YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT

To Our Shareholders:

You are cordially invited to attend a Special Meeting of shareholders of OMNI Energy Services Corp., which we refer to as OMNI or the Company, to be held at 4500 NE Evangeline Thruway, Carencro, Louisiana 70520, at , local time, on , 2010. At the Special Meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 3, 2010, which, together with certain related documents, we refer to as the Merger Agreement, by and among the Company, Wellspring OMNI Holdings Corporation, which we refer to as Parent, and Wellspring OMNI Acquisition Corporation, which we refer to as Acquisition, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Acquisition will be merged with and into OMNI, with OMNI surviving as a subsidiary of Parent. We refer to this transaction as the Merger. Parent and Acquisition are both affiliates of Wellspring Capital Management LLC, which we refer to as Wellspring Capital.

If we complete the Merger, you will be entitled to receive $2.75 in cash, without interest, for each share of Company common stock, including shares of common stock that have been issued upon conversion of Company Preferred Stock, that you own, unless you have properly sought dissenters' rights under Louisiana law. After the Merger, you will no longer have an equity interest in OMNI and will not participate in any potential future earnings or growth of the Company.

The proposed Merger was negotiated by a Special Committee of three independent members of our Board of Directors, which we refer to as the Special Committee, with assistance from legal counsel to the Special Committee and financial advisors to the Special Committee and the Board of Directors. Our Board of Directors, acting on the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, has adopted a resolution approving the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Both the Special Committee and our Board of Directors have determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are advisable, fair to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its unaffiliated shareholders. Acting on the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, the Board of Directors unanimously has approved the Merger Agreement and approved the Merger and recommends that you vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger. In arriving at their recommendation, the Special Committee and the Board of Directors carefully considered a number of factors, which are described in the accompanying proxy statement.

Our President and Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman of the Board of Directors and one of our other directors (the Rollover Participants ) will exchange certain of their shares of OMNI common stock and preferred stock for shares of Parent common stock and shares of preferred stock of a subsidiary of Parent in lieu of receiving the cash consideration in connection with the Merger and thus will continue to have equity interests in the Company.

In the materials accompanying this letter, you will find a Notice of Special Meeting, a proxy statement that provides you with more detailed information regarding the proposed Merger and a proxy card. We encourage you to read the entire document, including the appendices, carefully.

Your vote is important. We cannot complete the Merger unless a quorum of shareholders is present at the Special Meeting and holders representing a majority of all voting power of shares of Company common stock held as of the record date for the Special Meeting, including the voting power of shares of Company common stock which holders of Company preferred stock are entitled to vote, present or represented at the Special Meeting approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Whether or not you plan to attend the Special Meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing to us the enclosed proxy card, by calling 1-800-776-9437, or by visiting www.voteproxy.com to ensure that your shares will be represented at the Special Meeting.

Do not send any stock certificates with your proxy. Shortly after the Merger is completed (if it is approved), you will receive a letter of transmittal with instructions informing you how to send your shares to the paying agent in order to receive the merger consideration. You should use the letter of transmittal to exchange stock certificates for the merger consideration to which you are entitled as a result of the Merger.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to express our appreciation for your interest in and consideration of this matter. We look forward to seeing you at the Special Meeting and urge you to vote FOR the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

Sincerely,

Brian J. Recatto

At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding unvested restricted share of Company common stock that was awarded under any stock plan, program or arrangement with the Company will become fully vested, all restrictions thereon shall lapse and each such share will be canceled in exchange for the right to receive the merger consideration of $2.75 per share.

Background of the Merger (See page 22)

The section of the proxy statement entitled "Special Factors - Background of the Merger" contains a description of the process we undertook which resulted in our entering the Merger Agreement with Parent and Acquisition, and includes, among other things, information as to our contacts and discussions with Wellspring Capital and other potential acquirors.

The Reasons for the Merger (See page 27)

The Board of Directors of the Company, acting on the recommendation of a special committee formed for the purpose of representing the Company in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and any alternatives thereto, which we refer to as the Special Committee, unanimously approved the Merger based on its considerations of a number of factors, which are described in the section of this proxy statement entitled "Special Factors - Fairness of the Merger, Recommendation of the Special Committee and the Board of Directors and Reasons For the Merger".

Fairness Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor (See page 35)

On June 2, 2010, the Special Committee received a written opinion from GulfStar Group I, Ltd., which we refer to as GulfStar, to the effect that, as of June 2, 2010, the $2.75 per share merger consideration to be received by the unaffiliated holders of Company common stock in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of Company common stock. The full text of GulfStar's written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, general procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by GulfStar in rendering its opinion, is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein in its entirety. GulfStar's opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how you should vote with respect to the Merger Agreement and related Merger. You should read the opinion carefully in its entirety.

Recommendation of the Special Committee and our Board of Directors (See page 27)

The Special Committee unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its unaffiliated shareholders and recommended that the Board of Directors approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger and submit it to shareholders for their approval.

After considering the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, our Board of Directors unanimously:

determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by it are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its unaffiliated shareholders and declared the Merger advisable;

approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger; and recommended that you vote FOR the approval of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger.

Financing the Merger (See page 58)

Parent and Acquisition estimate that, based on information available as of the date of this proxy statement, the total amount of funds required to complete the Merger and related transactions, repay certain of the Company's existing debt and pay related fees and expenses, will be approximately $125.4 million.

Parent expects this amount to be provided through a combination of the proceeds of:

an equity investment comprised of cash and shares of Company stock contributed by the Rollover Participants; an equity and subordinated debt investment by Wellspring in the amount of $62.6 million;

cash on the Company's balance sheet; and a senior secured credit facility, which is described below under Special Factors Merger Financing .

Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (see pages 54 and 55)

When considering the Board of Directors and the Special Committee's unanimous recommendations that the Company's shareholders approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger, you should be aware that some directors and executive officers of the Company may have interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of other Company shareholders. See Special Factors Interests of Company Directors in the Merger, Special Factors Interests of Certain Company Directors in Parent and its Affiliates following the Merger and Special Factors Interests of Company Executive Officers in the Merger for a description of such interests that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the Company's other shareholders.

Table of Contents

The Board of Directors and the Special Committee knew about these different and additional interests, and considered them, among other matters, when they approved the Merger Agreement and the Merger and determined that the Merger and the Merger Agreement are advisable and are fair to, and in the best interest of, the Company and its unaffiliated shareholders.

Voting Agreements (See page 19)

The three of our directors who are participating in the transaction with Parent and its affiliates, whom we refer to as the Rollover Participants, collectively beneficially own approximately 24.9 percent of the outstanding Company common stock (including common stock into which Company preferred stock owned by them is convertible). These directors have entered into voting agreements (attached as Appendix E) with Parent and have agreed to vote their shares in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

Rollover Agreements (See page 55)

The Rollover Participants have entered into Rollover Agreements (attached as Appendix D) with Parent pursuant to which they will continue to have equity interests in the Company, as the surviving corporation, after the consummation of the Merger, and they will have a continued opportunity to participate in future income, if any, and future growth of the Company, if it occurs, whereas other shareholders will not have that opportunity after consummation of the Merger. For a discussion of such arrangements see Special Factors Interests of Certain Company Directors in Parent and its Affiliates following the Merger .

Positions of Certain Persons Regarding Fairness of the Merger (See pages 27, 46 and 48)

Each of the Board of Directors, the Rollover Participants and each of the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition believes that the Merger is fair to our unaffiliated shareholders. See Special Factors Fairness of the Merger, Recommendation of the Special Committee and our Board of Directors Reasons for the Board of Directors determination; Special Factors Position of the Directors Participating in the Merger With Wellspring as to the Fairness of the Merger and Special Factors Position of the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition as to the Fairness of the Merger for discussions of the factors considered by such persons in forming such beliefs.

Special Meeting of the Company s Shareholders (See page 18)

A special meeting of shareholders, which we refer to as the Special Meeting, will be held on , 2010 at 4500 NE Evangeline Thruway, Carencro, Louisiana 70520 at , local time. At the Special Meeting, you will be asked:

to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger of Acquisition with and into the Company and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and to approve any adjournment or postponement, if necessary or appropriate, of the Special Meeting, including the approval of any proposal to postpone or adjourn the Special Meeting to a later date to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and the other transactions contemplated thereby, in the event there are not sufficient votes for approval at the Special Meeting.

In order for the Special Meeting to be held, a quorum must be present. A quorum is established when a majority of the total voting power of all shares entitled to vote is represented at the Special Meeting either in person or by proxy.

You are entitled to vote at the Special Meeting if you owned shares of Company common stock or shares of Series C 9% Convertible Preferred Stock, no par value, of the Company, which we refer to as the Series C Stock, as of the close of business on , 2010, the record date fixed by the Board of Directors of the Company. On the record date, , 2010, there were shares of Company common stock and shares of Series C Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting. Each share of Company common stock is entitled to one vote and the holders of the Series C Stock are entitled to one vote for each share of Company common stock into which their Series C Stock may be converted. You may vote by attending the Special Meeting and voting your shares, by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it to the Company in the enclosed envelope, by calling 1-800-776-9437 or by visiting the website www.voteproxy.com. If you owned shares of Company common stock on the record date, you may be entitled to dissenters' rights pursuant to Section 12:131 of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix F. See Special Factors Dissenters' Rights beginning at page 67. Because all holders of Series C Stock (four persons) are expected to vote their Series C Stock, as well as any shares of Company common stock into which such shares have been converted, in favor of the Merger, such holders are not expected to have dissenters' rights on any such shares.

The Company is seeking your proxy to use at the Special Meeting. The Company has prepared this proxy statement to assist you in deciding how to vote and whether or not to grant your proxy to the Company. Regardless of whether or not you currently plan to attend the Special Meeting, please indicate on your proxy card how you want to vote. Then sign, date and mail it to the Company as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the Special Meeting. If you sign, date and mail in your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Alternatively, you may vote by telephone at 1-800-776-9437 or on the Internet at www.voteproxy.com. If you fail to return your proxy card, to vote by telephone or internet or to attend and vote at the Special Meeting, such failure could affect whether a quorum is present at the Special Meeting and thus affect the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and your shares will not be counted on any proposal that may properly come before the Special Meeting.

A shareholder of the Company who has given a proxy solicited by the Board of Directors may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise at the Special Meeting by (1) giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company, (2) properly submitting to the Company a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, (3) by telephone or on the Internet if you originally submitted your proxy in that manner, or (4) attending the Special Meeting and voting in person. All written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to revocation of proxies should be sent to OMNI Energy Services Corp., 4500 NE Evangeline Thruway, Carencro, Louisiana 70520, Attention: Corporate Secretary (Board Matters).

Shareholder Vote Required (See page 18)

A quorum (which is a majority of the total voting power of all shares entitled to vote) must be present at the Special Meeting to approve any of the proposals presented. Approval of the Merger requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the voting power of all shares of stock of the Company with voting rights present or represented at the Special Meeting.

Holders of Company common stock are entitled to one vote for each share of Company common stock owned thereby at the close of business on , 2010, the record date fixed by the Board of Directors. Holders of the Series C Stock are entitled to one vote for each share of Company common stock into which their Series C Stock may be converted at the close of business on , 2010, the record date.

Effective Time of the Merger (See page 70)

The Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement will become final as soon as practicable. If all conditions to the completion of the Merger are satisfied, the Company currently anticipates that the Merger will be completed in the second half of 2010. Parent or the Company can terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated by December 1, 2010, unless it is not consummated by such date because of the breach of the Merger Agreement by the party seeking termination. Although the Company expects the Merger to be completed as planned if approved by shareholders, the Company cannot assure you that all conditions to consummation of the Merger can or will be satisfied.

Exchange of Stock Certificates or Book-Entry Shares for the Merger Consideration (See page 72)

As promptly as practicable after the effective time of the Merger, the paying agent will mail to you a letter of transmittal containing instructions on how to surrender your stock certificates or book-entry shares in exchange for the merger consideration. You must wait until you receive such instructions to exchange your certificates or book-entry shares for the merger consideration. You will need to review carefully and complete such materials and return them as instructed along with your stock certificates or book-entry shares representing shares of Company common stock. Please do not attempt to surrender any stock certificates or book-entry shares until you receive these instructions.

Do not attempt to surrender your stock certificates or book-entry shares until you receive a letter of transmittal containing instructions for surrendering your stock certificates or book-entry shares.

Limitations on Considering Other Acquisition Proposals (See page 77)

During the period beginning on the date of the Merger Agreement and continuing until July 16, 2010, such period being referred to as the go-shop period, the Company and its subsidiaries and their respective officers, directors, advisors, affiliates and other representatives, which are referred to herein as representatives, were allowed to:

initiate, solicit and encourage acquisition proposals (including by way of providing access to non-public information pursuant to (but only pursuant to) an acceptable confidentiality agreement), provided that the Company must promptly provide to Parent any non-public information concerning the Company or its subsidiaries that is provided to any person given such access which was not previously provided to Parent; and enter into and maintain or continue discussions or negotiations with any person or group of persons in furtherance of any such inquiries and to induce the making or submission of acquisition proposals.

Except as to any excluded party (as defined in the Merger Agreement, but in general a party which has submitted an acquisition proposal to the Company prior to July 16, 2010 that the Board of Directors or the Special Committee determines in good faith is bona fide and constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to result in, a superior proposal), the Company has agreed that from the period beginning on July 16, 2010, until the effective date of the Merger, or, if earlier, the termination of the Merger Agreement, the Company shall not, and shall not direct, authorize or permit any of its representatives to, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit or encourage (including by way of providing information) any prospective purchaser or the invitation or submission of any inquiries, proposals or offers or any other efforts or attempts that constitute, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any acquisition proposal;

engage in, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal; or enter into any agreement or agreement in principle (other than an acceptable confidentiality agreement) providing for or relating to an acquisition proposal or enter into any agreement or agreement in principle requiring the Company to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated by, or breach its obligations under, the Merger Agreement.

The Company may, however, at any time prior to obtaining the approval of the Merger Agreement by its shareholders at the Special Meeting, furnish information with respect to the Company and its subsidiaries to a person making an acquisition proposal and participate in discussions or negotiations with such person regarding the acquisition proposal, if:

prior to taking such action:

the Board of Directors or the Special Committee determines in good faith that an acquisition proposal received by the Company from a third party is bona fide;

the Board of Directors or the Special Committee determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel, that the acquisition proposal constitutes or could reasonably be expected to constitute a superior proposal; and after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel, the Board of Directors or the Special Committee determines in good faith that taking such action is necessary for the Board of Directors or the Special Committee to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

prior to disclosing any non-public information to the potential acquirer, the Company enters into an acceptable confidentiality agreement; and the Company promptly provides to Parent any non-public information concerning the Company or its subsidiaries provided to the potential acquirer which was not previously provided to Parent.

If, prior to obtaining the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company shareholders at the Special Meeting, the Company receives an acquisition proposal that the Board of Directors or the Special Committee determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel) is a superior proposal or upon the occurrence of an intervening event, the Board of Directors or the Special Committee may withdraw, modify or qualify, or propose publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to Parent and Acquisition, the approval, recommendation or declaration of advisability by the Board of Directors or any committee of the Board of Directors of the Merger Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or recommend, adopt or approve, or propose publicly to recommend, adopt or approve, any acquisition proposal, such actions being collectively referred to herein as an adverse recommendation, if and only if prior to taking such action:

the Board of Directors or the Special Committee has concluded in good faith after consultation with its independent financial advisors and outside counsel that taking such action is necessary for the Board of Directors or the Special Committee to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

the Company has provided prior written notice to Parent at least three business days in advance, to the effect that absent any revision to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, the Board of Directors or the Special Committee intends to take such action; and in such notice to Parent, the Company has offered to negotiate for a period of three business days after Parent's receipt of the Company's notice (and, if accepted, negotiated with Parent for such three-day period), and has instructed its subsidiaries and its and their respective representatives to offer to negotiate with (and if accepted, negotiated with) Parent to attempt to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement such that the Board of Directors or the Special Committee would not, after taking into account such adjustments, be required to effect an adverse recommendation.

Table of Contents

Subject to the provisions of the Merger Agreement relating to an adverse recommendation, neither the Company, its Board of Directors nor the Special Committee is prohibited from complying with Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2 promulgated under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which we refer to as the Exchange Act, with regard to an acquisition proposal.

The Company must also keep Parent generally informed on a current basis of the status of and material developments respecting any solicitations, inquiries, proposals and/or negotiations (including the material terms and price in respect of any acquisition proposal) and has agreed that it will promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) notify Parent if any acquisition proposal is received by the Company.

Activities During the Go-Shop Period (See page 27)

During the go-shop period, Stephens Inc., a financial advisor to the Special Committee, contacted 97 possible buyers (33 possible strategic buyers and 64 possible financial buyers). During the go-shop period two possible buyers one strategic and one financial executed confidentiality agreements and were given access to the same confidential information to which Wellspring and Parent were given access. Prior to the expiration of the go-shop period both such possible buyers advised that they would not make an acquisition proposal to the Company. No other possible buyers sought access to Company information, engaged in other discussions with the Company or made any proposal to the Company. After 12:00 a.m. on July 17, 2010, all go-shop activities ceased in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Conditions of Merger Agreement (See page 83)

seeks to prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by the Company, Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries of any portion of any business or of any properties or assets of the Company, Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries, or to compel the Company, Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries to divest or hold separate any portion of any business or of any properties or assets of the Company, Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries, as a result of the Merger;

In addition to these conditions, the Merger Agreement, attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A, describes other conditions that must be met before the Merger may be consummated.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated as follows:

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (See page 59)

The payment of cash for shares of the common stock of the Company pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement will be a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes for the Company's shareholders and also may be taxable under local, state and foreign tax laws.

Tax matters are very complicated and the tax consequences of the Merger to you will depend on your own situation. You should consult your own tax advisors to determine the effect of the Merger on you under federal, state, local, and foreign tax laws.

Dissenters Rights (See page 67)

Dissenting shareholders who comply with the procedural requirements of the Business Corporation Law of Louisiana will be entitled to receive payment of the fair cash value of their shares if the Merger is effected upon approval by less than eighty percent of the total voting power of the Company. See Special Factors Dissenters Rights.

Regulatory Approvals (See page 59)

The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act ), provides that Merger and acquisition transactions meeting specified criteria may not be completed until certain information has been submitted to the Federal Trade Commission which we refer to as the FTC, and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, which we refer to as the Antitrust Division, and certain waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Parent, Acquisition and the Company agreed to promptly file any notification required to be filed by it or its ultimate parent company under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division. The notifications required under the HSR Act were filed on July 23, 2010. On August 2, 2010, the FTC granted early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act without the imposition of any conditions or restrictions on the consummation of the Merger.

Litigation Challenging the Merger (See page 67)

Six purported class action lawsuits have been filed in connection with the Merger in state courts in Lafayette Parish, Louisiana, and two purported class actions were filed in connection with the Merger in the federal district court for the Western District of Louisiana. Each court action named the Company and its directors as defendants, and the state court actions also named Wellspring, Parent and Acquisition. One of the federal actions filed named Parent and Acquisition as defendants. The state court complaints allege, among other things, that the director defendants have breached their fiduciary duties to shareholders of the Company by entering into the Merger Agreement, failing to disclose certain information with respect to the Company and failing to maximize shareholder value. The Wellspring Entities are claimed to have aided and abetted the alleged fiduciary duty breaches by the directors of the Company. The federal court complaint makes substantially the same claims as the state court complaints, but also alleges violations of federal law relating to the Company's proxy statement disclosures. One or more of the complaints seek injunctions against the Merger, rescission of the Merger if it is consummated, imposition of a constructive trust, damages, attorneys' fees, expenses and other relief. The complaints request class action certification and rulings that the named complainants are representatives of the class. No class has been certified at present. Plaintiffs in certain of the state actions and both federal actions have moved for expedited discovery. The defendants have filed the appropriate motions in the state proceedings to consolidate them into a single proceeding and further to stay such state actions pending the federal court's consideration of the federal suit. A hearing is set for August 30, 2010, as to the motions filed in state court. Moreover, the defendants are contesting discovery requests made by some of the state plaintiffs. The defendants have also filed a motion in the federal court requesting consolidation of the federal actions, a stay of all proceedings until lead plaintiffs and plaintiffs' counsel are appointed and defendants' motion to dismiss is resolved, and requesting that outstanding discovery requests be quashed. No hearing date has yet been set regarding this motion. The Company believes that all of the lawsuits that have been filed and the allegations contained therein are without merit, and it, along with the directors of the Company, intends to vigorously defend the lawsuits.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

The following Q&A is intended to address some commonly asked questions regarding the Merger. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as an OMNI shareholder. We urge you to read carefully the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, the appendices to this proxy statement and the documents we refer to in this proxy statement. For instructions on obtaining more information, see Where You Can Find More Information starting on page 103.

