SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

August 24, 2006

Dear Shareholders:

You are invited to attend a special general meeting of shareholders of Radica Games Limited ("Radica") at The Westin Pasadena Hotel, 191 North Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena, California 91101, on September 29, 2006, at 11:00 a.m., Pacific Daylight Time. At the special general meeting, you will be asked to consider and adopt a resolution approving the Agreement and Plan of Amalgamation, dated as of July 25, 2006, among Radica Games Limited, Mattel Foreign Holdings, Ltd., Mattel Enterprises, Ltd. and, solely with respect to specified provisions thereof, Mattel, Inc.

The amalgamation agreement contemplates a transaction whereby Mattel Enterprises, Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of Mattel Foreign Holdings, Ltd., which in turn is a wholly owned subsidiary of Mattel, Inc., would be amalgamated with Radica. Upon completion of the amalgamation, each share of Radica common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive $11.55 in cash. Shareholders that comply with necessary procedural requirements to perfect their dissenters' rights may seek court appraisal of the fair value of their shares.

The affirmative vote of the holders of three-fourths of the Radica common stock voting at the special general meeting is necessary to adopt the amalgamation proposal. Pursuant to a Voting Agreement, dated as of July 25, 2006, by and among Mattel Foreign Holdings, Ltd. and the shareholders party thereto, certain Radica shareholders have agreed to vote shares constituting approximately 40% of Radica's outstanding shares in favor of the amalgamation proposal and against any alternative proposal whereby Radica would sell or transfer 25% or more of its equity securities or its consolidated assets or engage in a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, amalgamation or similar transaction, among other restrictions. The voting agreement will terminate under certain circumstances summarized in the enclosed proxy statement.

In accordance with Radica's bye-laws, the Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on August 18, 2006, as the record date for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special general meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. The share register will not be closed.

On July 25, 2006, the Board of Directors of Radica unanimously (i) determined that the amalgamation and the amalgamation agreement are advisable and that the amalgamation is fair to, and in the best interests of, Radica and its shareholders, (ii) approved the amalgamation, the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (iii) recommended that Radica shareholders vote to adopt the amalgamation agreement and to approve the amalgamation.

The enclosed proxy statement provides you with a summary of the amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation, and provides additional information about the parties involved. If the Radica shareholders approve the amalgamation proposal, the closing of the amalgamation will occur as promptly as practicable after the special general meeting, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the closing of the amalgamation.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. Therefore, whether or not you plan to attend the special general meeting in person, please sign and return the enclosed proxy in the envelope provided. If you attend the special general meeting and desire to vote in person, you may do so even though you have previously sent a proxy.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Patrick S. Feely
Chief Executive Officer

NOTICE OF SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

To be held on September 29, 2006

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special general meeting of shareholders of Radica Games Limited, a Bermuda company, will be held at The Westin Pasadena Hotel, 191 North Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena, California 91101, on September 29, 2006, at 11:00 a.m., Pacific Daylight Time. A proxy card and a proxy statement for the special general meeting are enclosed.

The special general meeting is for the purpose of:

1. Considering and voting to (i) approve the amalgamation of Mattel Enterprises, Ltd. and Radica Games Limited, and (ii) adopt the Agreement and Plan of Amalgamation, dated as of July 25, 2006, among Radica Games Limited, Mattel Enterprises, Ltd., Mattel Foreign Holdings, Ltd., and, with respect to specified provisions of the amalgamation agreement, Mattel, Inc. A copy of the amalgamation agreement is attached as Annex A to the accompanying proxy statement.

2. Approving adjournments or postponements of the special general meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the special general meeting to adopt the amalgamation agreement.

3. Transacting such other business as may properly come before the special general meeting and any adjournments thereof. At present, our Board of Directors is not aware of any other business that will be presented for consideration at the special general meeting.

