1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

On April 5, 2005, Georgia Gulf Corporation experienced an unexpected interruption in production at its chlorine plant in Plaquemine, LA. As a result of this interruption, the company will begin its turnaround of the chlorine plant, previously scheduled for the end of April, immediately. The turnaround is planned to take two weeks, although making repairs caused by the interruption could result in the plant's being out of operation for approximately one month.