Except as otherwise specifically noted in this proxy statement, we, our, us and similar words in this proxy statement refer to OMNI Energy Services Corp. References to the surviving corporation are to the Company, as the surviving corporation in the Merger and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wellspring OMNI Holdings Corporation.

Q: Why did I receive this proxy statement?

A: Our Board of Directors is soliciting proxies for a special meeting of shareholders, which we refer to as the Special Meeting, to be held on , 2010, at , local time, and at any postponement or adjournment thereof. When we ask for your proxy, we must provide you with a proxy statement that contains certain information specified by law. This proxy statement summarizes the information you need to vote at the Special Meeting.

Q: What am I being asked to vote upon?

A: You are being asked to approve the Merger of Wellspring OMNI Acquisition Corporation with and into the Company pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Q: What will I receive in exchange for my shares of the common stock of the Company?

A: If the Merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive $2.75 in cash, without interest, for each of your shares of common stock of the Company unless you have properly exercised any dissenters' rights that will be available to you under Louisiana law if the Merger is effected upon approval by less than eighty percent of the total voting power of the Company.

Q: How does the Company's Board of Directors recommend I vote?

A: Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger. Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Q: What should I do now?

A: After you have read the proxy statement, indicate on your proxy card how you want to vote, and sign, date and mail it in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible, or submit your proxy by telephone at 1-800-776-9437 or on the Internet at www.voteproxy.com, so that your shares of Company common stock represented at the Special Meeting. Returning your proxy card, or voting by telephone or internet, does not preclude you from voting in person if you attend the Special Meeting.

Table of Contents

If you sign, date and mail in your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. If you fail to return your proxy card or do not vote by telephone or internet or attend and vote at the Special Meeting, your failure may affect the existence of a quorum at the Special Meeting and may affect the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and your shares will not be counted on any proposal that may properly come before the Special Meeting.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates or book-entry shares now?

A: No. As promptly as practicable after the effective time of the Merger, the paying agent will mail to you a transmittal letter containing instructions for exchanging your certificates or book-entry shares representing shares of the common stock of the Company for the merger consideration. You must wait until you receive such instructions to exchange your certificates or book-entry shares for the merger consideration.

Q: When do you expect the Merger to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the Merger as quickly as possible. In addition to obtaining shareholder approval, we must satisfy all other closing conditions in the Merger Agreement. We hope to complete the Merger in the second half of 2010, shortly after the Special Meeting.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: A majority of the total voting power of shares of stock of the Company must be represented in person or by proxy at the meeting for there to be a quorum. If you do not send in a proxy using one of the methods described above, it will be more difficult for us to obtain the necessary quorum to hold the Special Meeting. Failure to secure a quorum on the date set for the meeting would likely require an adjournment that would cause us to incur additional expense.

Also, for us to complete the Merger, shareholders of record on , 2010 holding at least a majority of the voting power of shares of the stock of the Company present or represented at the Special Meeting must vote to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote per share. Holders of our Series C Stock of record on , 2010 are entitled to vote the number of shares of Company common stock into which such Series C Stock is convertible. Certain directors, including an executive officer of OMNI, who beneficially own an aggregate of 6,362,267 shares, or approximately 24.9 percent of the outstanding Company common stock, including shares into which Series C Stock is convertible, have agreed, subject to certain conditions, to vote in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: No. If your shares are held in a brokerage account and you do not provide your broker with instructions on how to vote those shares, your broker will not be permitted to vote them. Therefore, you should be sure to provide your broker with instructions on how to vote these shares. If you do not give voting instructions to your broker, you may affect our ability to have a quorum at the Special Meeting since broker non-votes do not count toward establishing a quorum, and such failure could, therefore, affect approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

Q: What do I do if I want to change my vote?

A: You may change your vote at any time before your shares are voted at the Special Meeting. You can do this by one of four ways: (i) send a written, dated notice to our Corporate Secretary stating that you would like to revoke your proxy; (ii) complete, date, and submit another proxy card; (iii) by telephone or on the Internet if you originally submitted your proxy in that manner; or (iv) attend the meeting and vote in person.

Q: Am I entitled to dissenters or appraisal rights?

A: Dissenting shareholders who comply with the procedural requirements of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law will be entitled to receive the payment of the fair cash value of their shares if the Merger is effected upon approval by less than eighty percent of the Company's total voting power. For more information regarding your right to dissent from the Merger, please read the section of this proxy statement entitled "Special Factors - Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 67. We have also attached a copy of the relevant provision of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law (La. Rev. Stat. § 12:131) as Appendix F to this proxy statement.

Q: Will the Merger be taxable to me?

A: Your receipt of cash in the Merger will be taxable to you and you will generally recognize a gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash you receive in the Merger and your adjusted tax basis in your shares. Tax matters are very complicated and the tax consequences of the Merger to you will depend on your own situation. You should consult your own tax advisors to determine the effect of the Merger on you under federal, state, local and foreign tax laws.

Q: Whom should I contact with questions?

A: If you want additional copies of this document, or if you want to ask any questions about the Merger, you should contact:

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE SHAREHOLDERS OF OMNI ENERGY SERVICES CORP.

The Company is furnishing this proxy statement to beneficial holders of shares of the common stock of the Company, $0.01 par value per share, and Series C 9% Convertible Preferred Stock, no par value (Series C Stock), in connection with the proxy solicitation by the Board of Directors of the Company. The Board of Directors will use the proxies at the Special Meeting to be held on , 2010, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof.

Date, Place and Time

The Special Meeting of the shareholders of the Company will be held at 4500 NE Evangeline Thruway, Carencro, Louisiana 70520, at , local time, on , 2010.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the Special Meeting, holders of shares of Company common stock and preferred stock will be asked to:

vote on a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A, and to approve the Merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement in which Acquisition will be merged with and into the Company, and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and act on any other matters that may properly be put to a vote at the Special Meeting, or any adjournments or postponements thereof, including the approval of any proposal to postpone or adjourn the Special Meeting to a later date to solicit additional proxies.

Record Date, Stock Entitled to Vote and Required Vote

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on , 2010 as the record date for determining those shareholders of the Company who are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting. Only record holders of shares of the common stock of the Company and Series C Stock on the books of the Company at the close of business on , 2010, the record date, will receive notice of and may vote at the Special Meeting, including any adjournments or postponements thereof. On the record date, there were shares of Company common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, including shares of Company common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series C Stock held by approximately holders of record.

At the Special Meeting, shareholders of the Company will have one vote for each share of the common stock of the Company owned on the record date and the holders of the Series C Stock will have one vote for each share of Company common stock into which their Series C Stock may be converted on the record date. The holders of a majority of the outstanding voting power of shares of stock of the Company entitled to vote at the Special Meeting must be present or represented in order for a quorum to exist at the Special Meeting.

To determine if a quorum is present, the Company will count the following:

shares of the common stock of the Company, including shares of Company common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series C Stock, present and voting at the Special Meeting either in person or by proxy;

shares of the common stock of the Company, including shares of Company common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series C Stock, present in person at the Special Meeting but not voting; and shares of the common stock of the Company, including shares of Company common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series C Stock, for which it has received proxies but with respect to which holders of such shares have abstained on any matter.

Table of Contents

The approval of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power of shares of stock of the Company, which includes as one voting class the voting power of shares of Company common stock and the voting power of shares of Series C Stock, present or represented at the Special Meeting.

Voting of Proxies

Properly executed proxies that the Company receives before the vote at the Special Meeting that are not revoked will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxies. If no instructions are indicated, such proxies will be voted FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Merger. If a Company shareholder abstains from voting or does not vote, either in person or by proxy, but is otherwise present at the Special Meeting, his shares will effectively count as votes AGAINST the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Brokers who hold shares of the Company common stock in street name for customers who are the beneficial owners of such shares may not give a proxy to vote those customers' shares in the absence of specific instructions from those customers.

Shareholders of the Company who beneficially owned shares of Company common stock on the record date who vote against the Merger, and otherwise comply with certain procedural requirements, are entitled to dissenters' rights pursuant to Section 131 of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law (La. Rev. Stat. § 12:131) unless the Merger Agreement and the Merger are approved by eighty percent or more of the total voting power of shares of stock of the Company. Because all holders of Series C Stock (four persons) are expected to vote their Series C Stock, as well as any shares of Company common stock into which such shares have been converted, in favor of the Merger, such holders are not expected to have dissenters' rights on any such shares. See Special Factors Dissenters' Rights.

The Company does not expect any matter other than the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger will be brought before the Special Meeting. If, however, the Board of Directors presents the proposal to postpone or adjourn the Special Meeting to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger (in the event there are not sufficient votes for such approval), the proxy holder may vote the proxy in its discretion.

Voting Agreements

In connection with the Merger Agreement, our President and Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman of the Board of Directors and one of our other directors, who collectively beneficially own approximately 24.9 percent of the outstanding Company common stock, have each entered into voting agreements with Parent, and have each agreed, among other things, to vote their shares, 6,362,267 votes in the aggregate (including shares of Company common stock into which their Series C Stock may be converted), in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger. The Voting Agreements are attached to this proxy statement as Appendix E.

Revocability of Proxies

A shareholder of the Company who has given a proxy solicited by the Board of Directors may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise at the Special Meeting by (1) giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company, (2) properly submitting to the Company a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, (3) by telephone or on the Internet if such proxy was originally submitted in that manner, or (4) attending the Special Meeting and voting in person. All written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to revocation of proxies should be sent to OMNI Energy Services Corp., 4500 NE Evangeline Thruway, Carencro, Louisiana 70520, Attention: Corporate Secretary (Board Matters).

Expenses of Solicitation of Proxies

All costs of the proxies will be borne by the Company. Directors, officers, and employees of the Company may solicit proxies in person or by mail, telephone, electronic mail or facsimile. They will receive no additional compensation for such services. Brokers, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians have been requested to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of shares of Company common stock held of record by them, and such custodians will be reimbursed by the Company for their reasonable expenses.

Recommendation

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that the shareholders vote FOR the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the Merger.

SPECIAL FACTORS

General

At the Special Meeting, we will ask shareholders to vote on a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger of Acquisition with and into the Company. We have attached a copy of the Merger Agreement and the related Limited Guaranty as Appendices A and B to this proxy statement. We urge you to read the Merger Agreement and the Limited Guaranty in their entirety because they are the legal documents governing the Merger.

Background of the Merger

From time to time over the years, including in 2007, the Board of Directors has considered possible strategic alternatives to the Company's continuing as an independent, publicly owned company, but has concluded in the past that shareholder interests would not be best served by pursuing such a strategic alternative transaction. Moreover, as a result of the consideration of strategic alternatives in 2007, the Company concluded that it was not a likely fit for a strategic buyer, as opposed to a financial buyer, because the three disparate businesses it operates (seismic services, environmental and other services and oil field equipment leasing) do not fit well with any single oil service company that might be interested in a strategic acquisition. In any event, subsequent to considerations in 2007 that did not lead to any possible transaction, the Company did not consider the possibility of a strategic transaction again until late 2009 when the Company's circumstances, discussed below, made such consideration advisable in the judgment of its Board of Directors.

Virtually all of the Company's customers are involved in the exploration for, and production of, oil and natural gas in the continental United States and the offshore and coastal waters of the Gulf of Mexico. Accordingly, a higher demand for oil and gas results in a higher demand for the Company's equipment and services. Beginning in the second half of 2008, and coinciding with the beginning of the major financial crisis in the United States and the severe 2008-2009 recession, demand for the Company's equipment and services declined significantly as the demand for natural gas and oil in the United States, and natural gas and oil prices, fell significantly. While demand for oil and, therefore, oil prices have recovered somewhat, demand for natural gas in relation to the supply thereof has not recovered and natural gas prices remain depressed. Prior to the adverse impact on our operations that began in the fourth quarter of 2008, we completed a credit facility in April, 2008, which we believed, at the time, was satisfactory in terms of debt service requirements and covenant compliance obligations and which provided a line of credit to assist us in maintaining liquidity. As a result of the difficult economic conditions that have affected the Company in recent periods, as of September 30, 2009, we were not in compliance with certain covenants under our credit agreements, which necessitated the negotiation of waivers and the modification and tightening of financial covenants going forward. Further, the amounts available under our credit agreements were reduced by amendments to such agreements and by principal reduction through payments. As we have previously disclosed, should our credit facility become unavailable to us, such as because of covenant compliance issues or otherwise, we might not be able to continue to operate as a going concern.

In the context of the difficult economic circumstances that have impacted the Company in recent periods and constraints under our existing credit facilities that have affected our liquidity, reduced our ability to make planned capital expenditures as previously budgeted and to otherwise grow our business, we engaged Stephens Inc. in October, 2009, to act as a placement agent for us in a private offering of debt, subordinated debt or equity in order to attempt to achieve a comprehensive recapitalization of the Company. In connection with the Company's exploration of a comprehensive recapitalization, in November, 2009, a third party informed representatives of Wellspring that the Company was seeking financing. The third party had no relationship with the Company but was aware of the Company's efforts to seek financing for recapitalization. That information led to a telephone discussion on December 8, 2009, among representatives of Wellspring, the third party and the Company and to the execution by Wellspring on December 9, 2009, of a confidentiality agreement with the Company. That initial contact with Wellspring did not lead to any further actions, and no further discussions among Wellspring and Company representatives followed such initial discussions until February, 2010, as noted hereinafter. In the course of working with Stephens to recapitalize the Company, the Board of Directors concluded that we would not be able to effectively recapitalize on terms that were satisfactory to the Company. In particular, we were not able to obtain terms relating to indebtedness that were any more favorable than our existing credit facilities. Moreover, we concluded that any private placement of equity securities at the time would result in substantial dilution to our shareholders. Accordingly, after considerations in December, 2009, and January, 2010, the Board of Directors decided to expand the engagement of Stephens to include the possible sale of the Company in a transaction that would take the Company private. Stephens was formerly engaged in such capacity on January 28, 2010.

Subsequent to its engagement expanding the scope of its services, in February and March, 2010, Stephens contacted 49 private equity firms (financial buyers) about the possibility of acquiring the Company in a transaction in which members of management of the Company might participate and the Company would continue its current operations without adverse impact on its employees and the communities in which we do business. In connection with such activities, Stephens, at the suggestion of the Company, contacted Wellspring since the Company had previously had brief contact with Wellspring. As a result of such efforts, the Company received eight indications of interest from possible financial buyers, including Wellspring, for such a transaction. In response to the indications of interest Stephens held a conference call with each of the eight financial buyers which had provided an indication of interest in order to more fully understand the valuation and structure of each proposal. Stephens inquired about the factors that would impact their valuations and inquired about the leverage that each financial buyer would need to complete the transaction. Further, Stephens used the conference calls to learn more about each such financial buyer, including the financial buyer's experience in buyout transactions, its experience with companies in the energy industry, the capital available to it, any financing contingencies that the financial buyer would impose and the existence of co-investors with a possible financial buyer, all of which information was reported to the Board of Directors. On February 24, 2010, representatives of Wellspring met with representatives of the Company and representatives of Stephens to discuss a potential transaction with the Company.

As a result of negotiations between Stephens and the eight private equity firms indicating an interest in a transaction and indicating possible prices, the range of possible prices, as initially indicated, were in several instances increased. The lowest final range of proposed prices received from one firm was a range of $1.90 to $2.48 per share of Company common stock. The highest range of prices received from another firm was from $2.50 to $3.00 per share of Company common stock. On March 5, 2010, Wellspring submitted an initial written proposal for a transaction to Stephens, reflecting a range of prices and other terms Wellspring would consider. On March 12, 2010, representatives of Wellspring had a telephone call with representatives from Stephens to discuss the status of the potential transaction. The final price indicated by Wellspring was $2.75 without the indication of any range and was communicated in a comprehensive proposal for a transaction by letter dated March 18, 2010. The other firms that indicated an interest all made their proposals by reflecting a range of possible prices. In the course of the discussions and negotiations with Wellspring, its original indicated price of $2.35 had been increased to $2.75.

On March 22, 2010, the Board of Directors received a review and presentation of the sale process from Stephens, which included the information discussed above as to ranges of prices indicated by the possible financial buyers. Because certain members of the Company's management and Board of Directors had actual or potential conflicts of interest in evaluating a transaction with the Company since they might participate in such a transaction with a financial buyer, the Board of Directors determined on such date to establish a three-member Special Committee of the Board of Directors composed of independent directors who would not participate in any transaction with a financial buyer to represent the interest of the Company's shareholders in connection with any potential transaction or any related or alternative transaction. The Board of Directors appointed Richard C. White, Barry E. Kaufman, and Ronald E. Gerevas to serve on the Special Committee. The Special Committee was given exclusive authority to, among other things, evaluate, negotiate and recommend the terms of any proposed transaction and to reject on behalf of the Company any transaction that it could not favorably recommend to the Company's Board of Directors.

The members of the Special Committee were, and continue to be, independent, and are not officers or employees of the Company, are independent of and have no economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Wellspring or its affiliates, are independent of the other three directors of the Company who are participating in the Merger transaction with Wellspring and have no economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Parent or the surviving corporation. If the Merger is completed, all the members of the Special Committee will, along with other option holders, receive cash payments for in-the-money options that they hold. See Interests of Company Directors in the Merger beginning on page 54. Whether the Merger is completed or not, each of Mr. White and Mr. Kaufman, as co-chairmen of the Special Committee, will be paid $15,000 and Mr. Gerevas will be paid $12,000 for each month of service on the Special Committee until the effective time of the Merger and will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with service on the Special Committee.

On March 26, 2010, the Special Committee retained Kelly Hart & Hallman LLP of Houston, Texas, to be its independent counsel in connection with its mandate and activities. On such date the Special Committee also directly retained Stephens to report to it in connection with further activities, reserving its intended action of retaining another independent investment banking firm to advise it with respect to the fairness of any proposed transaction should the Special Committee determine to pursue such a transaction.

After its formation, the Special Committee met or held discussions with its advisors on numerous occasions from March through May, 2010 (including 11 formal meetings of the committee and numerous other discussions among committee members and advisors), either in person or by telephone conference, and received various presentations from Stephens and counsel with respect to matters being considered by it. Among other things, the items listed below were discussed with advisors during such time period in the formal meetings and informal discussions, the latter of which were sometimes held between less than all the Special Committee members and an advisor or advisors. There were no presentations financial or otherwise made by Stephens during such time period and prior to its June 2, 2010, presentation summarized in Role of Stephens at page 44, other than (i) to brief the Special Committee as such on the indications of interest that had been received by Stephens as to the sale process, as previously reported to the Board of Directors on March 22, 2010, (ii) to update the Special Committee on discussions with Wellspring representatives and to brief the Special Committee on the status of due diligence by Wellspring representatives, (iii) to summarize the go-shop process and identify the possible buyers to be contacted and (iv) to summarize energy industry market data and stock market data. All of the presentations by counsel during such period related to the role and duties of the Special Committee and to the status of draft documentation and timing of the overall process. All of the following items were not necessarily discussed on every occasion of discussion among advisors and Special Committee members.

Conditions and uncertainties in the oil and gas industry in the Gulf of Mexico and related waters and related coasts, including issues arising as a result of the April 20, 2010 Deepwater Horizon explosion and subsequent oil spill and the softness of demand for natural gas in relation to the supply thereof in the United States.

