at which time the hotel was removed from the IHG system.

In a number of smaller transactions during 2005, the Group completed the sale of a further 13 hotels for proceeds of approximately £159 million.

On January 25, 2006, the Group announced the sale to HPT of two hotels in the Americas. On March 13, 2006, the Group announced the sale to Westbridge Hospitality Fund LP, (Westbridge), of 24 hotels in the Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA) region. Westbridge is a joint venture between CADIM, a Montreal-based pension fund manager, and Westmont Hospitality, one of IHG s largest franchisees. The portfolio has been sold for 352 million marginally above net asset value. IHG s share of the proceeds is 345.2 million, before transaction costs, in cash and debt assumption, and the balance of 6.8 million relates to third-party minority interests. IHG will franchise the hotels to the joint venture under 15 year franchise contracts.

The Group has a further seven hotels in the EMEA region on the market. The book value of these hotels is approximately £300 million and they constitute the final tranche of hotels that IHG had previously announced it would sell.

The asset disposal program which commenced in 2003 has significantly reduced the capital intensity of the Group whilst largely retaining the hotels in the IHG system through management and franchise agreements.

Capital expenditure in 2005 totaled £183 million compared with £257 million in 2004. Capital expenditure for Hotels totaled £136 million, lower than 2004 as the Group continued its asset disposal program. Capital expenditure in 2005 for Hotels included the InterContinental London and Holiday Inn Munich refurbishments and a rolling rooms refurbishment program at the InterContinental Hong Kong.

At December 31, 2005 capital committed, being contracts placed for expenditure on property, plant and equipment not provided for in the financial statements, totaled £76 million.

Following the completion of the expected hotel disposals in 2006, the Group will own 22 hotels.

Return of Funds

Since the Separation in April 2003, the Group has announced the return of £2.75 billion of funds to shareholders by way of special dividends, share repurchase programs and capital returns (see Figure 2).

In 2005, 30.6 million shares were repurchased at an average price of 672 pence per share (total £206 million) as part of the second £250 million share repurchase program. On September 8, 2005, IHG announced a further £250 million share repurchase program to commence on completion of the second program. The precise timing of share purchases will be dependent upon, amongst other things, market conditions. By March 17, 2006, a total of 33.95 million shares had been repurchased under the second repurchase program at an average price per share of 686 pence per share (approximately £233 million). Purchases are made under the existing authority from shareholders which will be renewed at the Company's Annual General Meeting. Any shares repurchased under these programs will be canceled.

Information relating to the purchases of equity securities can be found in Item 16E.

IHG returned a further £996 million to shareholders in July 2005 following its capital restructuring which enabled it to release the proceeds received in connection with the hotels disposals. Under the capital restructuring, shareholders received 11 new ordinary shares and £24.75 cash in exchange for every 15 existing ordinary shares held on June 24, 2005.

On March 2, 2006, IHG announced that it intends to pay a £500 million special dividend to shareholders during the second quarter of 2006.

IHG received aggregate proceeds of approximately £371 million (including two additional dividends, one of £47 million received in November 2005 and another of £89 million received in May 2005, but before any commissions or expenses). The Group results include the results of Soft Drinks for the period up until the IPO of Britvic on December 14, 2005.

Table of ContentsHOTELS*Overview

InterContinental Hotels Group is an international hotel business which owns a portfolio of well-recognized and respected hotel brands, including InterContinental Hotels & Resorts, Crowne Plaza Hotels & Resorts, Holiday Inn Hotels & Resorts, Holiday Inn Express (Express by Holiday Inn outside the Americas), Staybridge Suites, Candlewood Suites and Hotel Indigo, with 3,606 franchised, managed, owned and leased hotels and 537,533 guest rooms across nearly 100 countries and territories as at December 31, 2005. Approximately 97% of the Group's rooms are operated under managed and franchised models.

The Group operates in a global market, providing hotel rooms to guests. Total room capacity in hotels and similar establishments worldwide is estimated at 18.4 million rooms. This has been growing at approximately 3% per annum over the last five years. The hotel market is geographically concentrated with 12 countries accounting for two-thirds of worldwide hotel room supply. The Group has a leadership position (top three by room numbers) in six of these 12 countries – United States, United Kingdom, Mexico, Canada, Greater China and Australia – more than any other major hotel company.

The hotel market is, however, a fragmented market with the four largest companies controlling only 11% of the global hotel room supply and the ten largest controlling less than 20%. The Group is the largest of these companies (by room numbers), with a 3% market share. The major competitors in this market include other major global hotel companies, smaller hotel companies and independent hotels.

Within the global market, a relatively low proportion of hotel rooms are branded (see Figure 3), but there has been an increasing trend towards branded rooms and market research company, Mintel, estimates that the proportion of branded rooms in Europe has grown from 15% in 2000 to 25% in 2004. Larger branded companies are therefore gaining market share at the expense of smaller companies and independent hotels. The Group is well positioned to benefit from this trend. Hotel owners are increasingly recognising the benefits of belonging to a branded portfolio, particularly an extended brand family like the Group's which can offer various brands to suit different opportunities owners may have. Furthermore, hotel ownership is increasingly being separated from hotel branding and this requires hotel owners to use third-parties like the Group to operate or brand their hotels.

US market data shows a steady increase in demand in the hotel market, broadly in line with Gross Domestic Product, and shows growth of approximately 1 – 1.5% per annum in real terms since 1967, driven by a number of underlying trends:

demographics – as the population ages, increased leisure time drives more travel and hotel visits;

disposable income rising as the global population becomes older and wealthier;

travel volumes increasing as low cost airlines grow rapidly;

globalization of trade and tourism;

Table of Contents

the increasing affluence and freedom to travel of the Chinese middle class; and brand preference amongst consumers is increasing.

Suppressing this demand are potential negative trends including increased terrorism, health and environmental considerations and economic factors such as rising oil prices. Currently, however, there are no indications that demand is being significantly affected by these factors.

Supply growth in the industry is cyclical, averaging between zero and 5% per annum historically. The Group's profit is to a large extent protected from supply pressure due to its model of third-party ownership of hotels under Group management and franchise contracts, although periods of extreme or prolonged pressure may adversely affect the Group.

Operations

The Group currently operates through three distinct business models which offer different growth, return, risk and reward opportunities. The models are summarized as follows:

franchised, where Group companies neither own nor manage the hotel, but license the use of a Group brand and provide access to reservation systems, loyalty schemes and know-how. The Group derives revenues from a brand royalty or licensing fee, based on a percentage of room revenue. At the end of 2005, 75% of the Group's rooms were franchised, with 87% of rooms in the Americas operating under this model.

managed, where in addition to licensing the use of a Group brand, a Group company manages the hotel for third-party owners. The Group derives revenues from base and incentive management fees and provides the system infrastructure necessary for the hotel to operate. Management contract fees are linked to total hotel revenue and may have an additional incentive fee linked to profitability and/or cash flow. The terms of these agreements vary, but are often long term (for example, 10 years or more). The Group company's responsibilities under the management agreement typically include hiring, training and supervising the managers and employees that operate the hotels under the relevant brand standards. The Group company prepares annual budgets for the hotels that it manages, and the property owners are responsible for funding periodic maintenance and repair on a basis to be agreed with the Group company. In order to gain access to central reservation systems, global and regional brand marketing and brand standards and procedures the owners are typically required to make a further contribution. In certain cases, property owners may require performance targets, with consequences for management fees and sometimes the contract itself (including on occasion, the right of termination) if those targets are not met. At the end of 2005, 22% of the Group's rooms were operated under management contracts.

owned and leased, where a Group company both owns (or leases) and operates the hotel and, in the case of ownership, takes all the benefits and risks associated with ownership. The Group has been selling a significant proportion of its owned and leased portfolio and in future expects to own only hotels where it is considered strategically important to do so. Rooms owned or leased by the Group at the end of 2005 represented 3% of the Group's rooms.

In addition, the Group also makes equity investments in hotel ownership entities, where its equity investment is less than 100% and it participates in a share of the benefits and risks of ownership. A management contract is generally entered into as well as the equity investment.

Table of Contents

The following table shows the number of hotels and rooms owned, managed or franchised by IHG at December 31, 2005, December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003.

	Owned or leased		Management contracts and joint ventures		Franchised		Total

2003	171	39,459	423	103,440	2,926	393,419	3,520	536,318

The Group sets quality and service standards for all of its hotel brands (including those operated under management contract or franchise arrangements) and operates a customer satisfaction and hotel quality measurement system to ensure those standards are met or exceeded. The quality measurement system includes an assessment of both physical property and customer service standards.

Strategy

The Group's strategy is to become the preferred hotel company for guests and owners, by building the strongest operating system in the industry, focused on the biggest markets and segments where scale really counts.

The Group has four stated strategic priorities:

brand performance to operate a portfolio of brands attractive to both owners and guests, that have clear market positions in relation to competitors;

excellent hotel returns to generate higher owner returns through revenue delivery and improved operating efficiency;

market scale and knowledge to accelerate profitable growth in the largest markets where the Group currently has scale; and aligned organization to create a more efficient organization with strong core capabilities.

Executing the four strategic priorities is designed to achieve:

organic growth, from June 2005, of 50,000 to 60,000 net rooms by the end of 2008 taking total room numbers from approximately 538,000 to approximately 588,000 to 598,000;

out-performance of Total Shareholder Return (TSR) against a competitor set; and improved Return on Capital Employed (ROCE).

Growth is expected to come predominantly from managing and franchising rather than owning hotels. The managed and franchised model is attractive because it enables the Group to achieve its goals with limited capital. With a relatively fixed cost base, such growth yields high incremental margins for the Group, and is primarily how the Group has grown to date. For this reason, the Group has executed a disposal program of its owned hotels, releasing capital and enabling returns of funds to shareholders (see Item 3. Key Information Risk Factors).

The main characteristic of the managed and franchised business model on which the Group has focused is that it is highly cash generative, with high ROCE. Over 3,500 hotels operating under Group brands are managed or franchised.

The Group aims to deliver its growth targets through one of the strongest operating systems in the industry which includes:

a strong brand portfolio across the major markets, including two iconic brands: InterContinental and Holiday Inn;

Table of Contents

market coverage a presence in nearly 100 countries and territories;

hotel distribution 3,606 hotels, 537,533 rooms, 126 million guest stays per annum;

IHG global reservation channels delivering over $4.8 billion of rooms sales value to owners of Group managed hotels, franchisees and to the Group itself (global system rooms sales) in 2005, including $1.7 billion global system rooms sales from the internet. IHG reservation systems take over 22 million calls per annum;

A loyalty program, Priority Club Rewards, contributing $3.8 billion of global system rooms sales; and

A strong web presence holiday-inn.com is the industry s most visited site, with 75 million total site visits per annum.

With a clear target for rooms growth and many brands with significant market premiums offering excellent returns for owners, the Group is well placed to execute its strategy and achieve its goals.

Global System

The Group supports revenue delivery into its hotels through its global reservation system and global loyalty program (Priority Club Rewards) which is paid for by assessments from each hotel in the Group. The elements of the global system include:

Priority Club Rewards: The Group operates the Priority Club Rewards loyalty program. Members enjoy a variety of privileges and rewards as they stay at the Group's hotels around the world. IHG has alliances with over 40 airlines, which enable members to collect frequent flyer miles, and with external partners such as car hire companies and credit card companies, which provide exposure and access to IHG's system. Global system rooms sales generated from Priority Club Rewards members was $3.8 billion and represented approximately 32% of IHG global system rooms sales.

Central Reservation System Technology: The Group operates the HolidexPlus reservation system. The HolidexPlus system receives reservation requests entered on terminals located at most of its reservation centers, as well as from global distribution systems operated by a number of major corporations and travel agents. Where local hotel systems allow, the HolidexPlus system immediately confirms reservations or indicates alternative accommodation available within IHG's network. Confirmations are transmitted electronically to the hotel for which the reservation is made.

Reservation Call Centers: The Group operates 13 reservation centers around the world which enable it to sell in local languages in many countries and offer a high quality service to customers.

Internet: The Group introduced electronic hotel reservations in 1995. The Internet continues to be an important communications, branding and distribution channel for the Group's sales. During fiscal 2005, the internet channel continued to show strong growth, with global system rooms sales booked through the internet increasing by 23% to $1.7 billion. Approximately 14% of IHG global system rooms sales is sold via the internet through various branded websites, such as www.intercontinental.com and www.holiday-inn.com, as well as certified third parties (up from 13% in 2004). IHG made further progress in 2005 in establishing standards for working with third-party intermediaries on-line travel distributors who sell or re-sell IHG hotel rooms via their internet sites. Under the standards, certified distributors are required to respect IHG's trademarks, ensure reservations are guaranteed through an automated and common confirmation process, and clearly present fees to customers. By the end of 2005, IHG had certified most major third-party distributors including Travelocity, Travelocity Business, Priceline, Orbitz, Lastminute.com, Zuji, Hotel.de and HRS. About 86% of IHG global system rooms sales booked on the web is now booked directly through the Group's own brand sites. Arabic and Hebrew language websites have been added to the Group's seven local language websites already available.

The Group estimates that, during 2005, global system rooms sales booked through these reservation systems (which include company reservation centers, global distribution systems and internet reservations) rose by approximately 19% to $4.8 billion, and the proportion of IHG global system rooms sales booked through IHG's reservation channels increased from 38% to 41%.

Sales and Marketing

IHG targets its sales and marketing expenditure in each region on driving revenue and brand awareness or, in the case of sales investments, targeting segments such as corporate accounts, travel agencies and meeting organizers. The majority of IHG's sales and marketing expenditure is funded by contractual fees paid by most hotels in the system. The strategic goals for the global system as a whole include:

adding further locations and improving guest satisfaction for its brands;

continuing the focus on enrolments in Priority Club Rewards and increasing share of the total hotel spend to establish Priority Club Rewards as the number one program in the industry;

Table of Contents

making the direct channels the best available; and improving pricing structure.

The Candlewood Suites brand was acquired on December 31, 2003. Candlewood Suites is an extended- stay brand which complements Staybridge Suites positioning. Candlewood Suites is an established brand of carefully designed and purpose-built hotels created for stays of a week or longer with studio and one-bedroom suites featuring well-equipped kitchens, spacious work areas and an array of convenient amenities. As at December 31, 2005 there were 112 Candlewood Suites hotels. The major owner of Candlewood Suites properties is HPT and the Group manages all 76 of HPT's Candlewood properties under a 20 year agreement. At the end of 2005, Candlewood Suites represented 2.4% of all of the Group's rooms.

Hotel Indigo

In April 2004, the Group launched its seventh brand, Hotel Indigo, which is a new, innovative brand, designed for the style-conscious traveller who seeks the ambience of a boutique hotel with the benefits and consistencies of a global hotel operation. Inspired by lifestyle retailing, it features inviting service, inspiring artwork, casual gourmet restaurants, airy guest rooms and 24-hour business amenities. The first Hotel Indigo opened in Atlanta, Georgia in the United States in October 2004. A further two were added to the system in Chicago and as at December 31, 2005 there were three Hotel Indigo hotels, with 497 rooms. The Group plans to open a further seven Hotel Indigo properties by the end of 2006.

Geographical Analysis

Although it has worldwide hotel operations, the Group is most dependent on the Americas for operating profit, reflecting the structure of the branded global hotel market. In terms of its overall hotel level operating profit before central overheads and other operating income and expenses, the Americas represented 49%, EMEA represented 43% and the Asia Pacific region represented 8% in the year ended December 2005.

The geographical analysis, split by number of rooms and operating profit, is set out in the table below.

	Americas	EMEA	Asia Pacific

Room numbers(¹)	71.9	19.6	8.5
Hotel level operating profit (before central overheads and other operating income and expenses)(²)	49%	43%	8%

Americas

In the Americas, the largest proportion of rooms is operated under the franchise business model primarily in the midscale segment (Holiday Inn and Express). Similarly, in the upscale segment, Crowne Plaza is predominantly franchised, whereas the InterContinental brand currently has a bias toward ownership and management. With 2,834 hotels, the Americas represented the bulk of hotels and approximately 49% of Hotels operating profit before central costs and other operating income and expenses during the year ended December 31, 2005. The key profit producing region is the United States, although IHG is also represented in each of Latin America, Canada, Mexico and the Caribbean.

EMEA

Comprising 610 hotels at the end of 2005, EMEA represented approximately 43% of Hotels operating profit before central costs and other operating income and expenses during the year ended December 31, 2005. The key profit producing regions are the United Kingdom and the main continental European gateway cities.

Asia Pacific

Asia Pacific represented 8.5% of Hotels rooms and 8% of Hotels operating profit before central costs and other operating income and expenses during the year ended December 31, 2005. IHG has a strong and growing presence in Asia Pacific, comprising 162 hotels in total. Currently Greater China is expected to generate significant growth in the hotel and tourism industry over the next decade. The Group believes that the region represents a good source of growth due to the current low penetration of brands offering the opportunity for IHG's brands to build strong positions in key markets. As at December 31, 2005 the Group had 51 hotels in Greater China and a further 38 in development.

Room Count and System Pipeline

The IHG global system (that is, the number of hotels/rooms owned, leased, managed or franchised by the Group) grew significantly during 2005 ending the fiscal year at 3,606 hotels and 537,533 rooms, 66 hotels and 3,331 rooms higher than at December 31, 2004 (see Figure 4). During 2005, 254 hotels with 34,880 rooms were added to the system, while 188 hotels with 31,549 rooms were removed from the system. Of the hotels removed from the system, 139 (21,764 rooms) were in the Americas and 46 (7,896 rooms) were in EMEA. The EMEA removals included 6,338 rooms from the termination of franchise agreements in South Africa. Excluding the South African franchise removals and eight hotels (2,135 rooms) removed from the system due to hurricane damage, net system size increased by 101 hotels (11,804 rooms).

One of the key elements of the asset disposal program is the retention of management contracts for the hotels sold. Of those sold between Separation and December 31, 2005, management contracts or franchise agreements were retained for 126 hotels. Overall, the number of owned and leased rooms fell by 22,935 while the number of managed and franchised rooms in the system grew by 22,296 rooms and 3,970 rooms respectively.

At the end of 2005, the number of rooms in the pipeline (that is, contracts signed but hotels/ rooms yet to enter the system) was 108,512 31% up on December 31, 2004 and the highest ever for the Group (see Figure 5). This positions the Group well to achieve its stated goal of organic growth of 50,000 to 60,000 net rooms in the period June 2005 to December 2008. Whilst there is no guarantee that all of the pipeline will enter the system in that period, a number of initiatives are in place to both secure new deals and to reduce the time between a hotel signing with IHG and opening.

The growth in pipeline was fuelled by record signings during 2005; 69,970 rooms were signed which was over 60% up on the average for the last five years. This partly reflects the increased investment in development resource particularly in the Americas and Asia Pacific.

Since the year end, IHG has announced that it has signed contracts with a single owner to manage six hotels (over 4,500 rooms) in China's Sichuan province, and it has announced further signings with a second owner to manage four hotels with over 1,400 rooms, also in China.

There are no assurances that all of the hotels in the pipeline will open or enter the system. The construction, conversion and development of hotels is dependent upon a number of factors, including meeting brand standards, obtaining the necessary permits relating to construction and operation, the cost of constructing, converting and equipping such hotels and the ability to obtain suitable financing at acceptable interest rates. The supply of capital for hotel development in the United States and major economies may not continue at previous levels and consequently the system pipeline could decrease.

