Proposal No. 1: Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation

1. Reasons for the amendment:

In accordance with the Corporation Law (2005 Law No. 86) of Japan and the Law Concerning Adjustment of Related Laws, Etc. Accompanying the Enforcement of the Corporation Law (2005 Law No. 87) of Japan, coming into effect on May 1, 2006, it is hereby proposed that amendment be made to the Articles of Incorporation of the Company as described below:

(1) Amendment with regard to the matters that are deemed to have been provided in the Articles of Incorporation upon enforcement of the Corporation Law:

- 1) The Company is a company with committees. Hence, the Company is deemed to have a provision in the Articles of Incorporation in accordance with the Corporation Law that the Company shall set up the board of directors, nomination committee, audit committee, compensation committee and accounting auditors.
- 2) With regard to certificates of shares, there is no provision in the Articles of Incorporation that forbids the Company from issuing certificates of shares. Hence, the Company is deemed to have a provision in the Articles of Incorporation on the date that the Corporation Law came into effect that the Company shall issue certificates of shares.
- 3) With regard to a transfer agent, there is a provision in the Articles of Incorporation that the Company shall have a transfer agent. Hence, the Company is deemed to have provided a provision in the Articles of Incorporation on the date of enforcement of the Corporation Law that the Company shall have a share registrar.
- 4) With regard to distribution of surplus, the Company is deemed to have provisions in the Articles of Incorporation that the board of directors shall have the authority to determine distribution of surplus and that it shall not be determined by a resolution of a general meeting of shareholders.

In order to clarify such deemed provisions in the Articles of Incorporation, it is hereby proposed that the following amendments be made to the existing Articles of Incorporation.

(Articles for reference)

Proposed Article 5 (Governing Bodies), Article 7 (Issuance of Certificates of Shares), Article 11 (Share Registrar) and Article 34 (Organ with the Authority to Determine Distribution of Surplus)

Table of Contents

(2) Changes in terms and expressions in accordance with the Corporation Law

In accordance with the Corporation Law, it is hereby proposed that the terms under the Commercial Code prior to amendment be replaced with those used in the Corporation Law and simultaneously some expressions, and words and terms be modified.

(Articles for reference)

Proposed Article 4 (Method of Giving Public Notices), Article 6 (Authorized Number of Shares), Article 8 (Number of Shares Constituting One Unit), Article 10 (Request for Purchasing Less-Than-A-Full-Unit Shares), Article 13 (Convocation), Article 14 (Record Date of an Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders), Article 18 (Resolutions), Article 19 (Number of Directors and Election), Article 20 (Term of Office), Article 24 (Limitation of Liabilities of Directors), Article 25 (Maintenance of Committees), Article 26 (Authorities of Committees, Etc.), Article 28 (Executive Officers and Authorities of Executive Officers), Article 29 (Terms of office), Article 30 (Representative Executive Officers and Executive Officers with Special Titles), Article 31 (Limitation of Liabilities of Executive Officers), Article 33 (Fiscal Year), etc.

(3) Amendment as a result of the introduction of quarterly dividends

In accordance with the Corporation Law, restrictions on the number of dividend payments are lifted and the Company has determined to introduce quarterly dividends. Hence, it is hereby proposed that four record dates be fixed for each year.

(Article for reference)

Proposed Article 35 (Record Date for Distribution of Surplus)

(4) New provision regarding the new disclosure policy whereby reference materials for a general meeting of shareholders and other documents shall be made available on the Internet

It is hereby proposed that the Company adopt a policy of providing shareholders with information including reference materials for a general meeting of shareholders, business reports, financial statements and consolidated financial statements on the Internet.

(Article for reference)

Proposed Article 17 (Disclosure of Reference Materials for a General Meeting of Shareholders on the Internet)

Table of Contents

- (5) New provision upon adoption of a policy allowing written consent by writing or electronic means resolutions by the entire board of directors

To allow the board of directors to operate flexibly, it is hereby proposed that the Company adopt a policy allowing written consent by writing or electronic means under which a resolution shall be deemed to be adopted by the board of directors without convening a meeting thereof if all the directors consent thereto in writing or by any electronic method.

(Article for reference)

Proposed Article 23 (Resolutions)

- (6) Amendment with regard to the procedure of exercise of rights of shareholders

It is hereby proposed that amendment be made to the existing Articles of Incorporation so that the Share Handling Regulations may govern the procedure of exercise of rights of shareholders, in addition to the handling business relating to shares of the Company.

(Article for reference)

Proposed Article 12 (Share Handling Regulations)

- (7) New provision for the rights of holders of less-than-a-full-unit shares

Holders of less-than-a-full-unit shares are not entitled to vote at any general meeting of shareholders. In addition, the Corporation Law authorizes a company to provide in its articles of incorporation that holders of less-than-a-full-unit shares shall not be entitled to exercise any rights other than those provided by the Corporation Law. Hence, to secure efficient handling of holders of less-than-a-full-unit shares, it is hereby proposed that a new provision be added to that effect.

2. The Company may, by a resolution of the board of directors, pay interim dividends to the shareholders or registered pledgees whose names appear as such on the register of shareholders of the Company at the closing thereof on September 30 of each year.

2. The Company may, without prejudice to the foregoing paragraphs, fix other dividend record dates and distribute surplus.

3. The Company shall be relieved from the obligation of paying dividends and interim dividends to shareholders if such dividends remain unreceived for three (3) years after the date of the commencement of payment thereof.

3. In case dividends are paid in cash, the Company shall be relieved from the obligation of paying dividends if such dividends remain unreceived for three (3) years after the date of the commencement of payment thereof.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISION

(Newly added)

Article 1. (Transitional Measures for Relief of Liabilities of Directors and Executive Officers)

The Company may release the liabilities of directors and executive officers (including former directors and former executive officers) for the acts prescribed in Article 21-17, Paragraph 1 of the former Law for Special Exceptions to the Commercial Code (Special Law) to the extent permitted by laws or ordinances by resolutions of the board of directors pursuant to the provision of Article 266, Paragraph 12 of the former Commercial Code applied mutatis mutandis in Article 21-17, Paragraph 4 of the former Special Law.

Note: Only the provisions that are changed, deleted or added appear in the table. The provisions for which the only change is the section number are not shown.

Note 1: The nominees, Masaharu Shibata, Hideaki Kubori, Haruo Tsuji and Koji Tajika satisfy the requirements for an outside director prescribed in Article 2, paragraph 3, item 7 of the Ordinance on Implementation of the Corporation Law.

(Reference)

Masaharu Shibata, Hideaki Kubori, Haruo Tsuji, and Koji Tajika have been nominated as candidate outside directors for the following reasons.

(1) Masaharu Shibata has had ample managerial experience as the Chairman & CEO of NGK Insulators, Ltd. and has held the important position of Vice Chairman of Nippon Keidanren (Japan Business Federation). His achievements and insights have been highly evaluated. If elected as an outside director, Shibata is expected to play a sufficient role in the determination of important managerial matters of our company and in supervising the execution of our company's duties on an ongoing basis.

(2) Hideaki Kubori has exhibited high professionalism in corporate legal affairs as a lawyer, particularly in relation to corporate governance. He has also held important positions as Vice President of the Japan Federation of Bar Associations and President of the Daini Tokyo Bar Association. His achievements and insights have been highly evaluated. If elected as an outside director, he is expected to play a sufficient role in the determination of important managerial matters of our company and in supervising the execution of our company's duties on an ongoing basis.

(3) Haruo Tsuji has had ample managerial experience as President of Sharp Corporation and in successive positions. His achievements and insights have been highly evaluated. If elected as an outside director, he is expected to play a sufficient role in the determination of important managerial matters of our company and in supervising the execution of our company's duties on an ongoing basis.

(4) Koji Tajika has served as Chairman & CEO of Tohmatsu & Co., as Trustee of the International Accounting Standards Committee Foundation, and in other important positions. He is amply familiar with international accounting systems and has exhibited the high professionalism befitting of a financial expert under the US Public Company Accounting Reform and Investor Protection Act of 2002. If elected as an outside director, he is expected to play a sufficient role in the determination of important managerial matters of our company and in supervising the execution of our company's duties on an ongoing basis.

Note 2: There are no conflicts of interests between the Company and the above-mentioned nominees.

