Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Arrangement Agreement

On February 20, 2013, Coeur d Alene Mines Corporation (the Company or Coeur) entered into an Arrangement Agreement (the Arrangement Agreement), among the Company, 0961994 B.C. Ltd., a corporation wholly-owned by the Company and incorporated under the laws of British Columbia (Subco), and Orko Silver Corp., a corporation incorporated under the laws of British Columbia (Orko), pursuant to which the Company will acquire (the Arrangement) all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Orko (the Orko Shares) pursuant to a plan of arrangement (the Plan of Arrangement) under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia). The consummation of the Arrangement is subject to approval by the Supreme Court of British Columbia (the Court) and other customary closing conditions described further below.

Pursuant to, and subject to the terms and conditions of, the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, Orko shareholders (the Orko Shareholders) may elect to receive in exchange for each Orko Share: (i) 0.0815 common shares of Coeur (the Coeur Shares), CAD$0.70 cash and 0.01118 conditioned warrants to purchase Coeur Shares (the Coeur Warrants); (ii) 0.1118 Coeur Shares and 0.01118 Coeur Warrants, subject to pro-ratio as to the number of Coeur Shares if the total number of Coeur Shares elected by Orko Shareholders exceeds approximately 11.6 million; or (iii) CAD$2.60 in cash and 0.01118 Coeur Warrants, subject to pro-ratio as to the amount of cash if the total cash elected by Orko Shareholders exceeds CAD$100 million. If all Orko Shareholders elect either the all cash (and Coeur Warrants) or the all share (and Coeur Warrants) alternative, each Orko Shareholder would receive 0.0815 Coeur Shares and CAD$0.70 in cash, together with 0.01118 Coeur Warrants, for each Orko Share. One whole Coeur Warrant is expected in certain circumstances, including the effectiveness of a registration statement with respect to underlying Coeur Shares (to the extent required by applicable U.S. securities laws), to be exercisable for one whole Coeur Share for a period of four years commencing on the later of (i) the date the Arrangement is consummated and (ii) the date that the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) initially declares effective a registration statement qualifying the Coeur Shares issuable on exercise of the Coeur Warrants, at an exercise price of US$30.00, all subject to adjustment in accordance with the terms of the Coeur Warrant. The Company has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to register the Coeur Shares issuable upon the valid exercise of the Coeur Warrants under applicable U.S. securities laws and have the Coeur Warrants listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange and the New York Stock Exchange, but the completion of such registration and listings will not be a closing condition of the Arrangement.

The parties have agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to make any necessary amendments to the Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, prior to the mailing of the management proxy circular to Orko Shareholders, to permit Orko Shareholders who are residents of Canada and who would receive Coeur Shares under the Arrangement to receive, instead of each Coeur Share that they would otherwise receive under the Plan of Arrangement, one share of a Canadian-incorporated subsidiary of Coeur that is exchangeable into one Coeur Share (collectively, the Exchangeable Shares). The Exchangeable Shares (i) shall be exchangeable for a period of five years from the date of issue provided that 500,000 Exchangeable Shares remain outstanding and (ii) shall not be listed or quoted on any exchange or market. The Company has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to register the Coeur Shares issuable on exchange of the Exchangeable Shares (to the extent required by applicable U.S. securities laws), but the completion of such registration will not be a closing condition of the Arrangement.

Consummation of the Arrangement is subject to various closing conditions, including, among others: (i) the approval of the Arrangement by no less than two-thirds of the Orko securityholders, voting as a single class, voting at a special meeting to be called to consider the Arrangement (the Orko Meeting) and any other necessary actions related thereto; (ii) obtaining from the Court an Interim Order and Final Order (as both terms are defined below) on terms satisfactory to each of Coeur and Orko; (iii) obtaining all antitrust clearances on terms and conditions satisfactory to each of Coeur and Orko; (iv) that holders of not more than five percent of the Orko Shares exercising rights of dissent with respect to the Arrangement; (v) the accuracy of each party's representations and warranties (subject to any inaccuracies that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably result in a material adverse effect) and the performance by each party of its respective covenants; and (vi) the absence of a material adverse change with respect to each party.

The Arrangement Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants by the parties thereto, including, among other things, covenants of Orko not to solicit competing or alternative transactions, subject to certain exceptions to permit the Board of Directors of Orko to comply with its fiduciary duties, including the right of Orko to enter into a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Arrangement Agreement).

The Arrangement Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Orko. Orko has agreed to pay a termination fee of CAD$11.6 million (the Termination Payment) if the Arrangement Agreement is terminated because (i) Orko terminates in order to enter into a definitive written agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal; (ii) the Board of Directors of Orko fails to recommend or will have withdrawn, qualified, modified or changed in a manner adverse to the Company its approval or recommendation of the Arrangement or has recommended or approved an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Arrangement Agreement); (iii) the Board of Directors of Orko will have failed to reaffirm its recommendation of the Arrangement and the Arrangement Agreement as promptly as practicable after receipt of any reasonable request from the Company to do so and in any event within five business days after a public announcement of any Acquisition Proposal; or (iv) the Arrangement will not have been approved by the Orko Shareholders on or before April 30, 2013 in the manner provided for in the Arrangement Agreement and in the Interim Order. In addition, each party has agreed that a breaching party will pay an expense reimbursement fee of CAD$1.5 million if the Arrangement Agreement is terminated as a result of a breach of the representations, warranties or covenants such that the closing conditions would not be met.