Approval of the amalgamation proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of three-fourths of the Radica common stock voting at the special general meeting. Pursuant to a voting agreement, certain Radica shareholders have agreed with Mattel Foreign Holdings, Ltd. to vote shares constituting approximately 40% of Radica's outstanding shares in favor of the amalgamation proposal and against any alternative proposal whereby Radica would sell or transfer 25% or more of its equity securities or its consolidated assets or engage in a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, amalgamation or similar transaction, among other restrictions. Subject to certain exceptions, the voting agreement will terminate upon the earlier of (i) the effective time of the amalgamation or (ii) the elapsing of nine months following termination of the amalgamation agreement; provided, however, that if Radica enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal during such nine month period, the voting agreement will terminate upon the termination or consummation of such definitive agreement.

In accordance with Radica's bye-laws, the Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on August 18, 2006 as the record date for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special general meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof. The share register will not be closed.

The Board of Directors of each of Radica and Mattel Enterprises, Ltd. has determined that the price of $11.55 per share to be paid by Mattel Enterprises, Ltd. upon consummation of the amalgamation constitutes fair value for Radica's common stock. Under Bermuda law, shareholders of Radica are eligible to exercise dissenters' rights in connection with the amalgamation. Shareholders that do not vote in favor of the amalgamation and who are not satisfied that they have been offered fair value for their shares (and comply with necessary procedural requirements) may seek court appraisal of the fair value of their shares. For a description of dissenters' rights and the procedures to be followed to assert them, shareholders should review the provisions of Section 106(6) of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981. A copy of these provisions is included as Annex D to the accompanying proxy statement.

All shareholders are cordially invited to attend the special general meeting in person. A shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the meeting convened by the above notice is entitled to appoint one or more proxy to attend and, subject to Radica's bye-laws, vote in his stead. A proxy need not be a shareholder of our company. Whether or not you plan to attend, please carefully read the accompanying proxy statement, and mark, date, sign and return the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying reply envelope. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the special general meeting. If you attend the special general meeting and vote by ballot, your proxy vote will be revoked automatically and only your vote at the special general meeting will be counted.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. Therefore, whether or not you plan to attend the special general meeting in person, please sign and return the enclosed proxy in the envelope provided. If you attend the special general meeting and desire to vote in person, you may do so even though you have previously sent a proxy.

By Order of the Board of Directors

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE AMALGAMATION AND THE SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING OF RADICA SHAREHOLDERS

This summary highlights important and material information from this proxy statement but does not purport to be complete. To fully understand the amalgamation described in this proxy statement, you should read carefully the entire proxy statement. We have included section references to direct you to a more complete description of the topics contained in this summary.

Q: What Am I Being Asked To Vote On?

A: You are being asked to vote to adopt the amalgamation agreement entered into among Radica, Mattel Foreign Holdings, Mattel Enterprises and Mattel, which is a party to the amalgamation agreement solely for the purpose of Section 6.13 of the amalgamation agreement (in which section Mattel guarantees the obligations of Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises under such agreement). Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises each are indirect wholly owned subsidiaries of Mattel. Pursuant to the amalgamation agreement, Mattel Enterprises will be amalgamated with Radica and Radica will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Mattel. Upon consummation of the amalgamation your shares of common stock will be exchanged solely for the right to receive the consideration for such shares pursuant to the amalgamation agreement and you will no longer have a continuing equity interest in Radica. See "The Amalgamation Agreement" "The Amalgamation" on page 27.

Q: Why is Mattel a party to the amalgamation agreement?

A: Mattel is a party to the amalgamation agreement as a guarantor of the obligations of Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises under the amalgamation agreement, including the obligation of Mattel Foreign Holdings to pay the consideration you will receive in exchange for your shares of Radica common stock. Mattel being a party to the amalgamation agreement in this capacity provides assurance that an entity with sufficient assets and funds will be responsible for all the obligations due to be performed in favor of Radica and its shareholders pursuant to the amalgamation agreement.

Q: What Will I Receive In The Amalgamation?

A: Upon completion of the amalgamation, our shareholders will receive $11.55 in cash for each share of Radica common stock they own. Shareholders that do not vote in favor of the amalgamation and who are not satisfied that they have been offered fair value for their shares (and comply with necessary procedural requirements) may seek court appraisal of the fair value of their shares. See "The Amalgamation Agreement" "The Amalgamation" on page 27 and "Dissenters' Rights" on page 26.

Q: Does The Radica Board of Directors Support The Amalgamation?

