1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 7, 2005, Red Robin Gourmet Burgers, Inc. (the Company) entered into an employment agreement (the Employment Agreement) with Dennis B. Mullen in connection with Mr. Mullen's appointment as chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the Company. A copy of the Employment Agreement is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Mullen will receive an annual base salary at the rate of $625,000, which is subject to review by the board of directors in January 2006 and annually thereafter; provided that the annual base salary may not be reduced below $625,000. Mr. Mullen is also entitled to receive a one-time signing bonus of $120,000, and he is eligible to participate in the Company's annual incentive compensation plan to the same extent as other senior executive employees of the Company. For 2005, Mr. Mullen is eligible to receive a bonus under the Company's Annual Incentive Compensation (Bonus) Plan of between 45% and 135% of the amount of base salary actually paid to him in 2005 based on the level of the Company's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (or EBITDA) relative to certain targets that have been set by the Company's board of directors. Seventy-five percent (75%) of Mr. Mullen's total bonus opportunity for fiscal 2005 will be based solely on the Company's achievement of the specified EBITDA levels, and the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the total bonus opportunity will be payable in the sole discretion of the compensation committee of the board of directors based on such committee's assessment of Mr. Mullen's achievement of certain personal goals established by the committee.

Mr. Mullen is also entitled under the Employment Agreement to certain other benefits, including a $1,000 per month car allowance and the right to participate in all savings, retirement, medical, welfare and insurance plans and programs to the same extent as other senior executive employees of the Company. In addition, the Company has agreed to pay or reimburse Mr. Mullen for travel expenses he incurs commuting from Arizona to the Company's headquarters in Denver, Colorado, and to provide Mr. Mullen with the use of a furnished apartment or other comparable housing in Denver. Mr. Mullen's commuting expenses are subject to periodic review for reasonableness by the chairman of the compensation committee of the board of directors. Mr. Mullen may fly on charter or private aircraft to commute from Arizona to Denver, Colorado and otherwise for appropriate business use, subject in each case to his compliance with the Company's expense reimbursement and non-commercial aircraft use policies.

As previously reported by the Company, Mr. Mullen also received an option to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock at a price of $45.79 per share. The option was granted under the Company's 2004 Performance Incentive Plan, and otherwise on the terms and conditions set forth in the award agreement between the Company and Mr. Mullen which was filed as an exhibit to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K (Event Date: August 25, 2005).

The term of the Employment Agreement continues through December 31, 2008; provided, however, that at anytime on or after February 28, 2007, either the Company or Mr. Mullen may, by delivery of written notice to the other party, elect to have the term of the Agreement expire on any date not less than six months from the date on which such notice is delivered. The term of the Employment Agreement is also subject to automatic renewal for a six-month period on December 31, 2008 and each six-month anniversary date thereafter unless one party or the other delivers written notice at least sixty (60) days prior to such date (or anniversary date, as the case may be) of their desire to terminate the Employment Agreement or modify its terms.

The Employment Agreement terminates automatically in the event of Mr. Mullen's death or upon 30 days advance written notice from the Company in the event that he becomes disabled (within the meaning specified in the Employment Agreement). In the event Mr. Mullen's employment terminates on account of his death or disability, Mr. Mullen (or his estate) is entitled to receive his base salary and accrued vacation pay through the date of termination and any compensation previously deferred by Mr. Mullen or due pursuant to any applicable welfare or benefit plans. He or his estate is also entitled to receive under such circumstances a pro rated share of any annual incentive bonus for which he would have otherwise been eligible, determined on the basis of the number of days during which he was employed by the Company during the applicable fiscal year.

Edgar Filing: RED ROBIN GOURMET BURGERS INC - Form 8-K

The Company may terminate Mr. Mullen's employment at anytime for cause, which is defined in the Employment Agreement to include, among other things, neglect in the performance of his duties, engaging in certain acts of misconduct (including a violation of the Company's code of ethics or other policies) or failure to follow lawful directives from the board of directors. In the event Mr. Mullen's employment is terminated for cause, he is entitled to receive his base salary and accrued vacation pay through the date of termination.

The Company may also terminate Mr. Mullen's employment without cause with at least 30 days advance written notice. If, prior to the expiration of the stated term of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Mullen's employment is terminated other than on account of his death or disability or other than for cause, then Mr. Mullen is entitled to receive his base salary and accrued vacation pay through the date of termination. In addition, conditioned upon delivering a general release to the Company, Mr. Mullen is also entitled to receive the following payments and benefits:

If such termination is effective before August 31, 2007:

continued payment for a period of six months following the effective date of termination of his base salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of termination;

payment of the greater of 50% or a pro rata share (determined on the basis of the number of days during which he was employed by the Company during the applicable fiscal year) of any annual incentive bonus for which he would otherwise have been eligible; and payment or reimbursement of the cost of continuing coverage for Mr. Mullen and his spouse under the Company's then existing medical, dental and prescription insurance plans for a period of six months following the effective date of termination.

If such termination becomes effective on or after August 31, 2007:

continued payment of his base salary then in effect for what would otherwise be the remainder of the then-existing contract term (as such term may be modified under the Employment Agreement);

payment of a pro rata share (determined on the basis of the number of days during which he was employed by the Company during the applicable fiscal year) of any annual incentive bonus for which he would otherwise be eligible; and payment or reimbursement of the cost of continuing coverage for Mr. Mullen and his spouse under the Company's then existing medical, dental and prescription insurance plans for what would otherwise be the remainder of the then-existing contract term (as such term may be modified under the Employment Agreement).

The Employment Agreement contains confidentiality, non-compete and non-interference covenants from Mr. Mullen.

The Company and Eric C. Houseman have entered into a non-qualified stock option agreement in conjunction with Mr. Houseman's appointment as president and chief operating officer. Effective September 1, 2005, the Company awarded Mr. Houseman an option to purchase 15,000 shares of the Company's common stock at a strike price of $46.22 per share, which was the price of the Company's common stock as of the close of The NASDAQ National Market on such date. The option has a term of 10 years and vests as to 25% of the options granted on September 1, 2006, with the remaining 75% vesting ratably in substantially equal monthly installments over a three-year period beginning October 1, 2006. A copy of Mr. Houseman's non-qualified stock option agreement is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, the compensation committee of the Company's board of directors approved a new base annual salary for Mr. Houseman of $250,000. Mr. Houseman will be eligible for an annual incentive bonus for each fiscal year of between 35% to 105% of his annual base salary, subject to the achievement of performance criteria established by the compensation committee.