In order to become effective, the Arrangement must be approved by a resolution (the Arrangement Resolution) passed by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast by Orko securityholders, voting as a single class, at the Orko Meeting. The Board of Directors of Orko has unanimously approved the transaction and will provide a written recommendation that the Orko Shareholders vote in favor of the transaction, which will be included in the information circular to be mailed to Orko Shareholders in connection with the Arrangement. Each of the directors and officers of Orko, who hold in the aggregate approximately 7.75% of the issued and outstanding Orko Shares, has entered into a voting agreement pursuant to which they have agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of such agreements, to vote in favor of the Arrangement at the Orko Meeting.

Additionally, in order to become effective, the Arrangement must be approved by the Court. Orko will obtain an interim order from the Court (the Interim Order) providing for the calling and holding of the Orko Meeting and certain other procedural matters. Subject to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement, and if the Arrangement Resolution is approved by Orko Shareholders at the Orko Meeting in the manner required by the Interim Order, Orko intends to make an application to the Court for a final order (the Final Order). In the Final Order, the Court may approve the Arrangement, either as proposed or as amended, on the terms presented or substantially on those terms. Depending upon the nature of any required amendments, the Company or Orko may determine not to proceed with the Arrangement.

The foregoing descriptions of the Arrangement, the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the copy of the Arrangement Agreement, including the Plan of Arrangement attached as Exhibit B thereto, which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

See disclosure contained in Item 7.01 below, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 3.02. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

As described in Item 1.01 above, the Company has agreed in the Arrangement Agreement that, if the Plan of Arrangement becomes effective and its acquisition of the Orko Shares is thereby completed, the Company may issue, as consideration for all of the issued and outstanding Orko Shares: (i) depending on the elections of the Orko Shareholders, a combination of Coeur Shares and conditioned Exchangeable Shares not to exceed 11,600,000 in the aggregate and (ii) 1,160,000 conditioned Coeur Warrants. Upon the fulfillment of certain conditions, the Exchangeable Shares are expected to be exchangeable on a one-for-one basis for Coeur Shares and the warrants are expected to be exercisable for up to 1,160,000 Coeur Shares.

Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), exempts from the registration requirements under the Securities Act the issuance and exchange of securities which have been approved, after a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions on which all persons to whom it is proposed the securities will be issued shall have the right to appear, by any court expressly authorized by law to grant such approval. Under the Arrangement Agreement, Orko will submit the Plan of Arrangement to the Court for the Interim Order permitting notice to all persons to which the Coeur Shares, Coeur Warrants and Exchangeable Shares, as applicable, will potentially be issuable. Following the requisite approval by the Orko Shareholders and a hearing at which such persons will have the right to appear, Orko will seek the Final Order from the Court as to the fairness of the Plan of Arrangement. The Final Order is a condition to the consummation of the Plan of Arrangement and the issuance of the Coeur Shares, Coeur Warrants and Exchangeable Shares, as applicable. The Company therefore anticipates that, if the Plan of Arrangement becomes effective under the terms and conditions described in the Arrangement Agreement (including the receipt of the Final Order from the Court), the issuance of the Coeur Shares, Coeur Warrants and Exchangeable Shares, as applicable, to the Orko Shareholders upon the consummation of the Arrangement will be exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 3(a)(10) thereof. To the extent other exemptions from registration under the Securities Act are available in connection with the securities to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement, Coeur and Subco may also choose to rely upon such exemptions.

See disclosure contained in Item 1.01 above, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Promissory Note

In connection with the Arrangement Agreement, on February 20, 2013, Orko executed and delivered a promissory note (the Note) in the principal amount of CAD$11,600,000 in favor of the Company in connection with the Company's payment, on behalf of Orko, of the termination fee due to First Majestic Silver Corp. (First Majestic) pursuant to Orko's and First Majestic's arrangement agreement, dated as of December 16, 2012 (the First Majestic Arrangement Agreement). Orko and First Majestic terminated the First Majestic Arrangement Agreement in accordance with its terms on February 20, 2013. The indebtedness due under the Note will not accrue interest. The Note has a maturity date of August 20, 2014; provided, however, that earlier repayment may be required upon the occurrence of certain events of default or upon a Termination Payment becoming payable pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement. The Note includes customary representations, warranties and covenants by the parties thereto.

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Note, Orko is entitled, at its option, upon the indebtedness under the Note becoming due and payable on any date, so long as (i) the indebtedness has not become due and payable on such date as a result of certain events of default and (ii) the Termination Payment under the Arrangement Agreement is not payable on such date, to convert all of the principal amount of the indebtedness into common stock of Orko (the Borrower Stock). The indebtedness will be convertible into Borrower Stock at a price per share equal to CAD$2.25 (such price, subject to adjustment, the Conversion Price), and the number of Borrower Stock to be deliverable to the Company upon conversion will be equal to the quotient of (x) the amount of indebtedness under the Note divided by (y) the Conversion Price.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On February 20, 2013, the Company issued a press release announcing its entry into the Arrangement Agreement, as described in Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