A: Yes. On July 25, 2006, the Radica Board of Directors, or the Radica Board, unanimously (i) determined that the amalgamation and the amalgamation agreement are advisable and that the amalgamation is fair to, and in the best interests of, Radica and its shareholders, (ii) approved the amalgamation, the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (iii) recommended that Radica shareholders vote to adopt the amalgamation agreement and to approve the amalgamation. See "The Amalgamation" "Reasons of Radica for the Amalgamation" and "Recommendation of Our Board of Directors" on pages 10 to 17.

Q: Did The Radica Board Receive An Opinion From Its Financial Advisor?

A: Yes. Navigant Capital Advisors, LLC, or Navigant Capital, delivered its written opinion, dated July 25, 2006, to the Radica Board to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors, qualifications, limitations and assumptions set forth therein, the $11.55 per share in cash to be received by the holders of the outstanding shares of Radica common stock pursuant to the amalgamation agreement, other than the executive officers and directors of Radica, is fair from a financial point of view to such holders. Navigant Capital expects to receive fees for its services in connection with the contemplated transaction, the principal portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the transaction.

The full text of the written opinion of Navigant Capital, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C. Radica shareholders should read the opinion in its entirety. Navigant Capital provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Radica Board in connection with its consideration of the amalgamation. The Navigant Capital opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of Radica common stock should vote with respect to the amalgamation. See "The Amalgamation" Opinion of Radica's Financial Advisor on page 12.

Q: When And Where Is The Special General Meeting?

A: The special general meeting of shareholders of Radica will be held at The Westin Pasadena Hotel, 191 North Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena, California 91101, on September 29, 2006, at 11:00 a.m., Pacific Daylight Time. See "The Special General Meeting" on page 5.

Q: Who Can Vote At The Radica Special General Meeting?

A: You can vote at the special general meeting if you owned shares of Radica common stock at the close of business on August 18, 2006. As of the close of business on that day, approximately 19,408,951 shares were outstanding. See "The Special General Meeting" on page 5.

Q: How Many Votes Are Required To Approve The Amalgamation Proposal?

A: The affirmative vote of the holders of three-fourths of the Radica common stock voting at the special general meeting is required to approve the amalgamation proposal. Pursuant to the voting agreement, certain Radica shareholders have agreed with Mattel Foreign Holdings to vote shares constituting approximately 40% of Radica's outstanding shares in favor of the amalgamation proposal and against any alternative proposal whereby Radica would sell or transfer 25% or more of its equity securities or its consolidated assets or engage in a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, amalgamation or similar transaction, among other restrictions. Subject to certain exceptions, the voting agreement will terminate upon the earlier of (i) the effective time of the amalgamation or (ii) the elapsing of nine months following termination of the amalgamation agreement; provided, however, that if Radica enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal during such nine month period, the voting agreement will terminate upon the termination or consummation of such definitive agreement. See "The Special General Meeting" beginning on page 5 and "The Voting Agreement" on page 37.

Q: What Happens If I Do Not Vote?

A: If a sufficient number of shareholders approve the amalgamation proposal, whether or not you vote for the amalgamation proposal, you will be paid the amalgamation consideration for your shares of

viii

Radica common stock upon completion of the amalgamation. However, because approval of the amalgamation proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of three-fourths of Radica common stock voting at the special general meeting, if you attend the meeting or return your proxy but abstain from voting, your votes will be counted for quorum purposes but will not be included in the determination of the shares voting on the amalgamation proposal. See "The Special General Meeting" on page 5.

Q: What Rights Do I Have If I Oppose The Amalgamation?

A: Shareholders that do not vote in favor of the amalgamation and who are not satisfied that they have been offered fair value for their shares may seek court appraisal of the fair value of their shares, provided that they comply with the procedures of Section 106(6) of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981 included in its entirety as Annex D to this proxy statement. See "Dissenters' Rights" on page 26.

Q: When Will The Amalgamation Occur?

A: The amalgamation will be completed after all of the conditions to completion of the amalgamation are satisfied or waived, including approval of the amalgamation proposal by the requisite shareholder vote. We intend to complete the amalgamation as promptly as possible following the special general meeting. See "The Amalgamation Completion and Effectiveness of the Amalgamation on page 23.

