(c) On April 17, 2007, Phoenix Footwear Group, Inc. (the Company) appointed Cathy B. Taylor as Chief Executive Officer, effective April 23, 2007. James Riedman, who serves as the Company's Chairman of the Board of Directors and, since May 2006, served as the Company's interim CEO, will continue in his role as Chairman.

Ms. Taylor, age 51 has over 25 years of executive and consulting experience in the retail footwear industry, of which 20 was with Cole Haan/Nike, Inc. She has served as a consultant to the Company since August 2006, in connection with its Tommy Bahama and H.S. Trask product lines, through the firm she founded in 2005, CBT Brand Consulting. From 2004 to 2005, she was a managing director of Herbert Mines Associates, an executive search firm, where she focused on the luxury products market. From 2001 to 2003, Ms. Taylor served as President & CEO of Wenger North America, the maker of the Genuine Swiss Army Knife, where she led the company, upon recruitment by its Board of Directors, following its LBO. From 1999 to 2000, she served as CEO of Vivre, Inc., a luxury catalog and internet retailer. Prior to that, while with Cole Haan, and Nike, Inc., following its acquisition of Cole Haan, she held a series of positions including Vice President of Retail, Executive Vice President, and President & Chief Executive Officer of Cole Haan (a division of Nike, Inc.). In these roles she developed and implemented global branding, marketing, sourcing and sales strategies.

In her role as a consultant to the Company since August 2006, Ms. Taylor worked to help restructure and reposition the Tommy Bahama footwear, H.S. Trask and accessories lines. In consideration for these services, she received $784,000 in fees and expenses under a consulting agreement with the Company. The consulting agreement ended effective April 22, 2007. Ms. Taylor has no family relationship with any executive officer or director of the Company.

The Company and Ms. Taylor have entered into an employment agreement, effective April 23, 2007, in connection with her appointment as Chief Executive Officer.

The following is a summary of the employment agreement, which is qualified in its entirety by the actual terms of the agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The effective date of employment is April 23, 2006.

The term of employment is five years which, if not earlier terminated, will renew in successive one-year increments.

The annual base salary is $550,000, with increases subject to the sole discretion of the Board of Directors based on performance and salary review.

Ms. Taylor is entitled to moving and temporary livings expenses, as specified in the agreement, and reimbursement, vacations and medical insurance and other benefits, commensurate with other senior-level executives.

Ms. Taylor is entitled to an award of performance-based deferred stock awards under the Company's 2001 Long Term Incentive Plan, covering up to 420,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The performance criteria provide for the vesting of these shares based upon the Company and certain of its brands meeting financial performance measures on a trailing 12 month basis and Ms. Taylor implementing organizational development initiatives during her employment term, or, as an alternative, the vesting upon the Company's stock price closing above $23 per share for 60 consecutive trading days.

Ms. Taylor is obligated to abide by non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality provisions.

Ms. Taylor's employment is terminable for any reason by the Company, with or without cause, at any time.

Additionally, if the termination is by her with good reason, or by the Company without cause, following a change of control, as defined in the agreement, all unvested performance-based deferred stock awards not previously forfeited vest. Lastly, she is entitled to severance of six months of continued salary payments if either party fails to renew the agreement following the initial five year term, or the successive one year terms thereafter