In connection with Wellspring's comprehensive proposal to the Company dated March 18, 2010, given the difficulty and expense involved in due diligence, the Company's negative earnings trend and industry volatility, Wellspring requested that the Company enter into a period of exclusive negotiation with it and advised the Company that it would terminate its proposal if it were not given an exclusive period to complete its due diligence and negotiate the terms of a transaction. The Special Committee, after its formation and with the advice of counsel and Stephens, considered the advantages and disadvantages of granting Wellspring a period of exclusive negotiation. The committee concluded that the proposal from Wellspring appeared to be the highest likely price of the prices indicated in the indications of interest from the eight private equity firms, that the Wellspring price had been negotiated up from $2.35 to $2.75 per share of common stock and that the proposal from Wellspring appeared to be the most thorough, complete and specific proposal that the Company had received and was not subject to financing. The Special Committee also concluded that Wellspring had conducted more due diligence than any of the other private equity firms that expressed an interest in the Company and that its indication of interest and price appeared to be well-informed and appeared to be more likely of consummation than the others. Finally, the Special Committee accepted Wellspring's statements that it would withdraw from further discussions if not granted exclusivity and concluded that there was a significant risk of loss of the most likely possible buyer then known if exclusivity were not granted. In those contexts, the Special Committee decided to grant Wellspring exclusivity, but insisted that, in return for the grant of exclusivity to continue due diligence and negotiations, should a transaction be entered into between the Company and Wellspring, the Company would be given an opportunity to actively search for a superior transaction, including the solicitation or resolicitation of possible financial buyers and the solicitation of possible strategic buyers, for a period of at least thirty business days a "go shop" period. On those terms, on April 2, 2010, the Company entered into an exclusivity agreement with Wellspring, which expired by its terms on May 14, 2010.

After entering into the exclusivity agreement, the Company provided access to Wellspring to all requested nonpublic information, including, among other things, by constructing a virtual data room by electronic means, which could be used in further solicitations of other possible buyers, and giving Wellspring access to such data room. Throughout April and May, 2010, Wellspring and its advisors and consultants conducted due diligence and on several occasions had discussions regarding due diligence with representatives of the Company and its advisors and consultants. During the same period, Wellspring had numerous discussions with its advisors and consultants regarding status of the due diligence process and potential transaction. On May 14, in light of the fact that the due diligence process had not been completed and other factors that had delayed the process, the Special Committee determined to extend the exclusivity period to Wellspring to May 28, 2010. In connection with the grants of exclusivity to Wellspring the Special Committee made no determination to enter into a transaction with Wellspring or otherwise conclude that the best interest of shareholders was to sell the Company. The effect of the exclusivity agreement was, however, to limit the ability of the Company to solicit other possible bidders until the expiration of the exclusivity agreement.

In April and May, 2010, the Special Committee determined to interview investment banking firms other than Stephens for possible engagement to render a fairness opinion to the Special Committee should the Special Committee determine to recommend any specific transaction with Wellspring as a result of its on-going discussions. The Special Committee interviewed four investment banking firms, and on May 18, 2010, determined to retain GulfStar to advise it with respect to the fairness of the consideration payable in a possible transaction with Wellspring to common shareholders of the Company other than the Rollover Participants should the Special Committee decide to proceed. GulfStar commenced its work thereafter and confirmed its engagement by a letter agreement dated May 26, 2010.

During April, May and the first few days of June 2010, counsel for the Special Committee negotiated and exchanged draft documents as to a possible transaction with counsel for Wellspring and regularly reported to the Special Committee on the progress of drafting documentation, including providing summaries thereof.

On June 2, 2010, the Special Committee met to consider the advisability of a transaction with Wellspring, with representatives of counsel, Stephens, GulfStar and members of management participating at various times during the course of such meeting. The Special Committee first received a report from representatives of GulfStar, including written materials dated June 2, 2010, that included among other information, financial information about the Company based on historical trading prices, multiples applied to historical and estimated future EBITDA, premiums paid in certain other transactions and estimates of future cash flows based on estimates provided by the Company's management. GulfStar also reviewed with the Special Committee the text of its fairness opinion. See Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor beginning on page 35. The Special Committee also received a report, including written materials dated June 2, 2010, from Stephens reviewing the proposal from Wellspring and comparing it to historical trading prices with respect to the Company common stock, multiples applied to historical and estimated future EBITDA, premiums paid in certain other transactions and other information. While Stephens presented analyses relevant to the possible Merger, it did not render a fairness opinion in such regard since it had not been engaged to do so. The Special Committee received further reports relating to commitment letters with respect to Wellspring's financing of the Merger. The Special Committee also received a report from Brian J. Recatto, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, with respect to future uncertainties as to the Company's operations and the reasons why management believed the Wellspring proposal was in the best interest of shareholders of the Company at the present time under present circumstances. In particular, Mr. Recatto focused on oil and gas industry conditions and the recent BP/Deepwater Horizon catastrophe in the Gulf of Mexico, which are having an adverse impact on the Company and its industry generally. He discussed the Company's financial circumstances, credit agreement issues and costs of remaining a public company. Referencing previous presentations to the Special Committee with respect to the proposed Merger Agreement and related documents, representatives of counsel summarized the terms of the proposed documentation with respect to the Merger. The Special Committee also received a report from counsel summarizing the terms of arrangements with the Rollover Participants with respect to their participation in the transaction with Wellspring, including arrangements to rollover shares of Company common stock and Series C Stock owned by such persons into Wellspring acquisition entities, thus giving them ongoing equity participation in the Company and its future operations.

After extensive discussion at the June 2, 2010, meeting, and with input from legal counsel, the Special Committee adopted resolutions supporting the transaction and recommending that the Board of Directors approve and declare advisable the Merger and the Merger Agreement and related documentation. In such discussions various members of the Special Committee made observations and asked follow-up questions about the reports that the Special Committee had received. Members discussed with each other and with the advisors the advisability of the transaction with the Wellspring Entities based on such reports and based on the members' individual assessments of the Company's situation and the advisability of the Merger in light of the personal perspectives of the individual members of the Special Committee.

Immediately following the Special Committee's meeting on June 2, the Board of Directors met. The Special Committee's financial and legal advisors were present as well as the Company's General Counsel and its regular outside legal counsel. The Special Committee informed the Board of Directors about its deliberations and the factors that it had considered in reaching its conclusions to recommend the Merger to the Board of Directors. The financial analyses received by the Special Committee with respect to the proposed transaction were summarized for the Board of Directors. Referencing previous summaries given to all the members of the Board of Directors, counsel reviewed with the directors the proposed documentation as to the Merger Agreement and related documents. A lengthy discussion ensued, and the Board of Directors concluded to adjourn its meeting and to take up further consideration on June 3, 2010.

The Board of Directors reconvened on June 3, 2010, and continued its consideration of the recommendations of the Special Committee. Specifically, the Board of Directors considered the Special Committee's conclusion that the merger consideration at $2.75 per share of Company common stock was fair to shareholders other than the Rollover Participants and provided an immediate cash return to shareholders at a premium over recent stock prices. The Board of Directors also considered the Special Committee's views that the immediate cash return to shareholders other than the Rollover Participants removed the significant uncertainties regarding the Company's operations in the foreseeable future and related share values. After such considerations, the Board of Directors adopted the conclusions of the Special Committee, and the factors considered by the Special Committee in arriving at such conclusions based on the Board of Directors' views as to the reasonableness of such conclusions and the factors considered by the Special Committee. The Board of Directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the related transactions, noting the potential conflict of interest of Messrs. Sciotto, Colson and Recatto, but being advised as to the necessity for the Board of Directors to approve the Merger before it was submitted to shareholders.

Developments After Execution of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement was executed and delivered on behalf of the Company on June 3, 2010. The Merger Agreement permits the Company to solicit alternative acquisition proposals until July 16, 2010. During the go-shop period, Stephens contacted 97 possible buyers (33 possible strategic buyers and 64 possible financial buyers). During the go-shop period two possible buyers—one strategic and one financial—executed confidentiality agreements and were given access to the same confidential information to which Wellspring and Parent were given access. Prior to the expiration of the go-shop period both such possible buyers advised that they would not make an acquisition proposal to the Company. No other possible buyers sought access to Company information, engaged in other discussions with the Company or made any proposal to the Company. After 12:00 a.m. on July 17, 2010, all go-shop activities ceased in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. See Summary Term Sheet Activities During the Go-Shop Period beginning on page 9 and The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Transactions beginning on page 77.

Fairness of the Merger; Recommendation of the Special Committee and the Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

The Special Committee of the Board of Directors unanimously determined that the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the merger consideration of $2.75 per share of Company common stock, and the proposed Merger are advisable, fair to, and in the best interests of the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. The Special Committee unanimously recommended to the Board of Directors that the Merger Agreement, including related documentation, and the Merger be approved. The Special Committee considered a number of factors, as more fully described above under Background of the Merger and as described below under Reasons for the Special Committee's Determination, in determining to make its recommendation. The Board of Directors, following the Special Committee's recommendation, also determined that the terms of the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger are advisable, fair to, and in the best interest of, the Company's unaffiliated shareholders and unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Messrs. Sciotto, Colson and Recatto noted with respect to their votes the existence and nature of their conflicts of interest. The Board of Directors also approved the submission of the Merger Agreement and the Merger to shareholders for approval by a vote of a majority of the voting power present at a shareholders meeting called to consider the Merger Agreement and the Merger, as provided by the Company's articles of incorporation and Louisiana law.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors recommends that the Company's shareholders, including its unaffiliated shareholders, vote FOR the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

Reasons for the Special Committee's Determination. The Special Committee consists solely of directors who are not officers or employees of the Company, who are independent of and have no economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in the Wellspring Entities, Parent or Acquisition, who are independent of the Rollover Participants and who do not have an economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Parent or the surviving corporation. The members of the Special Committee are Richard C. White, Barry E. Kaufman and Ronald E. Gerevas. If the Merger is completed Messrs. White, Kaufman and Gerevas will, along with other option holders, receive cash payments for in-the-money options that they hold. See Interests of Company Directors in the Merger beginning on page 54. Whether the Merger is completed or not, each of Messrs. White and Kaufman, as co-chairmen of the Special Committee, will be paid $15,000 and Mr. Gerevas will be paid $12,000 for each month of such member's service on the Special Committee, which service shall terminate upon the effective time of the Merger, and will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with service on the Special Committee.

(i) Substantive Fairness

In recommending the approval of the Merger Agreement, including related documents, and the Merger to the Board of Directors, the Special Committee considered a number of factors that it believes supported its conclusion that the Merger is fair to unaffiliated shareholders of the Company (i.e., shareholders other than the Rollover Participants) from the standpoint of the value of the consideration to be received by such shareholders, including:

A consideration of historic and recent market prices for Company common stock and the fact that the merger consideration of $2.75 per share, all in cash, represented a premium over the market price for Company common stock before the public announcement of the Merger Agreement, namely, approximately a 35 percent premium over the market closing price of $2.04 per share on June 2, 2010, approximately a 30 percent premium over the 90-day trading average price through June 2, 2010, and approximately a 30 percent premium over the 180-day trading average price through June 2, 2010;

The merger consideration of $2.75 in cash per share of common stock resulted from arm's-length negotiations, in the context of a wide-spread solicitation of interest and the existence of other possible bidders, between the Company's financial advisor Stephens and representatives of Wellspring, which negotiations increased Wellspring's initial indicated price from $2.35 to $2.75;

The going-concern valuation of the Company as a stand-alone entity based on the following metrics of value and assessment: (i) the public market trading price of Company Common Stock prior to the Special Committee's determination and, specifically, prior to the public announcement of the proposed Merger on June 4, 2010, (i.e., the market price unaffected by any expectation that the Company would be sold), (ii) an evaluation based on future discounted cash flow as projected by Company management and incorporated in the GulfStar analyses and (iii) the perceptions of Company prospects and circumstances by individual members of the Special Committee based on their personal knowledge of the Company and its circumstances developed over their years of service on the Company's Board of Directors; and

The financial analyses of GulfStar, including its opinion dated June 2, 2010, to the Special Committee as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the $2.75 per share merger consideration to be received by the unaffiliated holders of Company common stock, which analyses the Special Committee considered in their totality, rather than any single analysis or subgroup of analyses.

In its consideration of the fairness of the consideration to be received by unaffiliated shareholders of the Company, the Special Committee did not consider a possible liquidation of the Company as a factor because the nature of the Company's business a service business makes liquidation not feasible in the judgment of the Special Committee. The Company is essentially a service company and its tangible assets are incidental to that business. The value of the Company, in the opinion of the Special Committee, is clearly tied to its existence as an integrated going concern. Thus the Special Committee did not consider a possible liquidation value. Further, the Special Committee did not consider book value as a factor because the book value of Company common stock ($2.31 per share as of March 31, 2010) is less than $2.75 per share, and is, in any event, not, in the Committee's opinion, a reasonable measure of value of a service company like the Company.

Additionally, there were no purchases of Company common stock during the past two years by the Wellspring Entities and thus no such purchases were taken into account in considering the fairness of the Merger to unaffiliated shareholders of the Company. While each of the Rollover Participants purchased shares of Company common stock in the past two years, (i) a substantial portion of such shares were acquired pursuant to the exercise of fixed-price warrants issued more than two years prior to June 2, 2010, or pursuant to employee stock plans and/or (ii) were otherwise purchased under economic circumstances existing at the time that were different than those affecting the Company at present. Accordingly, the Special Committee did not consider any prior purchase prices paid by any such persons in considering whether the merger consideration constitutes fair value for the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company. Finally, during the past two years there have been no firm offers as to the Company for a merger, for a sale of all or any substantial part of its assets or to purchase shares of Company common stock that would enable a purchaser to exercise control of the Company, and, accordingly, no such offer was considered by the Special Committee.

The Special Committee also determined that the Merger is procedurally fair because, among other things:

The Company's Board of Directors established a Special Committee of independent directors to consider and negotiate the Merger Agreement, and the Special Committee retained its own independent counsel and, in addition to its continuation of the retention of a financial advisor (Stephens) which had been previously retained by the Board of Directors and which assisted the Special Committee in analyzing the Merger, it retained its own new independent financial advisor (GulfStar) to advise it with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the $2.75 per share merger consideration payable to the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company and received the fairness opinion of GulfStar;

The Special Committee, which consists solely of directors who are not officers or employees of the Company, who are independent of and who have no economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in the Wellspring Entities, Parent or Acquisition who are independent of the Rollover Participants and who have no economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Parent or the surviving corporation, was given exclusive authority to, among other things, evaluate, negotiate and recommend the terms of any proposed transaction and to reject on behalf of the Company any transaction that it could not favorably recommend to the Company's Board of Directors. If the Merger is completed, all three members of the Special Committee will, along with other option holders, receive cash payments for in-the-money options that they hold. See Interests of Company Directors in the Merger beginning on page 54. Whether the Merger is completed or not, each member of the Special Committee will be paid a monthly fee for each month of such member's service on the Special Committee until the effective time of the Merger and will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with service on the Special Committee;

The $2.75 per share merger consideration and other terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement resulted from arm's-length bargaining between the Board of Directors and Special Committee's financial advisors and Wellspring;

The transaction must be approved by the holders of a majority of the total voting power of the stock of the Company present and voting at a meeting of shareholders to be held to consider the Merger, and at which a quorum of a total of a majority of all voting power must be present, notwithstanding the fact that Wellspring has obtained the written agreements of the Rollover Participants to vote in favor of the Merger the approximate aggregate 24.9 percent voting power of Company common stock that they control;

The terms of the Merger Agreement, including the price, the ability to solicit other possible buyers (both strategic and financial) until July 16, 2010, and the ability to consider unsolicited offers thereafter, the requirement that the transaction be approved by the shareholders of the Company, and the amount of the termination fee and expenses provided for in the Merger Agreement should the Company pursue a proposal superior to Wellspring's, which fee and expenses the Special Committee believes should not unduly discourage a third party from offering a proposal that is more favorable than the Merger;

The fact that the Merger Agreement permits the Company not only to solicit alternative acquisition proposals until July 16, 2010, but also that after such period it may provide information to, and participate in negotiations with, parties who have submitted unsolicited written indications of interest or acquisition proposals in the circumstances described in the Merger Agreement;

The Company's and the Special Committee's intention, in fact, to solicit alternative transactions until July 16, 2010;

In the press release announcing the transaction on June 4, 2010, the Company publicly announced its ability to consider higher competing bids and that it would be soliciting other prospective purchasers until July 16, 2010;

Subject to certain conditions, including the payment of a termination fee under certain circumstances, the terms of the Merger Agreement allow the Company's Board of Directors to exercise its fiduciary duties to consider potential alternative transactions, particularly if it reasonably believes that an acquisition proposal it receives after the date of the Merger Agreement could result in a superior proposal;

The ability to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior acquisition proposal;

The Special Committee believed, based on financial and legal advice, that, in the event of the termination of the Merger agreement by the Company, the termination fee payable of $1,795,991 (approximately 2.5 percent of the equity value and 1.5 percent of the enterprise value of the transaction), coupled with the obligation under certain circumstances to reimburse Wellspring for its expenses up to a maximum of $750,000, was reasonable and would not necessarily deter another potential purchaser from considering a transaction with the Company at a price higher than $2.75 per share; and

The availability of dissenters' rights under Louisiana law for shareholders of the Company who believe that the terms of the Merger are unfair unless the Merger is approved by eighty percent or more of the total voting power of the stock of the Company which rights are described under "Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 67. and in Appendix F.

While it was briefly considered in early discussions, the Special Committee did not negotiate to structure the Merger so that approval of at least a majority of unaffiliated shareholders was required in order for the Merger to be consummated. The shareholder vote required to approve the transaction is an affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power of shares of the Company present or represented at the Special Meeting, but a quorum, consisting of a majority of the total voting power of all shares entitled to vote, must be present or represented at the Special Meeting in order for the Special Meeting to be duly held. Accordingly, even though the Rollover Participants have agreed to vote in favor of the Merger and collectively hold shares entitled to 24.9 percent of the aggregate voting rights, more than an additional 25.1 percent of the aggregate voting rights of all shares having voting rights must be present for a quorum to be present. The Company expects that the quorum requirement will be easily met and thus, the Merger will, in effect, necessarily be approved by a majority of unaffiliated shareholders if it is approved at all, assuming that most shares present or represented at the meeting will be voted for or against approval of the Merger. Based on historical shareholder turnout at shareholder meetings held by the Company, the Special Committee expects shareholder turnout for the Special Meeting to well exceed minimum quorum requirements, thus in effect assuring that the Merger will be approved by a majority of unaffiliated shareholders if it is approved at all. Accordingly, the Special Committee did not believe, under all the circumstances and factors considered, that its conclusion as to the procedural fairness of the Merger to unaffiliated shareholders of the Company required it to obtain a separate vote for approval of the Merger by a majority of unaffiliated shareholders.

