Tokyo, March 26, 2009 Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group (MUFG: President and CEO Nobuo Kuroyanagi) and Morgan Stanley (Morgan Stanley: Chairman of the Board and CEO John J. Mack) have, since MUFG's capital investment in Morgan Stanley on October 13, 2008, continued to work toward developing concrete initiatives for a global strategic alliance between the two companies. As a first step in this alliance, MUFG and Morgan Stanley today entered into a memorandum of understanding to integrate securities companies in Japan, as detailed below.

1. Outline of the integration

The new company to be created through the integration, which will leverage the network of each of MUFG and Morgan Stanley, will aim to become a preeminent company in the Japanese securities industry by appropriately and swiftly addressing the advanced and diverse securities needs of wholesale and retail customers in Japan as well as by offering various Japan-related financial products and services to overseas customers.

The ownership will be 60 percent for MUFG and 40 percent for Morgan Stanley, and each will have proportional voting rights. The new company will have the following 5 Representative Directors:

Representative Directors	English Title	To be designated by
(Japanese Title) Chairman		Morgan Stanley
(Japanese Title) President & CEO		MUFG
(Japanese Title) Deputy President and CEO of Retail/Middle Markets		MUFG
(Japanese Title) Deputy President and CEO of Institutional Securities		Morgan Stanley

[The job titles in the Japanese language are provisional.]

Other directors will also be designated by MUFG and MS in proportion to their voting rights. The name of the new company will be determined at a future date. MUFG and Morgan Stanley will work to conclude definitive agreements for the integration in the coming months with a targeted closing date prior to the end of March 2010. The integration will be subject to regulatory approval.

MUFG and Morgan Stanley have confirmed that our close collaboration with each other and support to the new company are essential to achieve the goal of establishing a preeminent company in the Japanese securities industry, and will discuss details of the integration and the new company to achieve this goal.

In addition to this integration of the securities companies in Japan, MUFG and Morgan Stanley are discussing specific initiatives in other business areas to maximize the strategic benefits of the global alliance, which the companies intend to announce in due course.
