(the Company) entered into (i) a Share Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with the shareholders of Creagh Medical Limited (Creagh Medical) named therein, (ii) a Put and Call Option Agreement with the shareholders of Creagh Medical named therein (the Put and Call Agreement) and (iii) certain amendments to existing put and call option agreements with certain shareholders of Creagh medical, as described in the Purchase Agreement (together with the Purchase Agreement and the Put and Call Agreement, the Transaction Documents) pursuant to which the Company agreed to purchase all of the shares of Creagh Medical for up to 30 million (approx. US$32 million), including an upfront payment of 18 million, and up to 12 million based on achievement of revenue and value-creating operational milestones, subject certain adjustments (including a customary working capital adjustment). Creagh Medical, based in Ballinasloe, Ireland, is a developer and manufacturer of percutaneous transluminal angioplasty (PTA) balloon catheters.

Each of the parties to the Purchase Agreement made certain customary representations, warranties and covenants to other parties to the Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Agreement also provides for customary indemnification of the Company and the shareholders of Creagh Medical with respect to breaches of representations, warranties and covenants and certain other specified matters.

The text of the Purchase Agreement is attached as Exhibit 2.1 to provide information regarding its terms. It is not intended to modify or supplement any factual disclosures about the Company or Creagh Medical in any public reports filed or to be filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) by the Company. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement were made only for purposes of the Purchase Agreement and as of the specified dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement, and are subject to the limitations agreed upon by the parties to the Purchase Agreement, including being qualified by disclosure schedules provided by the parties in connection with the execution of the Agreement. Such disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Purchase Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement have been made for the purposes of allocating risk between the parties to the Purchase Agreement instead of establishing matters of fact. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement may not constitute the actual state of facts about the Company or Creagh Medical. The representations and warranties set forth in the Purchase Agreement may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable under federal securities laws. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties, or covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or the actual condition of the Company or Creagh Medical or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

The foregoing descriptions of the Purchase Agreement and the Put and Call Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement and the Put and Call Agreement, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and Exhibit 2.2 and are incorporated herein by reference.
