Item 8.01 Other Events

On May 20, 2015, Rosewind Corporation (Rosewind), a Colorado corporation and approximately 81.5%-owned subsidiary of Ampio Pharmaceuticals, a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into and closed on an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with Jazz Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Seller). Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, Rosewind purchased from the Seller assets related to the Seller's product known as ProstaScint® (capromab pendetide), including certain intellectual property and contracts, and the product approvals, inventory and work in progress (collectively, the ProstaScint Business), and assumed certain of the Seller's liabilities, including those related to product approvals and the sale and marketing of ProstaScint.

Rosewind paid $1.0 million at closing for the ProstaScint Business. Rosewind has also agreed to pay to the Seller an additional $500,000 payable within five days after transfer for the ProstaScint-related product inventory and $226,523 payable on September 30, 2015 (which represents a portion of certain United States Food and Drug Administration fees). Rosewind also will pay to the Seller eight percent (8%) on net sales made after October 31, 2017, payable up to a maximum aggregate payment of $2.5 million.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties and covenants by each party. The Purchase Agreement contains customary indemnification provisions by each party, including, subject to certain limitations, the indemnification by each party for any losses arising out of any breach of the other party's representations or warranties or any breach or failure to perform any of its covenants under the agreement, as well as any liabilities arising out of the ProstaScint Business prior to the closing (as to Rosewind) and after the closing (as to the Seller).

The Purchase Agreement also provides that for a period of one year the Seller agrees to not directly or indirectly, through any of its agents or affiliates, (i) compete against the ProstaScint Business, or (ii) acquire a company or business in which more than fifteen percent (15%) of such acquired business' total revenue is generated by products that compete with the ProstaScint Business.

The foregoing summary of the material terms of the Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Purchase Agreement, which is being filed as an exhibit to Rosewind's Current Report on Form 8-K on May 27, 2015, and is incorporated by reference into this Current Report on Form 8-K.
