Nomura Announces Proposals for Amendments to its Articles of Incorporation

Tokyo, May 19, 2015 Nomura Holdings, Inc. (the Company) today announced that its board of directors adopted a resolution to submit proposals for amendments to the Company s Articles of Incorporation to the 111th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders to be held on June 24, 2015.

1. Reasons for Amendment

(1) Changes associated with the Name Change of Company with Committees under the Companies Act On May 1, 2015, the Act for Partial Amendment to the Companies Act (Act No. 90 of 2014, Amended Companies Act) came into force, and the name of the governance structure in which three committees (the nomination, compensation and audit committees) are put in place has changed from Company with Committees to Company with Three Committees.

Accordingly, necessary changes will be made to Article 5 of the Company s Articles of Incorporation.

(2) Changes to the Rules regarding the Limitation of Liability Agreements In the Amended Companies Act, the execution of limitation of liability agreements between a company and its directors who solely oversee/audit the management and do not personally execute business has been accepted. Accordingly, from the perspective of bringing on and appointing valuable human resources, necessary changes will be made to Article 33 of the Company s Articles of Incorporation.

Furthermore, concerning the submission of these changes to the general meeting of shareholders, the consent of all members of the Audit Committee has been obtained.

(3) Change to the Record Dates for the Dividend Distribution of Surpluses Currently, in Article 44 of the Company s Articles of Incorporation, the four record dates for the dividend distribution of surpluses are prescribed as June 30, September 30, December 31, and March 31. On the other hand, the basic policy of the Company is to pay dividends on a biannual basis with record dates of September 30 and March 31.

For the purpose of conforming the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation to the policy stated above, necessary changes will be made to Article 44 of the Company s Articles of Incorporation.
