Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

A copy of the public statement, dated December 12, 2006, of Prudential Financial, Inc. (the Company) confirming the settlements described in Item 8.01 below is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 11, 2006, The Prudential Insurance Company of America ( Prudential ), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, reached a resolution of the previously disclosed investigation by the New York Attorney General's Office ( NYAG ) relating to payments to intermediaries in the marketing and sale of group life and disability, group long term care and group accidental death and dismemberment insurance and related matters.

This settlement resolves the investigation by the NYAG into these matters. In the settlement, Prudential does not admit liability as to any issue of fact or law. Under the terms of the settlement, Prudential will pay a penalty of $2.5 million. Prudential will also pay $16.5 million into a fund to be paid to policyholders of group insurance who were represented by insurance brokers, agents or other producers that received contingent or certain other compensation covered by the settlement between January 1, 2002 and December 31, 2005. In the settlement, Prudential has agreed to propose to the NYAG for its approval a plan of distribution for such fund. Following the initiation of the investigation, Prudential adopted and under the terms of the settlement has agreed to continue to implement a number of business reforms relating to, among other things, the payment of compensation to producers of group insurance, compensation disclosures to group insurance clients and the adoption of standards of conduct relating to the payment of such compensation to producers. In addition, Prudential has agreed, among other things, to continue to cooperate with the NYAG in any litigation, ongoing investigations or other proceedings concerning any other person or entity relating to or arising from its investigations into these matters.

Separately, Prudential also settled the litigation brought by the California Department of Insurance based on the same matters. In connection with this settlement, Prudential has agreed to business reforms and disclosures as to group insurance contracts insuring customers or residents in California and to pay certain costs of investigation.

The Company's consolidated financial statements for the quarter ended December 31, 2006 will reflect an additional charge as to a portion of the payments required by the above described settlements.

The settlements may adversely affect existing litigation or cause additional litigation and result in adverse publicity and other potentially adverse impacts to the Company's businesses.