Proposal No. 3: Issue of Stock Acquisition Rights as Stock Options

In accordance with the provisions of Articles 236, 238, and 239 of the Corporation Law, upon the issuance of stock acquisition rights under stock option to directors, executive officers, and employees of the Company and to directors, corporate auditors, executive officers, and employees of subsidiaries of the Company, we wish the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to approve the arrangement whereby the payment of moneys will not be required to be paid-in, and whereby the determination of solicitation plan will be delegated to the Board of Directors of the Company.

Two types of stock acquisition rights (Stock Acquisition Rights) are to be issued.

The first is a plan for stock acquisition rights under a condition whereby the value of assets to be financed upon the exercise of stock acquisition rights at the time of issuance shall be determined based on the market price (Stock Option A Plan). The second is a plan for stock acquisition rights under a condition whereby the value of assets to be financed upon the exercise of stock acquisition rights at the time of issuance shall be below the market price (one (1) yen per share) (Stock Option B Plan). The Stock Option B Plan will enable the Company to control cash payment for compensation by granting stock acquisition rights as a partial substitute for cash compensation. Furthermore, Stock Option B Plan will enable the Company to make quasi-deferred payments of compensation by setting a period during which the stock acquisition rights cannot be exercised after they are granted (non-exercise period). Accordingly, Stock Option B Plan will have the same economic effect as the granting of restricted stocks by the Company. In principle, the non-exercise period will be not shorter than two (2) years.

1. The reasons why it is necessary to solicit persons to subscribe for stock acquisition rights under especially favorable conditions
The Company is planning to issue the Stock Acquisition Rights for the purpose of enhancing the incentives of the directors, executive officers and employees of the Company and of the directors, corporate auditors, executive officers and employees of subsidiaries of the Company in order to improve their performances, and of acquiring talented human resources.

2. The maximum number of Stock Acquisition Rights under the solicitation plan in accordance with delegation by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders

(1) Maximum limit of the number of the Stock Acquisition Rights under Stock Option A Plan
Up to [25,000] units

The total number of shares to be issued or transferred by the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights shall be up to 2,500,000 shares of common stock of the Company, and, if the number of shares is adjusted in accordance with the provisions of 4. (1)(i), the number shall be the number of shares under the relevant Stock Acquisition Rights after adjustment multiplied by the maximum limit of the number of Stock Acquisition Rights in the above.

(2) The maximum number of the Stock Acquisition Rights under Stock Option B Plan
Up to [75,000] units

The total number of shares to be issued or transferred by the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights shall be up to 7,500,000 shares of common stock of the Company, and if the number of shares is adjusted in accordance with the provisions of 4. (2)(i), the number shall be the number of shares under the relevant Stock Acquisition Rights after adjustment multiplied by the maximum limit of the number of Stock Acquisition Rights in the above.

(The maximum number of the Stock Acquisition Rights relating to Stock Option A Plan and Stock Option B Plan above includes the number of Stock Acquisition Rights to be issued as share-related remuneration to directors and executive officers of the Company.)

3. Payment of moneys shall not be required for Stock Acquisition Rights.

4. Contents of Stock Acquisition Rights

(1) Contents of Stock Acquisition Rights under Stock Option A Plan

(i) Number of Shares under Stock Acquisition Rights

The number of shares under a Stock Acquisition Right (the Number of Shares under a Stock Acquisition Right) shall be 100 shares of common stock of the Company.

If the shares are split (including allocation without charge of common stock of the Company, the same shall apply hereinafter) or consolidated after the issuance of the Stock Acquisition Rights, the number of shares under the unexercised stock acquisition rights at the time of the stock-split or stock-consolidation shall be adjusted in accordance with the following formula. Any fraction of less than one (1) share resulting from the adjustment shall be disregarded

$$\text{Adjusted Number of Shares} = \frac{\text{Number of Shares before Adjustment}}{\text{Ratio of Split or Consolidation}} \times$$

If new shares of common stock are issued or the shares held by the Company are disposed of at a price below the market price of the shares of common stock of the Company (excluding any exercise of stock acquisition rights and any request for the purchase of additional less-than-a-full-unit shares) or the Company issues any securities or stock acquisition rights which are to be converted or to be convertible to the common stock of the Company (including those attached to bonds with stock acquisition rights) and which enable the holders thereof to request the delivery of the common stock of the Company, the number of shares under the stock acquisition rights shall be adjusted in accordance with the following formula. Any fraction of less than one (1) share shall be disregarded.

Please refer to (ii) for the adjusted exercise price.

In addition to the above, after the issuance of the stock acquisition rights, in the event of a merger of the Company with another company, a company split, a capital reduction of the Company, or any similar event in which an adjustment of the number of shares is required, the Company may appropriately adjust the number of shares to a reasonable extent.

Table of Contents

(ii) Value of assets financed upon the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights, or the method of calculating such value

The value of assets to be financed upon the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights shall be the amount per share to be issued or transferred by the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights (the Exercise Price) multiplied by the Number of Shares under the Stock Acquisition Rights. The Exercise Price shall be an amount equal to the product of (i) the higher price of either the average of the daily closing price of the common stock of the Company in regular transactions at the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. during the calendar month immediately prior to the month when the Stock Acquisition Rights (excluding dates on which no trade is made) are issued or the closing price of the common stock of the Company in regular transactions at the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. on the issuance date (if there is no closing price on the issuance date, the most recent closing price prior to the issuance date shall apply), (ii) multiplied by 1.05. Any fraction of less than one (1) yen resulting from the adjustment shall be rounded up to the nearest yen.

If the shares are split or consolidated after the issuance of the Stock Acquisition Rights, the Exercise Price shall be adjusted in accordance with the following formula, and any fraction of less than one (1) yen shall be rounded up to the nearest yen.

$$\text{Adjusted Exercise Price} = \frac{\text{Exercise Price before Adjustment}}{\text{Ratio of Split or Consolidation}} \times 1$$

If new shares of common stock are issued or the common stock held by the Company is disposed of at a price below the market price of the common stock of the Company (excluding any cases of the exercise of stock acquisition rights and any request for the purchase of additional less-than-a-full-unit shares), the Exercise Price shall be adjusted in accordance with the following formula, and any fraction of less than one (1) yen shall be rounded up to the nearest yen.

$$\text{Adjusted Exercise Price} = \frac{\text{Exercise Price before Adjustment}}{\text{Number of Outstanding Shares issued} + \frac{\text{Number of Newly Issued Shares} \times \text{Paid-in Amount per Share}}{\text{Market Price per Share}}}$$

If the common stock of the Company held by the Company is disposed of, $\frac{\text{Number of (Outstanding + Newly Issued) Shares}}{\text{Number of Newly Issued Shares}}$ in the formula above shall read $\frac{\text{Number of Shares of Common Stock of the Company to be Disposed of}}{\text{Number of Newly Issued Shares}}$ and $\frac{\text{Paid-in Amount per Share}}{\text{Paid-in Amount per Share}}$ in the formula above shall read $\frac{\text{Disposal Value per Share}}{\text{Paid-in Amount per Share}}$.

In addition to the above, after the issuance of the stock acquisition rights, in the event of a merger of the Company with another company, a company split, a capital reduction of the Company, or any similar case in which an adjustment of the Exercise Price is required, the Company may appropriately adjust the Exercise Price to a reasonable extent.

Table of Contents

(iii) Exercise Period for the Stock Acquisition Rights

The Board of Directors of the Company or an executive officer designated by a resolution of the Board of Directors shall determine the exercise period for the stock acquisition rights within the period from the issuance date of the stock acquisition rights to the seventh anniversary of such issuance date.

(iv) Matters Concerning Capital and Capital Reserves that will Increase if Shares are Issued by the Exercise of Stock Acquisition Rights

(a) The amount by which the capital will increase if shares are issued by the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights will be half of the amount of the limit on increase of capital, etc. calculated in accordance with Article 40(1) of the Corporate Calculation Rules, and any fraction of less than one (1) yen as a result of calculation shall be rounded up to the nearest yen.

(b) The amount by which capital reserves will increase if shares are issued by the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights shall be the amount of the limit on increase of capital, etc. as stated in (a) above less the amount of capital to be increased as prescribed in (a) above.

(v) Restriction on the Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights by Transfer

Approval by the Board of Directors shall be required for the acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights by transfer.

