Item 8.01. Other Matters.

On June 25, 2009, OMNI Energy Services Corp. (the Company) announced that it had received a favorable judgment dismissing a lawsuit filed by Robert H. Rhyne and Brent Trauth, the former owners of Preheat, Inc., which the Company acquired in February 2006.

Messrs. Rhyne and Trauth filed the lawsuit in federal court in the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana in Lafayette, Louisiana, against the Company, its directors, its Chief Operating Officer, its Chief Financial Officer, one of the Company's investment advisors and a principal of the investment advisor.

The Company responded to the lawsuit by immediately filing motions to dismiss the matter, which were granted and resulted in the judgment which was signed June 23rd. All claims alleging security law violations on behalf of the Company were specifically dismissed, as well as the claims against all the other parties named as defendants.

A copy of the press release reporting the favorable judgment is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The press release should be read in conjunction with the note regarding forward-looking statements, which is included in the text of the press release.
