The January 31, 2007 Special Meeting of Stockholders of Equus Total Return, Inc. (the Fund) was adjourned until February 28, 2007 at 9:00 a.m. Central Standard time at Wortham Tower, Meeting Room 1, 2727 Allen Parkway, Houston, TX 77019 in order to provide stockholders with additional time to register their vote with respect to Proposal 1.

Dear Stockholder:

I am writing to inform you that the Fund has not yet received enough votes to reach a conclusion on Proposal 1 at the Special Meeting of Stockholders on January 31, 2007. As noted above, the Meeting has therefore been adjourned until February 28, 2007 to allow stockholders additional time to vote on Proposal 1. In Proposal 1, the Fund is requesting that stockholders authorize the offer and sale, or the issuance of rights to acquire, shares of the Fund's common stock at a price below the current net asset value of such stock.

Often stockholders do not vote their shares because they think their vote will not make a difference in the outcome. Nothing could be further from the truth. In fact, on average each account holds less than 500 shares, making each and every stockholder's vote vital.

EVERY VOTE COUNTS!

Another copy of your ballot(s) is enclosed with this letter for your convenience. Should you have any questions about the voting process, please call 1-800-330-8705.

After careful review and consideration by the Board of Directors of the Fund, the Board, including its Independent Directors, unanimously recommended that each stockholder vote in favor of each proposal.