(vi) Events for Acquisition of Stock Acquisition Rights

When the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders approves a merger agreement in which the Company is to be the extinguished company or a share exchange agreement or share transfer proposal in which the Company is to become a wholly owned subsidiary, the Company may acquire the stock acquisition rights for no value on a day separately determined by the Board of Directors of the Company or an executive officer designated by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(vii) Any fractions of less than one (1) share out of the shares to be issued or transferred to a person owning the stock acquisition rights who has exercised stock acquisition rights shall be disregarded.

(viii) Other Conditions for the Exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights

(a) Partial exercise of the respective stock acquisition rights shall not be possible.

(b) Other conditions for the exercise of the rights shall be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company or an executive officer designated by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(2) Contents of Issuance of Stock Acquisition Rights under Stock Option B Plan

(i) Number of Shares under the Stock Acquisition Right

The number of Shares under a Stock Acquisition Right shall be 100 shares of the common stock of the Company.

If the shares are split or consolidated after the issuance of the Stock Acquisition Rights, the number of shares under unexercised stock acquisition rights at the time of the stock-split or stock-consolidation shall be adjusted in accordance with the following formula. Any fraction of less than one (1) share resulting from the adjustment shall be disregarded.

$$\text{Adjusted Number of Shares} = \frac{\text{Number of Shares before Adjustment}}{\text{Ratio of Split or Consolidation}} \times$$

In addition to the above, after the issuance of the stock acquisition rights, in the event of a merger of the Company with another company, a company split, a capital reduction of the Company, or any similar event requiring an adjustment of the number of shares, the Company may appropriately adjust the number of shares to a reasonable extent.

(ii) Value of assets financed upon the exercise of the Stock Acquisition Rights, or the method for calculating such

The Exercise Price shall be 1 yen, multiplied by the number of shares under the stock acquisition rights.

(iii)~(viii) Same as Stock Option A Plan.

Table of Contents

To Our Shareholders

I am pleased to present you with our business report for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006 (April 1, 2005 to March 31, 2006).

The fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, proved a remarkably successful one for us. Amidst the ongoing shift from savings to investment in Japan, we remained focused on offering superior products and services in response to the increasingly diverse needs of our customers. As a result, under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (US GAAP), we recorded consolidated income before income taxes of 545.0 billion yen and consolidated net income of 304.3 billion yen, achieving our highest net income ever. Return on equity (ROE) was 15.5%, up significantly from the previous year's 5.2%.

In light of these results, we will pay a year-end cash dividend of 36 yen per share. In combination with the interim dividend, the total dividend for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, was 48 yen per share, our highest level ever. Looking ahead, now that restrictions on the frequency of dividend payments have been lifted with Japan's new Corporation Law, we intend to start paying dividends on a quarterly basis. This will enable more flexible distribution of dividends to our shareholders.

In recent years the economic climate has been changing rapidly, while Japan's legal system has continued to evolve. As such, we need to continue forging ahead, never resting on our laurels. Last December we celebrated our eightieth anniversary. Now, in the years leading up to our ninetieth anniversary and beyond to our centenary, Nomura Group will actively expand into new areas of business in a drive towards higher levels of growth.

We look forward to your continued support.

Business Report for the Year Ended March 31, 2006

(April 1, 2005 – March 31, 2006)

I. Overview of Business Activities

1. Group Management Policy and Structure of Business Operations

Nomura Group is committed to a management vision of firmly establishing itself as a globally competitive Japanese financial services group. We have also set a management target of achieving an average consolidated return on equity (ROE) of 10-15% over the medium to long term.

In pursuing this vision we will enlarge the scope of our business without being confined within the traditional bounds of the securities industry, while always paying due attention to feedback from our clients. Our goal is thus to transform ourselves into a financial group that provides superior services for all investment needs. By adopting a more aggressive management style, we intend to bolster our profitability and diversify our sources of revenue to establish a solid revenue base – one resilient against the changing market environment – and make our vision a reality.

Nomura Group is organized not around individual legal entities but around globally coordinated business divisions. Nomura Group has five business divisions: Domestic Retail, Global Markets, Global Investment Banking, Global Merchant Banking, and Asset Management. Global Markets is subdivided into three business lines: Global Fixed Income, Global Equity, and Asset Finance.

By taking further steps to enhance the responsibilities and powers of each business division, we will enhance their level of specialization and expand their scope of business, while increasing collaboration. These moves will serve to maximize Nomura Group's overall business potential.

2. Progress and Results of the Group's Business Activities

(1) Summary

The Japanese economy remained at a standstill until the summer of 2005, but the mood of recovery gradually strengthened in the latter half of the year. The scope of the recovery also widened as capital investment and employment began expanding among companies that had regained profitability thanks to restructuring. The stock market broke out of its narrow trading range in August and started climbing dramatically, fueled by expectations that the Japanese economy had finally emerged from deflation. For some time into the New Year, stock prices fluctuated considerably, but then, at the end of March, the Tokyo Stock Price Index (TOPIX) reached its highest level in approximately six years. Japan's corporate revival was duly acknowledged on the market as stock prices rose in a broad range of industries. With the renewed appetite for capital investment, the amount of funds raised by listed companies through the issue of stocks and bonds on domestic and overseas capital markets reached high levels, while the total value of M&As during 2005 reached 15 trillion yen, the highest level ever. As for supply and demand, foreign investors continued to dominate the buying, although in the latter half of the year individual investors and investment trusts also came into prominence. In the bond market, meanwhile, the yield on newly issued ten-year Japanese Government Bonds ranged between 1.2% and 1.6% before trending up strongly in the wake of the Bank of Japan's decision to end its quantitative easing policy in March. By the end of the fiscal year it was approaching the 1.8% mark.

In this environment, we posted net revenue of 1.146 trillion yen for the year ended March 31, 2006, an increase of 43.4% over the previous year. Non-interest expenses were 700.1 billion yen, an increase of 17.8% from the previous year. Income before income taxes (from continuing and discontinued operations combined) totaled 545.0 billion yen, up 166.1% from the previous year; net income (from continuing and discontinued operations combined) totaled 304.3 billion yen, up 221.3%. These are the highest figures on record since the year ended March 31, 2000, when we began financial reporting under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (financial reporting under US GAAP). As a result, return on equity (ROE) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, was 15.5%.

Table of Contents(2) Segment Information

Nomura engages in private equity investments through Global Merchant Banking. Nomura's US GAAP consolidated financial information includes the effect of consolidation/deconsolidation of certain private equity investee companies. Business segment totals exclude these effects as well as gain (loss) on investments in equity securities held for relationship purposes.

Net revenue of business segments for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, increased 49.5% year-on-year to 1.060 trillion yen and income before income taxes grew 141.0% year-on-year to 452.0 billion yen. Both net revenue and income before income taxes were record levels since Nomura began full-year financial reporting under US GAAP.

	Millions of yen		%
	Year ended March 31, 2005	Year ended March 31, 2006
Net revenue	708,982	1,059,799	49.5
Non-interest expenses	521,400	607,807	16.6
Income before income taxes	187,582	451,992	141.0

During the period under review, stock brokerage commissions and commissions for distribution of investment trusts increased in Domestic Retail; client order flow and trading revenue in Global Markets grew; Global Investment Banking enjoyed strong performance in equity underwriting and M&A; Global Merchant Banking sold stakes in investee companies such as Millennium Retailing; and Asset Management saw assets under management expand on the back of robust sales of funds offering frequent distributions and emerging market stock funds. As a result, net revenue and income before income taxes increased in all five business segments.

a. Domestic Retail

In Domestic Retail, net revenue grew 46.7% year-on-year to 446.5 billion yen, while income before income taxes increased 143.0% year-on-year to 197.2 billion yen. During the year, we bolstered our ability to respond to our clients' diversifying needs. We enhanced our consultation abilities by adding staff education and training programs as well as increasing the capacity of our call centers, and we developed and introduced new products with a client-focused approach. Amidst active equity markets these efforts yielded steady results, as stock brokerage commissions, commissions for distribution of investment trusts, and sales credit all rose significantly.