Seasonality

Although the performance of individual hotels and geographic markets might be highly seasonal due to a variety of factors such as the tourist trade and local economic conditions, the geographical spread of IHG's hotels in almost 100 countries and territories and the relative stability of the income stream from management and franchising activities diminish the effect of seasonality on the results of the Group.

Table of ContentsCompetition

The Group's hotels compete with a wide range of facilities offering various types of lodging options and related services to the public. The competition includes several large and moderate sized hotel chains offering upper, mid and lower priced accommodation and also includes independent hotels in each of these market segments, particularly outside of North America where the lodging industry is much more fragmented. Major hotel chains which compete with the Group include Marriott International, Inc., Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc., Choice Hotels International, Inc., Best Western International, Inc., Hilton Hotels Corporation, Cendant Corporation, Four Seasons Hotels Inc. and Accor S.A.

Key Relationships

The Group has a number of significant relationships with hotel owning groups, where IHG manages hotels on behalf of the owners and earns fees based on the performance of the hotels.

On January 25, 2006 IHG announced a restructured management agreement with Felcor Lodging Trust Inc., (FelCor), covering all of the hotels (15,790 rooms) owned by FelCor and managed by IHG. Seventeen hotels (6,301 rooms) will be retained by FelCor and managed by IHG, under revised contract terms (the contract duration has been extended to 2025 and the incentive fees on all the hotels have been rebased). HPT has purchased seven of the hotels (2,072 rooms) from FelCor for $160 million, which IHG will continue to manage under a separate management agreement. There is no increase in the guarantees to HPT (described in Item 10. Additional Information Material Contracts) as a result of this transaction. Nine further hotels (2,463 rooms) can be sold by FelCor, retaining a Group brand. FelCor has the right to sell or convert a further 15 hotels (4,954 rooms); with or without an IHG brand.

Since the year end, the Group has sold its entire shareholding in FelCor for $191 million in cash.

Performance Indicators

The Group considers Revenue per Available Room (RevPAR) to be a meaningful indicator of performance because it measures the period-over-period change in room revenues for comparable properties. RevPAR is calculated by dividing room revenue by total room nights available for a given period. RevPAR may not be comparable to similarly titled measures, such as revenues.

The Group received aggregate proceeds of approximately £371 million (including two additional dividends, one of £47 million received in November 2005, and another of £89 million, received in May 2005, before any commissions or expenses).

PROPERTY, PLANTS AND EQUIPMENT

Group companies own and lease properties throughout the world. The table below analyzes the net book value of land and buildings (excluding assets classified as held for sale) at December 31, 2005. Approximately 52% of the properties by value were directly owned, with 46% held under leases having a term of 50 years or longer. These numbers have significantly changed in 2005 reflecting hotel sales and the disposal of the Group's interest in Britvic.

Net book value of land and buildings as at December 31, 2005	Europe, the Middle East and Africa	Americas	Asia Pacific	Total
		(£ million)
Hotels	609	241	204	1,054

Group properties comprise hotels. Approximately 56% of the Group's property values relate to the top five owned and leased hotels (in terms of value) of a total of 29 hotels.

In the year ended December 31, 2005 property, plant and equipment have been written down by £7 million (2004; £48 million) following an impairment review of certain hotel assets based on current market trading conditions. The fair value has been measured by reference to recent transactions for hotel assets in these markets.

ENVIRONMENT

IHG is committed to all its operating companies having a responsibility to act in a way that respects the environment in which they operate. The Group's strong presence in the United States and European Union markets mean that it is affected by and is familiar with highly developed environmental laws and controls. IHG regularly considers environmental matters and seeks to embed good practice into its business strategies and operations. IHG was awarded membership of the FTSE4Good Index Series in 2005.

As an owner, manager and franchisor of hotels in about 100 countries, IHG has a wide range of environmental responsibilities and a unique opportunity to lead the worldwide hospitality industry in developing policies and practices.

As the Group pursues its strategic growth, it aims to minimise the effect on the environment and to make sure that the Group:

is sensitive to environmental issues and considers all the potential effects of its projects and developments;

introduces, promotes, implements and enforces sound environmental policies;

establishes management responsibility and accountability for environmentally friendly practices; and benchmarks performance against best industry practice.

As part of this, in 2006 the Group will improve data collection and reporting to increase energy efficiency. The Group's hotels already take steps to conserve resources, including energy and water, and to manage waste and recycling effectively. The objective is to benchmark these achievements more effectively so that clear targets for improvement can be set where necessary.

As a founding member of the International Hotels Environment Initiative (IHEI), IHG has worked closely with others in the industry to produce the Sustainable Hotel Siting, Design & Construction Guidelines, launched by The Prince of Wales International Business Leaders Forum.

The Group also operates Conserving For Tomorrow, an environmental program developed exclusively for IHG and used in more than 50 per cent of the Group's properties. Guests are asked to use their linens and towels more than once to save on water, detergent, energy, labor, and replacement linen. Conserving For Tomorrow has an 80-90 per cent approval rating from hotel guests and for each average-sized, 100-room hotel it saves 6,000 gallons of water and 40 gallons of detergent each month.

Group companies incur expenditure on technical advice, services and equipment in addressing the environmental laws and regulations enacted in the countries in which they operate. In 2005, such expenditure was not material in the context of their financial results.

It is not possible to forecast the overall Group expenditure required to comply with environmental laws and regulations; this reflects the difficulty in assessing the risk of environmental accidents and the changing nature of laws and regulations. IHG expects, however, that it should be in a position to control such expenditure so that, although it may be considerable, it will be unlikely to have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial position or results of operations.

ITEM 5. OPERATING AND FINANCIAL REVIEW AND PROSPECTS

INTRODUCTION

Business and Overview

The Group is a worldwide owner, operator and franchisor of hotels and resorts. Through its various subsidiaries it owned, managed, leased or franchised over 3,600 hotels and 537,000 guest rooms in nearly 100 countries and territories around the world, as at December 31, 2005. The Group's brands include InterContinental Hotels & Resorts, Crowne Plaza Hotels & Resorts, Holiday Inn Hotels & Resorts, Holiday

Table of Contents

Inn Express, Staybridge Suites, Candlewood Suites and Hotel Indigo. The Group also manages the hotel loyalty program, Priority Club Rewards.

With the disposal of the Group's interests in Britvic, a manufacturer and distributor of soft drinks in the United Kingdom, by way of an initial public offering in December 2005, the Group is now focused solely on hotel franchising, management and ownership.

The Group's revenue and earnings are derived from (i) hotel operations, which include operation of the Group's owned hotels, management and other fees paid under management contracts, where the Group operates third-parties hotels, and franchise and other fees paid under franchise agreements and (ii) until December 14, 2005, the manufacture and distribution of soft drinks.

Operational Performance

The Hotels business reported growth in all regions at the revenue and operating profit lines for continuing operations. The regional increases were driven by RevPAR growth of approximately 9% across the 3,600 hotels and was mostly driven by increases in rate.

The performance of the Hotels business is evaluated primarily on a regional basis. The regional operations are split by similar product or services: franchise agreement, management contract, and owned and leased operations. All three income types are affected by occupancy and room rates achieved by hotels, our ability to manage costs and the change in the number of available rooms through acquisition, development and disposition. Results are also impacted by economic conditions and capacity. The Group's segmental results are shown before other operating income and expenses, interest expense, interest income and income taxes.

The Group believes the period-over-period movement in RevPAR to be a meaningful indicator for the performance of the Hotels business.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES UNDER IFRS AND US GAAP

The preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and costs and expense during the reporting periods. On an ongoing basis, management evaluates its estimates and judgments, including those relating to revenue recognition, bad debts, inventories, investments, property, plant and equipment, goodwill and intangible assets, income taxes, financing operations, frequent guest program liability, self-insurance claims payable, restructuring costs, retirement benefits and contingencies and litigation.

Management bases its estimates and judgments on historical experience and on various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying value of assets and liabilities that are not readily available from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions and conditions.

The Group's critical accounting policies are set out below.

Property, Plant and Equipment and Intangible Assets

(i) Goodwill and other Intangible Assets

Definite lived intangible assets are capitalized and amortized over their anticipated life.

Under IFRS, goodwill arising on acquisitions prior to October 1, 1998 was eliminated against equity. From October 1, 1998 to December 31, 2003, acquired goodwill was capitalized and amortized over a period not exceeding 20 years. Since January 1, 2004, goodwill continued to be capitalized but amortization ceased as at that date.

Table of Contents

Under US GAAP, goodwill arising on acquisitions prior to July 1, 2001 was capitalized and amortized over its estimated useful life, not exceeding 40 years. From October 1, 2002, goodwill and indefinite life intangible assets are not amortized but are reviewed annually for impairment.

Under IFRS, the Company uses a discounted cash flow model to test indefinite life intangibles for impairment on an annual basis. The discounted cash flow model requires assumptions about the timing and amount of net cash inflows, economic projections, cost of capital and terminal values. Each of these can significantly affect the value of indefinite life intangibles.

Under US GAAP, the Company tests identified intangible assets with defined useful lives by comparing the carrying value to the sum of undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by the asset.

(ii) Impairment

Under IFRS and US GAAP the carrying value of both tangible and finite lived intangible assets are assessed for indicators of impairment. The Company evaluates the carrying value of its long-lived assets based on its plans, at the time, for such assets and such qualitative factors as future development in the surrounding area, status of expected local competition and projected capital expenditure plans. Changes to the Company's plans, including decisions to dispose of or change the intended use of an asset, can have a material impact on the carrying value of the asset.

Under IFRS, property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value may not be recoverable. Assets that do not generate independent cash flows are combined into cash-generating units. If carrying values exceed the estimated recoverable amount, the assets or cash-generating units are written down to their recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is the greater of fair value less cost to sell and value in use. Value in use is assessed based on estimated future cash flows discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. The outcome of such an assessment is subjective, and the result sensitive to the assumed future cashflows to be generated by the assets and discount rates applied in calculating the value in use, both of which will be dependent on the type of asset and its location. Any impairment arising is charged to the income statement. Under US GAAP, the assessment of an asset's carrying value is by reference in the first instance to undiscounted cashflows. To the extent that undiscounted cashflows do not support carrying value, the fair value of assets must be calculated and the difference to the current carrying value charged to the income statement.

During 2005, under IFRS the Company recorded an impairment of its property, plant and equipment of £7 million, all of which relates to Hotels and represents 0.5% of the total carrying value of property, plant and equipment. For the purposes of US GAAP, the Company recorded an impairment of its property, plant and equipment of £24 million.

Sale of Real Estate

Under IFRS, the Company recognises the sales proceeds and related profit or loss on disposal on completion of the sales process. The Group considers the following questions in determining whether revenue and profit should be recorded:

does the Company have a continuing managerial involvement of the degree associated with asset ownership;

has the Company transferred the significant risks and rewards associated with asset ownership;

can the Company reliably measure the proceeds; and will the Company actually receive the proceeds.

For US GAAP, the Company accounts for sales of real estate in accordance with FAS 66 Accounting for Sales of Real Estate. If there is significant continuing involvement with the property, any gain on sale is deferred and is recognized over the life of the long-term management contract retained on the property. The deferral of gains on such sales totaled £5 million in 2005 and £nil million in 2004.

Income Taxes

The Company provides for deferred tax in accordance with IAS 12 Income Taxes in respect of all temporary differences between the tax base and carrying value of assets and liabilities. Those temporary differences recognized include accelerated capital allowances, unrelieved tax losses, unremitted profits from overseas where the Company does not control remittance, gains rolled over into replacement assets, gains on previously revalued properties and other short-term temporary differences. Under US GAAP, deferred tax is computed, in accordance with FAS No. 109

Accounting for Income Taxes, on all temporary differences between the tax bases and book values of assets and liabilities which will result in taxable or tax deductible amounts arising in future years. Deferred tax assets under IFRS are recognized to the extent that it is regarded as probable that the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Under US GAAP, deferred tax assets are recognized in full and a valuation allowance is made to the extent that it is not more likely than not that they will be realized. Under US GAAP, the Company estimates deferred tax assets and liabilities based on current tax laws and rates, and in certain cases, business plans. Changes in these estimates may affect the amount of deferred tax liabilities or the valuation of deferred tax assets.

Under both IFRS and US GAAP, accruals for tax contingencies require judgments on the expected outcome of tax exposures, whereas the actual results may vary resulting in releases of contingencies or cash tax settlements.

Loyalty program

Priority Club Rewards enables members to earn points, funded through hotel assessments, during each stay at an InterContinental Hotels Group hotel and redeem the points at a later date for free accommodation or other benefits. The future redemption liability is included in trade and other payables and provisions and other payables in the consolidated balance sheets in the Consolidated Financial Statements and is estimated using actuarial methods based on statistical formulas that project timing of future point redemption based on historical levels to give eventual redemption rates and points values.

Legal Contingencies

The Company is subject to various legal proceedings and claims, the outcomes of which are subject to significant uncertainty. Under both IFRS and US GAAP accruals are recorded for loss contingencies when a loss is probable and the amount can be reasonably estimated.

OPERATING RESULTS

Accounting Principles

The Group was required to produce its first set of audited financial statements in line with IFRS for the year ending December 31, 2005.

The Group has taken the following exemptions available under IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards :

(a) Not to restate the comparative information disclosed in the 2005 financial statements in accordance with IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation and IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement .

(b) Not to restate business combinations before January 1, 2004.

Table of Contents

- (c) To recognize all actuarial gains and losses on pensions and other post-employment benefits directly in equity at January 1, 2004.
- (d) To retain UK GAAP carrying values of property, plant and equipment, including revaluations, as deemed cost at transition.
- (e) Not to recognize separately cumulative foreign exchange movements up to January 1, 2004.
- (f) To apply IFRS 2 Share-based Payments to grants of equity instruments after November 7, 2002 that had not vested at January 1, 2005.

The disclosures required by IFRS 1 are given in Note 30 of Notes to the Financial Statements.

For the year ended December 31, 2005 the results include special items totaling a net credit of £297 million (2004 £142 million see year ended December 31, 2005 compared to year ended December 31, 2004 Special Items). For comparability of the periods presented, some performance indicators in this Operating and Financial Review and Prospects discussion have been calculated after eliminating these special items. Such indicators are prefixed with adjusted. A reconciliation to the amounts under IFRS including such special items is included in Note 9 of Notes to the Financial Statements.

Table of Contents

Net Financing Costs

Net financing costs totaled £33 million in 2005 the same as in 2004. In 2005, £9 million related to Soft Drinks and is classified as discontinued operations. The prior year net financing expense included a net £11 million charge that is treated as a special item and is excluded from the calculation of adjusted earnings per share.

Taxation

The effective rate of tax on profit before tax, excluding the impact of special items, was 28.6%. By also excluding the impact of prior year items, which are included wholly within continuing operations, the equivalent effective tax rate would be 37.8%. This rate is higher than the UK statutory rate of 30% due mainly to overseas profits being taxed at rates higher than the UK statutory rate. The equivalent effective rates for 2004, restated under IFRS, were 17.3% and 38.6% respectively.

Taxation special items totaled an £8 million credit (2004 £183 million credit). In 2005, this represented the release of provisions which were special by reason of their size or incidence, relating to tax matters which were settled during the year, or in respect of which the statutory limitation period had expired. In 2004, taxation special items, in addition to such provision releases, included £83 million for the recognition of a deferred tax asset in respect of capital losses.

Net tax paid in 2005 was £91 million (2004 £35 million) including £11 million in respect of disposals.

Gain on Disposal of Assets

The gain on disposal of assets, net of related tax, totaled £311 million in 2005 and mainly comprised a net gain on disposal of Soft Drinks of £284 million and a net gain on hotel asset disposals of £27 million.

Earnings

Basic earnings per share for 2005 were 95.2 pence, compared with 53.9 pence in 2004. Adjusted earnings per share, removing the non-comparable special items, were 38.2 pence, against 33.9 pence in 2004. Adjusted earnings per share for continuing operations were 24.9 pence, 44% up on last year.

Dividends

The Board has proposed a final dividend per share of 10.7 pence; with the interim dividend of 4.6 pence the normal dividend for 2005 totaled 15.3 pence.

Proceeds from the disposal of operations and other financial assets totaled £2,046 million and included proceeds from the sale of Soft Drinks of £220 million and from the sale of hotels of £1,826 million.

Capital expenditure for Hotels totaled £136 million compared with £187 million in 2004, as the Group continued its asset disposal program. Total Americas continuing operating profit was $342 million, a 25.3% increase on continuing operating profit for the year ended December 31, 2004 of $273 million.

Franchised revenue increased by 9.0% to $389 million as a result of strong trading and increased room count and signings. RevPARs across the brands showed strong growth, with Holiday Inn RevPAR 9.2% up on 2004, Holiday Inn Express 10.3% up and Crowne Plaza 8.4% up. The franchised estate increased by 3,878 rooms in the year with the most significant increase being in the Holiday Inn Express brand. Franchised revenue also benefited from the number of signings in 2005 with a record 47,245 room signings (50% up on 2004) leading to higher sales revenues than in 2004. Franchised operating profit rose by $36 million to $340 million.

Continuing owned and leased revenue increased by over 30% driven by strong trading in the comparable estate (those hotels fully trading as owned and leased in both financial years). Comparable RevPARs were 17.7% up for InterContinental and 14.0% up for Holiday Inn with average daily rate growth fuelling the increased RevPAR. The InterContinental Buckhead, Atlanta, also contributed its first full year of trading after opening in November 2004. These revenue increases, together with improved operating efficiency in the hotels, led to continuing owned and leased operating profit increasing significantly over 2004, from $7 million to $28 million.

Managed revenue increased from $55 million in 2004 to $118 million as a result of strong trading in the comparable estate boosted by the 13 hotels sold to HPT and the two hotels acquired by SHC. Managed revenue also includes $70 million (2004 $27 million) from properties (including the InterContinental San Juan sold in the year) that are structured, for legal reasons, as operating leases but with the same economic characteristics as a management contract. Overall, managed RevPARs grew by 16.2% for InterContinental, 12.9% for Crowne Plaza, 11.0% for Holiday Inn, 9.1% for Staybridge Suites and 14.8% for Candlewood Suites. Managed operating profit increased from $12 million to $36 million including $9 million (2004 $3 million) from the managed properties held as operating leases, including a contribution from the 15 hotels moving from ownership to management.

Americas regional overheads increased to $62 million from $50 million in 2004, reflecting investment in additional development resources and information technology.

Americas hotel and room count grew by a net 51 hotels (279 rooms) to 2,834 hotels (386,606 rooms). 190 hotels (22,043 rooms) entered the system and 139 hotels (21,764 rooms) left the system. Of the removals, 83 hotels

(16,188 rooms) were Holiday Inn and 53 hotels (4,561 rooms) were Holiday Inn Express. Of the removals nearly 60% were enforced by IHG as a result of quality or financial concerns.

Table of Contents

The Americas pipeline grew to record levels, 742 hotels (76,865 rooms), with 447 hotels (49,765 rooms) signing contracts during the year to enter the system. Of these signings, 19,355 rooms were Holiday Inn Express.

The EMEA operating model changed in 2005 as a result of the disposal of 73 hotels in the UK to LRG and a number of smaller transactions. As a result, the number of owned and leased hotels reduced by 85 whilst the number of managed hotels increased by 77, including 73 in connection with the LRG transaction.

Revenue from continuing operations increased by 8.3% to £326 million and continuing operating profit before other operating income and expenses increased by 95.8% to £47 million.

