The restricted and deferred stock awards vest three years from the grant date. Individual award amounts were limited to the shareholder-approved maximum of one million shares as provided in the 2010 Performance Incentive Plan. Forms of restricted and deferred stock agreements are attached as Exhibit 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are incorporated by reference herein.

As a condition to eligibility to receive the 2011 restricted and deferred stock awards, each executive officer listed above as well as certain other persons who are otherwise eligible to receive such an award is required to execute a confidentiality and non-competition agreement. A form of such confidentiality and non-competition agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The terms of the confidentiality and non-competition agreement provide, among other matters, that during the term of such person's employment and for a period of eighteen (18) months thereafter, each such person will not, directly or indirectly, (i) compete with such person's employer, the Company, its wholly-owned subsidiaries and affiliates, (ii) solicit or hire employees of such person's employer, the Company, its wholly-owned subsidiaries and affiliates, or (iii) solicit customers of such person's employer, the Company, its wholly-owned subsidiaries and affiliates. The agreement additionally includes proprietary rights and confidentiality obligations.

Future Programs

On January 25, 2011, the Compensation Committee approved the formula that would be used to determine the maximum award amounts for 2011 annual incentive awards. The formula reflects the Company's intention to qualify, to the extent possible, cash compensation paid to officers as tax deductible, subject to the deductibility limitations of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Under the formula, the maximum award amounts would be equal to 0.23 percent of the Company's 2011 adjusted net earnings for the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and 0.115 percent of the Company's 2011 adjusted net earnings for each of the other covered officers. Adjusted net earnings of the Company would be defined as the net earnings before extraordinary items, discontinued operations and the cumulative effect of accounting changes and excluding certain other items designated by the Compensation Committee. In addition, individual award amounts would be limited to the shareholder-approved maximum of $10.0 million as provided in the 2010 Performance Incentive Plan.

In addition, on January 25, 2011, the Compensation Committee approved a formula that would be used to determine the maximum award amounts for 2012 equity awards. The formula reflects the Company's intention to qualify, to the extent possible, equity awards made to officers as tax deductible, subject to the deductibility limitations of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Under the formula, the maximum equity award grant value would be equal to 0.33 percent of the Company's 2011 adjusted net earnings for the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and 0.165 percent of the Company's 2011 adjusted net earnings for each of the other covered officers. Adjusted net earnings of the Company would be defined as the net earnings before extraordinary items, discontinued operations and the cumulative effect of accounting changes and excluding certain other items designated by the Compensation Committee. In addition, individual awards would be limited to the shareholder-approved maximum of one million shares as provided in the 2010 Performance Incentive Plan.

Further, on January 25, 2011, the Compensation Committee approved a formula that would be used to determine the maximum award amounts for the 2011-2013 performance cycle of the long-term performance incentive plan. The formula reflects the Company's intention to qualify, to the extent possible, cash compensation paid to officers as tax deductible, subject to the deductibility limitations of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Under the formula, the maximum award amounts would be equal to 0.16 percent of the Company's three-year (2011-2013) cumulative adjusted net earnings for the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and 0.08 percent of the Company's three-year (2011-2013) cumulative adjusted net earnings for each of the other covered officers. Adjusted net earnings of the Company is defined as the net earnings before extraordinary items, discontinued operations and the cumulative effect of accounting changes and excluding certain other items designated by the Compensation Committee. In addition, individual award amounts are limited to the shareholder-approved maximum of $24 million for the 2011-2013 performance cycle of the long-term incentive plan as provided in the 2010 Performance Incentive Plan.

The Company will provide additional information regarding the compensation of its named executive officers in its proxy statement for the 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, which will be issued in April 2011.
