Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

The information provided pursuant to this Item 7.01 shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, and shall not be incorporated by reference into any filing or other document filed by Cell Therapeutics, Inc. (the Company) pursuant to the Exchange Act or the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing or document. The information provided pursuant to this Item 7.01 shall instead be deemed furnished.

An English translation of the Company's listing prospectus (the Registration Document) related to the registration of the Company's common stock as required by the Commissione Nazionale per la Società e la Borsa (CONSOB) is furnished and not filed pursuant to Item 7.01 as Exhibit 99.1 hereto. An English translation of the Company's notice regarding the publication of the Registration Document is furnished and not filed pursuant to Item 7.01 as Exhibit 99.2 hereto.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 2, 2010, the Company published the Registration Document in Italy. The Company initially filed the Registration Document with CONSOB on September 24, 2010 and on December 1, 2010, the Company received a notice from CONSOB communicating approval to publish the Registration Document. The Registration Document is effective for one year from the date of CONSOB's approval and the Company may use it to register its securities on the Italian stock market. On December 3, 2010, the Company published a notice announcing the publication of the Registration Document in Italy.

Italian laws, rules and regulations governing the issuance and sale of securities in Italy differ from those in the United States. As a result, certain disclosures made in the Registration Document are not required under the laws, rules and regulations of the United States. For example, CONSOB required the Company to disclose certain financial information in the Registration Document that are not required in the United States, and CONSOB does not require such financial information to be audited or independently reviewed.

The Registration Document contains forward-looking statements that are based on the Company's expectations regarding, among other things, the Company, the growth of its business, its financial performance and the development of industry the Company operates. Since these forward-looking statements reflect the Company's estimates regarding future events, they involve a number of risks and uncertainties, the outcome of which could materially and/or adversely affect future results and/or the trading price of the Company's securities. Therefore, no undue reliance should be placed on any forward-looking statements contained in the Registration Document as the statements speak only as of the date on which such statements were made. In evaluating these forward-looking statements, investors should also consider the risk factors described from time to time in the Company's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including, without limitation, the Company's most recent filings on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K. Except as may be required by law, the Company does not intend to update or alter its forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