(iii) Other Factors

In addition to the foregoing factors considered by the Special Committee as to the fairness of the consideration to be received by unaffiliated shareholders of the Company pursuant to the Merger and as to the procedural fairness of the Merger, the Special Committee also considered the following other factors in making its recommendation as to the Merger:

The ability of the Company's shareholders to recognize an immediate cash value through the proceeds of the Merger versus continued risk of being shareholders in a stand-alone company, including uncertainties regarding the oil and gas related industries, prices for oil and, particularly, natural gas, the possible material adverse impact on offshore and coastal oil and gas exploration and production activities and more general oil and gas exploration and production activities as a result of recent drilling accidents and spills in the Gulf of Mexico and accidents elsewhere, the unpredictability of future interest rates and stock market valuations, the uncertainty of achieving management's projections and the serious financial constraints and lender restrictions under which the Company is operating that put pressure on the ability of the Company to operate as a going concern;

Its familiarity with the Company's recent and current financial performance, and its operational uncertainties due to the state of the U.S. economy, world financial market concerns, difficulties being faced by companies engaged in providing services and equipment to the oil and gas industry, particularly in the Gulf of Mexico and related coastal waters, and in the oil and gas and oil and gas related industries generally and the effects of such factors on the potential price of the Company common stock;

The review of the possible alternative to the sale of the Company of maintaining the status quo under the Company's current operating and financial circumstances in the current economic conditions for the Company's industry and the absence of other alternatives to maximize value for shareholders for the foreseeable future;

The fact that, as a public company, the market price of the Company common stock, and thus the Company's shareholders, would be susceptible to adverse effects of earnings fluctuations because of continued uncertainties in the oil and gas industry and related industries for the foreseeable future;

The financial analyses and advice provided to the Special Committee by Stephens, which did not render a fairness opinion, but which analyses the Special Committee considered in their totality, rather than any single analysis or subgroup of analyses;

The fact that the Merger is not conditioned upon Wellspring's obtaining financing and the review of the financing commitments received by Wellspring with respect to the Merger, including the conditions thereto, which considerations contributed to the likelihood of consummation of the Merger;

The fact that the Company has been constrained as to capital in recent periods due to its inability to obtain more favorable financing and its inability to generate internally cash flow adequate to keep its capital expenditures and maintenance at desired levels;

The fact that (i) the Company has very tight financial covenants under its existing credit lines and that it has in the past been in violation of those covenants and that it expects, in the near future, to again be in violation of those covenants, which will require the Company for the foreseeable future and from time to time to obtain waivers from its principal lender in order to avoid adverse lender actions and (ii) the Company has no assurance that it will in the future be able to obtain necessary lender waivers;

explosion aboard the semi-submersible drilling rig Deepwater Horizon owned by Transocean Ltd. and under contract to a subsidiary of BP plc, and subsequent oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico forty miles offshore of the coast of Louisiana, which occurred on April 20, 2010;

The likelihood that possible federally imposed drilling moratoriums and possible federal and state regulation may, as a result of the BP/Deepwater Horizon oil spill and other safety and environmental issues, materially adversely affect exploration and production operations of oil and gas companies, and thus the Company's oil and gas service and equipment provision activities, in the Gulf of Mexico and related coastal waters and elsewhere; and

The expense to the Company of maintaining its public status, including accounting fees, SEC reporting obligations, outside director fees, printing and mailing costs and transfer agent fees, particularly when compared to the absence of normal benefits of being a public company, such as access to public capital markets which is not now available to the Company.

(iv) Risks and Negative Factors

The Special Committee also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors concerning the Merger, including, among other things:

That, in the event that the Company is in full compliance with its obligations under the Merger Agreement, its remedies against Parent and Wellspring (under the Merger Agreement and the Limited Guaranty) are limited to collection of liquidated damages in the amount of $4,310,378 (if Wellspring does not close the transaction because it does not obtain its financing) and $7,183,964 (if Wellspring breaches its obligations to close the transactions for any other reason after having financing available to it);

The specific wording of language in the Merger Agreement as to material adverse effects on the Company's business that could permit Parent not to close the transaction as discussed in The Merger Agreement Conditions to Consummation of the Merger beginning at page 83;

The right of Wellspring to terminate the transaction and collect its expenses up to a maximum of $750,000 if the Company is not able, within 120 days from signing, to obtain a satisfactory restatement of its historical financial statements relating to the Company's historic accounting for certain acquisitions that it made over the five-year period ended December 31, 2009;

That the obligation of Parent to complete the Merger is conditioned upon the total number of dissenting shares not exceeding ten percent of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company common stock;

That if the Merger is not consummated under circumstances further discussed in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 85, the Company may be required to pay Wellspring a termination fee and expenses up to $750,000;

The terms of the participation of the Rollover Participants in the Merger and the fact that such directors had interests in the transactions that are different from the other shareholders of the Company, as discussed in Interests of Company Directors in the Merger beginning at page 54, and Interests of Certain Company Directors in Parent and its Affiliates following the Merger beginning at page 55;

That following the Merger, the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company will cease to participate in future earnings growth, if any, of the Company or benefit in an increase in the value, if any, of the Company;

Edgar Filing: OMNI ENERGY SERVICES CORP - Form PRER14A

That the shareholders of the Company, upon consummation of the Merger, will be required to surrender their shares involuntarily in exchange for a cash price that was determined by the Special Committee and Board of Directors and that shareholders will not have the right thereafter to liquidate their shares at a time and for a price of their choosing; and

---

That the transaction is taxable and that all shareholders of the Company may face taxation on the proceeds of the transaction and will forego the deferral of taxation on their shares, as discussed in Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences beginning at page 59. The foregoing addresses material factors considered by the Special Committee in its consideration of the Merger. After considering these factors, the Special Committee concluded that the positive factors relating to the Merger outweigh the negative factors. Because of the variety of factors considered, the Special Committee did not find it practicable to quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to, and did not make specific assessments of, specific factors considered in reaching its determination. In addition, individual members of the Special Committee may have assigned different weights to various factors. The determination of the Special Committee was made after consideration of all the factors together.

Reasons for the Board of Directors Determination. The Board of Directors of the Company consists of six directors, three of whom serve on the Special Committee. Three members of the Board of Directors, Messrs. Sciotto, Colson and Recatto, had potential conflicts of interest with respect to the Merger because as the Rollover Participants they are participating in equity ownership in the Company after the Merger. Further, Messrs. Sciotto and Recatto will continue to serve as directors of Parent, and Mr. Recatto will continue to serve as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the surviving corporation following the Merger.

In reporting to the Board of Directors of the Company regarding its determination and recommendation, the Special Committee, with legal and financial advisors participating, advised the other members of the Board of Directors of the course of the transaction and negotiations with Wellspring and its legal counsel, its review of the Merger Agreement, the financing commitments of Wellspring and the lack of a financing condition to the transaction and other factors it took into account in reaching its determination that the terms of the Merger Agreement and the Merger are advisable, fair to, and the best interests of, the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. As part of its determination with respect to the Merger set forth below, the Board of Directors expressly adopted the analyses and conclusions of the Special Committee, and the factors considered by the Special Committee in arriving at such conclusions as disclosed above under Reasons for the Special Committee's Determination, based upon the Board of Directors' view as to the reasonableness of such conclusions and such factors considered by the Special Committee. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in its evaluation of the proposed Merger, the Board of Directors did not find it practicable to quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to, and did not make specific assignments of, the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. Rather, the Board of Directors based its position on the totality of the information presented and considered.

(i) Substantive Fairness

The Board of Directors believes that the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger are advisable, fair to, and in the best interests of, the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. In reaching these conclusions, the Board of Directors considered it significant that:

The merger consideration of $2.75 per share of Company common stock represented a premium over the market price of the Company common stock before the public announcement of the Merger Agreement, namely, approximately a 30 percent premium over the market closing price of $2.12 on June 3, 2010, approximately a 30 percent premium over the 90-day trading average closing price through June 3, 2010, and approximately a 30 percent premium over the 180-day trading average closing price through June 3, 2010;

The merger consideration of $2.75 in cash per share of Company common stock resulted from arm's-length negotiations in the context of a widespread solicitation of interest of possible financial buyers and the existence of other possible bidders between the Board of Directors' financial advisor, Stephens, and representatives of Wellspring, which negotiations increased Wellspring's initial indicated price from $2.35 to $2.75;

(ii) Procedural Fairness

The Board also determined that the Merger is procedurally fair because, among other things:

Prior to receiving Wellspring's final proposal of $2.75 per share, Stephens had contacted forty-nine private equity firms to solicit their interest in a possible transaction and had received indications of interest from eight of those private equity firms;

The Wellspring proposal was considered the best proposal received considering its firm price, as opposed to a price range, its comprehensiveness and Wellspring's due diligence activities and expressed assurances as to probability of consummation;

The Special Committee consists solely of directors who are not officers or employees of the Company, who are independent of and have no economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Wellspring or its affiliates, who are independent of the Rollover Participants and who do not have any economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Parent or the surviving corporation;

The Special Committee had the authority to reject the transaction proposed by Wellspring;

None of the directors who have conflicts of interest with respect to the transaction participated in the deliberative process of, or the conclusions reached by, the Special Committee;

The Special Committee had obtained an opinion from its own independent financial advisor as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the $2.75 per share merger consideration to be received by unaffiliated holders of Company common stock, as described more fully below under "Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor";

The Merger Agreement permitted the Company to solicit alternative acquisition proposals until July 16, 2010, and the Special Committee intended to do so, and the Merger Agreement permitted the Company to provide information and participate in negotiations after such period with respect to unsolicited acquisition proposals in the circumstances described in the Merger Agreement and, in either such case to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior acquisition proposal;

The press release announcing the transaction disclosed the solicitation process and the ability to respond to other proposals;

The Special Committee believed, based on financial and legal advice, that the termination fee of $1,795,991 (or approximately 2.5 percent of the equity value and 1.5 percent of the enterprise value of the transaction) was reasonable, even considering the requirement that the Company would also be required to reimburse certain expenses incurred by Wellspring and its affiliates in connection with the transaction up to a maximum amount of $750,000, and would not necessarily preclude another potential purchaser from considering a transaction with the Company at a higher price;

The requirement that the transaction be approved by holders of a majority of the total voting power of the Company's stock present or represented at a shareholders meeting to be held to consider the transaction; and

Under Louisiana law, the shareholders of the Company have the right, subject to certain procedural requirements, to dissent from the Merger and receive payment of the fair cash value of their shares if the Merger is effected upon approval by less than eighty percent of the total voting power of the Company.

The Board of Directors of the Company also considered the interests certain directors and executive officer in the Company may have with respect to the Merger in addition to their interests as shareholders generally, as described below in Interest of Company Directors in the Merger , Interests of Certain Company Directors in Parent and its Affiliates following the Merger , and Interest of Company Executive Officers in the Merger .

Table of Contents

Other than as described in this proxy statement, the Board is not aware of any firm offers by any other person during the prior two years for a merger or consolidation of the Company with another company, the sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or a purchase of the Company's securities that would enable such person to exercise control of the Company.

Special Committee Fees. The Board of Directors determined that each of Mr. White and Mr. Kaufman, as co-chairmen of the Special Committee, would be paid $15,000 and Mr. Gerevas will be paid $12,000 for each month of such member's service on the Special Committee until the effective time of the Merger, regardless of whether any proposed transaction was entered into or completed. The members of the Special Committee are also to be reimbursed for their out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their service on the Special Committee.

Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor

GulfStar rendered its oral opinion to the Special Committee on June 2, 2010, which opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of GulfStar's written opinion on the same date, to the effect that, as of June 2, 2010, the $2.75 per share merger consideration to be paid in cash to the unaffiliated common shareholders in the proposed Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such shareholders.

The full text of the written opinion of GulfStar, dated June 2, 2010, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix C. The description of GulfStar's opinion set forth in this proxy statement is a summary of the material aspects of the full text of the GulfStar opinion set forth as Appendix C. We encourage you to read GulfStar's opinion and this section carefully in their entirety.

GulfStar's opinion was provided solely for the information and assistance of the Special Committee in their consideration of the Merger and the Merger Agreement and is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to the Special Committee, the Board of Directors, any security holder of the Company or any other person as to how to act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Merger or the Merger Agreement. In rendering its opinion, GulfStar was not authorized to, and did not, solicit indications of interest from third parties regarding a potential Merger, combination or any other transaction with the Company, nor was it involved in the negotiation or any other aspect of the Merger.

In connection with rendering the opinion described above and performing its related financial analyses, GulfStar, among other things:

Conducted such other financial studies, analyses and inquiries and considered such other information and factors as we deemed appropriate.

With the consent and permission of the Special Committee, GulfStar assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the information and data furnished to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with GulfStar in developing its opinion, including, without limitation, the financial statements of OMNI, OMNI Management Projections, financial information from various financial databases generally relied upon in the investment banking industry and publicly available information. With respect to OMNI Management Projections, it is noted that these projections were assumed to be reasonably prepared, reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the management of the Company as to the future financial results and the conditions of the Company at the time such information was provided to GulfStar. GulfStar assumed no responsibility for and expresses no view as to such projections or the assumptions on which they were based. GulfStar did not conduct any physical inspection, independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets, properties or liabilities (fixed, contingent, derivative, off-balance-sheet or otherwise) of the Company or any other party, and GulfStar was not furnished with any such valuation or appraisal.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, GulfStar understands that as of the date of its opinion the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, with the assistance of management, was conducting an internal review related to the Company's accounting for subordinated promissory notes in connection with certain acquisitions which occurred in prior periods. Until the completion of the review, it is unknown whether or not any changes in accounting treatment will be required. Therefore, GulfStar, with the consent of the Special Committee, did not include any potential change related to this accounting issue in its analyses with respect to its opinion.

In rendering the opinion, GulfStar assumed, with the consent of the Special Committee, that the Merger will be consummated on the terms described in the Merger Agreement, without any waiver or modification of any material terms or conditions that would be meaningful to its analyses. GulfStar also assumed, with the consent of the Special Committee, that obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals and consents for the Merger will not have an adverse effect on the Company or on its analyses in any meaningful way.

GulfStar's opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions, and the information available to GulfStar, as of the date of its opinion. GulfStar has no obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm its opinion. GulfStar did not express any opinion as to the price at which shares of Common Stock may trade at any time subsequent to the announcement of the Merger.

In addition, GulfStar's opinion does not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things:

the underlying business decision of the Special Committee, the Board of Directors, the Company, its security holders or any other party to proceed with or effect the Merger;

the terms of any arrangements, understandings, agreements or documents related to, or the form, structure or any other portion or aspect of, the Merger or otherwise (other than the merger consideration to the extent expressly specified in its opinion);

the fairness of any portion or aspect of the Merger to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company, or to any other party, except as expressly set forth in the penultimate paragraph of its opinion;

the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for the Company or any other party or the effect of any other transaction in which the Company or any other party might engage; whether or not the Company, its security holders or any other party is receiving or paying reasonably equivalent value in the Merger;

the solvency, creditworthiness or fair value of the Company or any other participant in the Merger, or any of their respective assets, under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance or similar matters; and the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to or consideration payable to or received by any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Merger, any class of such persons or any other party, relative to the merger consideration or otherwise.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses delivered by GulfStar to the Special Committee in connection with rendering the opinion described above. This summary of GulfStar's analyses and reviews provided below does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses and reviews underlying GulfStar's opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth in this proxy statement, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying GulfStar's opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, GulfStar considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, GulfStar made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses.

No company or transaction used in GulfStar's analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to the Company or the Merger, and an evaluation of the results of these analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses and reviews involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of companies, businesses or transactions analyzed. The estimates contained in GulfStar's analyses and reviews and the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis or review are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by GulfStar's analyses and reviews. In addition, analyses relating to values of companies, businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which companies, businesses or securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, GulfStar's analyses and reviews are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

The summary of the analyses and reviews provided below includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand GulfStar's analyses and reviews, the tables must be read with the full text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of GulfStar's analyses and reviews. Considering the data in the tables without considering the full narrative description of the analyses and reviews, including the methodologies and assumptions, underlying the analyses and reviews, could create a misleading or incomplete view of GulfStar's analyses and reviews.

For purposes of its analyses, GulfStar reviewed a number of financial metrics including:

Equity Value Generally the value as of a specified date of the relevant company's fully diluted shares outstanding multiplied by the market price of its common stock on a specified date.

GulfStar calculated the equity value of the Company to be $72.4 million based on the merger consideration of $2.75.

Enterprise Value Generally the value as of a specified date of the relevant company's equity value plus book value of preferred stock, minority interest, and net debt which is defined as the value of its outstanding indebtedness and capital lease obligations less the amount of cash on its balance sheet.

EBITDA Generally the amount of the relevant company's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization for a specified time period adjusted for expenses associated with stock-based compensation and certain non-recurring and pro forma items.

The Company's trailing twelve month ( TTM ) EBITDA was calculated to be $15.8 million for the TTM period ending March 31, 2010, based on financial information provided by Company management for the quarter ending March 31, 2010, and the Company's Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2009.

Equity values used in the comparable companies analysis were calculated using the closing price of the common stock of the selected companies listed above as of May 28, 2010, multiplied by their fully diluted shares outstanding. The enterprise values used in the comparable companies analysis were calculated using their respective equity values plus the most recent publicly available balance sheet information. TTM EBITDA for the selected companies analysis was calculated for the TTM period ending March 31, 2010, and was based on publicly-filed SEC reporting documents. Estimates of EBITDA for the selected companies listed above for the calendar year ending December 31, 2010 and 2011 were based on average analyst estimates compiled by Capital IQ or Thomson Reuters as of May 28, 2010.

For the Company, GulfStar applied a range of subjectively selected multiples derived from the selected companies enterprise values to TTM and estimated 2010 and 2011 EBITDA to the corresponding financial data of the Company in order to derive implied per share equity value reference ranges for Company Common Stock. GulfStar selected enterprise value multiple ranges of 6.5x to 8.0x TTM EBITDA, 5.5x to 7.5x management's 2010E EBITDA, and 4.5x to 5.5x management's 2011E EBITDA.

No company utilized in the comparable companies analysis is identical to the Company. Accordingly, an evaluation of the results of this analysis is not entirely mathematical. Rather, this analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the enterprise values, calculated as described above or other values of the companies to which the Company was compared. These qualitative judgments related primarily to the differing sizes, growth prospects, profitability levels and degrees of operational risk between the Company and the selected companies included in the comparable companies analysis.

GulfStar calculated multiples of enterprise value to TTM EBITDA and certain other financial data based on the purchase prices paid in selected publicly-announced transactions described below.

In selecting the transactions used in its analysis, GulfStar searched selected databases and public filings for precedent transactions. As a result, a transaction involving the acquisition of a significantly larger or smaller company with substantially similar lines of businesses and business focus may have been included while a transaction involving the acquisition of a similarly sized company with less similar lines of business and greater diversification may have been excluded. GulfStar identified a sufficient number of transactions for purposes of its analysis, but may not have included all transactions that might be deemed comparable to the Merger. Rather, this analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the enterprise values, calculated as described above or other values of the transaction to which the Merger was compared. These qualitative judgments related primarily to the differing sizes, growth prospects, profitability levels and degrees of operational risk between the Company and the target companies included in the precedent transactions analysis.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

GulfStar performed a discounted cash flow analysis of the Company using OMNI Management Projections for the period beginning on June 1, 2010 to the calendar year ending December 31, 2015. GulfStar calculated a range of implied present values as of June 1, 2010 of unlevered, after-tax, cash flows that OMNI was forecasted to generate during the aforementioned period using discount rates ranging from 17.0% to 19.0% based on the Company's weighted average cost of capital calculated using the Capital Asset Pricing Model. Transactions where there was no premium paid to the target's stock price on the last trading day prior to announcement were excluded. The selected transactions used in GulfStar's analysis were:

Other Matters

GulfStar was engaged to act as financial advisor to the Special Committee for the purpose of rendering a fairness opinion to the Special Committee in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement. Under the terms of GulfStar's engagement, it received an aggregate fee of $325,000 for its services, $50,000 of which was payable on execution of GulfStar's engagement letter with the remaining $275,000 payable on delivery of its opinion to the Special Committee. This fee was not contingent upon the successful completion of the Merger. The Company has also agreed to reimburse GulfStar for its expenses and to indemnify it and certain related parties for certain potential liabilities arising out of its engagement. GulfStar's opinion was approved and authorized by a fairness review committee of GulfStar.

The Special Committee selected GulfStar based upon GulfStar's experience and reputation in rendering financial opinions, its knowledge of the Company's industry, and its independence from both the management of the Company and the financial sponsor of the proposed Merger. GulfStar has issued multiple fairness opinions to public and private companies regarding mergers, acquisitions and equity investments and has extensive transaction experience and expertise in the oilfield service industry. GulfStar has not had any material relationship with the Company, its management or Wellspring or their respective affiliated entities over the past two years.