Owned and leased revenue from continuing operations increased by 2.2% from £231 million in 2004 to £236 million. Performance across the region was mixed with variable trading conditions in parts of Continental Europe. The refurbishment of the InterContinental London impacted the overall result with the hotel being disrupted for most of the year and closed in the final quarter of the year. Owned and leased operating profit from continuing operations increased by £9 million to £11 million.

Managed revenue increased by £12 million to £55 million. The 2004 result benefited from the receipt in 2004 of approximately £4 million liquidated damages from the early termination of the InterContinental Barcelona management contract. The 2005 result was affected by a loss of earnings following the bombings in Beirut, but underlying trading was strong, particularly in the Middle East where managed RevPAR increased by 11.9%. Management fees are also included from LRG for the hotels sold in May 2005 (including incentive fees); Holiday Inn

UK RevPAR overall was up to 4.6%.

Franchised revenue for EMEA increased by £8 million to £35 million. Holiday Inn franchised RevPAR increased by 4.9% and Holiday Inn Express RevPAR increased by 5.9%. Franchised operating profit increased by £5 million to £26 million and included £7 million liquidated damages for the termination of franchise agreements in South Africa.

EMEA hotel and room count at December 31, 2005 was broadly level with December 31, 2004 at 610 hotels (105,419 rooms) despite the termination of the master franchise agreement in South Africa (6,338 rooms). Two significant deals added hotels to the system during the year, five Holiday Inn hotels (602 rooms) in the UK from a franchise agreement with Stardon, a joint venture company formed between Starwood Capital Europe and Chardon Hotels, and 13 hotels (2,233 rooms) in the UK from a franchise agreement with Queens Moat Houses Limited.

The EMEA pipeline at December 31, 2005 was 86 hotels (14,278 rooms).

Asia Pacific revenue from continuing operations increased by 18.6% to $153 million and operating profit before other operating income and expenses increased by 26.7% to $38 million.

Continuing owned and leased operating profit grew from $17 million in 2004 to $19 million mainly reflecting strong trading in the InterContinental Hong Kong which achieved RevPAR growth of 11.7% over 2004, driven by average daily rate growth.

Asia Pacific managed operating profit grew strongly from $25 million to $29 million, reflecting both the impact of improved RevPAR and an increase in room count over 2004. Greater China managed RevPAR increased by 13.6% and Australia, New Zealand and South Pacific managed RevPAR increased by 6.1%.

Asia Pacific franchised operating profit increased by $2 million to $5 million.

Regional overheads were level at $15 million despite increased resources for the planned expansion in Greater China. During 2005, a further nine hotels (2,839 rooms) opened in Greater China and 20 hotels (7,308 rooms) signed contracts and entered the pipeline.

Table of Contents

Overall, the number of hotels in Asia Pacific increased by 13 hotels (3,383 rooms). During the year, ten owned and leased hotels (2,315 rooms) in Australia, New Zealand and Fiji were sold but retained with management contracts.

Asia Pacific pipeline grew by 14 managed hotels (4,564 rooms) primarily in the InterContinental and Crowne Plaza brands. In addition, on February 15, 2006, IHG announced that it had signed contracts with a single owner to manage six hotels (over 4,500 rooms) in China's Sichuan province, and on February 24, 2006 announced that it had signed contracts with an owner to manage four hotels, with over 1,400 rooms, also in China.

Net central costs increased by £8 million reflecting increased governance costs, further investment to support development and the accounting treatment of share scheme costs. Under IFRS, the charges for share option schemes established after November 2002 are accounted for in the income statement. As share scheme awards are generally made annually and the accounting cost is spread over three years, 2005 is the first year that a full annual cost is taken into account.

Discontinued Operations

For the year ended December 31, 2005 operating profit from hotels classified as discontinued was £79 million (2004 £135 million) and was £70 million (2004 £77 million) for the Soft Drinks business.

The net gain on disposal of assets for hotels was £25 million (2004 £19 million) and for Soft Drinks was £286 million (2004 £nil million).

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Sources of Liquidity

In 2004 the Group refinanced its syndicated bank facility which gave the Group greater financial flexibility at a lower cost. The current size of the facility is £1.1 billion. As a result of the cost effective funding obtained from the bank market the Group repurchased its 600 million 4.75% 2010 Notes in December 2004 and January 2005.

At December 31, 2005 gross debt (including currency swaps liabilities of £367 million) amounted to £779 million comprising £488 million of euro denominated borrowings, £220 million of US dollar denominated borrowings and £71 million of Hong Kong dollar denominated borrowings.

At December 31, 2005 committed bank facilities amounted to £1,163 million of which £751 million were unutilized. Uncommitted facilities totaled £14 million. In the Group's opinion, the working capital is sufficient for the Group's present requirements.

Table of Contents

The Group also held short term deposits and investments at December 31, 2005 amounting to £686 million (including currency swap assets of £362 million). Credit risk on treasury transactions is minimised by operating a policy on investment of surplus funds that generally restricts counterparties to those with an A credit rating or better or those providing adequate security. Limits are also set on the amounts invested with individual counterparties. Most of the Group's surplus funds are held in the United Kingdom or United States and there are no material funds where repatriation is restricted as a result of foreign exchange regulations.

The Group is in compliance with its financial covenants in its loan documentation none of which represent a material restriction on funding or investment policy in the foreseeable future.

Details of exchange and interest rate risk and financial instruments are disclosed in Item 11. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk .

Cash From Operating Activities

Cash flow from operating activities is the principal source of cash used to fund the ongoing operating expenses, interest payments, maintenance capital expenditure and dividend payments of the Group. The Group believes that the requirements of its existing business and future investment can be met from cash generated internally, disposition of assets and businesses and external finance expected to be available to it.

Cash Used for Investing Activities

IHG's second £250 million on-market share repurchase program was announced in September 2004 and commenced in December 2004. In 2005, 30.6 million shares were repurchased at an average price of 672 pence per share making the total purchased under the second program £211 million. On September 8, 2005 IHG announced a further £250 million share repurchase program to commence on completion of the second program. The precise timing of share purchases will be dependent upon, amongst other things, market conditions. Purchases are under the existing authority from shareholders which will be renewed at the Annual General Meeting 2006. Any shares repurchased under this program will be canceled.

On July 8, 2005, IHG returned a further £996 million capital to shareholders following the capital reorganization of the Group completed in June 2005. Under the reorganization, shareholders received 11 new ordinary shares and £24.75 cash in exchange for every 15 existing ordinary shares held on June 24, 2005.

On March 2, 2006, IHG announced that a £500 million special dividend will be paid to shareholders in the second quarter of 2006.

Since April 2003, IHG has announced the return of £2.75 billion of funds to shareholders by way of special dividends, share repurchase programs and capital returned.

As of December 31, 2005, the Group had committed contractual capital expenditure of £76 million. Contracts for expenditure on fixed assets are not authorized by the directors on an annual basis, as divisional capital expenditure is controlled by cash flow budgets. Authorization of major projects occurs shortly before contracts are placed.

The Group intends to invest approximately £180 million in capital expenditure in 2006. This level of capital expenditure is reviewed regularly during the year and may be increased or decreased in the light of prevailing economic and market conditions and other financial considerations.

The Company may provide performance guarantees to third-party owners to secure management contracts. The maximum exposure under such guarantees is £134 million. It is the view of the directors that, other than to the extent that liabilities have been provided for in the Consolidated Financial Statements, such guarantees are not expected to result in financial loss to the Group.

As of December 31, 2005, the Group had outstanding letters of credit of £18 million mainly relating to self-insurance programs.

The Group may guarantee loans made to facilitate third-party ownership of hotels in which the Group has an equity interest and also a management contract. As of December 31, 2005, the Group was a guarantor of loans which could amount to a maximum of £15 million.

The Group has given warranties in respect of the disposal of certain of its former subsidiaries. The Company believes that, other than to the extent that liabilities have been provided for in the Consolidated Financial Statements, such warranties are not expected to result in financial loss to the Group.

Pension Plan Commitments

IHG operates two main schemes; the InterContinental Hotels UK Pension Plan, and the US based InterContinental Hotels Pension Plan.

The InterContinental Hotels UK Pension Plan was established with effect from April 1, 2003. On an IAS 19

Employee Benefits basis, at December 31, 2005 the Plan had a deficit of £24 million. The defined benefits section of this Plan is generally closed to new members. In 2006, the Group expects to make projected regular contributions to the UK principal plan of £4 million.

The US based InterContinental Hotels Pension Plan is closed to new members and pensionable service no longer accrues for current employee members. On an IAS 19 basis, at December 31, 2005 the Plan had a deficit of $71 million.

The InterContinental Hotels Group will be exposed to the funding risks in relation to the defined benefit sections of the InterContinental Hotels UK Pension Plan and the US based InterContinental Hotels Pension Plan, as explained in Item 3. Key Information Risk Factors .

Details of exchange and interest rate risk and financial instruments are disclosed in Item 11. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk .

COMPENSATION

In fiscal 2005, the aggregate compensation (including pension contributions, bonus and awards under the long term incentive plans) of the directors and officers of the Company was £14.4 million. The aggregate amount set aside or accrued by the Company in fiscal 2005 to provide pension retirement or similar benefits for those individuals was £287,187. An amount of £6.9 million was charged in fiscal 2005 in respect of bonuses payable to them under performance related cash bonus schemes and long term incentive plans.

Note 3 of Notes to the Financial Statements sets out the individual compensation of the directors. The following are details of the Company's principal share schemes, in which the directors of the Company participated during the period.

Share Plans

Under the terms of the Separation of Six Continents PLC in 2003, holders of options under the Six Continents Executive Share Option Schemes were given the opportunity to exchange their Six Continents options for equivalent value new options over IHG PLC shares. During fiscal 2005, 4,138,482 such options were exercised, leaving a total of 7,909,002 such options outstanding at prices ranging from 308.48p to 593.29p.

Executive Share Option Plan

The Remuneration Committee, consisting solely of independent non-executive directors, may select employees within the Group, including executive directors, of the Company, to receive a grant of options to acquire ordinary shares in the Company. Under the terms of the Plan the option price may not be less than the market value of an ordinary share, or the nominal value if higher. The market value is either the quoted price on the business day preceding the date of grant, or the average of the middle market quoted prices on the three consecutive dealing days immediately preceding the date of grant. The international schedule to the share plan extends it to executives outside the United Kingdom. Grants of options under the Executive Share Option Plan have normally been made annually and except in exceptional circumstances, have not, in any year, exceeded three times annual salary for executive directors. A performance condition must be met before options can be exercised. The performance condition is set by the Remuneration Committee.

In April 2005, options were granted to 58 employees over 2,104,570 IHG shares at 619.83p per share. For options granted in 2005, the Company's adjusted earnings per share over the three-year performance period ending December 31, 2007 must increase by at least nine percentage points over the increase in the UK Retail Prices Index for the same period for any of the award to vest. Options granted in 2005 are exercisable between 2008 and 2015, subject to the achievement of the performance condition.

Following a full review of incentive arrangements, the Remuneration Committee has concluded that share options are not the most effective incentive for the foreseeable future and therefore no further grants of options will be made. However, the Committee believes that share ownership by executive directors and senior executives strengthens the link between the individual's personal interest and that of the shareholders.

As of March 17, 2006, options over 22,459,267 IHG PLC shares were outstanding under the Executive Share Option Plan.

Table of Contents

Short Term Deferred Incentive Plan

The IHG Short Term Deferred Incentive Plan (the STDIP) enables eligible employees, including executive directors, to receive all or part of their bonus in the form of IHG PLC shares on a deferred basis. Matching shares may also be awarded up to 0.5 times the deferred amount. The bonus and matching shares are deferred and will normally be released at the end of each of the three years following deferral. Participation in the STDIP is at the discretion of the IHG PLC directors. The number of shares is calculated by dividing a specific percentage of the participant's salary by the average share price for a period of days prior to the date on which the shares are granted. As of March 17, 2006, there were 1,157,708 IHG PLC shares over which conditional rights had been awarded to participants under the Plan.

Performance Restricted Share Plan

The Performance Restricted Share Plan allows executive directors and eligible employees to receive share awards, subject to the satisfaction of a performance condition, set by the Remuneration Committee, which is normally measured over a three-year period. Awards are normally made annually and, except in exceptional circumstances, will not exceed three times annual salary for executive directors. In determining the level of awards within this maximum limit, the Committee takes into account the level of Executive Share Options already granted to the same person. The grant of awards is restricted so that in each year the aggregate of (i) 20% of the market value of the executive share options and (ii) 33% of the market value of performance restricted shares, will not exceed 130% of annual salary, taking the market value in each case as at the date of grant. As of March 17, 2006 there were 7,373,799 IHG PLC shares over which conditional rights had been awarded to employees under the Plan. The Plan provides for the grant of nil cost options to participants as an alternative to share awards. As of March 17, 2006, no such nil cost options had been granted.

Sharesave Plan

The Sharesave Plan is a savings plan whereby employees contract to save a fixed amount each month with a Savings Institution for 3 or 5 years. At the end of the savings term, employees are given the option to purchase shares at a price set before savings began. The Sharesave Plan is available to all UK employees (including executive directors) employed by participating Group companies provided they have been employed for at least one year. The Plan provides for the grant of options to subscribe for ordinary shares at the higher of nominal value and not less than 80% of the middle market quotations of the ordinary shares immediately before invitations go out. As of March 17, 2006, options over 725,292 IHG PLC shares were outstanding under the Sharesave Plan at a subscription price of 420.5p, exercisable up to the year 2009.

Options and Ordinary Shares held by Directors

Details of the directors' interests in the Company's shares are set out on page 68 and in Note 3 of the Notes to the Financial Statements.

BOARD PRACTICES

Contracts of Service

The Remuneration Committee's policy is for Executive Directors to have rolling contracts with a notice period of 12 months.

Richard Hartman, Stevan Porter and Richard Solomons have service agreements with a notice period of 12 months. Andrew Cosslett entered into a service agreement with an initial notice period of 24 months, reducing month by month to 12 months of service. As at the date of this report, Andrew Cosslett's notice period is 12 months. All new appointments are intended to have 12-month notice periods. However, on occasion, to complete an external recruitment successfully, a longer initial period reducing to 12 months may be useful.

Table of Contents

David Webster ceased to act in his temporary capacity as interim Chief Executive following the appointment of Andrew Cosslett as Chief Executive on February 3, 2005. David Webster's appointment as non-executive Chairman, effective from January 1, 2004, is subject to six months' notice.

See Note 3 of the Notes to the Financial Statements for details of directors' service contracts.

Payments on Termination

No provisions for compensation for termination following change of control, or for liquidated damages of any kind, are included in the current directors' contracts. In the event of any early termination of an executive director's contract the policy is to seek to minimize any liability.

Upon retirement, and under certain other specified circumstances on termination of his employment, a director will become eligible to receive benefit from his participation in a Company pension plan. See Note 3 of Notes to the Financial Statements for details of directors' pension entitlements at December 31, 2005.

Each Committee of the Board has written terms of reference which have been approved by the Board.

establish, review and maintain the role and effectiveness of the Internal Audit function, including overseeing the appointment of the Head of Internal Audit;

assuming responsibility for the appointment, compensation, dismissal and the oversight of the external auditor, including review of the external audit, its cost and effectiveness;

pre-approve non-audit work to be carried out by the external auditor and the fees to be paid for that work along with the monitoring of the external auditor's independence; and adopt and oversee a specific Code of Ethics for the senior financial officers, which is consistent with the Group's overall Guidelines for Proper Business Conduct.

The Audit Committee discharges its responsibilities through a series of meetings throughout the year at which detailed reports are presented for review. The Audit Committee commissions reports, either from external advisers, the Head of Internal Audit, or Group management, after consideration of the major risks to the Group or in response to developing issues. The external auditor attends meetings of the Audit Committee as does the Head of Internal Audit, both of whom have the opportunity to meet privately with the Audit Committee, in the absence of Group management, at the conclusion of each meeting. All proposals for the provision of non-audit services by the external auditor are pre-approved by the Audit Committee or its delegated member, the overriding consideration being to ensure that the provision of non-audit services does not impact the external auditor's independence and objectivity.

Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee, chaired by Sir David Prosser, also comprises the following non-executive directors: David Kappler, Robert C Larson, Jonathan Linen and Sir Howard Stringer. It meets at least three times a year. The Committee advises the Board on overall remuneration policy. The Remuneration Committee also determines, on behalf of the Board, and with the benefit of advice from external consultants and members of the Human Resources department, the remuneration packages of the executive directors and other members of the Executive Committee. No member of the Committee has any personal financial interest, other than as a shareholder, in the matters to be decided by the Committee.

Nomination Committee

The Nomination Committee's quorum comprises any three non-executive directors although, where possible, all non-executive directors are present. It is chaired by the Chairman of the Company. The Nomination Committee is responsible for nominating, for the approval of the Board, candidates for appointment to the Board, and also for succession planning. The Nomination Committee generally engages external consultants to advise on candidates for Board appointments, and did so in connection with the appointments of Jennifer Laing and Jonathan Linen. Candidate profiles and objective selection criteria were prepared in advance of these engagements. The Committee also assists the Board in identifying and developing the role of the Senior Independent Director.

Table of Contents*Disclosure Committee*

The Disclosure Committee, chaired by the Group's Financial Controller and comprising of the Company Secretary and other senior executives, reports to the Chief Executive, the Finance Director, and to the Audit Committee. Its duties include ensuring that information required to be disclosed in reports pursuant to UK and US accounting, statutory or listing requirements, fairly represent the Group's position in all material respects.

General Purposes Committee

The General Purposes Committee comprises any two executive directors or any one executive director together with a senior officer from an agreed and restricted list of senior executives. It is always chaired by a director. It attends to business of a routine nature and to the administration of matters on an ad hoc basis, the principles of which have been agreed previously by the Board or an appropriate Committee.

A description of the significant ways in which the Company's actual corporate governance practices differ from the New York Stock Exchange corporate governance requirements followed by U.S. companies can be found on the Company's website at www.ihgplc.com.

The Group employed an average of 21,986 people worldwide in the year ended December 31, 2005. Of these, approximately 95% were employed on a full-time basis and 5% were employed on a part-time basis.

The table below analyzes the distribution of the average number of employees for the last three fiscal periods by division and by geographic region.

(i) With effect from December 14, 2005, the Group no longer employed any individuals in the Soft Drinks Sector.

Under EU law, many employees of Group companies are now covered by the Working Time Regulations which came into force in the United Kingdom on October 1, 1998. These regulations implemented the European Working Time Directive and parts of the Young Workers Directive, and lay down rights and protections for employees in areas such as maximum working hours, minimum rest time, minimum days off and paid leave.

In the United Kingdom there is in place a national minimum wage under the National Minimum Wage Act. At December 31, 2005, the minimum wage for individuals between 18 and under the age of 22 was £4.25 per hour and £5.05 per hour for individuals age 22 and above. This particularly impacts businesses in the hospitality and retailing sectors. Compliance with the National Minimum Wage Act is being monitored by the Low Pay Commission, an independent statutory body established by the UK Government.

Less than 5% of the Group's UK employees are covered by collective bargaining agreements with trade unions.

Continual attention is paid to the external market in order to ensure that terms of employment are appropriate. The Group believes the Group companies will be able to conduct their relationships with trade unions and employees in a satisfactory manner.

ITEM 10. ADDITIONAL INFORMATIONMEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

The following summarizes material rights of holders of the Company's ordinary shares under the material provisions of the Company's memorandum and articles of association and English law. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Companies Act and the Company's memorandum and articles of association. The Company's memorandum and articles of association were filed as an exhibit to the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-8 (File No. 1-10409) filed with the SEC on June 27, 2005.

