BT COMPLETES THE ACQUISITION OF THE IT INFRASTRUCTURE DIVISION OF CS
COMMUNICATION & SYSTEMES

Edgar Filing: BT GROUP PLC - Form 6-K

British Telecommunications plc (BT) announced today the completion of the acquisition of the Critical Infrastructure division of CS Communication & Systems after obtaining all necessary merger and regulatory clearances. The division provides its corporate and public sector clients with a range of IT services for building and maintaining IT infrastructures including consulting, network integration, insourcing, outsourcing and data centre services.

On August 3, 2007, BT announced it had submitted a binding offer to CS Communication & Systems, a French IT systems and network services provider, to acquire its Critical Infrastructures division for up to EUR60 million in cash.

The division employs approximately 1,400 people and made EUR137.7 million revenue in 2006.

About BT

BT is one of the world's leading providers of communications solutions and services operating in 170 countries. Its principal activities include networked IT services; local, national and international telecommunications services; higher-value broadband and internet products and services and converged fixed/mobile products and services. BT consists principally of four lines of business: BT Global Services, Openreach, BT Retail and BT Wholesale.

In the year ended 31 March 2007, BT Group plc's revenue was GBP20,223 million with profit before taxation of GBP2,484 million.

British Telecommunications plc (BT) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of BT Group and encompasses virtually all businesses and assets of the BT Group. BT Group plc is listed on stock exchanges in London and New York.