Table of Contentsb. Global Markets

In Global Markets, net revenue increased 52.7% year-on-year to 371.1 billion yen, while income before income taxes increased 162.1% year-on-year to 157.7 billion yen. Fixed Income revenue grew as a result of firm client order flow, strong derivative trading underpinned by a positive turnaround in the market environment, and contributions from the asset finance business. In Equity, active stock markets led to a recovery in order flow from domestic and foreign institutional investors, while block trades, MPOs (Multiple Private Offerings), and trading gains in equity derivatives helped push up overall net revenue.

c. Global Investment Banking

In Global Investment Banking, net revenue grew by 32.1% year-on-year to 99.7 billion yen, while income before income taxes increased by 76.4% compared to the previous year to 51.5 billion yen. Equity underwriting fees increased as we served as lead manager for JR Central's large privatization offering and as lead manager for large public offerings from Mitsui & Co. and All Nippon Airways. These and other deals symbolized our ability to respond to Japanese companies' financing needs in conjunction with the economic recovery. M&A/Financial advisory fees increased to a record level since we adopted US GAAP reporting, as we acted as financial advisor for a number of large deals, including the establishment of a joint holding company by Ito-Yokado, Seven-Eleven Japan, and Denny's Japan. In international deals, we acted as lead manager for deals for a number of Asia's representative companies, including South Korea's POSCO and Lotte Shopping, and India's ICICI Bank.

Table of Contentsd. Global Merchant Banking

In Global Merchant Banking, net revenue grew by 830.0% year-on-year to 68.2 billion yen, while income before income taxes grew 58.5 billion yen compared to the previous year to 55.4 billion yen. This was the result of large contributions from Nomura Principal Finance's sale of its stake in Millennium Retailing Inc. to Seven & I Holdings, and the partial sale of Wanbishi Archives and other investee companies.

We actively invested in start-ups in Japan, Europe, and the United States, primarily in the growth sectors of biotechnology, technology, and health care, and recovered some of our investments through IPOs.

e. Asset Management

In Asset Management, net revenue rose by 34.4% year-on-year to 65.8 billion yen, while income before income taxes increased 106.5% year-on-year to 20.6 billion yen. In Japan, the investment trust market has undergone a full-fledged recovery, as evidenced by the fact that assets under management in stock investment trusts are approaching a record level. We expanded our product lineup to meet clients' increasingly diverse asset management needs. Examples of these products include the My Story Profit Distribution-type Fund, the Nomura Multi-currency Japan Stock Fund and other funds offering frequent distributions, as well as the Nomura Fund Masters Global Emerging Markets Stock fund and other emerging market stock funds. As a result, both assets under management and earnings increased during the year.

(3) Financial Position

As of March 31, 2006, total assets stood at 35.026 trillion yen, up 537.2 billion yen compared with March 31, 2005; this reflected an increase in collateralized agreements, although assets of discontinued operations decreased. Liabilities stood at 32.963 trillion yen, up 342.3 billion yen compared with March 31, 2005, reflecting an increase in trading liabilities, although liabilities of discontinued operations decreased. Total shareholders' equity stood at 2.063 trillion yen, up 194.9 billion yen compared with March 31, 2005, mainly due to an increase in retained earnings offset by share repurchases.

3. Current Challenges for Nomura Group Current Business Environment

The business environment in which Nomura Group operates is poised for unprecedented change. With the Japanese economy well on the way to recovery, and as the global economy continues to expand, the flow of money into the stock market is expected to continue, fueled by growing asset management needs. And signs of change are everywhere: Japan's social structure is being transformed as baby boomers retire en masse; the legal system is being overhauled; deregulation is advancing. Meanwhile, business opportunities for the financial services sector as a whole are proliferating rapidly as personal financial assets grow, the shift from savings to investment accelerates, and companies adopt more aggressive financial strategies. However, the business environment is unpredictable as competition is intensifying.

Amidst this climate of change, we believe it is vital to expand our business by building on our greatest asset, our customer base, while responding flexibly to changes without straying from our core commitment of seeing eye to eye with our clients.

Management Challenges and Strategies

The greatest management challenges facing Nomura Group are maintaining our growth trend and implementing our management vision. To that end, our operational structure underwent an overhaul in April. First, the number of the holding company's executive officers was reduced to eleven, their sole concern being defined as the development of the Group as a whole. Meanwhile, the responsibilities and powers of the business divisions were enhanced through the appointment of business division CEOs. And to underline our determination to expand the scope of our business, the word "Securities" was removed from the name of the Group in Japanese: it is now simply the "Nomura Group" as in English. Having adopted this new organizational framework, the Nomura Group now stands ready to expand and grow its existing business divisions, create new businesses, and rebuild its business overseas.

Expansion and Growth of Existing Business Divisions

Having appointed business division CEOs and taken other steps to enhance the responsibilities and powers of our individual business divisions, we now intend to further develop the business of each, going beyond conventional wisdom and refusing to be content with the status quo. Here are the strategies being pursued to that end in each business division.

In Domestic Retail, we will expand Nomura Group's client base by encouraging a shift of personal financial assets from savings, where they have concentrated, to the securities market. With that in mind we will pursue a "Core Value Formation" strategy, which involves promptly offering products and services focusing on the core values that each client considers most important. We will also continue our efforts to educate people about investing with the goal of attracting more players into the securities market.

Table of Contents

In Global Markets, which comprises Global Fixed Income, Global Equity, and Asset Finance, we will expand revenues by furnishing customers with high-value-added solutions. Specifically, we will provide liquidity for financial products such as interest rates, foreign exchange, credit, and equity, as well as for real-estate-related products; and we will harness such financial techniques as securitization and derivatives.

In Global Investment Banking, we will work to expand our M&A advisory and corporate finance businesses by providing high-value-added solutions tailored to each client's individual strategy. We will also harness our domestic and international networks to establish a strong presence in Asia and further expand our business globally.

In Global Merchant Banking, we will work to maximize returns on investment by tapping Nomura Group's own capital for investing in companies and, while fostering coordination with other business divisions, by boosting the corporate value of companies in which we invest.

In Asset Management, we will put in place an organizational framework that, through centralization and strengthening of research capabilities, is capable of generating value added over the medium to long term. By diversifying the range of products we offer and expanding our investment trust sales channels, we will also work to increase the amount of assets under our management and expand our revenue base. In the field of defined contribution pension plans, we will make an effort to expand Nomura Group's client base by offering an integrated package of services embracing everything from support with adopting plans to provision of individual products.

New Businesses

Whether Nomura Group can continue to grow in today's fast-changing business environment hinges on its ability to keep reforming itself from within. If we are to capitalize on opportunities for growth in such a climate, we believe that besides expanding and growing our existing business divisions, it will also be vital to take action to broaden our business portfolio by thinking outside the box.

Already over the past few years we have taken tentative steps to create new businesses. We have moved into the real estate field and begun handling real estate loans; launched a financial firm harnessing the Internet; and entered the trust and banking agency businesses. We intend to build on this momentum. Meanwhile, we expect to see our existing businesses develop in new directions as we overhaul, expand, and grow them by, for example, reforming our commission structure, accelerating the opening of new branches, and expanding sales channels through partnerships in the securities brokerage field. In these areas, too, we plan to take aggressive action.

International Business

Internationally, we do not intend to pursue an identical business strategy in all corners of the globe; instead, we will develop different strategies tailored to different regions. In Asia, we will conduct business in line with local business practices. In Europe, we will strengthen our revenue basis. In the United States, we will increase our focus on our core businesses.

To meet these challenges, we will pool the collective strengths of Nomura Group both at home and abroad. While working to expand and develop Japan's financial and securities markets, we will also take steps to implement our management vision and maximize shareholder value by increasing profitability throughout Nomura Group.

4. Financing

With respect to financing, we have continued to improve the efficiency of our cash management structure by making effective use of cash available within Nomura Group, including overseas, and by centralizing external funding activities at Nomura Holdings, Inc. and Nomura Europe Finance N.V. At the same time, we have focused on optimizing our corporate finance structure by raising funds in the most appropriate way to meet our needs of the liquidity of our assets and currencies.

5. Capital Expenditures

Capital expenditures focus primarily on investment in systems related to the different businesses pursued by the Group, being designed to support both our domestic and global business lines in the conduct of operations. Specifically, steps are being taken to enhance and develop new system infrastructure in order to accommodate the ongoing diversification and expansion of our business while keeping pace with the rapid increase in transactions on the domestic stock market since the summer of the fiscal year under review; upgrade Nomura Home Trade functions and services; develop a wrap account service system; and perform system enhancements to our trading system in the wholesale field. Measures have also been undertaken to enhance computer center functions so that operations can be maintained in the event of a disaster.