The Company's shares may be held in certificated or uncertificated form. No holder of the Company's shares will be required to make additional contributions of capital in respect of the Company's shares in the future.

In the following description, a shareholder is the person registered in the Company's register of members as the holder of the relevant share.

Principal Objects

The Company is incorporated under the name InterContinental Hotels Group PLC and is registered in England and Wales with registered number 5134420. The Company's memorandum of association provides that its objects include to acquire certain predecessor companies and carry on business as an investment holding company, licensed victuallers, to deal in commodities, to acquire and operate breweries, hotels and restaurants, as well as to carry on any other business which the Company may judge capable of enhancing the value of the Company's property or rights. The memorandum grants to the Company a range of corporate capabilities to effect these objects.

Table of Contents

Directors

Under the Company's articles of association, a director may not vote in respect of any proposal in which he, or any person connected with him, has any material interest other than by virtue of his interests in securities of, or otherwise in or through, the Company. This is subject to certain exceptions relating to proposals (a) indemnifying him in respect of obligations incurred on behalf of the Company, (b) indemnifying a third party in respect of obligations of the Company for which the director has assumed responsibility under an indemnity or guarantee, (c) relating to an offer of securities in which he will be interested as an underwriter, (d) concerning another body corporate in which the director is beneficially interested in less than one percent of the issued shares of any class of shares of such a body corporate, (e) relating to an employee benefit in which the director will share equally with other employees and (f) relating to liability insurance that the Company is empowered to purchase for the benefit of directors of the Company in respect of actions undertaken as directors (or officers) of the Company.

The directors are empowered to exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, subject to the limitation that the aggregate amount of all moneys borrowed by the Company and its subsidiaries shall not exceed an amount equal to three times the Company's share capital and aggregate reserves, unless sanctioned by an ordinary resolution of the Company.

Directors are not required to hold any shares of the Company by way of qualification.

Rights Attaching to Shares

Under English law, dividends are payable on the Company's ordinary shares only out of profits available for distribution, as determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United Kingdom and by the Companies Act. Holders of the Company's ordinary shares are entitled to receive such dividends as may be declared by the shareholders in general meeting, rateably according to the amounts paid up on such shares, provided that the dividend cannot exceed the amount recommended by the directors.

The Company's board of directors may pay shareholders such interim dividends as appear to them to be justified by the Company's financial position. If authorized by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders, the board of directors may also direct payment of a dividend in whole or in part by the distribution of specific assets (and in particular of paid up shares or debentures of any other company).

Any dividend unclaimed after six years from the date the dividend was declared, or became due for payment, will be forfeited and will revert to the Company.

Voting Rights

Voting at any general meeting of shareholders is by a show of hands unless a poll, which is a written vote, is duly demanded. On a show of hands, every shareholder who is present in person or by proxy at a general meeting has one vote regardless of the number of shares held. On a poll, every shareholder who is present in person or by proxy has one vote for every 10 pence in nominal amount of the shares held by that shareholder. A poll may be demanded by any of the following:

the chairman of the meeting;

at least five shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting;

any shareholder or shareholders representing in the aggregate not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting; or any shareholder or shareholders holding shares conferring a right to vote at the meeting on which there have been paid-up sums in the aggregate equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

A proxy form will be treated as giving the proxy the authority to demand a poll, or to join others in demanding one.

Table of Contents

The necessary quorum for a general meeting is three persons carrying a right to vote upon the business to be transacted, whether present in person or by proxy.

Matters are transacted at general meetings of the Company by the proposing and passing of resolutions, of which there are three kinds:

an ordinary resolution, which includes resolutions for the election of directors, the approval of financial statements, the cumulative annual payment of dividends, the appointment of auditors, the increase of authorized share capital or the grant of authority to allot shares;

a special resolution, which includes resolutions amending the Company's memorandum and articles of association, disapplying statutory pre-emption rights or changing the Company's name; and an extraordinary resolution, which includes resolutions modifying the rights of any class of the Company's shares at a meeting of the holders of such class or relating to certain matters concerning the Company's winding up.

An ordinary resolution requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes of those persons voting at a meeting at which there is a quorum.

Special and extraordinary resolutions require the affirmative vote of not less than three-fourths of the persons voting at a meeting at which there is a quorum.

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting is entitled to cast the deciding vote in addition to any other vote he may have.

Annual General Meetings must be convened upon advance written notice of 21 days. Other meetings must be convened upon advance written notice of 21 days for the passing of a special resolution and 14 days for any other resolution, depending on the nature of the business to be transacted. The days of delivery or receipt of the notice are not included. The notice must specify the nature of the business to be transacted. The board of directors may if they choose make arrangements for shareholders who are unable to attend the place of the meeting to participate at other places.

Each Director shall retire every three years in Annual General Meeting and unless otherwise decided by the Directors, shall be eligible for re-election. Any director attaining 70 years of age shall retire at the next Annual General Meeting. Such a director may be re-elected but shall retire every year (and be eligible for re-election) at the next, and all subsequent, Annual General Meetings.

Variation of Rights

If, at any time, the Company's share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class may be varied, subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, with the consent in writing of holders of three-fourths in value of the shares of that class or upon the adoption of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. At every such separate meeting, all of the provisions of the articles of association relating to proceedings at a general meeting apply, except that the quorum is to be the number of persons (which must be two or more) who hold or represent by proxy not less than one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class.

Rights in a Winding-up

Except as the Company's shareholders have agreed or may otherwise agree, upon the Company's winding up, the balance of assets available for distribution:

after the payment of all creditors including certain preferential creditors, whether statutorily preferred creditors or normal creditors; and subject to any special rights attaching to any class of shares; is to be distributed among the holders of ordinary shares according to the amounts paid-up on the shares held by them. This distribution is generally to be made in cash. A liquidator may, however, upon the adoption of an extraordinary resolution of the shareholders, divide among the shareholders the whole or any part of the Company's assets in kind.

Limitations on Voting and Shareholding

There are no limitations imposed by English law or the Company's memorandum or articles of association on the right of non-residents or foreign persons to hold or vote the Company's ordinary shares or ADSs, other than the limitations that would generally apply to all of the Company's shareholders.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS

The following contracts have been entered into otherwise than in the course of ordinary business by members of the Group either (i) in the two years immediately preceding the date of this document in the case of contracts which are or may be material or (ii) which contain provisions under which any Group member has any obligation or entitlement which is material to the Group as at the date of this document. To the extent that these agreements include representations, warranties and indemnities, such provisions are considered standard in an agreement of that nature, save to the extent identified below.

IHG Facility Agreement

On November 9, 2004, InterContinental Hotels Limited signed a five year £1,600 million bank facility agreement (the IHG Facility Agreement) with The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi, Ltd., Barclays Capital, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, HSBC Bank plc, J.P. Morgan plc, Lloyds TSB Bank plc, The Royal Bank of Scotland plc, SG Corporate & Investment Banking (the corporate and investment banking division of Société Générale) and WestLB AG, London Branch, all acting as mandated lead arrangers and underwriters and HSBC Bank plc as agent bank.

The facility was split into a £1.1 billion five year revolving credit facility and a £500 million 364 day revolving credit facility. The latter was canceled in November 2005.

The interest margin payable on borrowings under the IHG Facility Agreement is linked to IHG's consolidated net debt to consolidated EBITDA ratio; initially the margin was set at LIBOR + 0.375% p.a. The margin can vary between LIBOR + 0.325% and LIBOR + 0.60% depending on the level of the ratio.

As part of this refinancing the Group repurchased its euro and sterling denominated bonds. The Group's new parent company InterContinental Hotels Group PLC, acceded to the IHG Facility Agreement in July 2005, following the capital restructuring described in Item 4.

Disposal to Hospitality Properties Trust

On December 17, 2004, BHR Texas L.P., InterContinental Hotels Group Resources, Inc., Crowne Plaza LAX, LLC, Crowne Plaza Hilton Head Holding Company, Holiday Pacific Partners Limited Partnership, 220 Bloor Street Hotel Inc. and Staybridge Markham, Inc. (together, the Vendors) entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (as amended and restated on February 9, 2005) with HPT IHG-2 Properties Trust (HPT IHG-2), pursuant to which HPT IHG-2 purchased from the Vendors 12 hotels situated in the United States and Canada. On the same date, Six Continents International Holdings B.V. (SIH), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (as amended and restated on February 9, 2005) with HPT IHG-2, pursuant to which HPT IHG-2 purchased from SIH all of the shares in Crowne Plaza (Puerto Rico) Inc., which is the owner of a hotel in Puerto Rico. The total consideration payable by HPT IHG-2 for the sales amounted to US$425 million, before transaction costs, equivalent to net book value (of which US$395 million was received upon the main completion of the sale on February 16, 2005, with the remaining US$30 million received upon the completion of the sale of the InterContinental Hotel in Austin, on June 1, 2005). The Group continues to manage the hotels.

Under the Purchase and Sale Agreement and Stock Purchase Agreement, the Vendors have given certain customary warranties and indemnities to HPT IHG-2.

Table of Contents

In connection with the disposals referred to above, IHG has agreed to guarantee certain amounts payable to HPT IHG and HPT IHG-2 in relation to the managed hotels sold by the Group to HPT IHG and HPT IHG-2. The guarantee is for a maximum amount of US$125 million and requires amounts to be paid by IHG to HPT IHG and/or HPT IHG-2 (and/or their designated affiliate) irrespective of the revenue generated by the relevant hotels. The guarantee may be terminated if certain financial tests are met.

UK Hotels Disposal

A Share Purchase Agreement (the SPA) was entered into on March 10, 2005 between Six Continents, IHC London (Holdings) Limited (IHC Holdings) and LRG Acquisition and LRG Holdings Limited (LRG). Pursuant to the SPA, Six Continents and IHC Holdings (the Sellers) agreed to sell all of the issued ordinary share capital of Six Continents Hotels & Holidays Limited, Holiday Inn Limited, NAS Cobalt No. 2 Limited and London Forum Hotel Limited respectively (together, the LRG Shares) to LRG and to transfer to LRG certain contractual rights to the extent they related to the hotels LRG indirectly acquired under the SPA (the LRG Hotels) and which remained to be completed or performed, or remained in force, after completion of the sale of the LRG Shares to LRG.

The agreed sale price for the LRG Shares was £1 billion. Receipt of £40 million of the total proceeds has been deferred, contingent upon certain pre-agreed performance targets being reached. Following completion, the Group continues to manage the LRG Hotels.

Under the SPA, the Sellers gave certain warranties in relation to the assets disposed of and LRG gave certain warranties in relation to its authority to enter into the SPA and its capacity to perform its obligations under the SPA. Certain indemnities were also given by the Sellers.

Australasian Hotels Disposals

On September 1, 2005, Holiday Inn Holdings (Australia) Pty Limited, SPHC Group Pty Limited and HIA(T) Pty Limited (for the Australian assets) and Hale International Limited (for the New Zealand asset), all three of which are members of the Group, (IHG) entered into two sale and purchase agreements with HANZ (Australia) Pty Limited (for the Australian assets) and HANZ Holdings (New Zealand) Limited (for the New Zealand asset), both companies being subsidiaries of the Hotel Alternative (Australia and New Zealand) Private Syndicate managed by Eureka Funds Management Limited (Eureka) pursuant to which Eureka purchased from IHG nine hotels situated in Australia and New Zealand for AUS$390 million in cash (before transaction costs) which is AUS$75 million above the net book value of AUS$315 million. IHG has given to Eureka normal warranties in relation to the hotels and an indemnity for pre-completion tax liabilities. The transaction completed on October 31, 2005.

The Group will continue to manage the hotels for Eureka under ten year management contracts entered into at the time of the transaction, with an option to extend for ten further years at the Group's discretion.

Britvic Underwriting Agreement

An Underwriting Agreement was entered into on November 25, 2005 between, inter alia, Britvic, IHG in its capacity as a selling shareholder, the directors of Britvic, Citigroup and Deutsche Bank AG (as joint sponsors) and Citigroup, Deutsche Bank AG, Lehman Brothers International (Europe) and Merrill Lynch International (as joint Underwriters). This sets out the mechanics for the Britvic initial public offering and includes customary termination rights. Britvic has given customary warranties, indemnities and undertakings in the context of an agreement of this sort. IHG has also given customary warranties and indemnities in its capacity as a selling shareholder. Under this agreement, each of the selling shareholders will pay a commission equal to 2% of the offer price multiplied by the number of shares to be sold by that selling shareholder to the joint Underwriters. A further commission of up to 1% may be payable at each selling shareholder's discretion.

Disposal to Westbridge

On March 10, 2006 a Sale and Purchase Agreement (SPA) was entered into between BHR Luxembourg S.a.r.l. and other wholly owned subsidiaries of IHG as sellers (BHR Luxembourg S.a.r.l. being the principal seller) and Cooperatie Westbridge Europe I U.A. as purchaser and Westbridge Hospitality Fund L.P. as the purchaser's guarantor. Under the SPA the sellers have agreed to sell 24 hotels situated across Europe in France, Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands, Austria, Italy and Spain. The sale of four hotels is by way of asset transfer, with the remaining 20 hotels being sold through a sale of the shares in the relevant IHG subsidiaries.

The agreed sale price is 352 million. IHG's share of the proceeds is 345.2 million (before transaction costs), in cash and the assumption of debt, and the balance of 6.8 million relates to third-party minority interests.

Completion is subject only to clearance by the German Federal Cartel Office (Bundeskartellamt) and is expected to take place at the end of April 2006.

Upon completion the hotels will continue to be operated by the purchaser under the same IHG brands under 15 year franchise agreements.

Under the SPA the sellers gave certain customary warranties and indemnities to the purchaser.

EXCHANGE CONTROLS

There are no restrictions on dividend payments to US citizens.

Although there are currently no UK foreign exchange control restrictions on the export or import of the capital or the payment of dividends on the ordinary shares or the ADSs, from time to time English law imposes restrictions on the payment of dividends to persons resident (or treated as so resident) in or governments of (or persons exercising public functions in) certain countries (each of the foregoing, a Prohibited Person).

There are no restrictions under the articles of association or under English law that limit the right of non-resident or foreign owners to hold or vote the ordinary shares. However, under current English law, ordinary shares or ADSs may not be owned by a Prohibited Person. In addition, the Company's articles of association contain certain limitations on the voting and other rights of any holder of ordinary shares, whose holding may, in the opinion of the directors, result in the loss or failure to secure the reinstatement of any license or franchise from any US governmental agency held by Six Continents Hotels Inc or any subsidiary thereof.

TAXATION

This section provides a summary of the material US federal income tax and UK tax consequences to US holders, as defined below, of owning and disposing of ordinary shares or ADSs of the Company. This section addresses only the tax position of a US holder who holds ordinary shares or ADSs as capital assets. This section does not, however, discuss the tax consequences of members of special classes of holders subject to special rules, such as certain financial institutions;

insurance companies;

dealers and traders in securities or foreign currencies;

persons holding ordinary shares or ADSs as part of a hedge, straddle, conversion transaction or other integrated transaction;

persons whose functional currency for U.S. federal income tax purposes is not the U.S. dollar;

partnerships or other entities classified as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

persons liable for the alternative minimum tax;

Table of Contents

tax-exempt organizations;

persons who acquired our ADSs or shares pursuant to the exercise of any employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

and holders that, directly or indirectly, hold 10% or more of the Company's voting stock. This section does not generally deal with the position of a US holder who is resident or ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom for UK tax purposes or who is subject to UK taxation on capital gains or income by virtue of carrying on a trade, profession or vocation in the United Kingdom.

A US holder is a beneficial owner of shares or ADSs that is for US federal income tax purposes (i) a citizen or resident of the US, (ii) a US domestic corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof; or (iii) an estate whose income is subject to US federal income tax regardless of its source, or (iv) a trust if a US court can exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more United States persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

This section is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations, published rulings and court decisions, and on UK tax laws and published practice of the UK Inland Revenue, all as currently in effect, and on the current Double Taxation Convention between the United States and the United Kingdom (the Treaty). These laws are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis.

This section is further based in part upon the representations of the Depositary and assumes that each obligation in the Company ADR Deposit Agreement and any related agreement will be performed in accordance with its terms. For US federal income tax purposes, a holder of ADRs evidencing ADSs will be treated as the owner of the shares represented by those ADRs. Generally, exchanges of ordinary shares for ADRs, and ADRs for ordinary shares, will not be subject to US federal income tax or UK taxation on capital gains.

The US Treasury has previously expressed concerns that parties to whom ADRs are pre-released may be taking actions that are inconsistent with the claiming of foreign tax credits for US holders of ADRs. Such actions would also be inconsistent with the claiming of the reduced rate of tax, described below, for qualified dividend income. Accordingly, the analysis of the availability of the reduced rate of tax for qualified dividend income described below could be affected by actions taken by parties to whom the ADRs are pre-released.

Investors should consult their own tax advisor regarding the US federal, state and local, the UK and other tax consequences of owning and disposing of shares and ADSs in their particular circumstances, and in particular whether they are eligible for the benefits of the Treaty.

Taxation of Dividends*United Kingdom Taxation*

Under current UK tax law, the Company will not be required to withhold tax at source from dividend payments it makes.

United States Federal Income Taxation

Subject to the passive foreign investment company (PFIC) rules discussed below, a US holder is subject to US federal income taxation on the gross amount of any dividend paid by the Company out of its current or accumulated earnings and profits (as determined for US federal income tax purposes). Subject to applicable limitations and the discussion above regarding concerns expressed by the US Treasury, dividends paid to a non-corporate US holder in taxable years beginning before January 1, 2009 that constitute qualified dividend income will be taxable to the holder at a maximum tax rate of 15%. The Company expects that dividends paid by the Company with respect to the shares or ADSs will constitute qualified dividend income. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors to determine whether they are subject to any special rules that limit their ability to be taxed at this favorable rate.

Table of Contents

Dividends must be included in income when the US holder, in the case of shares, or the Depositary, in the case of ADSs, actually or constructively receives the dividend, and will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction generally allowed to US corporations in respect of dividends received from other US corporations. For foreign tax credit limitation purposes, dividends will be income from sources outside the United States.

The amount of any dividend paid in pounds will be the US dollar value of the pound sterling payments made, determined at the spot pound sterling/ US dollar rate on the date the dividend distribution is includible in income, regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted into US dollars. Generally, any gain or loss resulting from currency exchange fluctuations during the period from the date the dividend payment is includible in income to the date the payment is converted into US dollars will be treated as ordinary income or loss and, for foreign tax credit limitation purposes, from sources within the United States.

Distributions in excess of the Company's current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined for US federal income tax purposes, will be treated as a return of capital to the extent of the US holder's basis in the shares or ADSs and thereafter as capital gain. Because the Company has not historically maintained, and does not currently maintain, books in accordance with US tax principles, the Company does not expect to be in a position to determine whether any distribution will be in excess of the Company's current or accumulated earnings and profits as computed for US federal income tax purposes. As a result, the Company expects that amounts distributed will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service as dividends.

Taxation of Capital GainsUnited Kingdom Taxation

A US holder who is not resident or ordinarily resident for United Kingdom tax purposes in the United Kingdom will not generally be liable for UK taxation on capital gains realized or accrued on the sale or other disposal of ADSs or ordinary shares unless, at the time of the sale or other disposal, the US holder carries on a trade, profession or vocation in the United Kingdom through a branch, agency or permanent establishment and such ADSs or ordinary shares are or have been used, held or acquired for the purposes of such trade, profession or vocation.