Role of Stephens

Stephens was not engaged by the Special Committee to, and did not, render any opinion as to the fairness of the Merger to unaffiliated shareholders of the Company or otherwise offer any conclusion to the Special Committee as to the Merger. Stephens was not engaged to render any opinion as to fairness because it had been retained by the Board of Directors, and not by the Special Committee, prior to the formation of the Special Committee to advise the Board of Directors as to as possible recapitalization and, subsequently, as to a possible sale of the Company in a transaction that might possibly involve participation by certain directors and officers of the Company. Stephens made a report to the Board of Directors on March 22, 2010, with a written presentation entitled "Process Overview" dated that date that addressed the following matters:

Market price and trading volume historic information as to Company common stock.

Index price performance for Company common stock compared to the S&P 500 and other oil and gas service industry companies.

Market trading data on other oil and gas service industry companies.

Information, including comparisons, as to the eight indications of interest received in the sales process conducted by Stephens, including the Wellspring proposal, and information about the eight private equity firms giving such indications of interest.

Valuation sensitivity calculations based on possible prices at which the Company might be sold.

Edgar Filing: OMNI ENERGY SERVICES CORP - Form PRER14A

A list naming the 49 private equity firms contacted by Stephens in the sale process.

Stephens made no recommendation, and gave no opinion as to fairness or otherwise, to the Board of Directors with respect to any possible transaction. After its formation on March 22, 2010, the Special Committee, however, determined to engage its own independent investment banking firm to advise it on the fairness of the Merger to unaffiliated shareholders of the Company. Stephens made no findings or recommendation as to the Merger to the Special Committee. Since, however, in the course of advising the Company and the Board of Directors in seeking financing or a possible buyer for the Company, Stephens had studied the Company in relation to possible transactions, the Special Committee asked Stephens to give it the benefit of its analysis by giving it a written summary thereof that the Special Committee might consider as one information source as it considered, and sought to inform itself as to, a possible transaction. Such information was reasonably available to the Special Committee from Stephens without additional fee or expense or delay and, therefore, the Special Committee believed it was appropriate to request such information to provide whatever assistance it might provide in the Special Committee's consideration of the Merger. In these regards, Stephens provided a written report for the Special Committee dated June 2, 2010, which contained the following information that was considered, among other things, by the Special Committee in reaching its conclusions as to the Merger:

A summary of key transaction terms of the Merger;

A summary of the sources and uses of funds in connection with the Merger and the estimated ownership of the Company following the Merger, which ownership information indicated that Wellspring would own 84.6 percent of the Company and the Rollover Participants would own 15.4 percent of the Company following the Merger;

Position of the Directors Participating in the Merger With Wellspring as to the Fairness of the Merger

Under the rules of the SEC, Messrs. Sciotto, Colson and Recatto as the Rollover Participants are required to express their belief as to the fairness of the proposed Merger to the Company's shareholders who are unaffiliated with such persons. Each Rollover Participant believes that the Merger is both procedurally and substantively fair to such unaffiliated shareholders based on their consideration of the following factors:

the fact that the merger consideration of $2.75 per share represented a premium over the market price of the Company common stock before the public announcement of the Merger Agreement, namely, approximately a 30 percent premium over the market closing price of $2.12 per share on June 3, 2010, approximately a 30 percent premium over the 90-day trading average closing price through June 3, 2010, and approximately a 30 percent premium over the 180-day trading average closing price through June 3, 2010;

the fact that the merger consideration of $2.75 in cash per share of common stock resulted from arm's-length negotiations, in the context of a wide-spread solicitation of indications of interest, between representatives of the Company and Wellspring;

the fact that the $2.75 per share consideration represents an amount in excess of the book value per share as of March 31, 2010, which was $2.31;

the fact that the Merger and the Merger Agreement were approved by all of the independent directors of the Company;

the fact that the Company has been constrained as to capital in recent periods and problems as to its existing credit lines as a result of difficulties with its operations under current conditions, including covenant compliance issues and limited borrowing capability;

the fact that the merger consideration is all cash, thus eliminating any uncertainties in valuing the consideration to be received by the shareholders of the Company;

the fact that the Merger Agreement permitted the Company to solicit alternative acquisition proposals until July 16, 2010, and the Company (through the Special Committee) intended to do so, and the Merger Agreement permits the Company to provide information and participate in negotiations after such period with respect to unsolicited acquisition proposals in the circumstances described in the Merger Agreement and, in either such case, to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior acquisition proposal;

the fact that the press release announcing the transaction disclosed the active solicitation process and the ability to respond to proposals;

the fact that the Rollover Participants believe that the termination fee of $1,795,991 (or approximately 2.5 percent of the equity value and 1.5 percent of the enterprise value of the transaction), coupled with the requirement that the Company reimburse certain expenses incurred by Wellspring and its affiliates in connection with the transaction up to a maximum amount of $750,000, is reasonable and would not necessarily preclude another potential purchaser from considering a transaction with the Company at a higher price;

the fact that the Special Committee determined and recommended to the Board of Directors that the Merger is fair to and in the best interests of the Company's unaffiliated shareholders;

the fact that the Special Committee consists solely of directors who are not officers or employees of the Company, who are independent of and have no economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Wellspring or its affiliates, who are independent from the Rollover Participants and who do not have any economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Parent or the surviving corporation;

the fact that the Special Committee had the authority to reject the transaction proposed by Wellspring and thus the Rollover Participants participation therein;

---

the fact that neither Wellspring nor the Rollover Participants participated in the deliberative process of, or the conclusions reached by, the Special Committee;

the fact that the Special Committee received an opinion from its own independent financial advisor as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the $2.75 per share merger consideration to be received by unaffiliated holders of the Company common stock notwithstanding that the opinion obtained by the Special Committee from its financial advisor was provided solely for its benefit and that the Rollover Participants were not permitted to, and therefore did not, rely on such opinion;

the requirement that the transaction be approved by holders of a majority of the total voting power of the Company present or represented at the meeting of shareholders to be held to consider the Merger even though the Rollover Participants have agreed to vote their shares (having approximately 24.9 percent of the voting power of the Company's shareholders) in favor of the Merger; and the fact that under Louisiana law, the shareholders of the Company have the right to dissent to the Merger and receive payment of the fair value of their shares if the Merger is effected upon approval by less than eighty percent of the total voting power of the Company.

The Rollover Participants believe that the merger is fair to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders based on the factors described above. However, the Rollover Participants have not performed, or engaged a financial advisor to perform, any valuation or other analysis to assess the fairness of the Merger to the Company's unaffiliated stockholders. In making its determination that the Merger is fair to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders, the Rollover Participants considered the same substantive, procedural and other factors, and risks and negative factors considered by the Special Committee and expressly adopted the analysis and discussion of such factors and conclusions reached by the Special Committee in making its determination to recommend the Merger Agreement. See Special Factors Fairness of the Merger; Recommendation of the Special Committee and the Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger Reasons for the Special Committee's Determination beginning on page 27.

The Rollover Participants believe that the Merger is fair despite the fact that the Company's Board of Directors did not retain an unaffiliated representative, other than the Special Committee, to act solely on behalf of the Company's unaffiliated shareholders for purposes of negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement. In this regard, the Rollover Participants note that the use of a Special Committee is a mechanism recognized to ensure the fairness of certain transactions. The Rollover Participants considered that the members of the Special Committee are all independent directors as defined by The NASDAQ Global Market and are not participating in the merger transaction in any way adverse to the Company or the Company's public shareholders. The Rollover Participants also believe that the Merger is fair despite the fact that each Rollover Participant, in their capacity as members of the Board of the Directors of the Company (in the case of Mr. Sciotto, as Chairman of the Board of Directors), participated in the deliberation of the Company's Board of Directors on June 2 and June 3, 2010, where the Board of Directors approved the Merger Agreement. In this regard, the Rollover Participants note that all of the other members of the Company's Board of Directors who voted on the transaction approved the Merger.

In their consideration of the fairness of the Merger, the Rollover Participants did not find it practicable to, and did not, appraise the assets of the Company to determine the liquidation value for the Company unaffiliated stockholders. The Rollover Participants did not seek to establish a pre-merger going concern value for the Company common stock to determine the fairness of the merger consideration to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. The Rollover Participants do not believe there is a single method of determining going concern value and, therefore, did not base its valuation of the Company on a concept that is subject to various interpretations. The Rollover Participants believe that the other factors considered by the Rollover Participants in reaching their decision as to the fairness of the Merger to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders provide a proper basis for supporting their determination and that attempting to establish a going concern value would not have materially impacted the Rollover Participants' determination.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered and given weight by the Rollover Participants in connection with their evaluation of the fairness to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders of the Merger Agreement is not intended to be exhaustive but is believed to include all material factors considered. The Rollover Participants found it impracticable to assign, nor did they assign, relative weight to the individual factors considered in reaching their conclusions as to fairness. The Management Affiliate Group believes that the factors it considered provide a reasonable basis for its belief that the Merger is fair to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. The Rollover Participants' views as to the fairness of the Merger to the unaffiliated shareholders should not be construed as a recommendation to any shareholder as to whether such shareholder should vote in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

The Rollover Participants determined to engage in the transaction at this time because they believe that this transaction provides the best opportunity for the Company and its unaffiliated shareholders from both a financial and strategic perspective. With respect to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders, they will be able to immediately realize the value of their investment in the Company at a price that the Rollover Participants believe to be attractive. With respect to Mr. Recatto, he will be able to continue to work to strengthen the Company, its product lines and its competitive position, as well as weather current economic and industry challenges, in partnership with Wellspring.

The Rollover Participants have an interest in the Merger not shared by other shareholders of the Company. These interests are described under Interests of Certain Company Directors in Parent and its Affiliates following the Merger. Each Rollover Participant is contractually obligated to, and intends to, vote in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger. The Rollover Participants beneficially own shares of stock of the Company having approximately 24.9 percent of the voting power of all shares having voting rights.

Position of the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition as to the Fairness of the Merger

Under an interpretation of the Exchange Act rules governing going private transactions, each of the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition is deemed to be an affiliate of the Company. The Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition are making the statements included in this section solely for the purposes of complying with the requirements of Rule 13e-3 and related rules under the Exchange Act. The position of the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition as to the fairness of the Merger is not a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company as to how the shareholder should vote on the Merger.

None of the Wellspring Entities, Parent nor Acquisition participated in the deliberations of the Board of Directors or the Special Committee regarding, received advice from the Special Committee's legal or financial advisors as to, or adopted the analysis of the Board of Directors or the Special Committee of the substantive or procedural fairness of the Merger. However, the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition believe that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are substantively and procedurally fair to the Company's shareholders (other than the Rollover Participants). In particular, the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition considered the following material positive factors:

the fact that the merger consideration of $2.75 per share represented a premium over the market price of the Company common stock before the public announcement of the Merger Agreement, namely, approximately a 30 percent premium over the market closing price of $2.12 per share on June 3, 2010, approximately a 30 percent premium over the 90-day trading average closing price through June 3, 2010, and approximately a 30 percent premium over the 180-day trading average closing price through June 3, 2010;

the fact that the merger consideration of $2.75 in cash per share of common stock resulted from arm's-length negotiations, in the context of a wide-spread solicitation of indications of interest, between representatives of the Company and Wellspring;

the fact that the Merger and the Merger Agreement were approved by all of the members of the Board of Directors after a recommendation of the Special Committee;

the fact that the merger consideration is all cash, thus eliminating any uncertainties in valuing the consideration to be received by the shareholders of the Company;

the fact that the Merger Agreement permitted the Company to solicit alternative acquisition proposals until July 16, 2010, and the Company (through the Special Committee) intended to do so, and the Merger Agreement permits the Company to provide information and participate in negotiations after such period with respect to unsolicited acquisition proposals in the circumstances described in the Merger Agreement and, in either such case, to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal;

the fact that the press release announcing the transaction disclosed the active solicitation process and the ability thereafter to respond to proposals;

the fact that the Special Committee believed, based on financial and legal advices, that the termination fee of $1,795,991 (or approximately 2.5 percent of the equity value and 1.5 percent of the enterprise value of the transaction) was reasonable even considering the requirement that the Company reimburse certain expenses incurred by Wellspring and its affiliates in connection with the transaction up to a maximum amount of $750,000, and would not necessarily preclude another potential purchaser from considering a transaction with the Company at a higher price;

the fact that the Special Committee consists solely of directors who are not officers or employees of the Company, who are independent of and have no economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Wellspring or its affiliates, who are independent from the Rollover Participants and who do not have any economic interest or expectancy of an economic interest in Parent, Acquisition or the surviving corporation;

the fact that the Special Committee retained its own legal and financial advisors who assisted the Special Committee in the negotiations with Wellspring;

the fact that the Special Committee had the authority to reject the transaction proposed by Wellspring;

the fact that neither Wellspring nor the Rollover Participants participated in the deliberative process of, or the conclusions reached by, the Special Committee;

the fact that the Special Committee received an opinion from its own independent financial advisor as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the $2.75 per share merger consideration to be received by unaffiliated holders of the Company common stock; and the fact that under Louisiana law, the shareholders of the Company have the right, subject to certain procedural requirements, to dissent to the Merger and receive payment in cash of the fair value of their shares if the Merger is effected upon approval by less than eighty percent of the total voting power of the Company.

In addition, the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition considered the following material negative factors:

the risk that the Merger might not be completed in a timely manner or at all;

Edgar Filing: OMNI ENERGY SERVICES CORP - Form PRER14A

the fact that the Company's shareholders (other than the Rollover Participants) will not participate in any future earnings or growth of the Company and will not benefit from any future appreciation in value of the Company;

the risks and costs to the Company if the Merger is not completed, including the diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition and the potential effect on business relationships;

the fact that gains from an all-cash transaction would be taxable to the Company's shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes; and the interests of certain members of the Company's management in the Merger described below under "Interests of Company Directors in the Merger", "Interests of Certain Company Directors in Parent and its Affiliates following the Merger" and "Interests of Company Executive Officers in the Merger".

The Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition did not consider the Company's net book value or liquidation value in their evaluation of the fairness of the Merger to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders because the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition did not believe that the Company's net book value or liquidation value were material or relevant to a determination of the substantive fairness of the Merger. The Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition did not consider the net book value of the Company to be a relevant valuation methodology since net book value is a purely historical measurement of value and is not forward looking. The Company's net book value per share as of March 31, 2010 was $2.31, or approximately 16% lower than the per share merger consideration. The Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition did not consider the liquidation value of the Company to be a relevant valuation methodology because they considered the Company to be a viable, going concern. To the extent that the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition considered the going concern value of the Company, they believed that a valuation metric based on the public market trading price of the Company common stock prior to the announcement of the proposed Merger on June 4, 2010 (i.e., the market price unaffected by any expectation that a transaction would occur), as described above, was the most appropriate measurement of the Company's going concern value.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered and given weight by the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition in connection with the fairness of the Merger Agreement and the Merger is not intended to be exhaustive. None of the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition found it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise attach relative weights to the foregoing factors in reaching their respective positions as to the fairness of the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Each of the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition believes that these factors provide a reasonable basis for its belief that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are fair to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. This belief should not, however, be construed in any way as a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company as to whether such shareholder should vote in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. None of the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition make any recommendation as to how the shareholders of the Company should vote their shares of the Company common stock relating to the Merger.

While the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition believe that the Merger is substantively and procedurally fair to the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. The Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition attempted to negotiate the terms of a transaction that would be most favorable to them, and not to the Company's shareholders.

Purpose and Structure of the Merger

The purpose of the Merger for the Company is to allow its shareholders to realize the value of their investment in the Company in cash at a price that represents a premium to the market price of the Company common stock before the public announcement of the Merger.

The Special Committee and the Board of Directors believe that the Merger should be undertaken at this time for a number of reasons:

The price represents a premium over recent market prices.

There is considerable uncertainty as to the Company's industry and its operations, which are heavily carried on in the Gulf Coast region of the United States, as a result of the April 20, 2010 fire and explosion onboard the semi-submersible drilling rig Deepwater Horizon, owned by Transocean Ltd. and under contract to a subsidiary of BP plc, and the subsequent massive oil spill;

the current federal moratorium on offshore deep water drilling and delays and interruptions on all offshore drilling as a result of the above mentioned explosion and oil spill;

the risk of federal regulation issues as to all offshore and coastal oil and gas drilling operations that may adversely affect the Company's business in the future; and the weak demand for natural gas and resultant depressed prices for natural gas in the United States particularly in relation to the supply of natural gas in the United States that may continue to adversely affect the Company's business in the future.

The Company's financial circumstances and liquidity are currently under considerable stress as a result of weaker operations, inadequate funds for desirable capital and maintenance spending and restrictive loan agreement covenants, and relief from such stress is not now foreseeable.

General world-wide and United States economic circumstances as to which there is uncertainty may continue to adversely affect the Company's industry and business in the future.

The Special Committee and the Board of Directors do not believe that there are any alternatives to the Merger that are more beneficial to unaffiliated shareholders of the Company at the present time because they believe

The Company is capital constrained and cannot obtain necessary financing on satisfactory terms to carry on its operations on a desirable level, and thus its continuation as a stand-alone company is not a better alternative than the Merger for shareholders to realize their value on their investments in the Company.

The Company cannot be liquidated and the proceeds distributed to shareholders on terms more favorable than those provided by the Merger.

No other alternative has been identified and therefore there are no other alternatives to be considered.

The Special Committee and the Board of Directors of the Company believe, based upon the reasons discussed under Fairness of the Merger; Recommendation of the Special Committee and the Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger, that the Merger is advisable, fair to and in the best interests of, the Company's unaffiliated shareholders.

For the Rollover Participants, the purpose of the Merger is to allow them to receive some cash in realization of the value of their investments in the Company and to also benefit from any future earnings and growth of the Company after its common stock ceases to be publicly traded by maintaining an equity interest in the Company after the Merger. The Rollover Participants believe that public company status imposes a number of limitations on the Company and its management in conducting the Company's operations, including restraints associated with meeting the expectations of market analysts and the costs of being a public company, such as accounting and transfer agent fees, outside director fees and expenses associated with the reporting obligations under the Exchange Act and legal fees relating to obligations of a public company. Accordingly, one of the purposes of the Merger for the Rollover Participants is to achieve greater operating flexibility, allowing management to concentrate on long-term growth and to reduce its focus on the quarter-to-quarter performance often emphasized by the public markets. The Merger is also intended to enable the Company to use in its operations those funds that would otherwise be expended in complying with requirements applicable to public companies. The Rollover Participants, in deciding to engage in the Merger, considered these factors as well as the projections for revenues and earnings prepared by the Company's management described under the section entitled Certain Projections and their own general familiarity with the Company and its operations and industry. For additional reasons as to why the Rollover Participants decided to engage in the Merger see Position of the Directors Participating in the Merger with Wellspring as to the Fairness of the Merger.

For the Wellspring Entities, Parent and Acquisition, the purpose of the Merger is to allow Parent to own the Company and to benefit from any increase in the value of the Company and to bear any losses resulting from any decrease in the value of the Company after the Company common stock is no longer publicly traded.

Table of Contents

The transaction has been structured as a cash merger in order to provide the shareholders of the Company other than the Rollover Participants with cash for all of their shares and to provide a prompt and orderly transfer of ownership of the Company with reduced transaction costs.

Effects of the Merger

At the effective time of the Merger, the Company's shareholders, other than the Rollover Participants, will cease to have any ownership interest in the Company or rights as Company shareholders. Therefore, the current shareholders of the Company, other than the Rollover Participants, will not participate in any future earnings or growth of the Company, will not benefit from any appreciation in value of the Company and will no longer own any interest in the net book value or net earnings of the Company. Upon completion of the Merger, Parent, and indirectly Wellspring and the Rollover Participants, will own all of the capital stock of the surviving corporation after the Merger.

