To Be Held June 8, 2009

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Phoenix Footwear Group, Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware (the Company or Phoenix Footwear), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on Monday, June 8, 2009, at 9:00 A.M. at the Company's headquarters, 5840 El Camino Real, Suite 106, Carlsbad, California 92008, together with any and all adjournments thereof. This Proxy Statement, Phoenix Footwear's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 3, 2009, filed with the Securities Exchange Commission (the SEC) on April 20, 2009, and the enclosed proxy will first be sent or given to stockholders on or about May 4, 2009. You may also obtain a copy of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K without charge upon written request submitted to Phoenix Footwear Group, Inc., c/o Dennis T. Nelson, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary, 5840 El Camino Real, Suite 106, Carlsbad, California 92008 or without charge at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).

SOLICITATION AND VOTING

The close of business on April 21, 2009 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting and at any adjournment of the meeting. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held of record in his or her name on that date. On the close of business on the record date, the Company had 8,166,191 shares of common stock, $.01 par value per share, being the only class of stock of the Company outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting.

The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company, which has designated the nominees for directors listed below. A stockholder giving such proxy has the right to revoke it at the meeting or at any time prior thereto. A stockholder may revoke such proxy by attending the meeting and voting in person or by filing an instrument in writing revoking the proxy or by filing another duly executed proxy bearing a later date with the Secretary. All shares represented by proxies in the form enclosed with this Proxy Statement will be voted at the meeting and at any adjournments of the meeting in accordance with the terms of such proxies, provided such proxies appear to be valid and to have been executed by stockholders of record entitled to vote at the meeting and have not previously been revoked. If no contrary instructions are given, all of the shares held of record by the persons named in the proxy will be voted FOR the six (6) nominees for director described on the following pages.

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors does not know of any matters not specifically referred to in this Proxy Statement which may come before the meeting. The deadline under Phoenix Footwear's By-Laws for stockholders to notify the Company of any director nominations or proposals to be presented at the Annual Meeting has passed. If any other business should properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons appointed by the enclosed form of proxy shall have discretionary authority to vote all of the shares held of record by the persons named in such proxies as they shall decide.

In order to conduct any business at the Annual Meeting, a quorum must be present in person or represented by valid proxy. The By-Laws of the Company provide that a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting, constitutes a quorum. Directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting by a plurality of the votes cast. Accordingly, the six (6) nominees receiving the six (6) highest number of votes cast at the Annual Meeting shall be elected to the Board of Directors. A majority of the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is required in order to approve any other matter submitted to a vote of the stockholders, except in the case where the vote of a greater number of shares is required by law or under the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws.

Abstentions may not be specified on the proposal relating to the election of directors. Shares which abstain from voting on any other matter which is properly presented shall be included for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but shall be excluded in tabulating votes cast for or against any proposal to which the abstention pertains.

Votes that are withheld with respect to any proposal will be excluded entirely from the vote taken for the proposal and will not be counted as present for purposes of the vote on such matter.

If you hold your shares in street name through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to some of the matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on those matters and will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval. Shares represented by such broker non-votes, however, will be counted in determining whether there is a quorum.

All costs of preparing, assembling and mailing this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy material, and any additional material which may hereafter be sent in connection with the solicitation and collection of the enclosed proxy, will be paid by the Company and no part will be paid directly or indirectly by any other person. Solicitation of proxies may be made by personal interview, mail, telephone or telecopier by officers and regular employees of the Company but no additional compensation will be paid to them for the time so employed.

The Company operates and reports using a 52-53 week fiscal year ending on the Saturday nearest to December 31. The Company refers to the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 as fiscal 2007, to the fiscal year ended January 3, 2009 as fiscal 2008, and to the fiscal year ending January 2, 2010 as fiscal 2009.