During the year ended March 31, 2006, Nomura Securities opened a new branch in Kariya, Aichi Prefecture. In the coming year new branches are also to be opened in Ichikawa, Chiba Prefecture; Sagamiyama, Kanagawa Prefecture; Sakurashinmachi, Setagaya Ward, Tokyo; Kojimachi, Chiyoda Ward, Tokyo; and Koshigaya, Saitama Prefecture. This series of moves is in line with our strategy of creating a network of branches each with its own distinctive character reflecting local conditions a strategy designed to enable us to offer our clients high-quality financial services while responding effectively to their increasingly diverse needs.

System for Guaranteeing Appropriate Conduct of Operations

I. Matters necessary to enable the audit committee to perform its functions

By exercising its powers as prescribed by law and making use of the independent auditor, other accounting firms, and internal organizational structures, the Audit Committee shall audit the legality, soundness, and efficiency of operations implemented by executive officers, and thereby contribute to ensuring the appropriate conduct of Nomura Group's operations.

1. Directors and employees supporting the Audit Committee in its duties

1.1. Supporting directors

1.1.1. To support the Audit Committee in conducting audits and ensure effective overview of operations by the Board of Directors, full-time directors who do not concurrently serve as executive officers shall be appointed by the Board of Directors as Audit Mission Directors.

1.1.2. Audit Mission Directors shall perform the duties stipulated in the Audit Committee Regulations in accordance with the instructions of the Audit Committee or of a member of the Audit Committee designated by the Committee.

1.2. Supporting employees and their independence from executive officers

1.2.1. To support the Audit Committee in the performance of its duties, an Office of Audit Committee shall be established, consisting of five or more employees including a Managing Director.

1.2.2. Evaluation of employees in the Office of the Audit Committee shall be performed by the Audit Committee or a member of the Audit Committee designated by the Committee. The consent of the Audit Committee, or a member of the Audit Committee designated by the Committee, shall be obtained when recruiting, transferring, or disciplining an employee of the Office of Audit Committee.

2. System for reporting on conduct of operations

2.1. Executive officers shall report to the Board of Directors on the conduct of operations not less frequently than quarterly. Executive officers may delegate the making of such reports to other executive officers.

2.2. Directors and executive officers shall report any of the matters stipulated below to a member of the Audit Committee, or to an Audit Mission Director, promptly upon discovery. An Audit Mission Director who receives such a report shall immediately report the matter to a member of the Audit Committee.

(a) Any legal or financial problems that may have a substantial impact on the operations or finances of Nomura Group

(b) An order from a regulatory authority, or any other circumstance that may cause Nomura Group significant losses

2.3. If an executive officer or an employee is asked either by a member of the Audit Committee designated by the Committee or by an Audit Mission Director to report on matters pertaining to operations that they perform, they shall immediately report on the same.

3. Other systemic measures designed to ensure effective auditing by the Audit Committee

3.1. With respect to the non-accounting-related aspects of financial reports and related documentation (including financial reports and supplementary schedules, as well as consolidated financial statements; the same applies below) and of financial statements (including the financial statements in Form 20-F submitted to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission), and with respect to business reports (including supplementary schedules; the same applies below), the Audit Committee shall conduct audits in accordance with the law and with the procedures established by the Audit Committee itself.

Edgar Filing: NOMURA HOLDINGS INC - Form 6-K

3.2. With respect to the accounting-related aspects of financial reports and related documentation and of financial statements, the Audit Committee shall determine whether the auditing methods and results are appropriate upon receiving a report from the independent auditor, or from the accounting firm that audits the financial statements, on the audit report pertaining to the financial reports and related documentation or to the financial statements in question (which report shall include mention of any serious disagreements between executive officers and the auditor or accounting firm regarding financial reporting).

3.3. The Audit Committee may ask executive officers, the independent auditor, or other accounting firms that audit financial statements for an explanation of important problems relating to the preparation of financial reports and related documentation, business reports, and financial statements (including matters concerning election or application of critical accounting policies, and matters relating to procedures for internal control of financial reporting).

3.4. During auditing, the Audit Committee may, as it deems necessary, engage attorneys, certified public accountants, consultants, or other outside advisers.

Table of Contents

II. Matters relating to the establishment of a system for ensuring that execution of duties by executive officers conforms to the law and the articles of association, and for otherwise guaranteeing appropriate conduct of operations

1. System for ensuring appropriate implementation of duties by executive officers

1.1. Executive officers shall pledge to abide by Nomura Group Code of Ethics, and shall conduct business lawfully in conformity with the articles of association and the provisions of the law.

1.2. Executive officers shall strive to develop compliance systems at all companies within Nomura Group. If, at any company within the Group, they should uncover a serious breach of the law or another grave matter affecting compliance, they shall report the matter to a member of the Audit Committee or to an Audit Mission Director, and at the same time report it to the Group Executive Management Committee. The Group Executive Management Committee shall discuss the matter in question and, if it deems necessary, advise the company in question to take appropriate action on the basis of the results of its deliberations.

2. System for maintenance and management of information pertaining to implementation of duties by executive officers

Executive officers shall, for not less than ten years, keep on file minutes of meetings, documents regarding requests for managerial decisions, contracts, financial reports, and other important documentation (including that in electronic format), along with related materials. If necessary, they shall moreover maintain that documentation in accessible form.

3. Rules and other aspects of the system for managing risk of loss

3.1. Executive officers shall be aware of the importance of classifying, assessing, monitoring, and managing the various risks affecting conduct of Nomura Group's operations, namely, market risk, credit risk, event risk, liquidity risk, operational risk, and legal risk, and they shall, at each company within Nomura Group, make every effort to monitor and manage those risks

3.2. Executive officers shall report to the Group Executive Management Committee on the progress of development of risk management systems at each company within Nomura Group. On the basis of their reports, the Group Executive Management Committee shall analyze the state of risk management throughout Nomura Group and take appropriate measures to establish the most suitable risk management system for the operations in question.

4. System for ensuring that the duties of executive officers are performed efficiently

4.1. Executive officers shall execute operations in accordance with the management structure and allocation of executive duties determined by the Board of Directors.

4.2. Decisions on matters delegated by resolution of the Board of Directors to executive officers to decide shall be made by the following organizations or in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) Group Executive Management Committee

Allocation of management resources within Nomura Group and key matters relating to management

(b) Internal Controls Committee

Matters regarding internal control of Nomura Group and promotion of proper corporate behavior

(c) Commitment Committee

Material matters regarding less liquid positions of Nomura Group, and matters regarding important positions for managing risk

(d) Collective decision-making system Matters other than (a)-(d)

Edgar Filing: NOMURA HOLDINGS INC - Form 6-K

4.3. The Group Executive Management Committee shall ensure the efficient running of Nomura Group by determining or revising allocation of necessary management resources in light of business plans and budgetary requests from each business division and region.

4.4. A Group Management Council shall be established, and efficient conduct of operations shall thereby be fostered through the pooling of information, the exchange of views, and the discussion of strategies among senior executives of Nomura Group.

Table of Contents

5. System for ensuring that execution of duties by employees conforms to the law and the articles of association

5.1. Executive officers shall take steps to foster awareness of Nomura Group Code of Ethics among employees, and shall ensure that they abide by it.

5.2. Executive officers shall clarify the responsibilities and powers of employees by delimiting their authority, and shall thereby establish a system of accountability with respect to execution of operations.

5.3. Execution of duties in compliance with the provisions of the law shall be fostered by appointing operational managers within each company in Nomura Group in Japan, with the goals of promoting remedial measures on matters considered questionable in light of social ethics and social justice, and of ensuring that actions taken by employees are rooted in respect for the law and in social norms.

6. System for guaranteeing appropriate conduct of operations within Nomura Group

6.1. Nomura Group's auditing system

6.1.1. The Audit Committee shall, working as necessary in partnership with audit committees or the like at Group subsidiaries (including consolidated subsidiaries), audit the legality, soundness, and efficiency of operations implemented by Nomura Group.

6.1.2. A member of the Audit Committee designated by the Committee shall, taking action either directly himself or working, as necessary, through other members of the Audit Committee or through an Audit Mission Director, inspect the Company or its subsidiaries.

6.2. Internal audit system

6.2.1. Executive officers shall help ensure sound, effective internal control of Nomura Group's overall operations by establishing departments responsible for internal audits and implementing such audits.