The Company common stock is currently registered under the Exchange Act and is listed on the Nasdaq Global Market under the symbol OMNI. As a result of the Merger, the Company will be a privately held corporation, and there will be no public market for its common stock. After the Merger, the common stock will cease to be listed on the Nasdaq Global Market, and price quotations with respect to sales of shares of common stock in the public market will no longer be available. In addition, registration of the common stock under the Exchange Act will be terminated. This termination will make certain provisions of the Exchange Act, such as the requirement of furnishing a proxy or information statement in connection with shareholders' meetings, no longer applicable to the Company. After the effective time of the Merger, the Company will also no longer be required to file periodic reports with the SEC.

At the effective time of the Merger, three directors of Acquisition selected by Wellspring, along with Messrs. Sciotto and Recatto, will become the directors of the surviving corporation, and the officers of the Company immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, including Mr. Recatto as President and Chief Executive Officer, will remain the officers of the surviving corporation. The articles of incorporation of the Company will not be amended in connection with the Merger. The bylaws of the Company in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will continue to be the bylaws of the surviving corporation.

Each outstanding option and warrant for shares of common stock of the Company will be canceled in exchange for an amount in cash, if any, determined by multiplying (1) the excess, if any, of $2.75 over the per share exercise price of the option or warrant by (2) the number of shares of common stock subject to the option or warrant, net of any applicable withholding taxes. The Merger agreement provides for the accelerated vesting of all options at the effective time of the Merger in order that all outstanding options may be so canceled in exchange for cash. Outstanding options and warrants having an exercise price of $2.75 or more will be canceled at the effective time of the Merger.

Risks That the Merger Will Not Be Completed

Completion of the Merger is subject to various risks, including, but not limited to, the following:

that the Merger agreement and the Merger will not be approved by the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of shares of Company stock present and voting at the shareholders' meeting;

that the Company will experience an event change, condition, circumstance or state of facts that, individually or in the aggregate has, or could reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect (as defined in the Merger agreement and set forth below) on the Company;

that the total number of dissenting shares will exceed ten percent of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company common stock as of the effective time of the Merger and Parent will elect not to proceed with the Merger;

---

that the parties will not have performed in all material respects their obligations contained in the Merger agreement at or before the effective time of the Merger;

that the Company will not secure required governmental and third party consents to and authorizations for the Merger;

that the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Merger agreement will not be true and correct to the extent required in the Merger agreement immediately before the effective time of the Merger;

that lawsuits filed or to be filed will result in an injunction or similar relief against consummation of the Merger; and that the Company will terminate the Merger agreement to pursue a superior proposal received after signing the Merger Agreement. As used in the Merger Agreement, a material adverse effect shall mean any effects, facts, conditions, events, developments, changes or states of circumstances that (A) have had or are reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the business, operations, assets, liabilities, condition (financial or otherwise) or results of operations of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole or (B) a material adverse effect on the ability of the Company to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement; provided, that any adverse effect, fact, condition, event, development, change or state of circumstance attributable to the following shall not constitute, and shall not be taken into account in determining whether there has been or will be, a material adverse effect: (1) conditions, events or circumstances affecting either (x) the United States economy or the United States or world financial, securities or credit markets generally or (y) the United States oil and gas or oil and gas related industries generally, including the effect thereon of offshore drilling and production accidents on offshore and coastal oil and gas exploration and production activities, (2) the announcement or pendency of the transactions contemplated hereby or market responses thereto or loss or departure of employees, customers, suppliers or other business relationships related thereto, (3) the effect of any change arising in connection with any force majeure event or act of God, including, without limitation, weather, natural disasters and earthquakes or hostilities, acts of war, sabotage or terrorism or military actions or any escalation or material worsening of any such hostilities, acts of war, sabotage or terrorism or military actions, (4) any effect, event or change resulting from a breach of this Agreement by Parent or Acquisition, (5) changes or proposed changes in Laws that affect the United States oil and gas or oil and gas related industries, (6) any change or effect resulting from a change in accounting rules or procedures announced by the Financial Accounting Standards Board, the SEC or any other accounting body with authority to promulgate United States generally accepted accounting principles, (7) the effect, if any, of the prospective restatement of the Company's historical financial statements on account of accounting issues related to recording debt obligations incurred in connection with acquisitions made by the Company, as described in the Merger Agreement (it being understood that the facts giving rise or contributing to such restatement may be deemed to constitute or be taken into account in determining whether there has been or is reasonably likely to be a material adverse effect), and (8) the Company's possible breach of the Amended and Restated Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of April 23, 2008 (as amended), by and among Fifth Third Bank, the Company and the other signatories thereto, which loan agreement is the Company's primary credit facility (it being understood that (i) any effects of such breach and (ii) the facts giving rise or contributing to such breach may each be deemed to constitute or be taken into account in determining whether there has been or is reasonably likely to be a material adverse effect); provided, however, that effects, facts, conditions, events, developments, changes or states of circumstances set forth in clauses (1), (5) and (6) above may be taken into account in determining whether there has been or is a certain material adverse effect to the extent such effects, facts, conditions, events, developments, changes or states of circumstances disproportionately impact the business of the Company and its subsidiaries compared to other businesses in the same industries.

As a result of the various risks to the completion of the Merger, there can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed even if the requisite shareholder approval is obtained. It is expected that, if Company shareholders do not approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger or if the Merger is not completed for any other reason, the current management of the Company, under the direction of the current Board of Directors, will continue to manage the Company as an ongoing business.

Interests of Company Directors in the Merger

In considering the recommendations of the Board of Directors, the Company's shareholders should be aware that some of the members of the Company's Board of Directors (the Rollover Participants) have interests in the transaction that are different from, or in addition to, the interest of Company shareholders generally. The Board of Directors appointed the Special Committee, consisting solely of directors who are not officers or employees of the Company, who are independent of Wellspring and of the Rollover Participants and who have no economic interest in Parent or the surviving corporation, to evaluate, negotiate and make a recommendation with respect to the Merger Agreement and to evaluate whether the Merger is in the best interests of the Company's unaffiliated shareholders. The Special Committee was aware of these differing interests and considered them, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement and the Merger and in recommending to the Board of Directors that the Merger Agreement and the Merger be approved. The total amount that would be payable to all directors and executive officers of the Company in connection with the Merger in respect of their shares of stock in the Company and in-the-money stock options and warrants is approximately $21.9 million, assuming they all received cash in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. The total amount that would be payable to Rollover Participants and executive officers of the Company in connection with the Merger in respect of their shares of stock in the Company and their in-the-money stock options and warrants is approximately $18.0 million, assuming they all received cash in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. Except for payments in accordance with the Merger Agreement for shares of Company common stock owned by such persons and the receipt of equity interests in the Company pursuant to the rollover arrangements described below, no other payments will be made to executive officers or directors of the Company at the time of the Merger.

If the Merger is completed, all of the members of the Special Committee will, along with other stock option holders, receive cash payments for in-the-money options that they hold. See Interests of Company Executive Officers in the Merger below. Whether the Merger is completed or not, each member of the Special Committee will be paid a monthly fee for each month of such member's service on the Special Committee until the effective time of the Merger and will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with service on the Special Committee.

Table of Contents*Interests of Certain Company Directors in Parent and its Affiliates following the Merger

In connection with the Merger Agreement, Parent and the Rollover Participants entered into a rollover agreement, which we refer to as the Rollover Agreement, pursuant to which the Rollover Participants agreed to contribute approximately $12.5 million (valued on the basis of the merger consideration of $2.75 per share of Company common stock) of their shares of Company common stock and Series C Stock (and, in the case of Mr. Recatto, by cash contributions) (i) to Parent in exchange for shares of common stock of Parent and/or (ii) to a subsidiary of Parent to be formed prior to the Closing, which we refer to as Intermediate Holdco, in exchange for shares of preferred stock of Intermediate Holdco. The table below sets forth, as of the Closing, the expected percentage ownership of common stock in Parent and preferred stock in Intermediate Holdco by Wellspring and the Rollover Participants.

Holder	Percent Ownership by Security		Total
	Common Stock	Intermediate Holdco Preferred Stock
Wellspring	83.1%		83.4%
Sciotto	13.1%	77.6%	12.9%
Colson	2.0%	11.9%	2.0%
Recatto	1.8%	10.4%	1.7%
Total	100.0%	100.0%	100.0%

Stockholders Agreement and Post Closing Governance. The Rollover Agreement contemplates that Wellspring and the Rollover Participants will enter into a stockholders agreement and other documentation relating to the management of Parent and the surviving corporation after the Merger. The parties to the Rollover Agreement have agreed on certain of the terms of the stockholders agreement, including with respect to governance and future liquidity.

Additional Post Closing Terms. The parties to the Rollover Agreement have agreed to certain additional terms relating to the Rollover Participants' equity investments in Parent and Intermediate Holdco after the Merger, including rights to transfer their shares of Parent and Intermediate Holdco and registration rights following an initial public offering.

The foregoing summary of certain terms of the Rollover Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copy of such agreement attached hereto as Appendix D.

Interests of Company Executive Officers in the Merger

Options for Shares of Company Common Stock. In connection with the Merger, all outstanding Company stock options (including those held by the Company's directors and executive officers) will become immediately exercisable and canceled in exchange for (i) the excess, if any, of $2.75 over the per share exercise prices of the options multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of common stock subject to the options exercisable as of the effective time of the Merger, net of any applicable withholding taxes. The Merger Agreement provides for the accelerated vesting of all options at the effective time of the Merger in order that the full amount of such options may be canceled in exchange for cash. Pursuant to this provision, the Company's directors and executive officers will receive cash payments for their options with per share exercise prices below $2.75.

The table below sets forth, as of August 25, 2010, for each of the Company's executive officers and directors, (a) the number of shares subject to vested in-the-money options held by such person, (b) the amount of cash that will be paid in respect of cancellation of such vested in-the-money options upon consummation of the Merger, (c) the number of additional in-the-money options that will vest upon effectiveness of the Merger, (d) the amount of cash that will be paid in respect of cancellation of such additional options upon consummation of the Merger, (e) the number of out-of-the-money options that will be canceled for no consideration in the Merger, (f) the total number of shares subject to in-the-money options for each such person and (g) the total amount of cash that will be received by each such person in respect of such options upon consummation of the Merger. All dollar amounts are gross amounts and do not reflect deductions for income taxes and other withholding. In each case, the payment amount is calculated by multiplying (i) the excess of $2.75 over the per share exercise price of the option by (ii) the number of shares subject to the option.

(1) This column reflects all unvested in-the-money options for the individuals in the table as of August 25, 2010. Certain of the options could vest according to their original terms prior to the consummation of the Merger, depending upon the date the Merger is consummated.

(2) Out-of-the-money options will be canceled without payment of consideration.

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of the Company beneficially owned 5,332,800 shares of Company common stock and 5,396 shares of Series C Stock convertible into 2,767,171 shares of Company common, representing 31 percent of the total voting power as of such date, not including shares that may be acquired upon the exercise of vested stock options or upon exercise of outstanding warrants. To the knowledge of the Company, all such individuals intend to vote such shares in favor of the Merger. Messrs. Sciotto, Colson and Recatto, the Rollover Participants, have agreed with Wellspring to vote their shares of stock of the Company in favor of the Merger an aggregate of approximately 24.9 percent of the total voting power of shares of stock of the Company.

See also Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management on page 95.

Restricted Shares of Company Common Stock. In connection with the Merger, all restrictions on each outstanding share of restricted stock under any stock plan or other benefit arrangement of the Company will lapse, and those shares will become fully vested. At August 25, 2010, the Company's executive officers and directors held 222,295 shares of restricted stock that will vest upon the effectiveness of the Merger, entitling them to receive $2.75 for each such share.

Table of Contents

Employment Agreements with the Surviving Corporation. The Company has entered into new employment agreements with each of Brian J. Recatto (President and Chief Executive Officer), Andy Dufrene (Vice President of OMNI Oilfield Operations), John Harris (Vice President of Seismic Operations) and Lawrence Shaw (Vice President of Sales) that will become effective upon consummation of the Merger and govern the terms of their employment thereafter. Each employment agreement has an initial three-year term and automatically renews for successive one-year terms thereafter unless either party provides notice of non-renewal in accordance with the provisions of the agreement. Each agreement contains terms and provisions substantially similar to the executive's existing employment agreement and provides for an annual base salary, eligibility to receive an annual bonus, and restrictive covenants that prevent the executive from competing with the Company and soliciting its employees and customers during employment and for either one or two years following termination of employment. Under each agreement if the executive's employment is terminated without cause (as defined in each agreement) he will receive severance equal to 12 months' continuation of base salary and a pro rata bonus for the year of termination, subject to the executive's execution of a release of claims against the Company, Wellspring and their respective affiliates.

The Company's other executive officers will continue to be employed by the Company pursuant to the terms of their existing employment agreements. Following consummation of the Merger, the Company intends to adopt a new stock option plan pursuant to which certain executive officers will be eligible to receive options to purchase shares of Parent common stock, subject to the terms and conditions of such plan.

Payments to the Executive Officers of the Company. The executive officers of the Company will not be entitled to any change of control payments under the terms of their existing employment agreements as a result of the closing of the Merger.

In addition, Parent may offer selected members of Company management additional equity incentive arrangements following the effective time of the Merger. The terms of any such incentive arrangements, and the individuals to be offered the opportunity to participate in such arrangements, have not yet been determined as of the date of this proxy statement and such matters remain subject to negotiation among the relevant parties prior to or following the completion of the Merger.

Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance

The Merger Agreement provides (i) that all rights of indemnification and exculpation from liability for acts and omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the Merger (including the advancement of funds for expenses) of the current and former directors, officers, employees and agents of the Company and its subsidiaries, as provided in their respective charters, bylaws or indemnification agreements, shall survive the Merger and for six years after the effective time of the Merger and shall not be amended, repealed or modified in any manner that would adversely affect such rights, unless otherwise required by law or with the consent of each affected party and (ii) that Parent, in addition to the surviving corporation, shall also itself be obligated as to such indemnification as to directors and officers of the Company or any subsidiary.

The Merger Agreement also provides that, for six years after the effective time of the Merger, the surviving corporation shall maintain officers and directors' insurance for acts and omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the Merger and covering those persons who are currently covered by the Company's existing officers' and directors' insurance policies, on terms no less advantageous to the covered parties than the Company's existing insurance coverage. However, the surviving corporation is not required to pay an annual premium in excess of 250% (approximately $862,000) of the Company's current annual premium, which is approximately $345,000, and if the provision of existing insurance expires or is terminated during the six-year period, Parent shall maintain the most advantageous policies obtainable for the remainder of the period for a premium on an annualized basis of not more than 250% (approximately $862,000) of the current annual premium.

If the surviving corporation or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other entity and is not the continuing or surviving entity or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any entity, the surviving or transferee entity shall be required to assume the indemnification and insurance obligations discussed above.

Merger Financing

While Wellspring's obligations are not conditioned on obtaining financing, the following discussion provides information as to its financing arrangements. The total amount of funds necessary to complete the Merger and the related transactions is anticipated to be approximately $125.4 million, consisting of (i) approximately $71.8 million to pay the Company's shareholders and option holders assuming that no Company shareholder validly exercises and perfects its dissenters' rights, (ii) approximately $43.6 million to refinance existing indebtedness of the Company and (iii) approximately $10.0 million to pay related fees and expenses in connection with the Merger, the financing arrangements and the transactions described in this paragraph.

These funds are anticipated to come from the following sources:

An equity investment and subordinated debt investment by Wellspring of $62.6 million in Parent;

An equity investment by the Rollover Participants of $12.5 million in Parent (in cash and value of rolled over shares of the Company based on the $2.75 price per share) as more fully described under Interests of Certain Company Directors in Parent and its Affiliates following the Merger; and Borrowings by the surviving corporation of $45 million of term loans under a $65 million senior secured credit facility to be provided by a syndicate of lenders arranged by Ableco, L.L.C., referred to as Ableco in this proxy statement.

Parents' Equity Commitments

Parent has received a commitment letter from Wellspring pursuant to which Wellspring has committed, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the commitment letter, to provide to Parent up to an aggregate of $65 million in cash in exchange for stock and subordinated indebtedness of Parent.

Senior Secured Credit Facilities

Parent has received a commitment letter pursuant to which Ableco is to provide the surviving corporation with up to $65 million in senior secured credit facilities, comprised of a $45 million term loan facility and a $20 million revolving credit facility. As a result of the Merger, Acquisition will be merged with and into the Company and, thereafter, the Company as the surviving corporation will be the borrower (together with certain of its affiliates) under the senior secured credit facilities. The senior secured credit facilities have a term of five years and bear interest at a rate per annum equal to LIBOR plus a margin which is determined in accordance with a maximum senior net debt covenant ratio test. The margin under the senior secured credit facilities is fixed at 7.25% during the first year following the closing of the senior secured credit facilities, and they are secured by a first priority lien on substantially all of the assets of the Company, subject to permitted liens and agreed upon thresholds.

While the obligations of Wellspring under the Merger Agreement are not conditioned on financing, the commitment of Ableco to provide the senior secured credit financing is subject to a number of conditions set forth in the commitment letter, including but not limited to the following:

execution and delivery of appropriate legal documentation in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Ableco;

the reasonable satisfaction of Ableco that since June 3, 2010 there has not occurred a material adverse effect on the Company;

each loan party shall be in good standing in its respective jurisdiction of organization and duly qualified to do business in each other jurisdiction where the conduct of its business requires such qualification;

all consents, approvals and actions of, filings with, and notices to, all governmental entities required of Parent, Acquisition, or the Company or any of their respective subsidiaries or other affiliates in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, shall have been made, obtained or effected, and the Merger Agreement shall have been approved at the Special Meeting by the required vote of the Company's shareholders;

there shall not be pending or threatened any action by any governmental entity challenging the Merger or otherwise having a material adverse effect on the Company;

no order or law shall be in effect that has the effect of making the Merger illegal or that otherwise restrains, prevents or restricts the consummation of the Merger;

the loan parties shall have paid to Ableco all fees and expenses owing to Ableco;

Ableco shall have received evidence that the equity investment has been made on or prior to the date of the closing of the Merger;

the Merger shall have been, or shall concurrently with the funding of the loans be, consummated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement and in compliance with applicable law and regulatory approvals; and the making of the initial loans shall not contravene any law, rule or regulation applicable to the lenders under the credit facilities.

Federal Regulatory Matters

The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act of 1976, as amended, referred to as the HSR Act in this proxy statement, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder require that each of the Company and Wellspring, as the ultimate parent entity of Parent and Acquisition, file notification and report forms with respect to the Merger and related transactions with the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, which we refer to as the Antitrust Division, and the Federal Trade Commission which we refer to as the FTC. The notifications required under the HSR Act were filed on July 23, 2010. On August 2, 2010, the FTC granted early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act without the imposition of any conditions or restrictions on the consummation of the Merger.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger that are generally applicable to (i) United States holders (as defined below) of Company common stock who exchange their shares of Company common stock for cash pursuant to the Merger and (ii) the Company. The federal income tax consequences to shareholders described below is the same for both affiliated shareholders and unaffiliated shareholders. This discussion is based on currently existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, referred to as the Code in this proxy statement, existing and proposed Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Code, and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion does not address state, local or foreign tax consequences that may be applicable to the parties specified in the first sentence of this paragraph, and such parties should consult their own tax advisors with respect to such consequences.

United States Holders

The following discussion applies only to United States holders of Company common stock who hold such shares as capital assets and may not apply to shares of Company common stock acquired pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or other compensation arrangements (and does not apply to the exchange or cancellation of employee stock options, including the receipt of cash therefor), and this discussion does not address tax issues relevant to certain classes of taxpayers who may be subject to special treatment under the Code, such as banks, other financial institutions, insurance companies, tax-exempt investors, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax, persons who hold their Company common stock as part of a position in a straddle or as part of a hedging or conversion transaction, persons who are deemed to sell their Company common stock under the constructive sale provisions of the Code, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings, persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, expatriates, S corporations, entities classified as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes or shareholders who hold Company common stock shares as dealers. All such United States holders should consult their own tax advisors concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to their particular situations.

Tax matters are very complex and the tax consequences of the Merger to you will depend on the facts of your particular situation. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the Merger to you, including the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the Merger.