Table of ContentsCORPORATE GOVERNANCE*Independence of the Board of Directors

Under NYSE Alternext US listing standards, a majority of the members of a listed company's Board of Directors must qualify as independent, as affirmatively determined by the Board of Directors. The Board consults with the Company's counsel to ensure that the Board's determinations are consistent with relevant securities and other laws and regulations regarding the definition of independent, including those set forth in pertinent listing standards of NYSE Alternext US, as in effect time to time.

Consistent with these considerations, after review of all relevant transactions or relationships between each director, or any of his family members, and the Company, its senior management and its independent auditors, the Board has affirmatively determined that Messrs. DePerrior, Harden, Kratzer, and Port, constituting a majority of the nominees, are independent, as defined in the corporate governance rules of NYSE Alternext US. In making this determination, the Board found that none of these directors or nominees for director had a material or other disqualifying relationship with the Company. During fiscal 2008, neither Mr. Pfander, (due to his past employment with the Company until July 2006), Mr. Riedman, (due to his employment with the Company during fiscal 2008) nor Ms. Taylor (due to her employment with the Company during fiscal 2008) were considered independent for purposes of the NYSE Alternext US corporate governance rules.

Meetings of the Board of Directors

During fiscal 2008, the Board of Directors held eight (8) meetings and acted by written consent one (1) time. Each of the incumbent directors attended more than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and any committee on which he served. The Company does not have a policy regarding the attendance of directors at annual stockholder meetings. At the 2008 annual meeting of stockholders, all of the incumbent directors attended the meeting.

Information Regarding Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board has four standing committees: an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee, Executive Committee, and a Nominating and Governance Committee. Also, during fiscal 2008, The Board formed a Special Committee to review strategic alternatives available to the Company. The following table provides membership for fiscal 2008 for each of the Board committees:

Name	Audit	Compensation	Executive	Nominating and Governance	Retirement	Special
James R. Riedman			X*		X*	X
Steven M. DePerrior	X	X*	X		X	X*

Below is a description of each committee of the Board of Directors.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee's function is to provide oversight of the Company's accounting and financial reporting functions and internal controls, retain the Company's independent registered public accountants, review their independence, review and pre-approve any non-audit services that they may perform, review the adequacy of accounting and financial controls, review the Company's critical accounting policies and review and approve any related party transactions. A current copy of the Audit Committee Charter is posted on the Company's website, www.phoenixfootwear.com. The Audit Committee met eight (8) times and acted by written consent one (1) time during fiscal 2008.

The Board has designated Gregory Harden, Chairman of the Audit Committee, as audit committee financial expert. However, as specified by the SEC, such designation does not impose on him any duties, obligations or liabilities that are greater than the duties, obligations and liability imposed on him as a member of the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors in the absence of such designation; nor does it affect the duties, obligations or liability of any other member of the Audit Committee or the Board.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee oversees and administers the Company's compensation program for its executive officers and directors. The Compensation Committee bases its decisions on both individual performance and the Company's financial results. All compensation decisions are made solely by the Compensation Committee; however, the Compensation Committee may consult with the Chairman of the Board and the Company's Chief Executive Officer as part of its decision making process when examining their respective compensation packages. However, the Chief Executive Officer, as required by NYSE Alternext US, may not be present during voting or deliberations as to his or her compensation. The Compensation Committee met two (2) times during fiscal 2008. The Compensation Committee has a charter, a current copy of which is available at the Company's website, www.phoenixfootwear.com.

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee's function is to act when the full Board of Directors is unavailable. It has the authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Company, except those powers that cannot be delegated by the Board of Directors by law. The Executive Committee did not meet in fiscal 2008.

Nominating and Governance Executive Committee

The Board has a Nominating and Governance Committee whose function is to make recommendations to the Board in identifying individuals qualified to become Board members and to recommend to the Board nominees for election to the Board, assist the Board in establishing and implementing an effective corporate governance policy, recommend appropriate committee charters, lead the Board in its annual review of the Board's performance and recommend to the Board director nominees for each committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee has a charter, a current copy of which is available at the Company's website, www.phoenixfootwear.com.

