Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Change of Control Agreement between Agilent and its President and Chief Executive Officer

Effective September 8, 2005, the Company entered into an Amended and Restated Change of Control Severance Agreement (the "CEO Change of Control Agreement") with its President and Chief Executive Officer that supersedes his prior change of control agreement.

The CEO Change of Control Agreement sets out severance benefits that become payable if one of the following three events occurs: (i) an involuntary termination of executive's employment without cause within the period beginning 3 months before and ending 24 months following a change of control of Agilent; (ii) a voluntary resignation by executive, but only on account of an event constituting a constructive termination of employment that occurs within the period beginning 3 months before and ending 24 months following a change of control of Agilent; or (iii) an acquiror of Agilent, prior to a change of control, requests that executive be terminated without cause or that Agilent perform an action constituting constructive termination of employment that leads to executive's resignation, and such termination or resignation occurs. The severance benefits under the CEO Change of Control Agreement are substantially the same as those under the CEO's prior change of control agreement and consist of the following: (i) a severance payment equal to 300% of the executive's annual base salary and target bonus; (ii) continuation of health coverage by having the Company pay the executive's COBRA premiums for up to 18 months; (iii) vesting of all outstanding stock options and any restricted stock; and (iv) the prorated amount, if any, of any amount otherwise payable based on actual performance under any applicable variable pay programs for the year of termination. If any payment received would be subject to excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, or any similar excise tax, the executive would receive a gross-up payment for the excise tax. The new CEO Change of Control Agreement allows the company to unilaterally terminate the agreement following 18 months prior written notice to the executive, so long as the Company's unilateral termination of the agreement occurs before the period beginning 3 months prior to a change of control. The foregoing summary of the CEO Change of Control Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit 10.1 of this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Change of Control Agreement between Agilent and Named Executive Officers (other than the Company's Chief Executive Officer)

Effective September 8, 2005, the Company entered into an Amended and Restated Change of Control Severance Agreement (the "Change of Control Agreement") with each of its named executive officers (other than the Company's Chief Executive Officer) that supersedes their respective prior change of control agreements.

The Change of Control Agreement sets out severance benefits that become payable if one of the following three events occurs: (i) an involuntary termination of executive's employment without cause within the period beginning 3 months before and ending 24 months following a change of control of Agilent; (ii) a voluntary resignation by executive, but only on account of an event constituting a constructive termination of employment that occurs with the period beginning 3 months before and ending 24 months following a change of control of Agilent; or (iii) an acquiror of Agilent, prior to a change of control, requests that executive be terminated without cause or that Agilent perform an action constituting constructive termination of employment that leads to executive's resignation, and such termination or resignation occurs. The severance benefits under the Change of Control Agreement are substantially the same as those under the prior change of control agreement and consist of the following: (i) a severance payment equal to 200% of the executive's annual base salary and target bonus; (ii) continuation of health coverage by having the Company pay the executive's COBRA premiums for up to 18 months; (iii) vesting of all outstanding stock options and any restricted stock; and (iv) the prorated amount, if any, of any amount otherwise payable based on actual performance under any applicable variable pay programs for the year of termination. If any payment received would be subject to excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, or any similar excise tax, the executive would receive a gross-up payment for the excise tax, unless a cutback by less than ten percent of the total maximum amount payable would avoid the excise tax. The new Change of Control Agreement allows the company to unilaterally terminate the agreement following 18 months prior written notice to the executive, so long as the Company's unilateral termination of the agreement occurs before the period beginning 3 months prior to a change of control. The foregoing summary of the Change of Control Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit 10.2 of this Current Report on Form 8-K.