A US holder of ADSs or ordinary shares who is an individual and who, broadly, has temporarily ceased to be resident or ordinarily resident in the UK or has become temporarily treated non-resident for UK tax purposes for a period of less than five years of assessment and who disposes of ordinary shares or ADSs during that period may, for the year of assessment when that individual becomes resident again in the UK, also be liable to UK tax on capital gains (subject to any available exemption or relief), notwithstanding the fact that such US holder was not resident or ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom at the time of the sale or other disposal. As described below, a US holder will be liable to US federal income tax on such gains.

United States Federal Income Taxation

Subject to the PFIC rules discussed below, a US holder that sells or otherwise disposes of shares or ADSs will recognize a capital gain or loss for US federal income tax purposes equal to the difference between the US dollar value of the amount realized and its tax basis, determined in US dollars, in the shares or ADSs. Generally, capital gain of a non-corporate US holder that is recognized in tax years beginning before January 1, 2009 is taxed at a maximum rate of 15% where the holder has a holding period greater than one year. The gain or loss will generally be income or loss from sources within the United States for foreign tax credit limitation purposes. The deductibility of losses is subject to limitations.

PFIC Rules

The Company believes that the Company shares and ADSs will not be treated as stock of a PFIC for US federal income tax purposes for its 2005 taxable year. However, this conclusion is an annual factual determination and thus may be subject to change. If the Company were to be treated as a PFIC, unless a US holder elects to be taxed annually on a mark-to-market basis with respect to the Company shares or ADSs, gain realized on the sale or other disposition of Company shares or ADSs would in general not be treated as capital gain. Instead, gain would be treated as if the US holder had realized such gain ratably over the holding period for the Company shares or ADSs and, to the extent allocated to the taxable year of the sale or other exchange and to any year before the Company became a PFIC, would be taxed as ordinary income. The amount allocated to each other taxable year would be taxed at the highest tax rate in effect for each such year to which the gain was allocated, together with an interest charge in respect of the tax attributable to each such year. In addition, similar rules would apply to any excess distribution received on the Company shares or ADSs (generally, the excess of any distribution received on the Company shares or ADSs during the taxable year over 125% of the average amount of distributions received during a specified prior period), and the preferential rate for qualified dividend income received by certain non-corporate US holders would not apply.

Table of Contents

Additional Tax ConsiderationsUnited Kingdom Inheritance Tax

An individual who is domiciled in the United States (for the purposes of the Estate and Gift Tax Convention) and is not a UK national as defined in the Convention will not be subject to UK inheritance tax in respect of ADSs on the individual's death or on a transfer of the ADSs during their lifetime, provided that any applicable US federal gift or estate tax is paid, unless the ADSs are part of the business property of a UK permanent establishment or pertain to a UK fixed base of an individual used for the performance of independent personal services. Where the ADSs have been placed in trust by a settlor, they may be subject to UK inheritance tax unless, when the trust was created, the settlor was domiciled in the United States and was not a UK national. Where ADSs are subject to both UK inheritance tax and to US federal gift or estate tax, the Estate and Gift Tax Convention generally provides for either a credit against US federal tax liabilities for UK inheritance tax paid or for a credit against UK inheritance tax liabilities for US federal tax paid, as the case may be.

United Kingdom Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax (SDRT)

The transfer of ordinary shares will generally be liable to stamp duty at the rate of 0.5% of the amount or value of the consideration given (rounded up to the nearest £5). An unconditional agreement to transfer ordinary shares will generally be subject to SDRT at 0.5% of the agreed consideration. However, if within the period of six years of the date of such agreement becoming unconditional an instrument of transfer is executed pursuant to the agreement and duly stamped, any liability to SDRT will usually be repaid, if already paid, or canceled. The liability to pay stamp duty or SDRT is generally satisfied by the purchaser or transferee.

No stamp duty or SDRT will generally arise on a transfer of ordinary shares into CREST, unless such transfer is made for a consideration in money or money's worth, in which case a liability to SDRT will arise, usually at the rate of 0.5% of the value of the consideration.

A transfer of ordinary shares effected on a paperless basis within CREST will generally be subject to SDRT at the rate of 0.5% of the value of the consideration.

Stamp duty, or SDRT, is generally payable upon the transfer or issue of ordinary shares to, or to a nominee or, in some cases, agent of, a person whose business is or includes issuing depositary receipts or the provision of clearance services. For these purposes, the current rate of stamp duty and SDRT is usually 1.5% (rounded up, in the case of stamp duty, to the nearest £5). The rate is applied, in each case, to the amount or value of the consideration or, in some circumstances, to the value or the issue price of the ordinary shares. In accordance with the terms of the deposit agreement, any tax or duty payable on deposits of ordinary shares by the depositary or by the custodian of the depositary will be charged to the party to whom ADSs are delivered against such deposits.

Provided that the instrument of transfer is not executed in the United Kingdom and remains at all subsequent times outside the United Kingdom, no stamp duty should be payable on the transfer of ADSs. An agreement to transfer ADSs in the form of depositary receipts will not give rise to a liability to SDRT.

ITEM 11. *QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISKExchange and Interest Rate Risk, and Financial Instruments

The Group's treasury policy is to manage the financial risks that arise in relation to the underlying business needs. The activities of the treasury function are carried out in accordance with board approved policies and are subject to regular internal audit. The treasury function does not operate as a profit center. Treasury activities include money market investments, spot and forward foreign exchange instruments, currency options, currency swaps, interest rate swaps and options, and forward rate agreements.

One of the primary objectives of the Group's treasury risk management policy is to mitigate the adverse impact of movements in interest rates and foreign exchange rates.

Movements in foreign exchange rates, particularly in the US dollar and the euro, can affect the Group's reported net income, net assets and interest cover. To hedge this translation exposure as far as is reasonably practical, borrowings are taken out in foreign currencies (either directly or via currency swaps) which broadly match those in which the Group's major net assets are denominated.

Foreign exchange transaction exposure is managed by the forward purchase or sale of foreign currencies or the use of currency options. Most significant exposures of the Group are in currencies that are freely convertible.

Interest rate exposure is managed within parameters that stipulate that fixed rate borrowings should normally account for no less than 25%, and no more than 75%, of net borrowings for each major currency. This is achieved through the use of interest rate swaps and options, and forward rate agreements.

At December 31, 2005, 36% of borrowings in major currencies were at fixed rates and 64% were at variable rates. Based on the December 31, 2005 net debt position and given the underlying maturity profile of investments, borrowings and hedging instruments at that date, a one percentage point rise in US dollar interest rates would increase the annual interest charge by approximately £1 million whilst a similar rise in euro interest rates would increase the annual interest charge by approximately £4 million.

At December 31, 2004 27% of borrowings in major currencies were at fixed rates and 73% were at variable rates. Based on the period end net debt position, and given the underlying maturity profile of investments, borrowings and hedging instruments at that date, a one percentage point rise in US dollar interest rates or a similar rise in euro rates would increase the annual interest charge by approximately £2 million and £6 million respectively.

Quantitative Information about Market RiskInterest Rate Sensitivity

The tables below provide information about the Group's derivative and other financial instruments that are sensitive to changes in interest rates, including interest rate swaps and debt obligations. For long-term debt obligations (excluding debt due entirely within one year), the table presents principal cash flows and related weighted average interest rates by expected maturity dates. For interest rate swaps and forward rate agreements, the table presents notional amounts and weighted average interest rates by expected maturity dates. Weighted average variable rates are based on rates set at the balance sheet date. The actual currencies of the instruments are indicated in parentheses.

A number of criteria are applied when deciding whether pre-approval for such services should be given. These include the nature of the service, the level of fees, and the practicality of appointing an alternative provider, having regard to the skills and experience required to supply the service effectively. Cumulative fees for audit and non-audit services are presented to the Audit Committee on a quarterly basis for review. The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring adherence to the pre-approval policy.

INTERCONTINENTAL HOTELS GROUP PLC
REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Directors of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC

We have audited the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the related Consolidated Income Statements, Consolidated Statement of Recognized Income and Expense, Consolidated Statement of Changes in Shareholders' Funds and Consolidated Cash Flow Statement for each of the two years in the period ended December 31, 2005. Our audits also included the financial statement schedule listed in the Index at Item 18. These financial statements and schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and schedule based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC at December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the consolidated results of its operations and its consolidated cash flows for each of the two years in the period ended December 31, 2005, in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union which differ in certain respects from United States generally accepted accounting principles (see Note 32 of Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements). Also, in our opinion, the related financial statement schedule, when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, presents fairly in all material respects the information set forth therein.

As discussed in Note 22 of Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements, the Company changed its method of accounting for financial instruments in 2005.

The Company was incorporated and registered in England and Wales with registered number 5134420 on May 21, 2004 as a limited company under the Companies Act 1985 with the name Hackremco (No. 2154) Limited. On March 24, 2005 Hackremco (No. 2154) Limited changed its name to New InterContinental Hotels Group Limited. On April 27, 2005 New InterContinental Hotels Group Limited re-registered as a public limited company and changed its name to New InterContinental Hotels Group PLC. On June 27, 2005 New InterContinental Hotels Group PLC changed its name to InterContinental Hotels Group PLC.

On May 21, 2004 the Company had an authorized share capital of £100, divided into 100 ordinary shares of £1 each, of which one ordinary share was allotted, called up and fully paid on incorporation.

On December 10, 2004 shareholders approved a share capital consolidation on the basis of 25 new ordinary shares for every 28 existing ordinary shares. This provided for all the authorized ordinary shares of £1 each (whether issued or unissued) to be consolidated into new ordinary shares of 112 pence each. The share capital consolidation became effective on December 13, 2004. The consolidation had no impact on the authorized redeemable preference share.

Table of Contents

On April 21, 2005 the authorized share capital was increased to £50,100 by the creation of one redeemable preference share of £50,000. The redeemable preference share so created was allotted and treated as paid up in full on this date.

On May 20, 2005 the authorized share capital of the Company was increased from £50,100 to £10,000,050,000 by the creation of 9,999,999,900 ordinary shares of £1 each. On May 20, 2005 all of the ordinary shares of £1 each were consolidated into ordinary shares of £6.25 each.

On June 27, 2005 the capital reorganization (by means of a scheme of arrangement under Section 425 of the Companies Act 1985) was completed. Under the arrangement, shareholders received 11 new ordinary shares and £24.75 cash in exchange for every 15 existing ordinary shares held on June 24, 2005. The entire issued share capital of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC was transferred to New InterContinental Hotels Group PLC at fair market value, in exchange for the issue of 443 million fully paid ordinary shares of 10 pence each, which were admitted to the Official List of the UK Listing Authority and admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange on that date. In accordance with the merger relief provisions of Sections 131 and 133 of the Companies Act 1985, the 443 million shares are recorded only at nominal value.

On June 30, 2005 £6.15 on every £6.25 ordinary share was canceled, thereby reducing the nominal value of each ordinary share to 10 pence.

On September 8, 2005 the redeemable preference share was redeemed at par value. The redeemable preference share did not carry any right to receive dividends nor to participate in the profits of the Company.

During 2004 and 2005, the Company undertook to return funds of up to £750 million to shareholders by way of three consecutive £250 million share repurchase programs, the second of which is expected to be completed in the first half of 2006. During the year, 30,600,010 (2004 46,385,981) ordinary shares were repurchased and canceled under the authorities granted by shareholders at general meetings held during 2003, 2004 and 2005. Of these, 19,460,010 (2004 46,385,981) were 112 pence (2004 100 pence) shares in the capital of InterContinental Hotels Limited (formerly InterContinental Hotels Group PLC) and 11,140,000 were 10 pence shares in the capital of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC (formerly New InterContinental Hotels Group PLC).

The authority given to the Company at the Annual General Meeting on June 1, 2005 to purchase its own shares was still valid at December 31, 2005. A resolution to renew the authority will be put to shareholders at the Annual General Meeting on June 1, 2006.

At December 31, 2005 the authorized share capital was £160,050,000, comprising 1,600,000,000 ordinary shares of 10 pence each and one redeemable preference share of £50,000.

- (ii) The share premium account and capital redemption reserve are not distributable.
- (iii) Other reserves comprises the revaluation reserve previously recognized under UK GAAP and the merger reserve.
- (iv) The shares held by employee share trusts comprises £21.7 million (2004 £21.8 million) in respect of 2.9 million (2004 3.1 million) InterContinental Hotels Group PLC ordinary shares held by employee share trusts, with a market value at December 31, 2005 of £25 million (2004 £20 million).

Note 1 Corporate Information and Accounting Policies

Corporate information

The consolidated financial statements of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC (IHG) for the year ended December 31, 2005 were authorised for issue in accordance with a resolution of the Directors on March 1, 2006. InterContinental Hotels Group PLC (the Company) is incorporated in Great Britain and registered in England and Wales.

Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared on an historic cost basis, except for derivative financial instruments and available-for-sale financial assets that have been measured at fair value. The consolidated financial statements are presented in sterling and all values are rounded to the nearest million except where otherwise indicated.

Statement of compliance

From January 1, 2005, as required by the European Union's International Accounting Standard (IAS) Regulation and the Companies Act 1985, the Company has prepared its consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union (EU). IFRS as adopted by the EU differ in certain respects from IFRS as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). However, the consolidated financial statements for the periods presented would be no different had the Company applied IFRS as issued by the IASB. References to IFRS and International Financial Reporting Standards hereafter should be construed as references to IFRS as adopted by the EU. As permitted, the Company has also early adopted the amendment to IAS 19 Employee Benefits published in December 2004.

IFRS exemptions

IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards has been applied in preparing this financial information. The Company has taken the following exemptions available under IFRS 1:

a) Not to restate the comparative information disclosed in the 2005 financial statements in accordance with IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation and IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement .

b) Not to restate business combinations before January 1, 2004.

c) To recognize all actuarial gains and losses on pensions and other post-employment benefits directly in equity at January 1, 2004.

d) To retain UK GAAP carrying values of property, plant and equipment, including revaluations, as deemed cost at transition.

e) Not to recognize separately cumulative foreign exchange movements up to January 1, 2004.

f) To apply IFRS 2 Share-based Payments to grants of equity instruments after November 7, 2002 that had not vested at January 1, 2005.

The disclosures required by IFRS 1 are given in Note 30 of Notes to the Financial Statements.

Table of Contents

The principle accounting policies of the Company are set out below.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the parent company and entities controlled by the Company. All inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated.

The results of those businesses acquired or disposed of are consolidated for the period during which they were under the Company's control.

Shareholder approval was given on June 1, 2005 to recommended proposals for the return of approximately £1 billion to shareholders by way of a capital reorganization (by means of a scheme of arrangement under Section 425 of the Companies Act 1985). Under the arrangement, shareholders received 11 new ordinary shares and £24.75 cash in exchange for every 15 existing ordinary shares held on June 24, 2005. The overall effect of the transaction was that of a share repurchase at fair value, therefore no adjustment has been made to comparative earnings per share data (see Note 9).

The capital reorganization of InterContinental Hotels Group PLC to New InterContinental Hotels Group PLC has been accounted for in accordance with the principles of merger accounting as applicable to group reorganizations. The consolidated financial statements are therefore presented as if New InterContinental Hotels Group PLC had been the parent company of the Group throughout the periods presented. Following this capital reorganization, InterContinental Hotels Group PLC changed its name to InterContinental Hotels PLC and re-registered as a private limited company, InterContinental Hotels Limited; New InterContinental Hotels Group PLC changed its name to InterContinental Hotels Group PLC.

Foreign currencies

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated to the functional currency at the exchange rates ruling on the dates of the transactions. All foreign exchange differences arising on translation are recognized in the income statement except on foreign currency borrowings that provide a hedge against a net investment in a foreign operation. These are taken directly to the currency translation reserve until the disposal of the net investment, at which time they are recycled against the gain or loss on disposal.

The assets and liabilities of foreign operations, including goodwill, are translated into sterling at the relevant rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. The revenues and expenses of foreign operations are translated into sterling at weighted average rates of exchange for the period. The exchange differences arising on the retranslation are taken directly to the currency translation reserve. On disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative amount recognized in the currency translation reserve relating to that particular foreign operation is recycled against the gain or loss on disposal.

Financial instruments

The Company adopted IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation and IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement at January 1, 2005. The balance sheet has been restated to include derivatives and equity securities at fair value, with any movement taken to the appropriate reserve.

Under the transitional rules of IFRS 1, IAS 32 and IAS 39 are not applied to comparative balances. Comparative 2004 balances are presented using UK GAAP values as presented in the Company's 2004 Annual Report and Financial Statements, where currency swap agreements were retranslated at exchange rates ruling at the balance sheet date with the net amount being included in borrowings. Financial income or expense arising from currency swap agreements is taken to the income statement on a gross basis over the term of the relevant agreements.

Gains or losses arising on forward exchange contracts are taken to the income statement in line with the transactions they are hedging.

Table of ContentsDerivative financial instruments and hedging

Derivatives designated as hedging instruments are accounted for in line with the nature of the hedging arrangement. The Company's detailed accounting policies with respect to hedging instruments are set out in note 21. Documentation outlining the measurement and effectiveness of the hedging arrangement is maintained throughout the life of the hedge relationship. Any ineffective element of a hedge arrangement is recognized in the income statement.

The fair value of derivatives is calculated by discounting the expected future cash flows at prevailing interest rates.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less depreciation and any impairment.

Borrowing costs are not capitalized. Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred.

Land is not depreciated. All other property, plant and equipment are depreciated to a residual value over their estimated useful lives, namely:

Buildings	lesser of 50 years and unexpired term of lease;
Fixtures, fittings and equipment	3-25 years; and
Plant and machinery	4-20 years.

All depreciation and amortization is charged on a straight line basis. Residual value is reassessed annually.

Property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value may not be recoverable. Assets that do not generate independent cash flows are combined into cash-generating units. If carrying values exceed estimated recoverable amount, the assets or cash-generating units are written down to their recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is the greater of fair value less cost to sell and value in use. Value in use is assessed based on estimated future cash flows discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

Goodwill

Goodwill arises on consolidation and is recorded at cost, being the excess of the cost of acquisition over the fair value at the date of acquisition of the Company's share of identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities. Following initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

Goodwill is tested for impairment at least annually by comparing carrying values with recoverable amounts.

Intangible assetsSoftware

Acquired software licenses and software developed in-house are capitalized on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire and bring to use the specific software. These costs are amortized over their estimated useful lives of three to seven years.

Management contracts

When assets are sold and a purchaser enters into a management or franchise contract with the Company, the Company capitalizes as part of the gain or loss on disposal an estimate of the fair value of the contract entered into. This value is amortized over the life of the contract which ranges from 10 to 25 years.

Table of Contents

Other intangible assets

Amounts paid to hotel owners to secure management contracts and franchise agreements are capitalized and amortized over the shorter of the contracted period and 10 years.

Internally generated development costs are expensed unless forecast revenues exceed attributable forecast development costs, at which time they are capitalized and amortized over the life of the product.

Intangible assets are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable.

Associates

An associate is an entity over which the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence, but not control, through participation in the financial and operating policy decisions of the entity.

Associates are accounted for using the equity method unless the investment is held for sale (see below). Using the equity method, the Company's investment is recorded at cost adjusted by the Company's share of post acquisition profits and losses. When the Company's share of losses exceeds its interest in an associate, the Company's carrying amount is reduced to £nil and recognition of further losses is discontinued except to the extent that the Company has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of an associate.

