SIMMONS FIRST REACHES AGREEMENT TO ACQUIRE NINE ARKANSAS
BRANCHES FROM UNION PLANTERS BANK, N.A.

Pine Bluff, AR Simmons First National Corporation (NASDAQ NM: SFNC) today announced the execution of a definitive agreement to purchase nine branch banking locations from Union Planters Bank, N.A. (NYSE: UPC) according to J. Thomas May, chairman, and chief executive officer of Simmons First and Levon Mathews, president of the Tri-State Region of Union Planters Bank.

Six locations in North Central Arkansas include Clinton, Marshall, Mountain View, Fairfield Bay, Leslie and Bee Branch. Three locations in Northeast Arkansas communities include Hardy, Cherokee Village and Mammoth Spring.

The nine locations have combined deposits of $140 million with estimated acquired assets of $126 million including selected loans, premises, cash and other assets.

We are excited about this opportunity to expand our services in Arkansas, said May. These acquisitions reflect the vision of Simmons First to provide our customers statewide access and significantly enhance our ability to meet that goal. With these purchases, Simmons First will have 73 financial centers serving our customers in 43 communities throughout Arkansas.

Edgar Filing: SIMMONS FIRST NATIONAL CORP - Form 8-K

May continued, Simmons First's emphasis on local decision making, quality customer service, competitive products and convenience are the cornerstones of our community banking philosophy. It is our intent that the same friendly associates who have served these local communities will remain as part of the Simmons First team.

We look forward to focusing on our other Arkansas markets, said Mathews. We will continue our banking operations in Bono, Earle, Forrest City, Jonesboro, Marion, Newport, Osceola, Paragould, Rector, Weiner and West Memphis. We are pleased that a quality organization like Simmons First is the purchaser of the nine branches and we feel that our customers and employees will be in good hands.

The transaction is subject to regulatory approval and is expected to close during the fourth quarter of 2003.
