This Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 14D-9 amends and supplements the Schedule 14D-9, originally filed by The Hillshire Brands Company, a Maryland corporation, with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 16, 2014 (as amended, the Statement). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Statement.

Except as otherwise noted below, no changes are being made to the Schedule 14D-9.

Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation

Item 4 is hereby amended as set forth below.

In the section entitled Background of Offer; Reasons for Recommendation Background of the Offer, the thirty-seventh paragraph therein on page 20 is amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

The revised draft merger agreement received from Pilgrim's Pride proposed that the amount paid by Hillshire Brands as a result of the termination of the Pinnacle Merger Agreement would be capped at $163 million, which was the maximum amount contemplated by the Pinnacle Merger Agreement, and that, if the merger agreement with Pilgrim's Pride was terminated under certain circumstances, Hillshire Brands would pay to Pilgrim's Pride a termination fee equal to 4% of Hillshire Brands' equity value and, in a broader set of circumstance than had been proposed by Hillshire Brands in the initial draft of the merger agreement as well as a broader set of circumstances than had been proposed by Tyson in the revised merger agreement received from Tyson to date, would pay Pilgrim's Pride the Pinnacle Reimbursement Fee. The draft merger agreement also contemplated certain additional circumstances of termination in which Hillshire Brands would be required to pay the Pinnacle Reimbursement Fee but not the 4% termination fee, which circumstances were broader than those proposed by Tyson in the revised merger agreement received from Tyson to date. The broader set of circumstances (as compared to the Tyson offer to date and the original proposal by Hillshire Brands) under which Hillshire Brands would be required to pay the Pinnacle Reimbursement Fee under the proposed merger agreement from Pilgrim's Pride included (i) if either party terminated the agreement as a result of a law or order permanently enjoining the transaction (due to a breach by Hillshire Brands of the merger agreement, any other contract or any applicable law), (ii) if Hillshire Brands terminated the agreement as a result of the expiration or termination of the tender offer without any shares having been purchased or (iii) if either party terminated the agreement at the outside date, if at such time certain of the offer conditions (including the absence of a material adverse effect on Hillshire Brands, or the material breach by Hillshire Brands of its representations, warranties or covenants in the agreement) have not been satisfied. Later that day, Pilgrim's Pride's counsel and Skadden, Arps discussed key terms of the draft merger agreement from Pilgrim's Pride, including, among other things, the size of the termination fee payable by Hillshire Brands and the circumstances in which Hillshire Brands would be required to reimburse Pilgrim's Pride for any payment by Pilgrim's Pride of the Pinnacle Reimbursement Fee.

In the section entitled Background of Offer; Reasons for Recommendation Background of the Offer, the forty-first paragraph therein on page 21 is amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Later on June 8, 2014, Hillshire Brands received proposals from each of Tyson and Pilgrim's Pride. The Tyson offer consisted of a unilaterally binding offer to acquire all of the outstanding Shares at a price of $63.00 per Share in cash, executed by Tyson and its merger subsidiary. The Pilgrim's Pride offer consisted of a unilaterally binding offer to acquire all of the outstanding Shares at a price of $55.00 per Share in cash, executed by Pilgrim's Pride and its merger subsidiary. The Tyson offer also provided for a termination fee equal to 3.25% of Hillshire Brands' equity value. The Pilgrim's Pride offer provided for a termination fee equal to 3.75% of Hillshire Brands' equity value. Together with their unilaterally executed merger agreements, each of Tyson and Pilgrim's Pride also submitted to Hillshire Brands financing commitment letters from the applicable financing commitment parties. The irrevocable offer letter executed by each of Tyson and Pilgrim's Pride provided that Hillshire Brands could accept Tyson's offer or Pilgrim's Pride's offer by executing the applicable merger agreement at any time until the earlier of three days following the termination of the Pinnacle Merger Agreement and December 12, 2014, subject to the Pinnacle Merger Agreement having been terminated, or be terminated concurrently with such execution. Following submission of Tyson's offer and Pilgrim's Pride's offer, representatives of Tyson and Hillshire Brands discussed certain terms in the merger agreement and disclosure schedules delivered by Tyson, including the ability of Tyson to extend the expiration of any tender offer to be launched by Tyson for the Shares and certain provisions relating to the treatment of Hillshire Brands employees.