The Nominating and Governance Committee did not meet during fiscal 2008 other than on an informal basis to conduct an evaluation of the performance of the Board and its Committees. The Committee also acted by written consent one (1) time during fiscal 2008. The Nominating and Governance Committee convened during the first quarter of fiscal 2009 and approved and recommended to the Board the nomination for election at the 2009 Annual Meeting of the six (6) director candidates, a majority of whom have been determined to be independent under the NYSE Alternext US listing standards. The Committee also recommended that the Board not fill the one existing director vacancy at this time.

The Nominating and Governance Committee believes that persons nominated to serve as a director should possess certain minimum qualifications including integrity, absence of conflicts of interest, demonstrated achievement in one or more fields, management or policy-making experience, business understanding and available time. These are only threshold criteria, however, and the Nominating and Governance Committee may also consider the contributions that a candidate can be expected to make to the collective functioning of the Board based on the totality of the candidate's credentials, experience and expertise, the composition of the Board at the time, and other relevant circumstances. The Nominating and Governance Committee may also approve the candidacy of a nominee who does not satisfy all of these requirements if it believes the service of such nominee is in the best interests of the Company. Generally, the Nominating and Governance Committee will first consider current Board members because they meet the criteria listed above and possess an in depth knowledge of the Company, its history, strengths, weaknesses, goals and objectives. Before nominating a sitting director for re-election at the Annual Meeting, however, the Nominating and Governance Committee will consider the director's performance on the Board.

When seeking candidates for director, the Nominating and Governance Committee may solicit suggestions from incumbent directors, management or others. After conducting an initial evaluation and considering the candidate suitable, the Nominating and Governance Committee will interview the candidate and will ask the candidate to meet with other directors and management. If the Nominating and Governance Committee believes the candidate would be a valuable addition to the Board, it will recommend to the full Board that candidate's election.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders who comply with the timing, procedures and information requirements of Section 1.11 of the Company's By-laws, the text of which is set forth in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. Stockholder nominees that meet the criteria outlined above will receive the same consideration that the Committee's nominees receive.

Retirement Plan Committee

The Board has a Retirement Plan Committee for the general administration of its Retirement Savings Partnership Plan, or 401(k) Plan. The Retirement Committee meets on an informal basis periodically to review any applications submitted by plan members for distribution under the 401(k) Plan, to address any amendments to the 401(k), to address share resale issues and to address requirements of governmental agencies with jurisdiction over the 401(k) Plan. The Retirement Committee votes the shares of the Company's stock held in the 401(k) Plan and serves as the fiduciary for the 401(k) Plan. The Retirement Plan Committee did not meet on a formal basis in fiscal 2008.

Special Committee to Consider Strategic Opportunities

During fiscal 2008, the Board created a Special Committee whose function was to consider strategic opportunities, including proposals for the purchase of the Company or one or more of its divisions, in an effort to enhance stockholder value. The Special Committee was authorized to negotiate on behalf of the Board of Directors and to consider, pursue and accept or reject any proposals received from management or any third party, subject to any required stockholder approval. The Special Committee retained BB&T Capital Markets, a division of Scott & Stringfellow, Inc., as its independent financial advisor to assist it in its work.

After evaluating available opportunities, the Special Committee directed the Company's management to focus on ways to return our Company to profitability and reduce or eliminate our bank debt. In response to the Special Committee's directive, during the first quarter of fiscal 2009, the Company developed and implemented the following key initiatives:

The Company exited the Tommy Bahama business and is in the process of liquidating its working capital;

The Company restructured and reduced the size of its business operations; and

The Company began the process of exiting the Chambers belt and accessories business, and entered into an agreement to sell the private label business and certain of its assets, following which the Company plans to wind-down the Company's Wrangler license business as those licenses expire unrenewed and monetize the associated working capital.

Table of Contents

On April 23, 2009, the Board of Directors dissolved its Special Committee as the Company has no current plans to consider additional strategic options.