If a partnership holds Company common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and the tax treatment of the partnership. A partner of a partnership holding Company common stock should consult its tax advisors.

For purposes of this discussion, a United States holder means a holder that is (i) a citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation (or other entity treated as an association taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state, (iii) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source, or (iv) a trust if (a) a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (b) the trust has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

In general, United States holders of Company stock who receive cash in exchange for their shares pursuant to the Merger should recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received and their adjusted tax basis in their shares. If a stockholder holds Company common stock as a capital asset, the gain or loss should generally be a capital gain or loss. If the stockholder has held the shares for more than one year, the gain or loss should generally be a long-term gain or loss. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

In general, cash received by shareholders who exercise appraisal rights will result in the recognition of gain or loss to such shareholders. Any shareholder considering exercising statutory appraisal rights should consult with his or her own tax advisor.

United States holders of Company common stock may be subject to backup withholding on cash payments received in exchange for shares in the Merger or received upon the exercise of dissenters' rights. Backup withholding generally will apply only if the shareholder fails to furnish a correct social security number or other taxpayer identification number, or otherwise fails to comply with applicable backup withholding rules and requirements. Corporations generally are exempt from backup withholding. Shareholders should complete and sign the substitute Form W-9 that will be part of the letter of transmittal to be returned to the paying agent to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding.

The Company

The Merger will cause an ownership change of the Company for purposes of Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code. As a result, the Company's use of pre-Merger tax net operating losses and certain other tax attributes, if any, will be limited following the Merger. In addition, the Company should be entitled to an ordinary compensation deduction for U.S. federal income tax purposes with respect to cash paid for the surrender of any compensatory option in an amount equal to the product of (1) the excess, if any, of $2.75 over the per share exercise price of the option multiplied by (2) the number of shares of the Company subject to the option. With respect to any such cash payments to its employees, the Company will be responsible for withholding federal, state and local income tax as well as the employee's share of social security, Medicare and other applicable payroll taxes. In addition, the Company will be responsible for paying the employer's share of social security, Medicare and other applicable payroll taxes. Subsequent to the Merger, the Company will join in the U.S. federal income consolidated tax group that includes Parent.

As of December 31, 2009, the Company reported net operating loss carry-forwards, or NOLs, of approximately $0.2 million. The surviving company and the remaining shareholders will be beneficiaries of the NOLs subject to Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Company has undertaken a Section 382 change analysis and will determine on an ongoing basis any changes in control that might limit the availability of the NOLs in future periods prior to their normal expiration in 2018.

The Merger should not cause any other material U.S. federal income tax consequences to the Company.

Fees and Expenses of the Merger

The estimated fees and expenses in connection with the Merger are as follows (in millions):

Financial Advisor Fees and Expenses <sup>(1)</sup>	$
Legal, Accounting and Other Professional Fees	$
Printing Proxy Solicitation and Mailing Costs	$
Financing Related Fees and Debt Prepayment Penalty	$
Filing Fees	$ 5,123
Paying Agent Fees	$
Miscellaneous	$
Total	$

- (1) Of such financial advisor fees and expenses, approximately $2.0 million is expected to be paid to Stephens for financial advisory services provided to the Board of Directors and Special Committee, and $325,000 has been paid to GulfStar for certain financial advisory services provided to the Special Committee.

The Merger Agreement provides that the Company, Parent and Acquisition will each pay all costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with the Merger Agreement and the Merger except as to special provisions as to expenses provided in the Merger Agreement upon its termination by Parent or the Company in specified circumstances. The estimate for legal fees set forth in the table above does not include any amounts attributable to any existing or future litigation challenging the Merger. See Litigation Challenging The Merger beginning on page 67. None of these costs and expenses will reduce the $2.75 per share merger consideration to be received by holders of Company common stock or stock options.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated under specified circumstances, including acceptance of a superior proposal, the Company may be required to pay to a Wellspring affiliate a $1,795,991 termination fee and up to $750,000 in reimbursement of out-of-pocket fees and expenses. See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 85.

payment for the balance on January 28, 2013. At the time of the modification, the Company issued to Mr. Recatto 35,778 shares of unregistered restricted Company common stock. ## Prior Public Offerings

The Company has not made an underwritten public offering of its common stock for cash at any time during the last three years.

Certain Projections

In connection with GulfStar's review of the Company and the rendering of the fairness opinion to the Special Committee, the Company provided GulfStar with non-public business and financial information. The non-public information so provided included projections of the Company's future operating performance. These projections do not give effect to the Merger or the financing of the Merger.

The Company does not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose projections of future revenues or earnings. The projections were not prepared with a view to public disclosure and are included in this proxy statement only because such information was made available to GulfStar and relied on thereby. The projections were not prepared with a view to compliance with the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections, nor were they prepared in accordance with the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of financial projections. Grant Thornton LLP, the Company's independent registered public accountants, has neither examined nor compiled the projections and, accordingly, Grant Thornton does not express an opinion or any other form of assurance with respect thereto. The historical audited financial statements of the Company incorporated by reference into this proxy statement related to the Company's historical financial information and do not extend to the projections and should not be read to do so. While presented with numerical specificity, these projections reflect numerous assumptions made by the Company's management. In addition, factors such as future industry performance and general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions, all of which are difficult to predict and beyond the control of the Company's management, may cause the projections or the underlying assumptions to be inaccurate. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the projections will be realized, and actual results may be materially greater or less than those contained in the projections.

The Company does not intend to update or otherwise revise the projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date when made or to reflect the occurrence of future events even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying the projections are shown to be in error.

Provisions For Unaffiliated Security Holders

No provisions were made in connection with the Merger to grant unaffiliated security holders, which term refers to shareholders other than the Company's directors and executive officers, access to the Company's corporate files or those of Parent or its affiliates or to obtain counsel, separate representatives, financial advisors, or appraisal services at the Company's expense or at the expense of Parent or its affiliates. No appraisal services were retained on behalf of the unaffiliated security holders. Furthermore, an unaffiliated representative was not retained to act solely on behalf of unaffiliated security holders for the purposes of negotiating the terms of the transaction and/or preparing a report concerning the fairness of the transaction. In addition, in order to adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the transactions contemplated thereby, holders of a majority of the outstanding voting power of all shares of Company stock with voting rights present or represented at the special meeting must vote in favor of approving the Merger Agreement, regardless of whether a majority of the outstanding voting power of all shares of Company stock held by unaffiliated shareholders present or represented at the special meeting votes in favor of approving the Merger Agreement.

Litigation Challenging the Merger

Six purported class action lawsuits have been filed in connection with the Merger in state courts in Lafayette Parish, Louisiana, and two purported class actions were filed in connection with the Merger in the federal district court for the Western District of Louisiana. Each court action named the Company and its directors as defendants, and the state court actions also named Wellspring, Parent and Acquisition. One of the federal actions filed named Parent and Acquisition as defendants. The state court complaints allege, among other things, that the director defendants have breached their fiduciary duties to shareholders of the Company by entering into the Merger Agreement, failing to disclose certain information with respect to the Company and failing to maximize shareholder value. The Wellspring Entities are claimed to have aided and abetted the alleged fiduciary duty breaches by the directors of the Company. The federal court complaint makes substantially the same claims as the state court complaints, but also alleges violations of federal law relating to the Company's proxy statement disclosures. One or more of the complaints seek injunctions against the Merger, rescission of the Merger if it is consummated, imposition of a constructive trust, damages, attorneys' fees, expenses and other relief. The complaints request class action certification and rulings that the named complainants are representatives of the class. No class has been certified at present. Plaintiffs in certain of the state actions and both federal actions have moved for expedited discovery. The defendants have filed the appropriate motions in the state proceedings to consolidate them into a single proceeding and further to stay such state actions pending the federal court's consideration of the federal suit. A hearing is set for August 30, 2010, as to the motions filed in state court. Moreover, the defendants are contesting discovery requests made by some of the state plaintiffs. The defendants have also filed a motion in the federal court requesting consolidation of the federal actions, a stay of all proceedings until lead plaintiffs and plaintiffs' counsel are appointed and defendants' motion to dismiss is resolved, and requesting that outstanding discovery requests be quashed. No hearing date has been set regarding this motion. The Company believes that all of the lawsuits that have been filed and the allegations contained therein are without merit, and it, along with the directors of the Company, intends to vigorously defend the lawsuits.

Dissenters' Rights

Dissenting shareholders who comply with the procedural requirements of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law will be entitled to receive payment of the fair cash value of their shares as of the day before the day on which the Merger Agreement and the Merger are approved if the Merger is effected upon approval by less than eighty percent of the Company's total voting power. These provisions establish the exclusive means by which you may exercise your right to dissent from the Merger. If the Merger is approved by the holders of at least eighty percent of our outstanding common stock, you will not be entitled to dissenters' rights. We have attached a copy of Section 131 of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law (La. Rev. Stat. § 12:131) as Appendix F to this proxy statement, which we urge you to read carefully. The following is a summary of the dissenters' rights provisions and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the statute. Because it is a summary, it may not contain all of the information that is important to you.

To dissent from the Merger, you will be required to deliver to us a written objection prior to or at the Special Meeting. Thereafter, you must vote against the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. A vote against the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger, without submitting the written objection, is not sufficient to satisfy the notice requirement. Please remember that a shareholder who executes and returns an unmarked proxy card will have his shares voted FOR the Merger Agreement and, as a consequence, that shareholder will be foreclosed from exercising rights as a dissenting shareholder.

If the Merger Agreement and the Merger are approved by the holders of less than eighty percent of our total voting power, we will promptly notify in writing by mail, after the Merger is completed, each shareholder who filed the written objection described above and voted against the Merger. Each of these shareholders is referred to in this section as a dissenting shareholder . Within 20 days after we mail the notice of shareholder approval, the dissenting shareholder must file with us his written demand for the fair value of his shares of stock, valued as of the day before the Special Meeting. In addition to stating the value that he is demanding, the written demand must provide a post office address to which we may respond.

At the same time, the dissenting shareholder will be required to deposit his stock certificates in escrow at a bank or trust company located in Lafayette Parish. The certificates must be duly endorsed and transferred to us upon the sole condition that we pay the dissenting shareholder the value of his shares as determined under Section 131 of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law. To verify the deposit in escrow, the dissenting shareholder will be required to deliver to us a written acknowledgement of the depository bank or trust company that holds his shares. If the dissenting shareholder fails to make and deliver such objection, written demand and acknowledgement within the prescribed time period, he will conclusively be presumed to have accepted the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Within 20 days after we have received the dissenting shareholder s written demand and acknowledgement, we will notify the dissenting shareholder in writing if we either (i) disagree with the value demanded or (ii) take the position that no payment is due to him. If we determine that a payment is due to the dissenting shareholder, we will state in the notice of disagreement the price deemed by us to be the fair value of his shares. If we fail to respond timely to the dissenting shareholder s written demand and acknowledgement, we will be liable for the amount that the dissenting shareholder has demanded.

Thereafter, if any disagreement remains with respect to the fair value of the dissenting shareholder s shares of stock, the dissenting shareholder may file suit against us in a Lafayette Parish district court, requesting that the court determine the fair value of his shares of stock as of the day before the day on which the Merger Agreement and the Merger are approved. If the dissenting shareholder is entitled to file a suit under the provisions of Section 131 of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law, but fails to file within 60 days after he receives the notice of disagreement, he will be deemed to have accepted (i) our statement that no payment is due if we have contended that no payment is due or (ii) the value for his shares as fixed by us in the notice of disagreement.

The dissenting shareholder will cease to have any of the rights of a shareholder, except the rights under the dissenters rights provisions, when the dissenting shareholder files his written demand for the fair value of his shares of stock. The dissenting shareholder will have the unconditional right to withdraw his demand to proceed under the dissenters rights provisions and accept the terms offered under the Merger Agreement at any time before the dissenting shareholder receives the notice of disagreement from us. After the dissenting shareholder receives the notice of disagreement, the dissenting shareholder will be required to obtain our written consent before he may withdraw his demand to proceed under the dissenters rights provisions. If the dissenting shareholder withdraws his demand or if he otherwise loses his right to dissent from the Merger, he will receive the consideration to which he is entitled under the Merger Agreement.

If you do not follow the prescribed procedures, you will not be entitled to dissenters rights with respect to your shares.

A shareholder who is a beneficial, but not the registered, owner of Company common stock or preferred stock who wishes to exercise the rights of a dissenting shareholder under the Louisiana Business Corporation Law cannot do so in his own name and should have the record ownership of the shares transferred to his name or instruct the record owner thereof to take all required action to comply on his behalf with the procedures under Section 131 of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law.

Because of the complexity of the procedures necessary to exercise the rights of a dissenting shareholder, we recommend that any shareholder wishing to exercise the right to dissent consult with his own legal counsel.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT (PROPOSAL NO. 1)

Below you will find information describing the material aspects of the Merger Agreement. This description does not provide a complete description of all the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement. It is qualified in its entirety by the appendices hereto, including the text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement. The Merger Agreement is incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to read the appendices in their entirety.

The Merger

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement and the provisions of the Louisiana Business Corporation Law and the Delaware General Corporation Law, Acquisition will be merged with and into the Company, the separate corporate existence of Acquisition will cease and the Company will continue as the surviving corporation and become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. We sometimes refer to the Company as the surviving corporation in the Merger as the surviving corporation.

Closing of the Merger

The closing of the Merger will take place on the third business day after the satisfaction or waiver of all the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement (other than those conditions which by their nature are to be satisfied at closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions). The Merger will become effective upon the filing of certificates of merger simultaneously with the Secretary of State of the State of Louisiana and the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and Directors and Officers of the Company and the Surviving Corporation

When the Merger is completed:

the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will be the same as the articles of incorporation of the Company as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger;

the bylaws of the Company in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be the bylaws of the surviving corporation;

the directors of Acquisition immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be the initial directors of the surviving corporation; and the officers of the Company immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be the initial officers of the surviving corporation.

Conversion of Common Stock Into Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the Merger, each share of Company common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time of the Merger, including certain restricted shares granted under stock plans of the Company, will be converted automatically into the right to receive $2.75 in cash, without interest, subject to adjustment for any stock split, stock dividend or combination of stock that may occur from the date of the Merger Agreement until the effective time of the Merger, such amount being referred to in this proxy statement as the merger consideration, except for:

treasury shares of Company common stock, all of which will be canceled without any payment;

shares of Company common stock owned by the Rollover Participants that will be contributed to Parent immediately prior to the Merger in return for equity interests in Parent or a subsidiary thereof; and shares of Company common stock held by shareholders who validly exercise and perfect dissenters' rights, which will be subject to appraisal in accordance with Louisiana law if the Merger is approved by less than eighty percent of the voting power of all shares of stock of the Company.

At the effective time of the Merger, each share of capital stock of Acquisition outstanding immediately before the effective time of the Merger will be converted into and exchanged for one fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the surviving corporation, which share shall then be held by Parent or a subsidiary thereof.

Treatment of Options

At the effective time of the Merger each outstanding option to purchase shares of Company common stock granted under the Company's stock plans will become fully vested and exercisable and will be canceled in exchange for the right to receive an amount in cash, if any, determined by multiplying (1) the excess, if any, of $2.75 over the per share exercise price of the option and (2) the number of shares of Company common stock subject to the option, net of any applicable withholding taxes. At the effective time of the Merger, each stock plan of the Company in effect immediately prior to the Merger shall terminate.

Treatment of Restricted Stock and Warrants to Purchase Common Stock

At the effective time of the Merger, each unvested restricted share of the Company common stock that was awarded under any stock plan of the Company will become fully vested and exercisable and will be canceled in exchange for the right to receive the merger consideration of $2.75 per share.

At the effective time of the Merger, each warrant to purchase shares of the common stock of the Company will be canceled and converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of $2.75 over the exercise price per share for each share issuable under the applicable warrant multiplied by the number of shares issuable upon exercise of such warrant.

Treatment of Preferred Stock

Immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, the Company will redeem any shares of Company preferred stock then outstanding at the redemption price set forth in its articles of incorporation, other than shares of preferred stock contributed to Parent or a subsidiary of Parent by a Rollover Participant pursuant to arrangements between Wellspring and the Rollover Participants. The Company expects that all shares of its preferred stock, other than shares contributed by the Rollover Participant to Parent or a subsidiary of Parent, will have been converted into shares of Company common stock prior to the effective time and thus will be converted into the merger consideration of $2.75 per share of such Company common stock so issued upon such conversion at the effective time.

Payment for Shares

Prior to the effective time of the Merger, Parent will appoint a bank or trust company to act as paying agent for the payment of the merger consideration upon surrender, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, of the shares of Company common stock (whether represented by certificate or electronic book entry). At the effective time of the Merger, Parent will provide the paying agent the aggregate merger consideration necessary to pay for the shares of Company common stock converted into the right to receive cash.

Promptly after the effective time of the Merger, the surviving corporation will cause the paying agent to mail or deliver to each record holder of shares of Company common stock whose shares were converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, a transmittal letter containing instructions to effect the surrender of the holder's shares (whether represented by certificate or electronic book entry) in exchange for payment of the merger consideration. The holder will be entitled to receive the merger consideration for the number of shares represented by such certificate(s) or book entry, less any applicable withholding taxes, only upon surrender to the paying agent of the holder's share certificate(s), or in the case of shares represented by book entry upon book-entry transfer, together with the transmittal letter and other required documentation, duly completed in accordance with the instructions. If payment of the merger consideration is to be made to a person other than the person in whose name a share certificate or book-entry share is registered, it will be a condition of payment that (1) the share certificate or book-entry share so surrendered be properly endorsed, with signature guaranteed, or otherwise be in proper form for transfer, and (2) the person requesting the consideration payment either pay any applicable taxes required or establish, to the satisfaction of the paying agent, that the tax has been paid or is not applicable. After the effective time of the Merger and until properly surrendered, each share certificate or book-entry share will be deemed to represent only the right to receive the merger consideration. If any share certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, the paying agent will pay the merger consideration for the number of shares represented by such certificate upon delivery by the person seeking payment of an affidavit of loss in lieu of the certificate, and if required by the surviving corporation, an indemnity bond in form and substance and with surety reasonably satisfactory to the surviving corporation. No interest will be paid or accrued on the merger consideration payable upon the surrender of shares.

Any funds, including any interest received on the funds, deposited with the paying agent for use in payment of the merger consideration and which have not been disbursed to holders of share certificates or book-entry shares for 180 days after the effective time of the Merger, shall be delivered to the surviving corporation by the paying agent. Thereafter, holders of certificates representing shares outstanding before the effective time of the Merger will be entitled to look only to the surviving corporation, and only as general creditors thereof, for payment of any consideration to which they may be entitled. Neither Parent, the surviving corporation nor the paying agent will be liable to any person for any cash from the payment fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

Transfer of Shares

After the effective time of the Merger there will be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the surviving corporation of shares of common stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger.

If, after the effective time of the Merger, any certificates or book entry formerly representing shares of common stock are presented to the surviving corporation for transfer, they will be canceled and exchanged for the appropriate merger consideration.

If, prior to obtaining the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company shareholders at the Special Meeting, the Company receives an acquisition proposal that the Board of Directors or the Special Committee determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel) is a superior proposal or upon the occurrence of an intervening event, then the Board of Directors or the Special Committee may withdraw, modify or qualify, or propose publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to Parent and Acquisition, the approval, recommendation or declaration of advisability by the Board of Directors or any committee of the Board of Directors of the Merger Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or recommend, adopt or approve, or propose publicly to recommend, adopt or approve, any acquisition proposal, if and only if prior to taking such action:

the Board of Directors or the Special Committee has concluded in good faith after consultation with its independent financial advisors and outside counsel that taking such action is necessary for the Board of Directors or the Special Committee to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

the Company has provided prior written notice to Parent at least three business days in advance, to the effect that absent any revision to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, the Board of Directors or the Special Committee intends to take such action; and

in such notice to Parent, the Company has offered to negotiate for a period of three business days after Parent's receipt of the Company's notice (and, if accepted, negotiated with Parent for such three-day period), and has instructed its subsidiaries and its and their respective representatives to offer to negotiate with (and if accepted, negotiated with) Parent to attempt to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement such that the Board of Directors or the Special Committee would not, after taking into account such adjustments, be required to take such action.

