Item 1.01. Entry Into Material Definitive Agreement

On June 29, 2016, VCA Inc. (the Company) entered into a Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement) by and among the Vicar Operating, Inc., as borrower, the Company, as guarantor, certain subsidiaries of the Company party thereto, as guarantors, the lenders party thereto, Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent, swing line lender and L/C issuer, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Barclays Bank PLC, Suntrust Bank, and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. as co-syndication agents, and other agents party thereto. The new Credit Agreement replaced the Company's Existing Credit Agreement (defined below), which provided for $600 million of senior secured term notes and $800 million senior secured revolving credit facility, and which had been entered into as of August 19, 2011.

The Credit Agreement provides for $880 million of senior secured term notes and an additional $800 million senior secured revolving facility. In addition to refinancing all outstanding amounts under our Existing Credit Agreement, borrowings under our Credit Agreement may be used by the Company for general corporate purposes.

In general, borrowings under the Credit Agreement (including swing line borrowings) bear interest on the basis of either a base rate plus the applicable margin ranging from 0.00% to 1.00% or the applicable LIBOR rate, which is subject to a floor of zero, plus the applicable margin ranging from 1.00% to 2.00%. The base rate is equal to the highest of (a) the Federal funds rate plus 0.50%, (b) Bank of America, N.A.'s prime rate, and (c) one month LIBOR, also subject to a floor of zero, plus 1.0%. Until the business day after the delivery of the compliance certificate and the financial statements for the period ending September 30, 2016, borrowings under the Credit Agreement, at the Company's current leverage ratio, will bear interest at LIBOR plus 175 basis points or the base rate plus 75 basis points.

The revolving credit facility under the Credit Agreement matures on June 29, 2021, and requires compliance with conditions precedent that must be satisfied prior to any borrowing as well as compliance with certain affirmative and negative covenants. The term loans issued under the Credit Agreement mature on June 29, 2021, with principal payments of $5,500,000 due on the last day of each calendar quarter from September 30, 2016 to and including June 30, 2017, $11,000,000 due on the last day of each calendar quarter from September 30, 2017 to and including June 30, 2019, $16,500,000 due on the last day of each calendar quarter from September 30, 2019 to and including June 30, 2020, and $22,000,000 due on the last day of each calendar quarter thereafter with a final payment of the outstanding principal balance due on June 29, 2021. Principal payments under the revolving credit facility portion are made at the Company's discretion with the entire unpaid amount due at maturity.

All outstanding indebtedness under the Credit Agreement may be voluntarily prepaid in whole or in part without premium or penalty, other than customary breakage costs. The Company and each of its wholly owned, domestic, subsidiaries guarantee the outstanding indebtedness under the Credit Agreement. Any borrowings, along with the guarantees of the domestic subsidiaries, are further secured by a pledge of substantially all of the Company's and its domestic subsidiaries' assets, including 65% of the voting equity and 100% of the non-voting equity interests in each of the Company's foreign subsidiaries.

The Credit Agreement contains certain customary affirmative covenants, including, among others: (i) preservation of existence; (ii) payment of obligations, including taxes; (iii) maintenance of properties, insurance, leases, books and records and material contracts; (iv) compliance with laws; (v) use of proceeds; (vi) subordination of intercompany loans; (vii) anti-terrorism laws; and (viii) collateral.

The Credit Agreement also contains certain customary negative covenants, including, among others, restrictions on: (i) incurring additional debt; (ii) granting of liens; (iii) dispositions of assets and (iv) making restricted payments. Additionally, the Credit Agreement contains customary events of default, including, failure to make payments, a cross-default to certain other debt, breaches of covenants, breaches of representations and warranties, and change of control. In addition, the Company is obligated to maintain (x) at the end of each fiscal quarter, beginning June 30, 2016, an interest coverage ratio of not less than 3.00:1.00 and (y) a leverage ratio as of the last day of any fiscal quarter of not greater than 4.00:1.00 from June 30, 2016 until December 31, 2016, and 3.75:1.00 thereafter until maturity, both as calculated in accordance with the terms and definitions determining such ratios contained in Credit Agreement. The Credit Agreement also contains various reporting requirements.

The Credit Agreement is being filed herewith solely to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to be a source of financial, business or operational information about the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates.