In the section entitled "Background of Offer; Reasons for Recommendation" Background of the Offer, the third sentence of the forty-second paragraph therein on page 21 is amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Representatives of Skadden, Arps then provided a summary of the terms of the two offers, including the terms of the merger agreement contained in each case therein and noted that the key terms of the Tyson proposed merger agreement were in general comparable to, or more favorable to Hillshire Brands than, the key terms of the Pilgrim's Pride proposed merger agreement. Representatives of Skadden, Arps then reviewed the duties of directors in connection therewith, as well as the applicable terms of the Pinnacle Merger Agreement.

Item 6. Interest in Securities of the Subject Company

Item 6 is hereby amended as set forth below.

The sole paragraph in Item 6 is deleted in its entirety and restated to read as follows:

Other than in the ordinary course of business in connection with grants of dividend equivalent rights to directors under the Company's 1999 Non-Employee Director Stock Plan, as amended, the Company's 2012 Long-Term Incentive Stock Plan, as amended, and the Company's corresponding Compensation Policy for Non-Employee Directors, each filed as Exhibits (e)(8), (e)(6) and (e)(3) hereto, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference, and other than the grant of the Top-Up Option, no transactions with respect to the Shares have been effected by the Company or, to the knowledge of the Company, by any of its executive officers, directors, affiliates or subsidiaries during the past 60 days.

Item 8. Additional Information

All three paragraphs in the section entitled "Litigation" on page 50 are deleted in their entirety and the section is restated to read as follows:

On June 4, 2014, a putative stockholder class action complaint challenging the Pinnacle Acquisition was filed in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, Maryland (the "Court"), captioned Bucks County Employees Retirement Fund v. Hillshire Brands Co., et al., No. 24-C-14-003492 (the "Bucks County Action"). The Bucks County Action alleged, among other things, that the individual members of the Board breached their fiduciary duties in approving the Pinnacle Acquisition.

Beginning on or around July 3, 2014, four putative stockholder class action complaints challenging the Merger and the Merger Agreement were filed in the Court, and were captioned: Cohen v. The Hillshire Brands Company, et al., No. 24-C-14-004060 (the Cohen Action); Kennedy v. The Hillshire Brands Company, et al., No. 24-C-14-004106 (the Kennedy Action); Jeweltex Manufacturing Inc. Retirement Plan v. The Hillshire Brands Company, et al., No. 24-C-14-004145 (the Jeweltex Action); and Wegner v. The Hillshire Brands Company, et al., No. 24-C-14-004300 (the Wegner Action). These four actions alleged, among other things, that the individual members of the Board breached their fiduciary duties by entering into the Merger Agreement.

On July 23, 2014, upon the joint stipulation of the parties, the Court issued orders (a) consolidating the Bucks County Action, the Cohen Action, the Kennedy Action, the Jeweltex Action and the Wegner Action under the caption, Bucks County Employees Retirement Fund, et al. v. The Hillshire Brands Company, et al., No. 24-C-14-3492 (the Consolidated Action); and (b) appointing interim lead counsel to plaintiffs (the Plaintiffs) in the Consolidated Action.

On July 24, 2014, Plaintiffs filed a consolidated putative stockholder class action complaint (the Consolidated Complaint), naming as defendants the individual members of the Board (the Director Defendants), the Company, and Tyson and Offeror (together, the Tyson Defendants and, collectively with the Director Defendants and the Company, the Defendants) and alleging, among other things, that the Director Defendants breached their fiduciary duties by entering into the Merger Agreement. The Consolidated Complaint alleges that the consideration in the Merger undervalues the Company and that the deal protection provisions in the Merger Agreement unduly favor Tyson and preclude or impede other bidders from making competing offers for the Company. The Consolidated Complaint also alleges that the Director Defendants breached their fiduciary duties by pursuing a transaction with Pinnacle, and agreeing to payment of a $163 million termination fee upon the termination of the Pinnacle Merger Agreement. The Consolidated Complaint also alleges that this Statement, as filed by the Company with the SEC on July 16, 2014, omits or mistates certain material information about the Offer and the events leading up to the Offer. The Consolidated Complaint alleges that the Tyson Defendants aided and abetted the Director Defendants' breach of their fiduciary duties.

The Consolidated Complaint seeks declaratory relief, and recovery of the value of the Pinnacle Reimbursement Fee that Tyson, on the Company's behalf, paid to Pinnacle. The Consolidated Complaint also seeks to enjoin the Offer or, in the event that the Offer is consummated, recover damages.

On July 25, 2014, the Plaintiffs filed motions to expedite discovery and to shorten the Defendants' time to respond to the motion for expedited discovery. The parties to the Consolidated Action commenced expedited discovery, and therefore, on July 28, 2014, the Plaintiffs withdrew their motion.

The Defendants believe that the allegations and claims in the litigation are without merit and intend to defend them vigorously.
