Item 8.01 Other Events.

In connection with the change of the jurisdiction of incorporation of Platform Specialty Products Corporation (“Platform”) from the British Virgin Islands to the State of Delaware, Platform filed a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (No. 333-192778) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) that was declared effective by the Commission on January 22, 2014 (as amended, the “Registration Statement”). In the prospectus included in the Registration Statement, Platform stated its intention to advise all Platform stockholders of the results of an earnings and profits analysis (“E&P Analysis) performed by an independent certified public accounting firm to determine whether a U.S. stockholder who beneficially owned (directly, indirectly or constructively) 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes entitled to vote of Platform on October 31, 2013 (the day of completion of Platform’s acquisition of substantially all of the equity of MacDermid Holdings, LLC, which at the time owned approximately 97% of MacDermid, Incorporated (the “MacDermid Acquisition”)), must include in income as a deemed dividend any earnings and profits arising from the MacDermid Acquisition.

Platform engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (“PwC”), an independent certified public accounting firm, to conduct the E&P Analysis. PwC concluded that, from inception up to and including the date of the MacDermid Acquisition, Platform’s “all earnings and profits amount” (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.367(b)-2(d)) was not greater than zero. Therefore, the “all earnings and profits amount” with respect to each U.S. stockholder is similarly not greater than zero. Please note that on October 31, 2013, Platform’s number of outstanding common shares was 88,529,500. Platform strongly urges each U.S. person who owned Platform stock on October 31, 2013 to consult his/her own tax advisor with any questions and for guidance as to the proper treatment of his/her ownership under applicable U.S. Federal and State income tax principles.