6.2.2. The Internal Controls Committee shall hold discussions or make decisions on basic matters relating to internal controls at each company within Nomura Group, as well as on annual plans for internal audits, their state of implementation, and results.

6.2.3. Executive officers shall report to the Internal Controls Committee on the status of internal audits within Nomura Group and their results not less frequently than quarterly.

6.2.4. With respect to annual plans for internal audits, their state of implementation, and results, a member of the Audit Committee may recommend to executive officers that plans be changed, that additional audit procedures be implemented, or that remedial measures be formulated.

6.3. Compliance hotline

6.3.1. Executive officers shall establish a compliance hotline as a means whereby employees can report legally questionable conduct within Nomura Group directly to persons designated by the Board of Directors.

6.3.2. Anonymity shall be guaranteed to providers of information on legally questionable conduct relating specifically to accounting or auditing of accounts.

6.3.3. Consolidated private investees in the Merchant Banking business, except those whose impact on Nomura Group is negligible in terms of finances, reputation, and corporate social responsibilities, shall be required to establish whistle-blowing procedures, and channels shall be put in place for the receipt of relevant information from them.

11. Compensation Committee's Policies about Directors and Executive Officers' Compensation

Nomura Group's vision is to establish its status firmly as a globally competitive Japanese financial institution. As a management target to indicate an increase of shareholders' value, the Company intends to maintain an average consolidated ROE of 10 to 15% over the medium- to long-term.

Our fundamental policies in Nomura Group's directors and executive officers' compensations (Executive Compensation) are,

- i) to link Executive Compensation with the achievement of strategic business objectives above and award them in a manner that further motivates them toward achievement of their respective goals and thereby maximize their performance, and
- ii) to introduce equity based compensation and enhance their long term incentives.

Executive Compensation is composed of base salary, cash bonus and stock bonus.

(1) Base Salary

Base salary for each of directors and executive officers is calculated by aggregating the following amounts.

- i) Amount reflecting his/her career
- ii) Amount reflecting his/her post and responsibilities
- iii) Amount reflecting previous year's consolidated ROE (Note)

(2) Cash Bonus

In determining cash bonus payable to each of directors or executive officers, we consider both quantitative and qualitative factors. Quantitative factors include consolidated net income, consolidated return on equity (ROE) and segment / business-line results. Qualitative factors include achievement of strategic business objectives, achievement of pre-established goals of individuals and subjective assessments of individual contribution. Aggregated cash bonus amount of directors and executive officers of Nomura Group does not exceed 3% of the consolidated net income of Nomura.

(3) Stock Bonus

In determining the stock bonus payable to each of directors or executive officers, we consider not only such factors as consolidated net income or consolidated ROE but also such factors as proportion of cash bonus, stock bonus and base salary and costs and effects in awarding such bonus.

Note: In calculating the amount of the base salary based on the previous year's consolidated ROE, we refer to the table below.

Consolidated ROE (x)	X<0%	0% ≤X<5%	5% ≤X≤10%	10% <X≤15%	15% <X

Notes:

[Basis of Presentation of Consolidated Financial Statements]

1. Basis of presentation

The consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) pursuant to the provision of paragraph 1 of Article 179 of the Enforcement Regulations of the Japanese Commercial Code. However, certain disclosures required under U.S. GAAP are omitted pursuant to the same provision.

2. Scope of consolidation and entity method application

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and other entities in which it has a controlling financial interest (collecting referred to as Nomura). Because the usual condition for a controlling financial interest in an entity is ownership of a majority of the voting interest, the Company consolidates its wholly-owned and majority-owned subsidiaries. In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation (FIN) No. 46 (revised December 2003), Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities , the Company also consolidates any variable interest entities for which Nomura is the primary beneficiary. Investments in entities in which Nomura has significant influence over operating and financial decisions (generally defined as 20 to 50 percent of voting interest) are accounted for using the equity method of accounting and are reported in Investments in and advances to affiliated companies.

[Significant Accounting Policies]

3. Basis and methods of valuation for securities, derivatives and others

(1) Trading assets and trading liabilities

Trading assets and trading liabilities, including contractual commitments arising pursuant to derivative transactions, are recorded on the consolidated balance sheet on a trade date basis at fair value. The related gains and losses are recognized currently in income.

(2) Private equity investments

Private equity investments are primarily carried at fair value. Corresponding changes in the fair value of these investments are recognized currently in income.

(3) Investments in equity securities and non-trading debt securities

Investments in equity securities consist of marketable and non-marketable equity securities that have been acquired for operating purposes and other than operating purposes. In accordance with U.S. GAAP for broker-dealers, investments in equity securities for operating purposes and other than operating purposes are recorded at fair value and unrealized gains and losses are recognized currently in income.

Investments in equity securities for operating purposes and Investments in equity securities for other than operating purposes are included in the Other assets section of the consolidated balance sheet in Investments in equity securities and Other, respectively.

Non-trading debt securities are recorded at market or fair value together with the related hedges and the related gains and losses are recognized currently in income.

4. Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation for tangible assets is generally computed by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of assets according to general class, type of construction and use. Software is generally amortized by the straight-line method over its estimated useful life. Intangible assets that have determinable lives will continue to be amortized by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives.

5. Long-lived assets

SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets provides guidance on the financial accounting and reporting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets. In accordance with SFAS No. 144, long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If the estimated future undiscounted cash flow is less than the carrying amount of the assets, a loss would be recognized to the extent the carrying value exceeded its fair value.

6. Basis of allowances

(1) Allowance for loan losses

Allowances for loan losses on margin transaction loans related to broker dealers and loans receivable from financial institutions in the inter-bank money market used for short-term financing are provided for based primarily on historical loss experience.

Allowances for loan losses on loans receivable in connection with banking/financing activities reflect management's best estimate of probable losses. The evaluation includes an assessment of the ability of borrowers to pay by considering various factors such as changes in the nature of the loan, volume of the loan, deterioration of pledged collateral, delinquencies and the current financial situation of the borrower.

(2) Accrued pension and severance costs

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards Board No. 87, Employers' Accounting for Pensions, accrued pension and severance costs are recorded based on the fair value of the projected benefit obligation and the plan assets at the end of year to prepare for the employees' retirement and severance benefits. The minimum pension liability adjustment is additionally provided when the accumulated benefit obligation, excluding the assumption about future compensation levels from the projected benefit obligation, exceeds the fair value of plan assets and accrued pension liabilities.

The unrecognized prior service cost is amortized on a straight-line basis over the average remaining service period of active participants.

Actuarial gains and losses in excess of 10% of the greater of the projected benefit obligation or the fair value of plan assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over the average remaining service period of active participants.

7. Hedging activities

In addition to its trading activities, Nomura, as an end user, uses derivative financial instruments to manage its interest rate and currency exposures or to modify the interest rate characteristics of certain non-trading assets and liabilities.

These derivative financial instruments are linked to specific assets or specific liabilities and are designated as hedges as they are effective in reducing the risk associated with the exposure being hedged, and they are highly correlated with changes in the market or fair value of the underlying hedged items, both at inception and throughout the life of the hedge contracts. Nomura applies fair value hedge accounting to these hedging transactions, and the relating unrealized profit and losses are recognized together with those of the hedged assets and liabilities as interest revenue or expense.

8. Discontinued operations

On January 31, 2006, Nomura sold its stake in Millennium Retailing Inc. (MR). MR was one of the investments in private equity business and a consolidated subsidiary. At March 31, 2006, MR is classified as discontinued operations in accordance with SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets and its results of operations are separately reported.

9. Foreign currency translation

For the consolidated financial statements, all assets and liabilities of foreign subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen at exchange rates in effect at the balance sheet date; all revenue and expenses are translated at the average exchange rates for the respective years and the resulting translation adjustments are accumulated and reported as Cumulative translation adjustments in shareholder's equity. Foreign currency assets and liabilities are translated at exchange rates in effect at the balance sheet date and the resulting translation gains or losses are recognized currently in income.

10. The Company and its wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries adopted the consolidated tax return system.