Financial assets

Under IAS 39 current and non-current financial assets are classified as fair value through profit or loss; loans and receivables; held-to-maturity investments; or as available-for-sale. The Company determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition and are subsequently held at fair value or amortized cost. Changes in fair values of available-for-sale financial assets are recorded directly in the unrealized gains and losses reserve. Changes in fair values of financial assets classified as fair value through profit or loss are recorded in the income statement.

Until January 1, 2005, investments were recorded in accordance with UK GAAP at cost less any provision for impairment.

Available-for-sale financial assets are tested for impairment at each balance sheet date. If impaired, the difference between carrying value and fair value is transferred from equity to the income statement to the extent that there is sufficient surplus in equity; any excess goes directly to the income statement.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Trade receivables

Trade receivables are recorded at their original amount less an allowance for any doubtful amounts. An allowance is made when collection of the full amount is no longer considered probable.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash comprises cash in hand and demand deposits.

Cash equivalents are short-term highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

Assets held for sale

Assets and liabilities are classified as held for sale when their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than continuing use and a sale is highly probable.

Table of Contents

Assets designated as held for sale are held at the lower of carrying amount at designation and sales value less cost to sell.

Depreciation is not charged against property, plant and equipment classified as held for sale.

The Company has taken advantage of the transitional provisions of IFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations and applied the standard for the period beginning January 1, 2004.

Trade payables

Trade payables are non interest bearing and are stated at their nominal value.

Loyalty program

The hotel loyalty program, Priority Club Rewards, enables members to earn points, funded through hotel assessments, during each stay at an InterContinental Hotels Group hotel and redeem the points at a later date for free accommodation or other benefits. The future redemption liability is included in trade and other payables and provisions and other payables and is estimated using actuarial methods to give eventual redemption rates and points values.

Self insurance

The Company is self insured for various levels of general liability, workers compensation and employee medical and dental coverage. Insurance reserves include projected settlements for known and incurred but not reported claims. Projected settlements are estimated based on historical trends and actuarial data.

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that a payment will be made and a reliable estimate of the amount can be made. If the effect of the time value of money is material, the provision is discounted.

Bank and other borrowings

Bank and other borrowings are held at amortized cost. Finance charges, including issue costs, are charged to the income statement using an effective interest rate method.

Borrowings are classified as non-current when the repayment date is more than 12 months from the balance sheet date or where they are drawn on a facility with more than 12 months to expiry.

Pensions

Defined contribution plans

Payments to defined contribution schemes are charged to the income statement as they fall due.

Defined benefit plans

Plan assets are measured at fair value and plan liabilities are measured on an actuarial basis, using the projected unit credit method and discounting at an interest rate equivalent to the current rate of return on a high quality corporate bond of equivalent currency and term to the plan liabilities.

The service cost of providing pension benefits to employees for the year is charged to the income statement. The cost of making improvements to pensions is recognized in the income statement on a straight line basis over the period during which any increase in benefits vests. To the extent that improvements in benefits vest immediately, the cost is recognized immediately as an expense.

Actuarial gains and losses may result from: differences between the expected return and the actual return on plan assets; differences between the actuarial assumptions underlying the plan liabilities and actual experience during the year; or changes in the actuarial assumptions used in the valuation of the plan liabilities. Actuarial gains and losses, and taxation thereon, are recognized in the consolidated statement of recognized income and expense.

Actuarial valuations are normally carried out every three years.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized in respect of all temporary differences between the tax base and carrying value of assets and liabilities. Those temporary differences recognized include accelerated capital allowances, unrelieved tax losses, unremitted profits from overseas where the Company does not control remittance, gains rolled over into replacement assets, gains on previously revalued properties and other short-term temporary differences.

Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is regarded as probable that the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. The recoverability of all deferred tax assets is reassessed at each balance sheet date.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the periods in which the asset or liability will be settled, based on rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is derived from the following sources: owned and leased properties; management fees; franchise fees; sale of soft drinks and other revenues which are ancillary to the Company's operations.

Generally, revenue represents sales (excluding VAT and similar taxes) of goods and services, net of discounts, provided in the normal course of business and recognized when services have been rendered. The following is a description of the composition of revenues of the Company.

Owned and leased primarily derived from hotel operations, including the rental of rooms and food and beverage sales from a worldwide network of owned and leased hotels operated under the Company's brand names. Revenue is recognized when rooms are occupied and food and beverages are sold.

Management fees earned from hotels managed by the Company, usually under long-term contracts with the hotel owner. Management fees include a base fee, which is generally a percentage of hotel revenue, and an incentive fee, which is generally based on the hotels' profitability or cash flows. Revenue is recognized when earned and realized or realizable under the terms of the contract.

Franchise fees received in connection with the license of the Company's brand names, usually under long-term contracts with the hotel owner. The Company charges franchise royalty fees as a percentage of room revenue. Revenue is recognized when earned and realized or realizable.

Share-based payments

The cost of equity-settled transactions with employees is measured by reference to fair value at the date at which the shares are granted. Fair value is determined by an external valuer using option pricing models.

The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognized, together with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which any performance conditions are fulfilled, ending on the date on which the relevant employees become fully entitled to the award (vesting date).

The income statement charge for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognized at the beginning and end of that period. No expense is recognized for awards that do not ultimately vest, except for awards where vesting is conditional upon a market condition, which are treated as vesting irrespective of whether or not the market condition is satisfied, provided that all other performance conditions are satisfied.

Table of Contents

The Company has taken advantage of the transitional provisions of IFRS 2 in respect of equity-settled awards and has applied IFRS 2 only to equity-settled awards granted after November 7, 2002 that had not vested before January 1, 2005.

Leases

Operating lease rentals are charged to the income statement on a straight line basis over the term of the lease.

Disposal of Assets

The Company recognizes the sales proceeds and related profit or loss on disposal on completion of the sales process. The Company considers the following criteria in determining whether revenue and profit or loss should be recorded:

does the Company have a continuing managerial involvement to the degree associated with asset ownership;

has the Company transferred significant risks and rewards associated with asset ownership;

can the Company reliably measure the proceeds; and will the Company actually receive the proceeds.

Discontinued operations

The results of operations arising from assets classified as held for sale are classified as discontinued operations when the results relate to a separate line of business, geographical area of operations, or where there is a co-ordinated plan to dispose of a separate line of business or geographical area of operations.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period.

On an ongoing basis, management evaluates its estimates and judgments, including those relating to revenue recognition, allowance for doubtful amounts, associates and financial assets, property, plant and equipment, goodwill, intangible assets, income taxes, financial instruments, hotel loyalty program, self-insurance, employee benefits and contingencies and litigation.

Management bases its estimates and judgments on historical experience and on various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying value of assets and liabilities that are not readily available from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions and conditions.

New standards and interpretations

During the year, the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) and International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (IFRIC) issued the following standards and interpretations with an effective date after the date of these financial statements. These standards and interpretations which are relevant to the Company have not been applied in the preparation of the Company's financial statements:

IFRS 7	Financial Instruments: Disclosures Effective from January 1, 2007
IFRIC 4	Determining whether an arrangement contains a lease Effective from January 1, 2006

Table of Contents

The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of these standards and interpretations will have a material impact on the Company's financial statements on adoption.

Note 2 Segmental Analysis

The results of foreign operations have been translated into sterling at weighted average rates of exchange for the period. In the case of the US dollar, the translation rate is £1 = $1.83 (2004 £1 = $1.82). In the case of the euro, the translation rate is £1 = 1.46 (2004 £1 = 1.47).

Foreign currency denominated assets and liabilities have been translated into sterling at the rates of exchange on the balance sheet date. In the case of the US dollar, the translation rate is £1 = $1.73 (2004 £1 = $1.93). In the case of the euro, the translation rate is £1 = 1.46 (2004 £1 = 1.41).

Hotels

The primary segmental reporting format is determined to be three main geographical regions: the Americas; Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA); and Asia Pacific.

These, together with Central functions, form the principal format by which management is organized and makes operational decisions.

The Company further breaks each geographic region into three distinct business models which offer different growth, return, risk and reward opportunities:

Franchised

Where the Company neither owns nor manages the hotel, but licenses the use of a Company brand and provide access to reservation systems, loyalty schemes, and know-how. The Company derives revenues from a brand royalty or licensing fee, based on a percentage of room revenue.

Managed

Where, in addition to licensing the use of a Company brand, the Company manages the hotel for third party owners. The Company derives revenues from base and incentive management fees and provides the system infrastructure necessary for the hotel to operate. Management contract fees are generally a percentage of hotel revenue and may have an additional incentive fee linked to profitability or cash flow. The terms of these agreements vary, but are often long-term (for example, 10 years or more). The Company's responsibilities under the management agreement typically include hiring, training and supervising the managers and employees that operate the hotels under the relevant brand standards. In order to gain access to central reservation systems, global and regional brand marketing and brand standards and procedures, owners are typically required to make a further contribution.

Owned and leased

Where the Company both owns (or leases) and operates the hotel and, in the case of ownership, takes all the benefits and risks associated with ownership. The Company has sold, or plans to sell, the majority of its owned and leased portfolio and in future expects to only own hotels where it is considered strategically important to do so.

Segmental results, assets and liabilities include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis.

Employee benefits

Retirement and death in service benefits are provided for eligible employees in the United Kingdom principally by the InterContinental Hotels UK Pension Plan. The plan covers approximately 400 employees of which 240 are in the defined benefit section and 160 are in the defined contribution section. The assets of the plan are held in self-administered trust funds separate from the Company's assets. The Company also maintains a US-based InterContinental Hotels Pension Plan and post-employment benefits scheme. This plan is now closed to new members and pensionable service no longer accrues for current employee members. In addition, the Company operates a number of minor pension schemes outside the United Kingdom, the most significant of which is a defined contribution scheme in the United States; there is no material difference between the pension costs of, and contributions to, these schemes.

On December 14, 2005, the Soft Drinks business, including the Britvic Pension Plan, was sold. The information provided below includes movements for the Britvic Pension Plan up to the date of disposal, at which point they have been removed.

The cumulative amount of actuarial gains and losses recognized since January 1, 2004 in the consolidated statement of recognized income and expense is £74 million (2004 £51 million). The Company is unable to determine how much of the pension scheme deficit recognized on transition to IFRS of £178 million and taken directly to total equity is attributable to actuarial gains and losses since inception of the schemes. Therefore, the Company is unable to determine the amount of actuarial gains and losses that would have been recognized in the consolidated statement of recognized income and expense before January 1, 2004.

Policy on remuneration of executive directors and senior executives

The following policy has applied throughout the year and will apply in future years, subject to ongoing review.

Total level of remuneration

The Remuneration Committee aims to ensure that remuneration packages are offered which:

attract high quality executives in an environment where compensation levels are based on global market practice;

provide appropriate retention strength against loss of key executives;

drive aligned focus and attention to key business initiatives and appropriately reward their achievement;

support equitable treatment between members of the same executive team; and facilitate global assignments and relocation.

The Committee is aware that, as a UK listed company, IHG PLC's incentive arrangements may be expected to recognize UK investor guidelines. However, given the global nature of the Hotels business, an appropriate balance needs to be drawn in the design of relevant remuneration packages between domestic and international expectations.

The main components

The Company has performance-related reward policies. These are designed to provide the appropriate balance between fixed remuneration and variable risk reward, which is linked to the performance of both the Company and the individual. IHG performance-related measures are chosen carefully to ensure a strong link between reward and true underlying financial performance, and emphasis is placed on particular areas requiring executive focus.

Individual performance is measured through an assessment of comprehensive business unit deliverables, demonstrated leadership behaviors, modeling the Company values and the achievement of specific Key Performance Objectives. At the executive level, Key Performance Objectives are linked directly to the Company's strategic priorities. At a minimum, the individual performance of the executive directors is assessed on an annual basis.

The normal policy for executive directors is that, using target or expected value calculations, their performance-related incentives will equate to approximately 70% of total annual remuneration (excluding benefits).

The main components of remuneration are:

Basic salary

The salary for each executive director is based on individual performance and on information from independent professional sources on the salary levels for similar jobs in groups of comparable companies. Internal relativities and salary levels in the wider employment market are also taken into account.

In addition, benefits are provided to executive directors in accordance with the policy applying to other executives in their geographic location.

Annual performance bonus

Within both the Short Term Incentive Plan and the Short Term Deferred Incentive Plan, challenging performance goals are set and these must be achieved before the maximum bonus becomes payable. The Short Term Incentive Plan is linked to personal objectives and the Short Term Deferred Incentive Plan is linked to the Company's financial performance. For executive directors, the maximum bonus opportunity under the Short Term Incentive Plan in 2006 is 80% of salary and is payable in cash. The maximum bonus opportunity under the Short Term Deferred Incentive Plan in 2006 is 100% of salary, with 50% linked to adjusted earnings per share and 50% to earnings before special items, interest and taxation. The performance level required to trigger maximum bonus is 110% of budget for both measures. This bonus will normally be paid in IHG PLC shares and deferred. Matching shares may also be awarded up to 0.5 times the deferred amount. Such awards are conditional on the directors continued employment with the Company until the release date. The shares will normally be released at the end of the three years following deferral.

The executive directors will be expected to hold all shares earned from the Company's remuneration plans while the value of their holding is less than twice their basic salary or three times in the case of the Chief Executive.

Bonuses are not pensionable.

Executive share options Following a full review of incentive arrangements, the Committee has concluded that share options are not the most effective incentive for the foreseeable future and therefore no further grants of options will be made. However, the Committee believes that share ownership by executive directors and senior executives strengthened the link between the individual's personal interest and that of the shareholders.

For options granted in 2005, the Company's adjusted earnings per share over the three-year period ending December 31, 2007 must increase by at least nine percentage points over the increase in the UK Retail Prices Index (RPI) for the same period for one-third of the options granted to vest; 12 percentage points over the increase in RPI for the same period for two-thirds of the options granted to vest; and 15 percentage points over the increase in RPI for the same period for the full award to vest. The options lapse if the performance condition is not met. This remains a realistic but challenging condition in the current economic climate. The achievement or otherwise of the performance condition is assessed, based on the Company's published results; such assessment is then reviewed by the external auditor.

Executive directors were granted options on April 4, 2005 as shown in the table on page F-34.

Executive share options are not pensionable.

Executive directors are entitled to participate in all-employee share plans. Options granted under the IHG Sharesave Plan are not subject to performance conditions and are not pensionable.

Performance restricted shares The Performance Restricted Share Plan allows executive directors and eligible employees to receive share awards, subject to the satisfaction of a performance condition, set by the Remuneration Committee, which is normally measured over a three-year period. Awards are normally made annually and, except in exceptional circumstances, will not exceed three times annual salary for executive directors. In determining the level of awards within this maximum limit, the Committee takes into account the level of executive share options granted to the same person. The grant of awards is restricted so that in each year the aggregate of (i) 20% of the market value of the executive share options and (ii) 33% of the market value of performance restricted shares, will not exceed 130% of annual salary, taking the market value in each case as at the date of grant.

For the 2005/07 cycle, performance will be measured by reference to:

the increase in IHG PLC Total Shareholder Return (TSR) over the performance period relative to 10 identified comparator companies: Accor, De Vere, Hilton Group, Hilton Hotels Corp., Host Marriott, Marriott Hotels, Millennium & Copthorne, NH Hotels, Sol Melia and Starwood Hotels; and the cumulative annual growth (CAGR) in the number of rooms within the IHG system over the performance period relative to nine identified comparator companies: Carlson Hospitality Worldwide, Cendant, Choice, Hilton Group, Hilton Hotels Corp., Hyatt Hotels & Resorts, Marriott Hotels, Sol Melia and Starwood Hotels.

Table of Contents

In respect of TSR performance, 10% of the award will be released for the achievement of sixth place within the TSR group and 50% of the award will be released for the achievement of first or second place. In respect of rooms CAGR performance, 10% of the award will be released for the achievement of median growth and 50% of the award will be released for the achievement of upper quartile growth. Vesting between all stated points will be on a straight line basis.

The asset disposal program, which can significantly impact Return on Capital Employed (ROCE), will complete during 2006. The Committee believes that a rooms growth related performance measure is now the more appropriate measure going forward, effectively aligning an appropriate element of incentive pay with the Group s stated objective of increasing the number of rooms in the IHG system.

Benefits under the Performance Restricted Share Plan are not pensionable and the awards lapse if the performance conditions are not met.

During the year, IHG has remained within its headroom limits for the issue of new shares under the share incentive schemes. Prior to the capital reorganization of June 2005 and the consequent reduction in the Company s share capital, the Company s position under the Association of British Insurer s guidelines (that dilution under discretionary schemes should not exceed 5% in 10 years) was that shares equivalent to only 4.58% of ordinary share capital had been allocated. Against the guideline that overall dilution under all schemes should not exceed 10% in 10 years, IHG had allocated only 4.95%. These figures exclude obligations which are to be settled with shares purchased in the market.

Companies used for comparison

In assessing levels of pay and benefits, IHG compares the packages offered by different groups of comparator companies. These groups are chosen having regard to participants :

size revenue, profits and the number of people employed;

diversity and complexity of businesses;

geographical spread of businesses;

industry type; and relevance as:

a) a potential recruitment target

b) a potential threat in respect of attracting IHG talent.

External consultants are used to advise the Remuneration Committee on the structure and level of pay and benefits in IHG s markets.

Policy on external appointments

The Company recognizes that its directors may be invited to become non-executive directors of other companies and that such duties can broaden experience and knowledge, and benefit the business. Executive directors are, therefore, allowed to accept one non-executive appointment (excluding positions where the director is appointed as the Group s representative), subject to Board approval, as long as this is not likely to lead to a conflict of interest, and to retain the fees received. David Webster received £20,000 during the year for his services as a non-executive director.

Contracts of service

a) Policy

The Remuneration Committee s policy is for executive directors to have rolling contracts with a notice period of 12 months.

Table of Contents

Richard Hartman, Stevan Porter and Richard Solomons have service agreements with a notice period of 12 months. Andrew Cosslett entered into a service agreement with an initial notice period of 24 months, reducing month by month to 12 months after 12 months of service. As at the date of this report, Andrew Cosslett's notice period is 12 months. All new appointments are intended to have 12-month notice periods. However, on occasion, to complete an external recruitment successfully, a longer initial period reducing to 12 months may be used.

No provisions for compensation for termination following change of control, or for liquidated damages of any kind, are included in the current directors' contracts. In the event of any early termination of an executive director's contract, the policy is to seek to minimise any liability.

David Webster ceased to act in his temporary capacity as interim Chief Executive following the appointment of Andrew Cosslett as Chief Executive on February 3, 2005. David Webster's appointment as non-executive Chairman, effective from January 1, 2004, is subject to six months' notice.

Non-executive directors, Ralph Kugler, Robert C. Larson, Sir David Prosser and Sir Howard Stringer signed letters of appointment effective from the listing of IHG PLC in April 2003. These were renewed, effective from completion of the capital reorganization of the Group and the listing of new IHG PLC shares on June 27, 2005. David Kappler signed a letter of appointment effective from his date of original appointment to the Board on June 21, 2004. This was also renewed, effective from June 27, 2005. Jennifer Laing and Jonathan Linen signed letters of appointment effective from their appointment dates, respectively August 25, 2005 and December 1, 2005.

