Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 17, 2016, the Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors of Career Education Corporation (the Company) approved the 2016 Annual Incentive Award Program (the 2016 AIP) pursuant to the Career Education Corporation 2008 Incentive Compensation Plan (the 2008 Plan). The 2016 AIP is similar to the Company's amended and restated 2015 annual incentive program, using a company-wide EBITDA performance component (80% weighting) and an individual goals performance component (20% weighting) for the most senior level participants. Achievement of the target level of performance for the EBITDA performance component results in a payout factor of 100%, with achievement of a threshold EBITDA performance level of at least 60% required for any payments under the 2016 AIP and a payment cap of 200% of a participant's AIP target value. In addition, the payout opportunity for the individual goals performance component will also vary based on the level of achievement of the EBITDA performance component to further support the achievement of the anticipated benefits of the Company's recent business changes.

Jeffrey Ayers, Jeffrey Cooper, Andrew Hurst, John Kline and Todd Nelson, certain of the Company's executive officers, participate in the 2016 Annual Incentive Award Program for Key Executives pursuant to the 2008 Plan (the Key Executive AIP) which was also approved by the Committee on February 17, 2016. As previously disclosed, compensation for the services of the Company's Interim CFO, David Rawden, is provided pursuant to an agreement with an affiliate of AlixPartners; Mr. Rawden is not directly compensated by the Company. The Key Executive AIP (i) establishes the maximum amount payable to each identified participant based on achievement of a revenue performance measure and (ii) is designed to qualify amounts earned under the Key Executive AIP as performance-based compensation for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time. The Committee intends to exercise its negative discretion under the Key Executive AIP to establish payments thereunder in accordance with the 2016 AIP, consistent with its practice in recent years. The Committee has not yet determined if any changes will be made to the AIP target value applicable to any of the Company's named executive officers for 2016.