11. Assets pledged

Pledged securities that can be sold or re-pledged by the secured party, including Gensaki Repo transactions, included in Trading assets, private equity investments and non-trading debt securities.	5,610,310 million yen
Securities and loans receivables, which have been pledged as collateral, primarily to stock exchanges and clearing organizations, without allowing the secured party the right to sell or re-pledge them.	2,227,492 million yen
The asset balances, which have been pledged as collateral for secured loans from special purpose entities.	320,984 million yen
Securities and loans receivable, which have been pledged to collateralize borrowing transactions, and pledged for other purposes. *	2,518,097 million yen

* In addition, Nomura re-pledged ¥640,483 million of securities borrowed as collateral for bank loans and other loans.

12. Contingencies

Legal and Arbitration Proceedings

In the normal course of business, Nomura is involved in lawsuits and other legal proceedings and, as a result of such activities, is subject to ongoing legal risk. The management of Nomura believes that the ultimate resolution of such litigation will not be material to the consolidated financial statements.

The legal disputes include the actions described below.

In 1998, one of the Company's European subsidiaries, Nomura Principal Investment plc (NPI), acquired approximately 46% of the issued share capital of Investicni a postovni banka, a.s. (IPB), a Czech bank (through its relationship with a Dutch company as the holder of the shares). On June 16, 2000, the Czech National Bank (CNB) placed IPB into forced administration. On June 19, 2000, the administrator appointed by the CNB transferred IPB's entire business to Ceskoslovenska obchodni banka (CSOB), another Czech bank.

NPI and Nomura International plc (NIP) are involved in both bringing and defending a number of legal claims arising out of the circumstances surrounding NPI's acquisition of its interest in IPB, the imposition of forced administration, and the immediate sale by the administrator of IPB's entire business to CSOB.

The legal disputes include international arbitration proceedings in which the Czech Republic is seeking damages against NPI. CSOB is also pursuing a legal action before the Czech courts seeking damages against NPI, NIP and others arising out of IPB's sale of a Czech brewery. Nomura believes that all such claims brought against it are without merit and Nomura is vigorously defending them.

Furthermore, in March 2006, the International Arbitral Tribunal presiding over the Dutch company's claim against the Czech Republic (brought under the Bilateral Investor Treaty between the Netherlands and the Czech Republic) issued an award on liability in favor of the Dutch company, holding the Czech Republic's actions pertaining to IPB to be a breach of its obligation under the Treaty for fair and equitable treatment.

13. Guarantees

In accordance with FIN No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others, Nomura recognizes obligations under certain issued guarantees and records the fair value of these guarantee obligations on the consolidated balance sheet.

The following table sets for the information about maximum potential payout or notional total of derivative contracts, standby letters of credit and other guarantees that could meet the definition of a guarantee.

For information about the maximum potential amount of future payments that Nomura could be required to make under certain derivatives, the notional amount of contracts has been disclosed. However, the maximum potential payout for certain derivative contracts, such as written interest rate caps and written currency options, cannot be estimated, as increases in interest or foreign exchange rates in the future could be theoretically unlimited. Nomura records all derivative contracts at fair value on the consolidated balance sheet. Nomura believes the notional amounts generally overstate its risk exposure.

Derivative contracts *1	25,401,478 million yen
Standby letters of credit and other guarantees *2	6,993 million yen

*1 The carrying value of derivative contracts is 782,586 million yen.

*2 The carrying value of standby letters of credit and other guarantees is 56 million yen.

14. Accumulated depreciation and amortization of Office buildings, land, equipment and facilities. [Notes to the Consolidated Income Statement]	211,521 million yen

In accordance with Paragraph 2, Article 21-32 of The Law for Special Exceptions to the Commercial Code Concerning Audits, etc. of Joint Stock Corporations, we have audited the consolidated balance sheet of Nomura Holdings, Inc. as of March 31, 2006, and the related consolidated income statement applicable to the 102nd fiscal year from April 1, 2005 to March 31, 2006. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company s management. Our responsibility is to independently express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our audit includes procedures applied to the accounts of the subsidiaries or other consolidated subsidiaries as considered necessary.

As a result of our audit, it is our opinion that the consolidated balance sheet and the related consolidated income statement referred to above present properly the financial position and the results of operations of Nomura Holdings, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries in accordance with the related regulations and the Articles of Incorporation.

We have no interest in the Company which is required to be disclosed in compliance with the Certified Public Accountants Law.

Report of the Audit Committee on the Consolidated Financial Statements

REPORT ON THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Audit Committee of Nomura Holdings, Inc. (the Company) audited the Company's consolidated balance sheet and income statement (the consolidated financial statements) applicable to the 102nd fiscal year (from April 1, 2005 to March 31, 2006) and, based on the result of the audit, hereby report as follows:

1. OUTLINE OF THE AUDITING METHOD USED

In accordance with the auditing principles and assignment of responsibilities decided by the Audit Committee, each member of the Audit Committee, by himself or through each of the Audit Mission Directors, heard the report and explanation from the Company's independent accountants and examined the Company's consolidated financial statements. In addition, we requested reports on accounting from the Company's subsidiaries and consolidated subsidiaries as necessary and investigated the conditions of the business and the assets of such subsidiaries.

2. RESULT OF THE AUDIT

- (1) We acknowledge that both the method and result of the audit by Ernst & Young ShinNihon, the Company's independent accountants, are appropriate.
- (2) We have nothing to point out with respect to the Company's consolidated financial statements as a result of our investigations into the Company's subsidiaries and consolidated subsidiaries.

Notes to Non-Consolidated Financial Statements:

The amounts shown therein are rounded to the nearest million.

[Significant Accounting Policies]

1. Basis and methods of valuation for financial instruments

(1) Other securities

a. Securities with market value

Recorded at market value

The difference between the cost using the moving average method or amortized cost and market value less deferred taxes is recorded as Net unrealized gain on investments in Shareholders equity on the balance sheet.

b. Securities without market value

Recorded at cost using the moving average method or amortized cost

With respect to investments in investment enterprise partnerships and similar ones which are regarded as equivalent to securities in accordance with Paragraph 2, Article 2 of the Securities and Exchange Law, the pro rata shares of such partnerships are recorded at net asset values based on the available current financial statements on the reporting date set forth in the partnership agreements.

(2) Stocks of subsidiaries and affiliates

Recorded at cost using the moving average method

2. Depreciation and amortization

(1) Depreciation of tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated primarily on the declining balance method, except for buildings acquired after April 1, 1998, which are depreciated on the straight-line method.

(2) Amortization of intangible assets, investments and others

Intangible assets, investments and others are amortized over their estimated useful lives primarily on the straight-line method.

3. Translation of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies

Edgar Filing: NOMURA HOLDINGS INC - Form 6-K

Financial assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Japanese yen using exchange rates as of the balance sheet date. Gains and losses resulting from translation are reflected in the income statement.

4. Provisions

(1) Allowance for doubtful accounts

To provide for bad loans, the Company recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts based on an estimate of the uncollectible amounts calculated using historical loss ratios or a reasonable estimate based on the financial condition of individual borrowers.

(2) Accrued bonuses

To prepare for bonus payments to employees, the estimated amount was recorded in accordance with the prescribed calculation method.

Table of Contents

5. Finance leases other than those for which the ownership of the leased property are deemed as transfers to the lessee are accounted for primarily as ordinary rental transactions.

6. Hedging activities

Mark-to-market profits and losses on hedging instruments are deferred as assets or liabilities to reduce the risks such as interest rate fluctuation until the profits or losses on the underlying hedged items are included in the income statement. Certain eligible foreign currencies denominated monetary items are translated at forward exchange rates and the differences are amortized over the remaining period.

7. Consumption taxes and local consumption taxes are accounted for based on the tax exclusion method.

8. The Company applies the consolidated tax return system.

9. Accounting for Impairment of Fixed Assets

From the year ended March 31, 2006, the Company adopted Statement of Opinion, Accounting for Impairment of Fixed Assets issued by the Business Accounting Council on August 9, 2002, and Guidance No.6 Guidance for Accounting Standard for Impairment of Fixed Assets issued by the Accounting Standards Board of Japan (ASB) on October 31, 2003.

This adoption had no effect on the income statement for the year ended March 31, 2006.

Total	68,619,513,384
Unappropriated retained earnings to be carried forward	514,685,904

(1) Policy on Appropriation of Retained Earnings

Nomura seeks to enhance shareholder value by capturing business opportunities as they develop. To achieve this goal, Nomura maintains sufficient capital to support its business.

