Section 2 - Financial Information

Item 2.05. Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

On September 23, 2008, Lydall, Inc. (the Company) announced that it will be closing its St. Johnsbury, Vermont manufacturing facility, impacting approximately 190 employees and consolidating its North American automotive parts production into its Hamptonville, North Carolina operation. Due to the current downturn in the U.S. automotive market, the Company's two North American automotive plants have been running at less than 50 percent capacity. Consolidating the Company's North American automotive operations in North Carolina is expected to reduce operating costs significantly, increase efficiency, and enhance the Company's flexibility and competitive position. Beginning in the latter part of 2009, the Company expects to benefit from significantly reduced fixed overhead and selling, product development and administrative expenses as a result of the consolidation. The Company plans to begin the transfer of equipment and production in the fourth quarter of 2008 and to complete the consolidation by the end of 2009.

The Company expects to record pre-tax charges of approximately $7.5 million to $8.5 million, or approximately $.32 to $.36 per diluted share, over the period of consolidation. A portion of these costs will be recorded in the third and fourth quarters of 2008 with the remainder recorded primarily throughout 2009. These charges will be comprised of severance-related charges ranging between $2.4 million and $2.6 million, facility exit and move charges ranging between $3.3 million and $3.6 million, acceleration of depreciation on assets to be disposed of ranging between $0.9 million and $1.2 million, lease obligation costs ranging between of $0.6 million and $0.7 million and other associated costs ranging between $0.3 million and $0.4 million. In addition, the Company expects to record income tax charges in the range of $0.4 million to $0.5 million related to deferred tax assets associated with the Vermont facility. Cash expenditures are expected to be in the range of $6.5 million and $7.5 million.
