Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On March 29, 2011, the Board of Directors of Tri-Valley Corporation (the “Company”) amended and restated the Company’s bylaws to, among other things:

Clarify the notice requirements with which stockholders must comply in order to exercise their right to call a special meeting of stockholders, including the content and representations that must be provided by such stockholders in connection with their special meeting requests. The request in writing of stockholders owning a majority in amount of the capital stock of the Company issued and outstanding remains the requisite stockholder ownership threshold to be eligible to call a special meeting.

Establish advance notice procedures with respect to (i) a stockholder’s nomination of a candidate for election as director and (ii) any other business proposed to be brought before the meeting, the failure to comply with which would allow the Company to determine that such nomination shall be disregarded and/or that such proposed business shall be disregarded for having failed to have been properly brought before the meeting.

Expand the director qualification requirements to include, among other things, a written representation and agreement from such nominee that such person (i) is not and will not become a party to any voting agreement with respect to how such director will vote that has not been otherwise disclosed to the Company, or that could limit or interfere with such person’s ability to comply with applicable fiduciary duties; and (ii) is not nor will become a party to any agreement (other than with the Company) that provides the director with compensation, reimbursement or indemnification in connection with such director’s service on the Company’s Board of Directors;

Provide for the issuance of uncertificated shares of stock; and

Provide that the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66²/₃% of the Company’s voting stock then outstanding is required to amend certain provisions of the bylaws relating to the calling of special meetings of stockholders, advance notice procedures, the required vote to elect directors, the number and term of the Company’s directors, the filling of board vacancies, and the indemnification of officers and directors of the Company.

The above summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amended and Restated Bylaws, which are attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report and incorporated herein by this reference.