The Company must also keep Parent generally informed on a current basis of the status of and material developments respecting any solicitations, inquiries, proposals and/or negotiations (including the material terms and price in respect of any acquisition proposal). The Company must notify Parent within 24 hours of the receipt by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or any of its or their respective representatives, of any proposals or offers with respect to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal and indicate, in connection with such notice, the identity of the potential acquirer, the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers, and thereafter keep Parent reasonably informed of the status and terms of any such requests, proposals or offers (including any material amendments or material modifications to the financial or other material terms thereof). In addition, if any non-public information is requested from, or any discussions or negotiations are sought to be initiated or continued with, the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or any of its or their respective representatives, the Company must notify Parent, indicating, in connection with such notice, the identity of the potential acquirer and the status of any such discussions or negotiations.

An acquisition proposal is any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person or group of persons which was not obtained in violation of the foregoing provisions relating to:

any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business that constitutes 20% or more of the net revenues, net income or assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole;

any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business that constitutes 20% or more of the outstanding common stock of the Company;

any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person or group of persons beneficially owning 20% or more of the outstanding common stock of the Company; or any merger, reorganization, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving the Company (or any subsidiary or subsidiaries of the Company whose business constitutes 20% or more of the net revenues, net income or assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole), other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Any excluded party shall cease to be an excluded party for all purposes under the Merger Agreement at such time as the acquisition proposal made by such person fails to constitute either (i) a superior proposal or (ii) in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors or the Special Committee, an acquisition proposal that could reasonably be expected to result in a superior proposal.

An intervening event is any effect, fact, condition, event, development, change or state of circumstances in respect of the Company or any of its subsidiaries that was not actually known to the Board of Directors or the Special Committee on the date the Merger Agreement, which effect, fact, condition, event, development, change or state of circumstances, or any consequences thereof, becomes known to the Board of Directors or the Special Committee prior to obtaining shareholder approval of the Merger Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the receipt, existence or terms of an acquisition proposal constitute an intervening event.

A superior proposal is either (i) an acquisition proposal but changing the references to 20% or more in the definition of acquisition proposal to more than 50% or (ii) an acquisition proposal as a result of which the individuals comprising the Board of Directors prior to such transaction do not constitute a majority of the Board of Directors (or other governing body) of the entity surviving or resulting from such transaction or the ultimate parent entity following such transaction, which, in each case, the Board of Directors or the Special Committee in good faith determines (after considering the advice of its financial advisors and outside counsel and the conditionality and the timing and likelihood of consummation of such proposal and any changes to the terms of the Merger Agreement proposed by Parent in response to such offer or otherwise):

would, if consummated, result in a transaction that is more favorable to the shareholders of the Company entitled to receive the merger consideration (in their capacities as shareholders), from a financial point of view, than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and is capable of being, and is reasonably likely to be, completed.

An acceptable confidentiality agreement shall mean a confidentiality and standstill agreement that contains provisions which are, in their material respects, no less favorable to the Company than those contained in the confidentiality agreement entered into between Parent and the Company (provided that such agreement shall not otherwise prohibit compliance with any of the foregoing provisions).

For six years after the effective time of the Merger, the surviving corporation shall maintain officers' and directors' insurance for acts and omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the Merger and covering those persons who are currently covered by the Company's existing officers' and directors' insurance policies, on terms no less advantageous to the covered parties than the Company's existing insurance coverage. In addition, the obligations of Parent and Acquisition to effect the Merger are further subject to the satisfaction or waiver of each of the following additional conditions, any or all of which may be waived, in whole or in part, by Parent and Acquisition in writing:

the Company's representations and warranties expressly required by the Merger Agreement to be true and correct in all respects without giving effect to any materiality or material adverse effect qualifications shall be so true and correct, and all other representations and warranties of the Company that are qualified by materiality must be true and correct and that are not so qualified must be true and correct in all material respects, in each case, as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the date that the Merger is completed (except to the extent any such representations or warranties are made as of a specified date);

the effect of any change arising in connection with any force majeure event or act of God, including, without limitation, weather, natural disasters and earthquakes or hostilities, acts of war, sabotage or terrorism or military actions or any escalation or material worsening of any such hostilities, acts of war, sabotage or terrorism or military actions;

the announcement or pendency of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or market responses thereto or loss or departure of employees, customers, suppliers or other business relationships related thereto;

any effect, event or change resulting from a breach of the Merger Agreement by Parent or Acquisition;

the effect, if any, of the prospective restatement of the Company's historical financial statements on account of accounting issues related to recording debt obligations incurred in connection with acquisitions made by the Company as described in the Merger Agreement (it being understood that the facts giving rise or contributing to such restatement may be deemed to constitute or be taken into account in determining whether there has been or is reasonably likely to be a material adverse effect); or the Company's possible breach of the Amended and Restated Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of April 23, 2008 (as amended), by and among Fifth Third Bank, the Company and the other signatories thereto as described in the Merger Agreement (it being understood that (i) any effects of such breach and (ii) the facts giving rise or contributing to such breach may each be deemed to constitute or be taken into account in determining whether there has been or is reasonably likely to be a material adverse effect).

While adverse effects, facts, conditions, events, developments, changes or states of circumstance attributable to the foregoing will not be taken into account in determining whether there has been or will be a material adverse effect on the Company, the effects, facts, conditions, events, developments, changes or states of circumstances set forth in the first three bullet points above may be taken into account in determining whether there has been or is a material adverse effect to the extent they disproportionately impact the business of the Company and its subsidiaries compared to other businesses in the same industries.

Several of Parent's and Acquisition's representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement are qualified by reference to whether the item in question has a material adverse effect on Parent and Acquisition. The Merger Agreement provides that a material adverse effect on Parent or Acquisition means a material adverse effect on the ability of Parent or Acquisition to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the Merger, whether before or after approval of the shareholders:

by mutual written consent of the Company, Parent and Acquisition.

If the Company terminates the Merger Agreement under this provision, in addition to paying the termination fees described below, at the time of termination, the Company must deliver written acknowledgment from each party to the definitive agreement that it is aware of the termination fees due Parent and that such party waives any right to contest any such amounts.

the Board of Directors or the Special Committee fails to recommend to the Company's shareholders that they approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger at the Special Meeting, or the Board of Directors or any committee of the Board of Directors resolves to take any of the foregoing actions; or if on or after October 1, 2010, the Company has not delivered to Parent the Company's restated audited financial statements for each of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005-2009, which we refer to as the Restated Audited Financial Statements, together with the unqualified opinion of the applicable independent auditor for each of such Restated Audited Financial Statements, which financial statements shall comply with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement, unless the SEC has agreed and acknowledged in writing that the Company's existing audited financial statements for each of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005-2009 do not require restatement; provided, that if Parent does not exercise its termination right under this bullet within 5 business days after October 1, 2010, such provision will automatically terminate on the following business day.

the Company terminates the Merger Agreement as a result of a resolution by the Board of Directors or the Special Committee, prior to the Special Meeting, to enter into a definitive agreement with a third party in connection with an acquisition proposal, subject to certain limitations.

Parent or the Company terminates the Merger Agreement as a result of the failure of the Company shareholders to approve the Merger Agreement at the Special Meeting (or any reconvened meeting after any adjournment of such meeting) or Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because the Merger has not been consummated on or before December 1, 2010, and in each case:

As previously announced by the Company on August 17, 2010, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, with the assistance of management, has completed their internal review of the Company's accounting for subordinated promissory notes in connection with certain acquisitions which occurred in prior periods and restatement of certain financial statements is necessary. Until the completion of these restatements, the Company is unable to complete the preparation of its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2010 and June 30, 2010. Consequently, the selected financial data for the six months ended June 30, 2009 and 2010 has not been included in this preliminary proxy statement. More comprehensive financial information is included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2009, which is incorporated herein by reference, and other documents filed by the Company with the SEC, and the following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to such reports and other documents and all of the financial information and notes contained in those documents. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 103.

No separate financial information is provided for Parent because Parent is a newly-formed entity formed in connection with the Merger and has no independent operations. No pro forma data giving effect to the Merger has been provided. The Company does not believe that such information is material to shareholders in evaluating the proposed Merger and Merger Agreement because (i) the proposed merger consideration is all-cash and (ii) if the Merger is completed, the Company common stock will cease to be publicly traded.

OF THE COMPANY AND ACQUISITION; EXCHANGE PROCEDURES

2.1 Effect on Capital Stock. As of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder of any shares of Company Common Stock or Acquisition Common Stock (as hereinafter defined):

(a) Common Stock of Acquisition. Each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Acquisition (the Acquisition Common Stock ) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and become one fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Cancellation of Treasury Stock, Company Common Stock and Company Preferred Stock Owned by Parent or Acquisition. Each share of Company Common Stock and Company Preferred Stock that is owned by Parent or Acquisition or any of their direct or indirect subsidiaries or held by the Company or any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company as treasury stock (collectively, the Excluded Shares ), including each Rollover Share (as hereinafter defined), shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no cash or other consideration shall be delivered or deliverable in exchange therefor.

hereinafter defined) and Rollover Shares shall be canceled and converted into the right to receive $2.75 in cash, without interest (the Merger Consideration ). Pursuant to the terms of the Rollover Agreement (as hereinafter defined), immediately prior to the Effective Time, (i)(A) certain Rollover Shares that are Company Common Stock shall be contributed to Parent in exchange for a number of shares of Parent Common Stock (as hereinafter defined) having a dollar value equal to the Merger Consideration that would have otherwise been payable in cash in accordance with Section 2.2 in respect of such Rollover Shares had the rollover not occurred and (B) certain Rollover Shares that are Company Preferred Stock shall be contributed to Parent in exchange for a number of shares of Parent Common Stock valued as though such Rollover Shares were converted into Company Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time and paid the Merger Consideration in cash in accordance with Section 2.2, such shares of Parent Common Stock in each case to have the same financial and economic terms as the Parent Common Stock acquired by Affiliates of Parent and (ii) certain Rollover Shares that are Company Preferred Stock shall be contributed to a subsidiary of Parent to be formed prior to the Effective Time (Intermediate Holdco ) in exchange for a number of shares of Intermediate Preferred Stock (as hereinafter defined) valued as though such Rollover Shares were converted into Company Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time and paid the Merger Consideration in cash in accordance with Section 2.2, such shares of Intermediate Preferred Stock to have the financial and economic terms as set forth in the Rollover Agreement. As used in this Agreement, (i) Rollover Shares shall mean the shares of Company Common Stock or Company Preferred Stock as provided in the Rollover Agreement; (ii) the Rollover Agreement shall mean the agreement entered into on the date hereof, by and among Parent, Brian Recatto, Dennis Sciotto and Edward Colson; (iii) Parent Common Stock shall mean the shares of common stock of Parent; and (iv) Intermediate Preferred Stock shall mean the shares of convertible preferred stock of Intermediate Holdco.

(d) Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of Company Common Stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and that are held by a holder who was entitled to and has validly demanded appraisal rights in accordance with Section 12:131 of the LBCL (Dissenting Shares ) shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration but instead shall be converted into the right to receive payment from the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Dissenting Shares in accordance with Section 12:131 of the LBCL (and at the Effective Time, such Dissenting Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically cease to exist, and each holder of Dissenting Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive such consideration as determined pursuant to Section 12:131 of the LBCL); provided, however, that if any such holder shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such right to appraisal and payment under the LBCL, each share of such holder's shares of Company Common Stock shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted as of the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 2.1(c), without any interest thereon, and such shares shall not be deemed to be Dissenting Shares. The Company shall give prompt notice to Parent of any demands, attempted withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to the LBCL received by the Company for appraisal of shares of Company Common Stock, and Parent shall have the right to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to, settle, offer to settle, or approve any withdrawal of any such demands.

(e) Cancellation and Retirement of Company Common Stock. As of the Effective Time, all shares of Company Common Stock (other than Excluded Shares, Dissenting Shares and Rollover Shares) that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of certificates (Certificates ) or book-entry shares (Book-Entry Shares ) representing any shares of Company Common Stock being converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.1(c) shall cease to have any rights with respect to such shares, except the right to receive a cash amount equal to the Merger Consideration multiplied by the number of shares so represented, without interest thereon, to be paid in consideration therefor upon surrender of such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares in accordance with Section 2.2(b).

(f) Certain Adjustments. In the event that prior to the Effective Time, solely as a result of a reclassification, stock split (including a reverse stock split), combination or exchange of shares, stock dividend or stock distribution which in any such event is made on a pro rata basis to all holders of Company Common Stock, there is a change in the number of shares of Company Common Stock outstanding or issuable upon the conversion, exchange or exercise of securities or rights convertible or exchangeable or exercisable for shares of Company Common Stock, then the Merger Consideration shall be equitably adjusted to eliminate the effects of such event.

2.2 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Paying Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall appoint a bank or trust company to act as paying agent (the Paying Agent) for the payment of the Merger Consideration upon surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares. At the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit (or cause to be deposited) with the Paying Agent, for the benefit of the holders of such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, for use in the payment of the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Article II, the aggregate Merger Consideration for all shares of Company Common Stock to be converted pursuant to Section 2.1(c) (the aggregate of all such cash consideration being hereinafter referred to as the Merger Fund). The Paying Agent shall, pursuant to irrevocable instructions of the Surviving Corporation given on the Closing Date, make payments of the Merger Consideration out of the Merger Fund. The Merger Fund shall not be used for any other purpose.

(b) Exchange Procedures. Promptly after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Paying Agent to mail or deliver to each Person (as hereinafter defined) who is a holder of record of a Certificate or Book-Entry Share that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Company Common Stock and whose shares are being converted into the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.1(c) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares to the Paying Agent and shall otherwise be in a form and have such other provisions as the Surviving Corporation may reasonably specify) containing instructions for use by holders of Company Common Stock to effect the exchange of their shares of Company Common Stock for the Merger Consideration as provided herein. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, each holder of an outstanding Certificate or Book-Entry Shares shall, upon surrender to the Paying Agent of such Certificate or Book-Entry Share and such letter of transmittal duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions thereto (together with such other documents as the Paying Agent may reasonably request) and acceptance thereof by the Paying Agent (or, with respect to Book-Entry Shares, upon the entry through a book-entry transfer agent of the surrender of such shares of Company Common Stock on a book-entry account statement), be entitled to an amount of cash (payable by check) equal to the Merger Consideration multiplied by the number of shares of Company Common Stock formerly represented by such Certificate or Book-Entry Share. The Paying Agent shall accept such Certificates and Book-Entry Shares upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Paying Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. If cash is to be remitted to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate or Book-Entry Share surrendered for exchange is registered, it shall be a condition of such exchange that the Certificate or Book-Entry Share so surrendered shall be properly endorsed, with signature guaranteed, or otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Paying Agent any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment of the Merger Consideration to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate or Book-Entry Share so surrendered, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Paying Agent that such tax either has been paid or is not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.2(b), at any time after the Effective Time, each Certificate or Book-Entry Share shall be deemed to represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration for the shares represented thereby upon such surrender as contemplated by Section 2.1. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable as Merger Consideration.

(c) No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock Exchanged for Cash. All cash paid upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares representing shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.2 shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Company Common Stock exchanged for cash theretofore represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Corporation of the shares of Company Common Stock which were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates or Book-Entry Shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation for transfer, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Section 2.2.

(d) Termination of Merger Fund. Any portion of the Merger Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares for 180 days after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Surviving Corporation, and any holders of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares who have not theretofore complied with this Section 2.2 shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation, and only as general creditors thereof for payment of the Merger Consideration, subject to any applicable escheat, abandoned property or similar Law and the articles of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation.

(e) No Liability. None of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent shall be liable to any Person in respect of any cash from the Merger Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(f) Investment of Merger Fund. The Paying Agent shall invest any cash in the Merger Fund as directed by Parent or, after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to the Surviving Corporation or Parent, as Parent directs.

(g) Withholding Rights. The Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock such amounts as the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the Code ), or any provision of state, local or foreign tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld by the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the shares of Company Common Stock in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent.

(h) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation may require as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration payable pursuant to this Agreement.

2.3 Effect of the Merger on Company Stock Options, Company Restricted Stock and Warrants.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time the Board of Directors of the Company or any committee administering the Stock Plans (as hereinafter defined) shall take all actions necessary, and obtain all consents necessary, so that each outstanding Company Stock Option (as hereinafter defined) heretofore granted under any Stock Plan shall become fully vested and exercisable at the Effective Time and shall be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a cash payment by the Surviving Corporation of an amount equal to (i) the excess, if any, of (x) the Merger Consideration over (y) the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option, multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Company Common Stock for which such Company Stock Option shall not theretofore have been exercised. Reasonably promptly after the Effective Time the Surviving Corporation shall pay the holders of Company Stock Options the cash payments specified in this Section 2.3(a) less any required withholding taxes as specified in Section 2.3(d).

each outstanding share of Company Restricted Stock (as hereinafter defined) heretofore granted under any Stock Plan shall lapse at the Effective Time and each such share of Company Restricted Stock shall be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a cash payment by the Surviving Corporation of an amount equal to the Merger Consideration. Reasonably promptly after the Effective Time the Surviving Corporation shall pay the holders of shares of Company Restricted Stock the cash payments specified in this Section 2.3(b), less any required withholding taxes as specified in Section 2.3(d).

(c) Prior to the Effective Time the Board of Directors of the Company shall take all actions necessary, and obtain all consents necessary, so that each outstanding Warrant (as hereinafter defined) shall be exercisable at the Effective Time, to the extent not expiring prior thereto under their terms, and shall be cancelled thereafter and shall evidence only the right to receive a cash payment by the Surviving Corporation of an amount equal to (i) the excess, if any, of (x) the Merger Consideration over (y) the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock subject to such Warrant multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Company Common Stock that would otherwise have been issuable under such Warrants. Nothing in this Section 2.3(c) shall give any rights in respect of exercise or receipt of Merger Consideration in respect of any Warrants that by their terms have expired prior to the Effective Time or been previously exercised. Reasonably promptly after the Effective Time the Surviving Corporation shall pay the Persons entitled to payments under the Warrants the cash payments specified in this Section 2.3(c).

(d) Immediately following the payment of all amounts payable pursuant to this Section 2.3, the Stock Plans and all award agreements thereunder shall terminate, and the provisions in any other agreement, arrangement or benefit plan providing for the issuance, transfer or grant of any capital stock of the Company or any interest in respect of any capital stock of the Company shall be deleted or eliminated as of the Effective Time, and the Company shall take such actions to ensure that as of the Effective Time no holder of a Company Stock Option, Warrants, shares of Company Restricted Stock or any participant in or a party to any Stock Plan or other agreement, arrangement or benefit plan shall have any right thereunder to acquire any capital stock, any interest in respect of any capital stock of the Surviving Corporation or any other rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the cash payments specified in this Section 2.3. The Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Section 2.3 to any holder of Company Stock Options or Company Restricted Stock or holder of Warrants (a Warrant Holder ) such amounts as the Surviving Corporation is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld by the Surviving Corporation, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Company Stock Options or Company Restricted Stock or Warrant Holders, as the case may be, in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Corporation.

2.4 Redemption of Company Preferred Stock.

(a) After the date hereof, the Company shall, in accordance with the Company's articles of incorporation, deliver a notice, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent, to the holders of Series C 9% Convertible Preferred Stock, a series of Company Preferred Stock ( Series C Stock ), stating that the Company will redeem each outstanding share of Series C Stock (other than any Rollover Shares that are Series C Stock) for an amount in cash equal to the Preferred Liquidation Value (as defined in the Company's articles of incorporation), plus all accrued dividends thereon, whether or not declared or due in respect thereof, immediately prior to the Effective Time as determined in accordance with the Company's articles of incorporation.
