Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Stock Purchase Agreement

On November 17, 2016, Simmons First National Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a definitive agreement and plan of merger (the “Agreement”) with Hardeman County Investment Company, Inc. (“Hardeman”), including its wholly-owned bank subsidiary, First South Bank (“FSB”), to acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Hardeman (the “Acquisition”) for approximately $72.2 million (based on the Company’s common stock ten-day average closing price as of November 15, 2016). Under the terms of the Agreement, each outstanding share of common stock and equivalents of Hardeman will be converted into the right to receive 4.8393 shares of the Company’s common stock and $181.47 in cash, all subject to certain conditions and potential adjustments. Hardeman is headquartered in Jackson, Tennessee. The transaction is expected to close during the first quarter of 2017.

The Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from the Company and Hardeman, and each party has agreed to customary covenants including, among others, covenants relating to (1) the conduct of Hardeman’s business during the interim period between the execution of the Agreement and the consummation of the Acquisition, (2) each party’s obligations to facilitate Hardeman’s shareholders’ consideration of, and voting upon, the Agreement and the Acquisition, (3) the recommendation by the Hardeman board of directors in favor of approval of the Agreement and the Acquisition, (4) Hardeman’s obligation to submit the Agreement to its shareholders for approval at a meeting of shareholders held for that purpose, and (5) Hardeman’s non-solicitation obligations relating to alternative business combination transactions.

The completion of the Acquisition is subject to customary closing conditions, including (1) approval of the Agreement by Hardeman’s shareholders, (2) receipt of required regulatory approvals without the imposition of a condition that would have or be reasonably likely to have a burdensome effect on the Company, (3) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the consummation of the Acquisition, (4) approval of the listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market of the Company’s common stock to be issued in the Acquisition, and (5) the effectiveness of the registration statement for the Company’s common stock to be issued in the Acquisition. Each party’s obligation to complete the Acquisition is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including (a) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, and (b) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Agreement. In addition, holders of no more than five percent of the outstanding shares of Hardeman’s common stock shall have demanded appraisal rights, and FSB shall maintain certain asset quality metrics.

The Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Hardeman and further provides that a termination fee of $3.0 million will be payable by Hardeman to the Company upon termination of the Agreement under certain specified circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated by reference herein. The Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to this report in order to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other financial information about the Company, Hardeman, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Agreement were made only for purposes of the Agreement and as of specific dates, and were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them or any descriptions of them as statements of facts or conditions of the Company, Hardeman, or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Company, Hardeman, their respective affiliates, or their respective businesses. The Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company, Hardeman, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Agreement, and the Acquisition that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a proxy statement of Hardeman and a prospectus of the Company, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that the Company makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC.
