About KEPCO

Korea Electric Power Corporation (KEPCO) is a government-invested, integrated electric utility company in Korea. KEPCO is the only company engaged in power transmission and distribution in Korea. KEPCO generates approximately over 91% of total electricity produced in Korea through its wholly-owned six generation subsidiaries (GENCOs). KEPCO spun off its generation business and established six GENCOs in 2001 in accordance with the government s restructuring plan for the Korean electricity industry.
