Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) On January 26, 2009, i2 Technologies, Inc. (the Company) received notice from David L. Pope that he intended to resign from the Company's Board of Directors (the Board) at the Company's 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Mr. Pope is a member of the Company's Board elected by the holders of the Company's 2.5% Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $.001 per share (the Series B Preferred Stock), and he serves as a member of the Board's Nominating and Governance Committee.

Additionally, the Company also confirmed that Sanjiv Sidhu, current director of the Company, has determined that he will not stand for re-election at the Company's 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Mr. Sidhu's service on the Board will conclude at the 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Mr. Sidhu co-founded the company in 1988 and has served on its board since inception. Mr. Sidhu has indicated to the Company his willingness to continue working with and assisting various key customers.

The Board has reduced the authorized number of directors to six plus the number, if any, of directors elected by holders of the Series B Preferred Stock. Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Certificate of Designations for the Company's Series B Preferred Stock, the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to elect two directors to serve on the Board. Michael J. Simmons, the other director elected by the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock, will continue to serve as a director, and the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock may elect a second director at any time.

(e) On January 26, 2009, the Company and Michael J. Berry agreed to an amendment to Mr. Berry's Executive Retention Agreement to delete one of the provisions added to his Executive Retention Agreement by the amendment dated May 22, 2008. The deleted provision provided that if Mr. Berry elected to terminate his employment with the Company other than for good reason after November 14, 2008, the Company would pay him $300,000 plus accrued and unpaid annual base salary and vacation pay. The Company agreed to pay Mr. Berry the $300,000 immediately.
