Item 1.01. Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 12, 2008 (the Effective Date), Material Sciences Corporation (the Company) and certain of its domestic subsidiaries (together with the Company, the Loan Parties) entered into a credit agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (Chase) (the Credit Agreement). The Credit Agreement provides for a $15.0 million revolving credit facility, which includes a $4.0 million sublimit for the issuance of letters of credit. The Company also executed a related Revolving Loan Note in favor of Chase in the aggregate original principal amount of $15.0 million (the Revolving Loan Note).

The Credit Agreement has a term of three (3) years. Interest under the Credit Agreement accrues at a rate per year equal to the LIBOR Rate, plus 1.50%. The interest rate will be increased by an additional 2.0% per year in the event of default. The proceeds of the Credit Agreement may be used for any proper business purpose.

The Credit Agreement contains customary covenants limiting the Company s ability to, among other things, incur liens, incur indebtedness, merge or consolidate with others or dispose of assets, change the nature of its business, and enter into transactions with affiliates. The Credit Agreement contains no financial covenants.

In connection with the Credit Agreement and to secure its indebtedness and obligations thereunder, on the Effective Date (i) the Company and Chase entered into a Pledge and Security Agreement (the Company Pledge and Security Agreement), pursuant to which the Company granted Chase a security interest in substantially all of its personal property and pledged to Chase the stock of the other Loan Parties that were its direct subsidiaries; (ii) the other Loan Parties and Chase entered into a separate Pledge and Security Agreement, pursuant to which such Loan Parties granted Chase a security interest in substantially all of their personal property and pledged to Chase the stock of the other Loan Parties that were their direct subsidiaries; and (iii) the Company entered into a Mortgage (the Mortgage) in favor of Chase, pursuant to which the Company granted Chase a fee simple mortgage on the real property at which its headquarters are located in Elk Grove Village, Illinois.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement, the Revolving Loan Note, the Company Pledge and Security Agreement and Mortgage is qualified in its entirety by the respective terms of such agreements. The Credit Agreement, the Revolving Loan Note, the Company Pledge and Security Agreement and Mortgage are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