Q: When Should I Send In My Share Certificates?

A: After the special general meeting, you will be sent a letter of transmittal to complete and return to Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc., which is the paying agent. In order to receive the amalgamation consideration following the completion of the amalgamation, you must send the paying agent your validly completed letter of transmittal together with your Radica share certificates as instructed in the separate mailing.

Q: When Can I Expect To Receive The Amalgamation Consideration For My Shares?

A: Once you have submitted your properly completed letter of transmittal, Radica share certificates and other required documents, which will be sent to you in a separate mailing, to the paying agent, and the amalgamation has been completed, the paying agent will send you the amalgamation consideration. Radica will issue a press release once the amalgamation has been completed. See "The Amalgamation Completion and Effectiveness of the Amalgamation" on page 23.

Q: If You Complete The Amalgamation, What Will I Receive For My Stock Options?

A: For each stock option granted pursuant to a Radica incentive plan (whether vested or unvested) you hold, you will receive the excess, if any, of $11.55 over the applicable per share exercise price of the stock option, less any applicable withholding tax.

Q: What Do I Need To Do Now?

A: Indicate your vote on your proxy card, sign and mail your proxy card in the enclosed reply envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at the special general meeting. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the special general meeting. The completion and return of the proxy card will not preclude you from attending and voting at the special general meeting, or any adjourned meeting, should you so wish. The meeting will take place on September 29, 2006. See "The Special General Meeting" on page 5.

Q: If My Shares Are Held In "Street" Name By My Broker, Will My Broker Vote My Shares For Me?

A: Your broker will vote your shares only if you instruct to your broker how to vote. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares by following the directions provided to you by your broker. Without instructions, your broker will not vote any of your shares held in "street" name and the broker non-votes will be counted for quorum purposes but will not be included in the determination of the shares voting on the amalgamation proposal. See "The Special General Meeting" on page 5.

Q: Can I Change My Vote After I Have Mailed In My Proxy Card?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special general meeting. You can do so in one of three ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you would like to revoke your proxy to the Chief Executive Officer of Radica at the address given below. Second, you can request a new proxy card and complete it and send it to the Chief Executive Officer of Radica at the address given below. Third, you can attend the special general meeting and vote in person. You should send any written notice or request for a new proxy card to the attention of Chief Executive Officer, Radica Enterprises, Ltd., 13628-A Beta Road, Dallas, Texas 75244. See "The Special General Meeting" on page 5.

Q: What Are The Tax Consequences Of The Amalgamation To Me?

A: In general, your receipt of the amalgamation consideration will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and possibly for state, local and foreign income tax purposes as well. The tax consequences to you of the amalgamation will depend entirely upon your own financial and tax situation. You should consult your tax and legal advisors for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the amalgamation. See "The Amalgamation Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences" on page 23.

Q: Where Can I Find More Information About Radica and Mattel?

A: Radica and Mattel file periodic reports and other information with the SEC. The information is available at the SEC's public reference facilities and the Internet site maintained by the SEC at <http://www.sec.gov>. For a more detailed description of the information available, please see the section entitled "Additional Information" immediately following the notice of special general meeting of shareholders at the beginning of this proxy statement.

Q: When Do You Expect The Amalgamation To Be Completed?

A: We are working to complete the amalgamation as quickly as possible. We currently expect to complete the amalgamation in the fourth quarter of 2006. However, we cannot predict the exact timing of the completion of the amalgamation because the amalgamation is subject to various approvals, including clearance by U.S. and German governmental antitrust authorities.

Q: Who Can Answer Further Questions?

A: If you would like additional copies of this proxy statement or a new proxy card or if you have questions about the amalgamation, you should contact Radica Enterprises, Ltd., 13628-A Beta Road, Dallas, Texas 75244, Attention: Chief Executive Officer, +1 (972) 490-4247.

See "The Amalgamation Agreement" Conduct of Business Pending the Amalgamation and Certain Covenants on page 28.

The Amalgamation Consideration; Dissenters' Rights

Upon completion of the amalgamation, each share of Radica common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive $11.55 in cash.