All non-executive directors' appointments, with the exception of the Chairman, are subject to three months' notice.

b) Directors' contracts

Directors	Contract effective date	Unexpired term/ notice period
Andrew Cosslett	2.3.05	12 months
Richard Hartman	4.15.03	12 months
Stevan Porter	4.15.03	12 months
Richard Solomons	4.15.03	12 months

Note: each of the executive directors signed a letter of appointment, effective from completion of the capital reorganization of the Group and the listing of new IHG PLC shares on June 27, 2005. The terms of each appointment were as set out in each Executive Director's original service agreement.

Policy regarding pensions

UK-based executive directors and senior employees participate on the same basis in the executive section of the InterContinental Hotels UK Pension Plan and, if appropriate, the InterContinental Executive Top-Up Scheme. The latter is an unfunded arrangement. However, appropriate security is provided via a fixed charge on a hotel asset. Stevan Porter and senior US-based executives participate in US retirement benefits plans. Executives in other countries, who do not participate in these plans, will participate in local plans, or the InterContinental Hotels Group International Savings & Retirement Plan.

Currently, the pension arrangements for UK-based executive directors and other senior employees provide benefits from both the tax-approved InterContinental Hotels UK Pension Plan and the unfunded InterContinental Executive Top-Up Scheme. In response to the new pension regime resulting from the Finance Act 2004 and applying from April 2006, these plans will be amended to continue to provide, tax efficiently, similar benefits in total, but with a different split of benefits between the two plans.

As an alternative to these arrangements, a cash allowance may be taken.

Directors' Pensions

The following information relates to the pension arrangements provided for Messrs Cosslett, Hartman and Solomons under the executive section of the InterContinental Hotels UK Pension Plan (the "IC Plan") and the unfunded InterContinental Executive Top-Up Scheme ("ICETUS").

The executive section of the IC Plan is a funded, Inland Revenue approved, final salary, occupational pension scheme. The main features applicable to the executive directors are: a normal pension age of 60; pension accrual of 1/30th of final pensionable salary for each year of pensionable service; life assurance cover of four times pensionable salary; pensions payable in the event of ill health; and spouses' and dependants' pensions on death.

All plan benefits are subject to Inland Revenue limits. Where such limitation is due to the earnings cap, ICETUS is used to increase pension and death benefits to the level that would otherwise have applied.

Richard Hartman, who reached the IC Plan normal pension age of 60 on January 30, 2006, ceased to be an active member of the IC Plan and ICETUS with effect from the date, and in future will participate in the InterContinental Hotels Group International Savings and Retirement Plan.

A number of criteria are applied when deciding whether pre-approval for such services should be given. These include the nature of the service, the level of fees, and the practicality of appointing an alternative provider, having regard to the skills and experience required to supply the service effectively. Cumulative fees for audit and non-audit services are presented to the Audit Committee on a quarterly basis for review. The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring adherence to the pre-approval policy.

Note 9 Earnings per ordinary share

Basic earnings per ordinary share is calculated by dividing the profit for the year available for IHG equity holders of £496 million (2004 £383 million) by 521 million (2004 710 million), being the weighted average number of ordinary shares, excluding investment in own shares, in issue during the year.

Diluted earnings per ordinary share is calculated by adjusting basic earnings per ordinary share to reflect the notional exercise of the weighted average number of dilutive ordinary share options outstanding during the year. The resulting weighted average number of dilutive ordinary shares is 533 million (2004 718 million).

Shareholder approval was given on June 1, 2005 to recommended proposals for the return of approximately £1 billion to shareholders by way of a capital reorganization (by means of a scheme of arrangement under Section 425 of the Companies Act 1985). Under the arrangement, shareholders received 11 new ordinary shares and £24.75 cash in exchange for every 15 existing ordinary shares held on June 24, 2005.

Hotels
Americas managed and franchised operations (comprising several CGUs)	82	75
Asia Pacific managed and franchised operations	36	53
Soft Drinks		24
	118	152

The recoverable amounts of the Hotels CGUs are determined from value in use calculations. The key assumptions for the value in use calculations are those regarding discount rates and growth rates. Management estimates discount rates using pre-tax rates that reflect current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the CGUs. Growth rates are based on both management development plans and industry growth forecasts.

Americas managed and franchised operations

The Company prepares cash flow forecasts derived from the most recent financial budgets approved by management for the next year and extrapolates cash flows for the following four years based on an estimated growth rate of 4% (2004 5%). After this period, the terminal value of future cash flows is calculated based on a perpetual growth rate of approximately 2% (2004 2%). The rate used to discount the forecast cash flow ranges from 10.0% to 10.5% (2004 10.0% to 10.5%).

Asia Pacific managed and franchised operations

The Company prepares cash flow forecasts derived from the most recent financial budgets approved by management for the next year and extrapolates cash flows for the following four years based on an estimated growth rate of 4% (2004 7%). After this period, the terminal value of future cash flows is calculated based on a perpetual growth rate of approximately 4% (2004 4%). The rate used to discount the forecast cash flows is 11.0% (2004 11.0%).

The reduction in growth rates from 2004 is a result of the completion of several sale and manage back transactions in 2005 which had previously been included in forecast growth rates.

Available-for-sale financial assets consist of equity investments in listed and unlisted shares. The fair value of unlisted equity shares has been estimated using valuation guidelines issued by the British Venture Capital Association and is based on assumptions regarding expected future earnings. Listed equity share valuation is based on observable market prices.

Other financial assets consist mainly of trade deposits made in the normal course of business. The deposits have been designated as loans and receivables and are held at amortized cost. The fair value has been calculated by discounted future cash flows using prevailing interest rates.

Secured bank loans

These mortgages are secured on the hotel properties to which they relate. The rates of interest and currencies of these loans vary. Amounts falling due after one year include £15 million (2004 £18 million) repayable by instalment. Amounts shown as due within one year are the mortgage repayments falling due within this period. The fair value of secured loans is calculated by discounting the expected future cash flows at prevailing interest rates.

Unsecured bank loans

Unsecured bank loans are borrowings under the Company's 2009 £1.1 billion Syndicated Facility and its short-term bilateral loan facilities. Amounts are classified as due within one year where the loan facility expires within this period. Covenants exist on these facilities and as at the balance sheet date the Company was not in breach of these covenants. 2004 comparatives include £9 million in respect of currency swaps shown as unsecured bank loans under UK GAAP. The carrying value of these loans approximates fair value.

Other unsecured borrowings

In 2004, other unsecured borrowings relate to an £18 million tranche of the 2010 600 million Guaranteed Notes 4.75% and £3 million of other loan stock. Most of the Guaranteed Notes were repurchased in December 2004, the remaining £18 million was repurchased at par on January 7, 2005. The other loan stock relates to the Soft Drinks business, was non interest bearing and was repaid during the year.

Note 21 Financial risk management policiesFinancial instruments

The Group's treasury policy is to manage financial risks that arise in relation to the underlying business needs. The activities of the treasury function are carried out in accordance with Board approved policies and are subject to regular audit. The treasury function does not operate as a profit center.

The treasury function seeks to reduce the financial risk of the Group and manages liquidity to meet all foreseeable cash needs.

Treasury activities include money market investments, spot and forward foreign exchange instruments, currency options, currency swaps, interest rate swaps and options, and forward rate agreements. One of the primary objectives of the Group's treasury risk management policy is to mitigate the adverse impact of movements in interest rates and foreign exchange rates.

Movements in foreign exchange rates, particularly the US dollar and euro, can affect the Group's reported profit, net assets and interest cover. To hedge this translation exposure as far as is reasonably practical, borrowings are taken out in foreign currencies (either directly or via currency swaps) which broadly match those in which the Group's major net assets are denominated.

Foreign exchange transaction exposure is managed by the forward purchase or sale of foreign currencies or the use of currency options. Most significant exposures of the Group are in currencies that are freely convertible.

Interest rate exposure is managed within parameters that stipulate that fixed rate borrowings should normally account for no less than 25% and no more than 75% of net borrowings for each major currency. This is achieved through the use of interest rate swaps and options and forward rate agreements.

Credit risk on treasury transactions is minimised by operating a policy on the investment of surplus funds that generally restricts counterparties to those with an A credit rating or better, or those providing adequate security. Limits are also for individual counterparties. Most of the Group's surplus funds are held in the United Kingdom or United States and there are no material funds where repatriation is restricted as a result of foreign exchange regulations.

The Group is in compliance with all of the financial covenants in its loan documentation, none of which is expected to represent a material restriction on funding or investment policy in the foreseeable future.

F-50

Table of Contents

Medium and long-term borrowing requirements are met through the Syndicated facility. Short-term borrowing requirements are met from drawings under bilateral bank facilities.

Sensitivities

Based on the year end net debt position and given the underlying maturity profile of investments, borrowings and hedging instruments at that date, a one percentage point rise in US dollar interest rates would increase the net interest charge by approximately £1 million, whilst a similar movement in euro interest rates would increase the net interest charge by £4 million.

A general weakening of the US dollar (specifically a one cent rise in the sterling : US dollar rate) would have reduced the Group's profit before tax by an estimated £1 million.

Hedging

Interest rate risk

The Group hedges its interest rate risk by taking out interest rate swaps to fix the interest flows on between 25% and 75% of its borrowings in major currencies. At December 31, 2005 the Group held interest rate swaps with notional principals of US $200 million and 160 million (2004 US $200 million, Australian $60 million, Hong Kong $300 million and 215 million). The interest rate swaps are designated as cash flow hedges of the syndicated loan facility and they are held on the balance sheet at fair value in other financial assets and other payables.

Foreign currency risk

The Group is exposed to foreign currency risk on income streams denominated in foreign currencies. The Group hedges a portion of forecast foreign currency income and asset disposal proceeds by taking out forward exchange contracts designated as cash flow hedges. The spot foreign exchange rate is designated as the hedged risk and so the Group takes the forward points on these contracts through finance expenses. The forward contracts all have maturities less than one year from the balance sheet date.

Forward contracts are held at fair value on the balance sheet as other financial assets and other payables.

Changes in cash flow hedge fair values are recognized in the unrealized gains and losses reserve to the extent that the hedges are effective. When the hedged item is recognized, the cumulative gains and losses on the hedging instrument are recycled to the income statement.

During the year, £1.3 million of interest on forward contracts was recognized through finance income and a £4.6 million net foreign exchange gain was recognized in the income statement, recycled against the appropriate hedged item.

Hedge of net investment in a foreign operation

The Group designates its foreign currency bank borrowings and currency swaps as net investment hedges of foreign operations. The designated risk is the spot foreign exchange risk; the interest on these financial instruments is taken through financial expenses and the swaps are held on the balance sheet at fair value in other financial assets and other payables. Variations in fair value due to changes in the underlying exchange rates are taken to the currency translation reserve until an operation is sold, at which point the cumulative currency gains and losses are recycled against the gain or loss on sale.

Note 23 Share-Based PaymentsShort Term Deferred Incentive Plan

The IHG Short Term Deferred Incentive Plan (STDIP) enables eligible employees, including Executive Directors, to receive all or part of their bonus in the form of IHG PLC shares together with, in certain cases, a matching award of free shares up to 0.5 times the deferred amount. The bonus and matching shares are deferred and released in three equal tranches on the first, second and third anniversaries of the award date, conditional on the participants remaining in the employment of a participating company. Participation in the STDIP is at the discretion of the Remuneration Committee. The number of shares is calculated by dividing a specific percentage of the participant's annual performance related bonus by the middle market quoted prices on the three consecutive dealing days immediately preceding the date of grant. A number of executives participated in the plan during the year and conditional rights over 624,508 IHG PLC shares were awarded to participants.

Performance Restricted Share Plan

The Performance Restricted Share Plan (PRSP) allows Executive Directors and eligible employees to receive share awards, subject to the satisfaction of a performance condition, set by the Remuneration Committee, which is normally measured over a three year period. Awards are normally made annually and, except in exceptional circumstances, will not exceed three times salary for Executive Directors and four times salary in the case of other eligible employees. In determining the level of awards within this maximum limit, the Remuneration Committee takes into account the level of Executive Share Options granted to the same person. At December 31, 2005, conditional rights over 5,173,633 IHG PLC shares had been awarded to employees under the plan. The plan provides for the grant of nil cost options to participants as an alternative to conditional share awards.

Executive Share Option Plan

For options granted, the option price is not less than the market value of an ordinary share, or the nominal value if higher. The market value is the quoted price on the business day preceding the date of grant, or the average of the middle market quoted prices on the three consecutive dealing days immediately preceding the date of grant. A performance condition has to be met before options can be exercised. The performance condition is set by the Remuneration Committee.

In April 2005, options were granted to 58 employees over 2,104,570 IHG PLC shares at 619.83 pence per share. For options granted in 2005, the Company's adjusted earnings per share over the three year performance period ending December 31, 2007 must increase by at least nine percentage points over the increase in the UK Retail Price Index for the same period for any of the award to vest. Options granted in 2005 are exercisable between 2008 and 2015, subject to achievement of the performance condition.

Table of ContentsSharesave Plan

The Sharesave Plan is a savings plan whereby employees contract to save a fixed amount each month with a savings institution for three or five years. At the end of the savings term, employees are given the option to purchase shares at a price set before savings began. The Sharesave Plan is available to all UK employees (including Executive Directors) provided they have been employed for at least one year. The plan provides for the grant of options to subscribe for ordinary shares at the higher of nominal value and not less than 80% of the middle market quotations of the ordinary shares on the three dealing days immediately preceding the invitation date. The plan was not operating during 2005 and no options were granted in the year under the plan.

US Employee Stock Purchase Plan

The US Employee Stock Purchase Plan will allow eligible employees resident in the US an opportunity to acquire Company American Depositary Shares (ADSs) on advantageous terms. The plan, when operational, will comply with Section 423 of the US Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The option to purchase ADSs may be offered only to employees of designated subsidiary companies. The option price may not be less than the lesser of either 85% of the fair market value of an ADS on the date of grant or 85% of the fair market value of an ADS on the date of exercise. Options granted under the plan must generally be exercised within 27 months from the date of grant. The plan was not operated during 2005 and at December 31, 2005 no options had been granted under the plan.

Former Six Continents Share Schemes

Under the terms of the Separation in 2003, holders of options under the Six Continents Executive Share Option Schemes were given the opportunity to exchange their Six Continents PLC options for equivalent value new options over IHG PLC shares. As a result of this exchange, 23,195,482 IHG PLC shares were put under option at prices ranging from 308.48p to 593.29p. The exchanged options were immediately exercisable and are not subject to performance conditions. During 2005, 4,138,482 such options were exercised, leaving a total of 7,909,002 such options outstanding at prices ranging from 308.48p to 593.29p. The latest date that any options may be exercised is October 2012.

The Company recognized £17 million (2004 £12 million) related to equity settled share-based payment transactions during the year.

The aggregate consideration in respect of ordinary shares issued under option schemes during the year was £10 million (2004 £16 million).

The following table sets forth awards and options granted during 2005. No awards were granted under the Sharesave Plan or US Employee Stock Purchase Plan during the year.

Table of Contents

In 2005 and 2004, the Company used separate option pricing models and assumptions for each plan. The following tables set forth information about how the fair value of each option grant is calculated:

2005	Short Term Deferred Incentive Plan	Performance Restricted Share Plan	Executive Share Option Plan
Valuation model	Binomial	Monte Carlo Simulation and Binomial	Binomial
Weighted average share price	652.8p	702.0p	627.0p

Risk-free interest rate			4.73%
Volatility ^(a)			31.33%

(a) The expected volatility was determined by calculating the historical volatility of the Company's share price corresponding to the expected life of the option or share award.

(b) The expected term of the options is taken to the mid point between vesting and lapse, as historical exercise patterns have shown this to be appropriate.

Table of Contents

Tax losses with a value of £282 million (2004 £305 million), including capital losses with a value of £93 million (2004 £98 million), have not been recognized as their use is uncertain or not currently anticipated. These losses may be carried forward indefinitely.

Deferred tax assets of £19 million (2004 £4 million) in respect of share-based payments, £7 million (2004 £10 million) in respect of employee benefits and £11 million (2004 £nil) in respect of other items have not been recognized as their use is uncertain or not currently anticipated.

At December 31, 2005 the Company has not provided deferred tax in relation to temporary differences associated with undistributed earnings of subsidiaries. Quantifying the temporary differences is not practical. However, based on current enacted law and on the basis that the Company is in a position to control the timing and realization of these temporary differences, no material tax consequences are expected to arise.

Note 26 Operating leases

Income statement remeasurement

Administrative expenses

Under UK GAAP, the cost of retirement benefits are provided based upon a consistent percentage of employees pensionable pay as recommended by independent qualified actuaries. Variations in regular pension costs are amortized over the average expected service life of current employees on a straight line basis. Scheme assets and liabilities are not recognized on the Company's balance sheet. Under IFRS, the cost of providing defined benefit retirement benefits is recognized over the service life of scheme members. This cost is calculated by an independent qualified actuary, based on estimates of long-term rates of return on scheme assets and discount rates on scheme liabilities.

Under UK GAAP, the cost of share-based payments is expensed based on the intrinsic value method over the performance period of each plan. Under IFRS, the fair value of all share-based payments is expensed over the vesting period of the related equity instruments, based on the Company's best estimate of the number of shares that will vest. Fair value is determined by an external valuer using option pricing models applied to all share-based payments granted after November 7, 2002.

Depreciation and amortization

Under UK GAAP, goodwill is amortized over 20 years. Under IFRS, goodwill is subject to annual impairment testing and is not amortized. Under IFRS, assets classified as held for sale are not subject to depreciation from the date the assets are designated as held for sale.

Other operating income and expenses

Under UK GAAP, impairment of property, plant and equipment is first recorded against the revaluation reserve and then charged to the income statement. Under IFRS transitional rules, the Company elected to retain UK GAAP carrying values of freehold and leasehold hotels including revaluations. All impairments are taken directly to the income statement.

Income tax expense

Mainly attributable to tax on impairment of property, plant and equipment previously recorded against the revaluation reserve under UK GAAP and the presentation of tax on disposal of assets.

(Loss)/gain on sale of assets

Under IFRS, net asset carrying values have been reduced by the remeasurement of deferred tax, eliminating the provision for loss on disposal of operations recognized under UK GAAP.

Balance Sheet Remeasurement

Held for sale

Under IFRS, assets are classified as held for sale when their value will be recovered through a sale transaction rather than continuing use and management consider a sale to be highly probable.

Assets classified as held for sale are held at the lower of their carrying value and fair value less cost to sell. No depreciation is charged on assets held for sale.

Goodwill

Under UK GAAP, goodwill is amortized over 20 years. Under IFRS, goodwill is subject to annual impairment testing and is not amortized.

Employee benefit obligations

Under UK GAAP, scheme assets and liabilities are not recognized on the Company's balance sheet. Under IFRS, any excess or deficit of scheme assets over scheme liabilities is recorded as an asset or liability, respectively, in the Company's balance sheet. Each year, the scheme net assets or liabilities are adjusted for actuarial gains and losses which are recognized directly in reserves.

Provisions and other payables

Under IFRS, net asset carrying values have been reduced by the remeasurement of deferred tax, eliminating the provision for loss on disposal of operations recognized under UK GAAP.

Deferred tax

Under UK GAAP, deferred tax is provided on all timing differences, subject to certain exceptions. Accordingly, deferred tax is not provided on revaluation gains and gains rolled over into replacement assets unless there exists a binding agreement for sale, nor on unremitted earnings of investments except to the extent of accrued dividends or where there exists a binding agreement to distribute earnings. Under IFRS, deferred tax is recognized on all temporary differences between the tax base and carrying value of assets and liabilities, including those arising from revaluation of assets, on gains rolled over into replacement assets and on remitted earnings of investments where the Company does not control the timing of distributions.

