During 2009, the audit committee of the board of directors consisted of outside directors Edward Carda (chairman), Sal Miwa and Peter Lau. The audit committee is directly responsible for the engagement of the Company's independent auditors and is responsible for approving the services performed by the Company's independent auditors and for reviewing and evaluating the Company's accounting principles and its system of internal accounting controls. Carda qualifies as an audit committee financial expert; as such term is defined in rules of the SEC implementing requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. ## Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires AERT's executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten-percent of a registered class of the Company's securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and National Association of Securities Dealers. Officers, directors and greater than ten-percent shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all forms filed pursuant to Section 16(a). Based on a review of the copies of such forms received by it, the Company believes that during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, all Section 16(a) filing requirements were met, except as follows: Each of the directors, with the exception of Joe Brooks, Stephen Brooks and Timothy Morrison, failed to file one Form 4 for one transaction related to the issuance of common stock upon the vesting of restricted stock awards. Additionally, Peter Lau filed one late Form 4 report for one transaction related to the purchase of common stock.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Directors who are also employees of AERT are not entitled to any additional compensation by virtue of service as a director, except for reimbursement of any specific expenses attributable to such service. In 2009, non-employee directors agreed to forego annual compensation for board service, which was $16,000 in cash in 2008, and fees for each full board meeting and committee meeting they attended. The Company's directors agreed to forego for 2008 and 2009 their annual restricted stock unit awards of shares, which would have had a market value of $32,000 per year measured on an average closing sale price basis over a 50-business day period preceding the award. Under the Company's non-employee equity incentive plan, newly elected directors are initially granted restricted stock units equal to a prorated portion of the yearly award based on their period of service in their initial fiscal year as a director.

Previously granted restricted stock unit awards for directors vest over a three-year period, with 20% of a particular award vesting on the first anniversary thereof, an additional 30% of such award (50% cumulatively) vesting on the second anniversary of the award, and the 50% balance of the award vesting on the third anniversary of the award. Prior to 2009, non-employee board committee members received annual cash compensation as follows: audit committee: $8,000 (chairperson) and $3,000 (other members); compensation committee: $5,000 (chairperson) and $3,000 (other members); nominating committee: $4,000 (chairperson) and $2,000 (other members); technology committee: $3,000 (chairperson) and $1,000 (other members); legal affairs committee: $4,000 (chairperson) and $2,000 (other members); and capital expenditures committee: $4,000 (chairperson) and $2,000 (other members).