Code of Ethics

The Company has adopted policies on ethical behavior, its Code of Ethics, a copy of which is provided on the Company's web site, www.phoenixfootwear.com. The Code of Ethics applies to all employees, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The following Report of the Audit Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report by reference therein.

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the Company's financial statements and the reporting process, including the Company's systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements as of and for the year ended January 3, 2009 with management.

The Audit Committee also has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements as of and for the year ended January 3, 2009 with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. (MHM), who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees), as currently in effect. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed MHM's independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent accountant's communications with the Audit Committee concerning independence and considers the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence, of which there were no non-audit services performed for the year-ended January 3, 2009.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Mayer Hoffman McCann P.C. (MHM), an independent registered public accounting firm, audited the Company's books and accounts for the 2008 fiscal year and Grant Thornton LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, audited the Company's books and accounts for the 2007 fiscal year. On June 18, 2008, the Audit Committee dismissed Grant Thornton and engaged MHM as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. MHM has served in this capacity since June 18, 2008.

The reports of Grant Thornton on the Company's financial statements as of and for the fiscal years ended December 29, 2007 and December 30, 2006 contained an explanatory paragraph indicating that there was substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and that the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (revised 2004), Share Based Payment, using the modified prospective method on January 1, 2006 and also adopted the provisions of Financial Accounting Standard Board Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes on January 1, 2007. Other than such modifications, no report of Grant Thornton on the Company's financial statements for either of the fiscal years ended December 29, 2007 and December 30, 2006 contained an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, or was qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the fiscal years ended December 29, 2007 and December 30, 2006 and through June 18, 2008, the Company had no disagreement with Grant Thornton on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which a disagreement, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Grant Thornton, would have caused them to make reference thereto in their report on the Company's financial statements for such years. During the fiscal years ended December 29, 2007 and December 30, 2006 and through June 18, 2008, none of the events described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K occurred, except that, as previously disclosed in Item 9A of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2006 and in Item 4 of its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended April 1, 2006, July 1, 2006 and September 30, 2006, the Company stated that a material weakness existed in its internal control over financial reporting due to inadequate resources in its accounting and financial reporting group. This was a condition that existed as of December 31, 2005 and initially disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for that period. Grant Thornton reported this material weakness following the conclusion of their audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Company believes that the material weakness arose as a result of the significant acquisitions it completed in 2004 and 2005. Subsequently, in Item 9 of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2006, the Company concluded that its ongoing remediation efforts resulted in control enhancements which operated for an adequate period of time to demonstrate operating effectiveness such that the material weakness no longer existed.

Grant Thornton was provided a copy of the above disclosures and was requested to furnish a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements. A copy of Grant Thornton's letter, stating whether or not it agrees with such statements, was filed as Exhibit 16 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed June 20, 2008.

During the fiscal years ended December 29, 2007 and December 30, 2006 and through June 18, 2008, the Company did not consult with MHM, regarding any of the matters set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

The Audit Committee has not selected or appointed independent auditors for fiscal 2009. Discussions with MHM will be initiated in the near future regarding the Audit Committee's selection of independent auditors for fiscal 2009. A representative of MHM is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires and to respond to appropriate questions.

(i) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Corporation and the proposal of business to be considered by the stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders (A) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting, (B) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (C) by any stockholder of the Corporation who was a stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in this Section 1.11, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complied with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 1.11.

(ii) For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to clause (C) of paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 1.11, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation and such other business must be a proper matter for stockholder action. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the date of the Corporation's proxy statement released to stockholders in connection with the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment of an annual meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth (A) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) and Rule 14a-11 thereunder (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (B) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (C) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made (1) the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner and (2) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 1.11 to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation is increased and there is no public announcement naming all of the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors made by the Corporation at least 100 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's notice required by this Section 1.11 shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

(b) Special Meetings of Stockholders. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the Chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made, or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.11 and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with this Section 1.11, to declare that such defective proposal or nomination shall be disregarded.
