ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 29, 2018, Church & Dwight Co., Inc. (the Company) executed a Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement) among the Company, the initial lenders named therein, Bank of America, N.A., as lead administrative agent and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as co-administrative Agent. The Credit Agreement replaced the Company's prior $1.0 billion unsecured revolving credit facility and provides for a $1.0 billion unsecured revolving credit facility. The Company has the ability to increase the size of the facility by up to an additional $600 million, subject to certain conditions, including the receipt of additional commitments from lenders. Unless extended, the Credit Agreement will terminate and all amounts outstanding under the Credit Agreement will be due and payable on March 29, 2023.

Interest on the Company's borrowings under the Credit Agreement will accrue at a per annum rate equal to the sum of (x) either (at the Company's option) (i) the adjusted LIBOR rate (generally, the LIBOR rate for an interest period selected by the Company and adjusted for statutory reserves) or (ii) the Base Rate (generally equal to the highest of (a) the Federal Funds Rate plus 0.50%, (b) Bank of America's prime rate and (c) the adjusted LIBOR rate for an interest period of one-month plus 1.00%), in any case not less than zero, plus (y) the applicable margin. The applicable margin is determined based upon the corporate credit rating of the Company and ranges from 0.875% to 1.500% per annum, in the case of any borrowing bearing interest by reference to the adjusted LIBOR rate, and 0% to 0.50%, in the case of any borrowing bearing interest by reference to the Base Rate. In addition, the Company will bear certain customary fees, including a commitment fee, determined based upon the corporate credit rating of the Company and ranging from 0.070% to 0.175% per annum on the aggregate unused commitments under the Credit Agreement, and additional issuance fees and participation fees in respect of any letters of credit issued under the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement contains customary affirmative and negative covenants, including restrictions on the following: liens, investments, subsidiary indebtedness, fundamental changes, asset dispositions, changes in the nature of the business, affiliate transactions, burdensome agreements and use of proceeds.

Under the Credit Agreement, the Company is required to maintain its leverage ratio, defined as the ratio of its Consolidated Funded Indebtedness (as defined in the Credit Agreement) to EBITDA, at a level no greater than 3.75 to 1.00 (or, to the extent the Company or any Subsidiary has consummated a material acquisition, (i) at a level no greater than 4.25:1.00 for the 12 month period commencing on the date the Company or any Subsidiary consummates the first material acquisition after the closing date and (ii) at a level no greater than 4.25:1.00 for the 12 month period commencing on the date the Company or any Subsidiary consummates any additional material acquisition, provided that the Company has maintained a leverage ratio of 3:75:1.00 or less during each of the immediately preceding four consecutive fiscal quarters before the date of such additional material acquisition).

The Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default, including failure to make certain payments under the Credit Agreement when due, breach of covenants, materially incorrect representations and warranties, default on other material indebtedness, events of bankruptcy, material adverse judgments, certain events relating to pension plans, the failure of any of the loan documents to remain in full force and effect and the occurrence of any change in control with respect to the Company.

Certain parties to the Credit Agreement, and affiliates of those parties, provide banking, investment banking and other financial services to the Company from time to time. The foregoing summary of the Credit Agreement is qualified in all respects by reference to the Credit Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report.
