Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On November 24, 2010, Citadel Broadcasting Corporation (the Company) commenced a private offering of new senior notes. The notes offering is being made solely to qualified institutional buyers, as defined under Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and to certain non-U.S. persons, as defined under Regulation S under the Securities Act. The notes offering is being made pursuant to a confidential offering memorandum dated November 24, 2010 (the Preliminary Offering Memorandum).

On December 6, 2010, the Company prepared a supplement to the Preliminary Offering Memorandum. The supplement contains the following information which has not been previously disclosed:

Recent developments

Receipt of unsolicited proposal to enter into a merger transaction

In early November 2010, Citadel Broadcasting Corporation (the Company) received an unsolicited letter from a third party proposing a merger transaction with the Company. This proposal was rejected by the Company's board of directors after it determined that the proposal was not in the best interests of the Company's shareholders. On November 29, 2010, the Company received a second unsolicited letter from this third party that improved the terms of its prior proposal, and after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, the board of directors of the Company also rejected this proposal as not being in the best interests of the Company's shareholders.