In addition, IFRS requires the tax base of assets and liabilities to be determined by management's current intended use and the intended manner of realization of the asset or liability.

Balance Sheet Reclassifications

Software

Under IFRS, software is classified as an intangible asset.

Other intangible assets

Under IFRS, amounts paid to hotel owners to secure management contracts and franchise agreements are classified as intangible assets.

Other financial assets

Under IFRS, long-term receivables are classified as non-current other financial assets.

Cash and cash equivalents

Bank overdrafts repayable on demand are a component of cash equivalents where the Company has a right of set off.

Table of Contents

Trade and other payables

Under IFRS, dividends are recognized as an appropriation of equity in the period in which they are approved.

Reclassifications which do not impact net assets but which increase non-current assets by £7 million (2004 opening £11 million), reduce current assets by £18 million (2004 opening £32 million) and current liabilities by £6 million (2004 opening increase by £16 million) and non-current liabilities by £5 million (2004 opening £37 million) have been made to the balance sheet at December 31, 2004 and January 1, 2004 respectively, as presented in the 2004 Annual Report and Financial Statements. A reclassification has also been made of £19 million (2004 opening £16 million), reducing IHG shareholders' equity and increasing minority equity interest, in respect of dividends to minority shareholders.

Cash flow

The transition from UK GAAP to IFRS has no effect upon reported cash flows generated by the Company. The IFRS cash flow statement is presented in a different format from that required under UK GAAP with cash flows analyzed into three categories of activities—operating activities, investing activities and financing activities.

Adoption of IAS 39

The impact of adopting IAS 39 on January 1, 2005 was to reduce other financial assets by £4 million.

Note 31 Post balance sheet events

On January 25, 2006, the Group announced the sale to HPT of two hotels in the Americas. On March 13, 2006, the Group announced the sale to Westbridge Hospitality Fund LP, (Westbridge), of 24 hotels in the EMEA region. Westbridge is a joint venture between CADIM, a Montreal-based pension fund manager, and Westmont Hospitality, one of IHG's largest franchisees. The portfolio has been sold for $352 million in cash and debt assumption (before transaction costs), marginally above net asset value. IHG will franchise the hotels to the joint venture under 15 year franchise contracts.

Note 32 Differences between International Financial Reporting Standards and United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

The Company financial statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union (EU) which differ from the accounting principles generally accepted in the US (US GAAP). The significant differences, as they apply to the Company, are summarized below.

This US GAAP information provides a reconciliation between profit available for IHG equityholders under IFRS and net income under US GAAP and between IHG shareholders' equity under IFRS and IHG shareholders' equity under US GAAP, respectively.

The Company has reclassified certain prior year balance sheet information to conform with the current year presentation.

Classification of borrowings

Under US GAAP, the amounts shown as repayable after one year for unsecured bank loans drawn under or supported by bank facilities with maturities of up to five years and amounting to £374 million (2004 £1,104 million) would be classified as current liabilities since the drawings on the facilities are repayable within one year.

Table of ContentsPensions

Under IFRS, the cost of providing defined benefit retirement benefits is recognized over the service life of the scheme members. The cost is calculated by an independent qualified actuary, based on estimates of long-term rates of return on scheme assets and discount rates on scheme liabilities. Under US GAAP, the projected benefit obligation (pension liability) in respect of the Company's principal pension plans is matched against the fair value of the plans assets and is adjusted to reflect any unrecognized obligations or asset in determining the pension cost or credit for the year.

Under IFRS, any excess or deficit of scheme assets over scheme liabilities is recorded as an asset or liability in the Company's balance sheet. Actuarial gains and losses are recognized directly in equity.

Under US GAAP, a corridor approach to the recognition of actuarial gains and losses is adopted, such that only actuarial gains and losses in excess of 10% of the greater of plan assets or obligations are recognized in the income statement and spread over the maximum period of the employees' remaining service period.

At December 31, 2005, the accumulated benefit obligations exceeded the fair value of the plans' assets. In these circumstances, US GAAP would require the recognition of the difference as a balance sheet liability and the elimination of any amounts previously recognized as a prepaid pension cost. An equal amount, but not exceeding the amount of unrecognized past service cost, would be recognized as an intangible asset with the offsetting balance reported in other comprehensive income.

Intangible assets

Under IFRS, goodwill arising on acquisitions prior to October 1, 1998 was eliminated against equity. From October 1, 1998 to December 31, 2003 acquired goodwill was capitalized and amortized over a period not exceeding 20 years. Since January 1, 2004 goodwill continued to be capitalized but amortization ceased as at that date.

Under US GAAP, goodwill arising on acquisitions prior to July 1, 2001 was capitalized and amortized over its estimated useful life, not exceeding 40 years. From October 1, 2002 goodwill and indefinite life intangible assets are not amortized but are reviewed annually for impairment.

Under IFRS, development costs and software are included in intangible assets. Under US GAAP, these assets are included in property, plant and equipment.

Under IFRS, purchase consideration which is contingent on future events is included in the cost of acquisition when receipt is probable and an amount can be reliably measured. Under US GAAP, contingent consideration is recognized when the related contingencies are resolved.

Under IFRS, when assets are sold and a purchaser enters into a management or franchise contract with the Company, the Company capitalizes an intangible asset as part of the gain or loss on disposal at an estimate of the fair value of the contract entered into. This value is amortized over the life of the contract. Under US GAAP, an intangible asset is not recognized as there remains continuing involvement in the hotel operations.

Property, plant and equipment

Under IFRS, the deemed cost at transition at January 1, 2004 is the UK GAAP carrying values, on that date including revaluations. Under US GAAP, property, plant and equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Under IFRS, depreciation is based on the book value of assets, including revaluation where appropriate. Prior to October 1, 1999, freehold hotels were not depreciated, as any charge would have been immaterial given that such properties were maintained, as a matter of policy, by a program of repair and maintenance such that their residual values were at least equal to their book values. From October 1, 1999, all properties were depreciated. There is now no difference between IFRS and US GAAP with regard to depreciation policies.

Table of Contents

Under IFRS, impairment is measured by comparing the carrying value of property, plant and equipment with the higher of fair value less cost to sell and value in use. Value in use is assessed based on estimated future cash flows discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and risks specific to the asset. Under US GAAP, impairments of long-lived assets are assessed on the basis of undiscounted cash flows. If an impairment charge is required it is measured on the basis of discounted cash flows.

The Company recognizes a profit on disposal of property, plant and equipment provided substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership have transferred. For the purposes of US GAAP, the Company would account for sales of real estate in accordance with FAS 66 Accounting for Sales of Real Estate . If there is significant continuing involvement with the property, any gain on sale is deferred and is recognized over the life of the long-term management contract retained on the property.

Prior to the IFRS transition date, cumulative foreign currency exchange gains and losses relating to the disposal of foreign operations were recorded within equity. Since January 1, 2004, foreign currency gains and losses are included in determining the profit or loss on disposal of foreign operations. At that date, the Company opted to set the currency translation reserve to nil. Under US GAAP, such gains and losses are also included in determining the profit or loss on disposal but are tracked from the date of acquisition of the foreign operation.

Staff costs

The Company provides certain compensation arrangements in the US through a Rabbi Trust. Under IFRS, the net deficit is recorded as a provision and the net change in the underlying value of the assets and liabilities is recorded as a charge (or credit) to the income statement. Under US GAAP, the marketable securities held by the Rabbi Trust are accounted for in accordance with FAS 115 Accounting for certain investments in Debt and Equity Securities . The trust is shown gross in the balance sheet. The marketable securities held by the trust are recorded at market value and unrealized gains and losses are reported in other comprehensive income except for other than temporary movements which are recognized in the income statement.

Deferred tax

The Company provides for deferred tax in respect of all temporary differences between the tax base and carrying value of assets and liabilities. Those temporary differences recognized include accelerated capital allowances, unrelieved tax losses, unremitted profits from overseas where the Company does not control remittance, gains rolled over into the replacement assets, gains on previously revalued properties and other short-term temporary differences. Under US GAAP, deferred tax would be computed on all temporary differences between the tax bases and book values of assets and liabilities which will result in taxable or tax deductible amounts arising in future years. Deferred tax assets under IFRS are recognized to the extent that it is regarded as probable that the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Under US GAAP deferred tax assets are recognized in full and a valuation allowance is made to the extent that it is not more likely than not that they will be realized.

Under IFRS, a deductible temporary difference arises in respect of estimated future tax deductions on share-based payments based upon the share price at the balance sheet date. Any excess of the asset recognized over the cumulative compensation expense recorded in the income statement multiplied by the statutory tax rate is recorded directly in equity. Under US GAAP, a deferred tax asset in respect of future deductible amounts is calculated only to the extent of the cumulative compensation expense recorded to date in the income statement. Where actual tax deductions received upon exercise exceed the amount of any deferred tax asset the excess is recorded in equity. Where actual tax deductions are less than the deferred tax asset, the write-down of the asset is recorded against equity to the extent of previous tax benefits recorded in this account with any remainder recorded in the income statement.

Derivative financial instruments and hedging

The Company enters into derivative instruments to limit its exposure to interest rate and foreign exchange risk. In 2004 under IFRS transitional provisions, these instruments were measured at cost and accounted for as hedges, whereby gains and losses were deferred until the underlying transaction occurred. Under US GAAP, all derivative instruments (including those embedded in other contracts) are recognized on the balance sheet at their fair values. Changes in fair value are recognized in net income unless specific hedge criteria are met. The Company adopted both IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation and IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement from January 1, 2005. There is now no difference between IFRS and US GAAP with regard to derivatives entered into after January 1, 2005.

Guarantees

The Company gives guarantees in connection with obtaining long-term management contracts. Under IFRS, a contingent liability is not recognized. For the purposes of US GAAP, under Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation (FIN) 45 Guarantors Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Direct Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others in the Year , at the inception of guarantees issued after December 31, 2002, the Company records the fair value of such guarantees as an asset and liability, which are amortized over the life of the contract.

Assets and liabilities held for sale

Under IFRS, assets and liabilities are classified as held for sale when the criteria under IFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations are met. Under US GAAP, similar criteria are applied to held for sale assets. However, FAS 66 Accounting for Sales of Real Estate excludes any assets from being included as held for sale where there will be a continuing involvement in the asset.

Discontinued operations

Under IFRS, the results of operations arising from assets classified as held for sale are classified as discontinued operations when the results relate to a separate line of business, or geographical area of operations; or where there is a co-ordinated plan to dispose of a separate line of business or geographical area of operations. Under US GAAP, operations are classified as discontinued when they are classified as held for sale and when the Company no longer believes it will have a significant continuing involvement.

- (iii) Calculated by adjusting basic net income in accordance with US GAAP of £355 million income to reflect both the future compensation on share-based payments and the notional exercise of the weighted average number of dilutive ordinary share options outstanding during the period. The resulting weighted average number of ordinary shares is 533 million (2004 720 million).
- (iv) Tax charge for the year ended December 31, 2005 of £3 million (2004 £2 million credit).
- (v) Tax charge for the year ended December 31, 2005 of £17 million (2004 £29 million). Financial expenses for the year ended December 31, 2005 of £9 million (2004 £1 million).
- (vi) Tax charge for the year ended December 31, 2005 of £28 million (2004 £3 million credit).

Consolidated statement of cash flows

The consolidated statement of cash flows prepared under IFRS presents substantially the same information as that required under US GAAP but may differ with regard to classification of items within the statements.

Under IFRS, interest or dividends paid or received are classified as part of operating cash flows unless they are linked directly to specific items and they are then classified as part of either investing or financing cash flows to coincide with the specific item. Under US GAAP, all interest or dividends paid or received must be classified as operating activities. Under IFRS, income tax should be classified as operating cash flow unless the tax paid can be specifically identified with financing or investing activities. Under US GAAP, income tax must be classified as an operating cash flow.

The categories of cash flow activity under US GAAP can be summarized as follows:

	Year ended December 31, 2005	Year ended December 31, 2004
	(£ million)
Cash inflow from operating activities	302	444
Cash outflow on investing activities	1,863	(151)

Table of ContentsAdditional information required by US GAAP in respect of the Group's principal pension plans

The pension cost for these plans computed in accordance with the requirements of US GAAP comprises:

	UK pension benefits		US pension benefits		US postretirement benefits
	($ million)
Service cost	20	17
Interest cost	30	26	5	5	1	1
Expected return on plan assets	(33)	(25)	(4)	(4)
Net amortization and deferral	5	7
Recognized net actuarial gain			2	2
Net periodic pension cost	22	25	3	3	1	1

The major assumptions used in computing the pension expense were:

	UK pension benefits		US pension benefits		US postretirement benefits
Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets	5.80%	6.90%	8.00%	8.00%
Discount rate	4.70%	5.30%	5.50%	5.75%	5.50%	5.75%
Expected long-term rate of earnings increases	4.30%	4.30%	3.50%	3.50%	4.00%	4.00%

The plans' expected return on assets, as shown above, is based on the Company's expectations of long-term average rates of return to be achieved by the underlying investment portfolios. In establishing this assumption, management considers historical and expected returns for the asset classes in which the plans are invested, as well as current economic and capital market conditions.

The assumed health care cost trends rates for medical and dental plans at December 31, 2005 and 2004 are as follows:

2005 2004

Health care cost trend rate assumed for next year	9.0%	9.5%
Rate that the cost trend rate gradually declines to	4.5%	4.5%
Year that rate reaches the assumed ultimate rate	2015	2014

A one-percentage point increase/ (decrease) in assumed health care costs trend rate would increase/ (decrease) the accumulated post employment benefit obligations as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, by £1 million, and would increase/ (decrease) the total of the service and interest cost components of net post-employment health care cost for the period then ended by approximately £nil million.

In 2006, the Company expects to make projected regular contributions to the UK principal plan of £4 million.

Under IFRS, in the year ended December 31, 2005 property, plant and equipment have been written down by £7 million (2004 £48 million) following an impairment review of certain hotel assets based on current market trading conditions. The fair value has been measured by reference to recent transactions for hotel assets in relevant markets.

Under US GAAP, the impairment charge recognized in 2005 relates to a specific property that historically was not subject to an impairment charge. In 2004, with the exception of the impairment charge of £18 million in respect of short leasehold properties, the IFRS impairment charge was reversed.

Under US GAAP, the impairment test is first performed using undiscounted cash flows to assess whether an asset has been impaired. If it is determined that an impairment exists the charge is measured by comparing the value calculated using discounted cash flows and carrying value.

The adjustment to the impairment recognized under IFRS is therefore the difference between the charge under IFRS and US GAAP and is shown in the reconciliation to US GAAP accounting principles.

Table of ContentsAdditional information required by US GAAP in respect of accounting for deferred gains

For US GAAP, the Company accounts for sales of real estate in accordance with FAS 66 Accounting for Sales of Real Estate. If there is significant continuing involvement with the property, any gain on sale is deferred and is recognized over the life of the long-term management contract retained on the property. The deferral of gains on such sales totaled £5 million in 2005 and £nil million in 2004.

UK corporate tax standard rate	30.0	30.0

Other	(1.2)	(0.2)
Special items	3.0	(35.5)
Effective current tax rate on continuing operations	36.5	(18.3)

The tax rate in 2005 compared with 2004 has been impacted primarily by an increased proportion of non UK profits within continuing operations and increases in the valuation allowance against deferred tax assets.

The Company operates, manages and franchises hotels in a significant number of countries and consequently a wide range of matters of interpretation of tax law arise in the normal course of business. Although reliance is placed on generally available interpretations in these countries, there is no certainty that the relevant tax authorities will agree with the Company's interpretation or that the Company's interpretation will be upheld. Consequently it is possible that certain matters will be resolved adversely resulting in additional cash tax settlements. The Company provides against all quantifiable tax exposures based upon best estimates and management's judgment and total tax provisions of £328 million were held at December 31, 2005. The wide range of potential tax issues which arise include, in particular, the application of transfer pricing regulations and the allocation of costs and revenues between countries (£17 million), the deduction of intra-group charges (£10 million), the scope of controlled foreign company regulations (£160 million), and the scope and basis of application of tax laws of particular jurisdictions (including whether taxable permanent establishments exist) (£37 million).

The taxation effect of losses carried forward is stated net of a valuation allowance of £282 million (2004 £305 million). The tax effect of employee benefits and other temporary differences are stated net of valuation allowances of £3 million (2004 £nil million) and £14 million (2004 £nil million) respectively.

On release, £18 million (2004 £16 million) of the valuation allowance would be recognized in goodwill. An increase of £1 million (2004 reduction of £88 million) has been made to the opening valuation allowance in respect of a change in judgment regarding the realizability of deferred tax assets. There are no material expiration dates in respect of operating losses.

No deferred tax is provided in respect of temporary differences relating to the unremitted earnings of overseas subsidiaries and joint ventures which the group controls on the basis that the differences are permanent in nature. It is not practicable to determine the amounts unprovided.

Table of ContentsVariable Interest Entities

FIN 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (the Interpretation), was effective for all enterprises with variable interest in variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003. FIN 46(R), which was revised in December 2003, was effective for all entities to which the provisions of FIN 46 were not applied as of December 24, 2003. We applied the provisions of FIN 46(R) to all entities subject to the Interpretation as of December 31, 2004. Under FIN 46(R), if an entity is determined to be a variable interest entity (VIE), it must be consolidated by the enterprise that absorbs the majority of the entity's expected losses, receives a majority of the entity's expected residual returns, or both, the primary beneficiary.

The Group's evaluation of the provisions of FIN 46 as it relates to its various forms of arrangements focused primarily on a review of the key terms of its equity investment agreements, management contracts and franchise agreements against the criteria in FIN 46 to determine if any of these arrangements qualify as VIEs. In general, a VIE represents a structure used for business purposes that either does not have equity investors with voting rights or that has equity investors that do not provide sufficient financial resources for the entity to support its activities. However, other contractual arrangements could qualify an entity as a VIE and designate which party to the contract is the primary beneficiary.

The Group's evaluation of its equity investments, management contracts and franchise agreements identified one management contract, due to the terms of performance guarantees, and one equity investment, in which it has variable interests. For those entities in which the Group holds a variable interest, it determined that it was not the primary beneficiary and as such was not required to consolidate the VIEs. The performance guarantee associated with the management contracts with HPT does not expose the Group to the majority of expected cash flow variability and therefore those hotels have not been consolidated. As of December 31, 2005, the maximum exposure to loss on these contracts, consisting of future management fees and the potential obligation to fund the performance guarantee, totaled an aggregate amount of approximately £72 million over the life of the contracts. The Group also has one significant equity interest in an entity that is a VIE. In November 2003, the Group purchased a one-third share of an equity venture that owns the InterContinental Warsaw which is managed by the Group. The equity investment in the VIE totaled £13 million at December 31, 2005 and £13 million at December 31, 2004.

New Accounting Standards

In December 2004, the FASB issued FAS No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment (FAS No. 123R), which is a revision of FAS No. 123, (FAS No. 123) Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation . Generally, the approach in FAS No. 123R is similar to the approach described in FAS No. 123. FAS No. 123R requires all share-based payments to employees, including grants of share options, to be recognized in the income statement based on their fair values. The Group plans to adopt FAS No. 123R for the financial year ended December 2006.

The Company believes that the adoption of FAS No. 123R, using the modified prospective method, will not have a material impact on the results for the fiscal year 2006.