Nomura reviews its sufficiency of capital as appropriate, taking into consideration economic risks inherent in its businesses, regulatory requirements, and maintenance of a sufficient debt rating for a global financial institution.

In regard to cash dividends, Nomura first decides target dividend amounts, the minimum level of cash dividend, taking into account the firm's dividend-on-equity ratio (DOE) of about 3%. When Nomura achieves a sufficient level of profit, it will decide the amount of the year-end cash dividend taking into consideration a pay-out ratio of over 30%. Nomura seeks to ensure sustainable growth of its target dividend in the mid- to long-term.

As for retained profits, Nomura intends to invest in business areas where high profitability and growth may reasonably be expected, including development and expansion of infrastructure, to maximize value for shareholders.

(2) Reason for Appropriation of Retained Earnings

The Company proposes a cash dividend of 36.00 yen per share upon the dividend policy described above. As the Company paid out an interim dividend of 12.00 yen per share in December 2005, the annual dividend per share is 48 yen per share.

In accordance with Paragraph 4, Article 21-26 of The Law for Special Exceptions to the Commercial Code Concerning Audits, etc. of Joint Stock Corporations, we have audited the non-consolidated balance sheet, the non-consolidated income statement, the accounting matters stated in the business report, the proposal for appropriation of non-consolidated retained earnings, and the accounting matters stated in the supplementary schedules of Nomura Holdings, Inc. (the Company) applicable to the fiscal year from April 1, 2005 to March 31, 2006. These financial reports and the supplementary schedules are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to independently express an opinion on these financial reports and the supplementary schedules based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial reports and the supplementary schedules are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial reports and the supplementary schedules. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial reports and supplementary schedules. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our audit included procedures applied to the accounts of the Company's subsidiaries as considered necessary.

As a result of our audit, it is our opinion that:

- a) the non-consolidated balance sheet and the non-consolidated income statement present properly the Company's financial position and the results of its operations in accordance with the related regulations and the Articles of Incorporation,
- b) the accounting matters stated in the business report present properly the Company's affairs in accordance with the related regulations and the Articles of Incorporation,
- c) the proposal for appropriation of non-consolidated retained earnings is presented in accordance with the related regulations and the Articles of Incorporation, and
- d) there is nothing to point out as to the accounting matters stated in the supplementary schedules in accordance with the provisions of the Commercial Code.

Report of the Audit Committee

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of Nomura Holdings, Inc. (the Company) audited the execution by the Directors and Executive Officers of the Company of their duties during the 102nd fiscal year (from April 1, 2005 to March 31, 2006) and, based on the result of the audit, hereby reports as follows:

1. OUTLINE OF THE AUDITING METHOD USED

We audited resolutions of the Board of Directors including appointment of Audit Mission Directors (non-executive but full-time directors appointed for the purpose of supplementing audits conducted by the Audit Committee) concerning matters prescribed in Article 21-7, paragraph 1, item 2 of Law for Special Exceptions to the Commercial Code concerning Audit, etc. of Kabushiki-Kaisha (Special Law) and Article 193 of Ministry of Justice Ordinance concerning the Commercial Code, and internal control and procedures in accordance with such resolutions. In addition, in accordance with the auditing principles and assignment of responsibilities decided by the Audit Committee, and in cooperation with the Company's departments in charge of internal control and procedures, each member of the Audit Committee conducted an audit individually or through each of the Audit Mission Directors by the following method: attended important meetings of the Company; heard reports on the Company's business from the Directors, Executive Officers, and others; reviewed documents authorizing corporate actions and other important documents; investigated the conditions of the business and assets of the Company; and with respect to the Company's subsidiaries requested reports on their businesses as necessary and investigated the conditions of their businesses and assets. In addition, we heard the report and explanation from the Company's independent accountants and examined the Company's financial reports and supplementary schedules.

With respect to certain other matters, including: (i) any transactions by Directors or Executive Officers on their own behalf or on behalf of a third party that comes within the types of business carried on by the Company; (ii) transactions in which the interests of any Director or Executive Officer are contrary to or conflict with those of the Company; (iii) the gratuitous grant of benefits to others by the Company; (iv) unusual transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries or shareholders; and (v) acquisitions by the Company of its own shares and dispositions thereof, we, in addition to the above mentioned auditing method, requested reports on such transactions from the Directors, Executive Officers and others as necessary, and investigated any such transactions in detail.

2. RESULT OF THE AUDIT

(1) We acknowledge that resolutions of the Board of Directors concerning matters prescribed in Article 21-7, paragraph 1, item 2 of the Special Law and Article 193 of Ministry of Justice Ordinance concerning the Commercial Code are appropriate and internal control and procedures are operated in accordance with such resolutions.

(2) We acknowledge that both the method and result of the audit by Shin Nihon & Co., the Company's independent accountants, are appropriate.

(3) We acknowledge that the business report presents fairly the Company's conditions in conformity with applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Articles of Incorporation of the Company (the Articles of Incorporation).

(4) We have nothing to point out, in light of the conditions of the business and the assets of the Company and other circumstances, with respect to the proposal concerning the appropriations of retained earnings.

(5) We acknowledge that the supplementary schedules present fairly the matters that are required to be included therein and we have nothing to point out with respect thereto.

(6) We acknowledge that there are no material facts in the execution of the duties of any Director or Executive Officer concerning his unjust action or his violation of the laws and regulations of Japan or the Articles of Incorporation.

In addition, we acknowledge that there is no failure by the Directors or Executive Officers in the execution of their duties in connection with:

(i) any transactions by Directors or Executive Officers on their own behalf or on behalf of a third party that comes within the types of business carried on by the Company; (ii) transactions in which the interests of any Director or Executive Officer are contrary to or conflict with those of the Company; (iii) the gratuitous grant of benefits to others by the Company; (iv) unusual transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries or shareholders: and (v) acquisitions by the Company of its own shares and dispositions thereof.

(7) We have nothing to point out with respect to the execution by the Directors or Executive Officers of their duties in connection with the subsidiaries of the Company.

Donation of introductory economics textbook T-Shirt Shop to junior high schools

In the past, Nomura Group has donated the educational comic book The Secret of Money to elementary schools and the financial primer Finance for Beginners to junior high schools throughout Japan. Based on comments that came in from teachers around Japan, we saw a need for a textbook to be used in social studies classes.

This led us to produce a textbook on finance and economics for junior high school students. When samples were sent out to schools all over the country in March 2006, a flood of requests came in and by the end of April we had donated some 70,000 copies.

The text centers on three junior high school students who set up their own firm to manufacture and sell T-shirts and outlines the many challenges that they deal with in running their business. Containing sections on such subjects as marketing, labor issues, and corporate social responsibility, the text has been extremely well received for the straightforward way it explains how the economy works.

An instructor's guide is also available to help teachers use the text effectively in the classroom. The text was prepared under the supervision of Professor Takamitsu Sawa of the Institute of Economic Research of Kyoto University

Special sponsorship of the Nikkei Stock League competition

Nikkei Stock League, organized by Nihon Keizai Shimbun, Inc. is a contest in which junior high school, high school, and college students learn about portfolios and write reports on themes of their choice.

Students consider which stocks to include in their portfolios. In the search for information, they carefully sift through newspaper articles and access corporate websites. Some even pay actual visits to companies. Relying on the information they have personally collected, contestants then select stocks, conduct virtual investments, and write a report.

Contestants are evaluated on the performance of their portfolios and the content of their reports, and the winning team is sent on a study tour to the United States. The winning team in the competition's sixth year was a group of second- and third-year students from Keio University.

More than 25,000 entrants have participated in the competition since it was first launched in 2000, attracted by the opportunity to gain experience with the real economy and think independently.

Special sponsorship of the Pacific Music Festival

The Pacific Music Festival (PMF) is an international music education festival initiated in 1990 by the late Leonard Bernstein, one of the great musical figures of the twentieth century. Every summer more than a hundred up-and-coming musicians selected from across the globe gather in Sapporo Art Park to take part in the PMF Academy education program under the direction of renowned instructors, including leading musicians from the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra. This year, its seventeenth, the festival was honored to welcome Valery Gergiev as its principal conductor, and the participants showcased the fruits of their many hours of practice during a series of concerts in various locations between July 8 and August 3.

As special corporate supporter, Nomura Securities and the Nomura Cultural Foundation are proud to be associated with the festival and its goal of developing global musical culture by nurturing young musicians.