Dissenting shareholders that comply with the procedures of Section 106(6) of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981, included in its entirety as Annex D to this proxy statement, may seek court appraisal of the fair value of their shares. See "Dissenters' Rights" on page 26.

After the special general meeting, the paying agent will send you a letter of transmittal to complete and return. You must send the paying agent your validly completed letter of transmittal together with your Radica share certificates as instructed by the paying agent.

Closing Conditions

As more fully described in this proxy statement, the consummation of the amalgamation is subject to a number of conditions being satisfied or waived, including among other things, receipt of the approval of Radica shareholders and regulatory approvals, the accuracy of the parties' representations and performance of their obligations under the amalgamation agreement, and the absence of laws or orders by a governmental entity seeking to restrain, enjoin or otherwise prohibit consummation of the amalgamation.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Notwithstanding any approval of the amalgamation agreement by the shareholders of Radica, the amalgamation agreement may be terminated and the amalgamation may be abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the amalgamation by mutual written consent and unilaterally by either party if certain conditions in the amalgamation agreement have not been met, such as obtaining approval of Radica shareholders, the other party's material breach of its representations or warranties, or Radica taking certain actions in connection with alternative acquisition proposals.

Termination Fees and Expenses

Radica is required to pay a termination fee to Mattel Foreign Holdings equal to $6,940,764 and up to an aggregate of $1,500,000 for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Mattel Foreign Holdings and its affiliates in connection with the amalgamation, in certain specified circumstances, which are described in this proxy statement.

shareholders, (ii) approved the amalgamation, the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (iii) recommended that Radica shareholders vote to adopt the amalgamation agreement and to approve the amalgamation. See "The Amalgamation" "Reasons of Radica for the Amalgamation" and "Recommendation of Our Board of Directors" on pages 10 to 17.

Opinion of Radica's Financial Advisor

On July 25, 2006, Navigant Capital delivered its written opinion to the Radica Board to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors, qualifications, limitations and assumptions set forth therein, the $11.55 per share in cash to be received by the holders of the outstanding shares of Radica common stock pursuant to the amalgamation agreement, other than the executive officers and directors of Radica, is fair from a financial point of view to such holders. The full text of the written opinion of Navigant Capital is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. Radica shareholders should See "The Amalgamation Agreement" "No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals" on page 30.

Two persons holding or representing by proxy more than one-third of the issued and outstanding shares shall form a quorum for the purposes of approving the amalgamation proposal at the special general meeting. Subject to certain exceptions, the voting agreement will terminate upon the earlier of (i) the effective time of the amalgamation or (ii) the elapsing of nine months following termination of the amalgamation agreement; provided, however, that if Radica enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal during such nine month period, the voting agreement will terminate upon the termination or consummation of such definitive agreement. See The Voting Agreement on page 37.

Voting and Revocation of Proxies

Shareholders are requested to complete, date, sign and promptly return the accompanying form of proxy in the enclosed envelope. Shares of Radica common stock represented by properly executed proxies received by Radica and not revoked will be voted at the special general meeting in accordance with the instructions contained in the form of proxy. If instructions are not given, proxies will be voted FOR adoption of the amalgamation agreement. However, pursuant to Bermuda law, (i) shares represented at the special general meeting whose votes are withheld on any matter, (ii) shares which are represented by broker non-votes (i.e., shares held by brokers or nominees which are represented at the special general meeting but with respect to which the broker or nominee is not empowered to vote on a particular proposal) and (iii) shares which abstain from voting on any matter, are not included in the determination of the shares voting on such matter but are counted for quorum purposes. In accordance with applicable rules, brokers and nominees may not, without your specific instruction, exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of the amalgamation agreement. Therefore, if you do not instruct your broker how to vote, your shares will not be voted with respect to the amalgamation agreement.

In addition, we do not expect any changes to the terms of the amalgamation proposal described in this proxy statement, and the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will not use their discretionary authority to approve any changes to the amalgamation proposal that are materially different than the terms of the amalgamation proposal described in this proxy statement without giving shareholders an opportunity to change their vote.

Radica will bear the cost of printing, filing and mailing this proxy statement in connection with the special general meeting. In addition to solicitation by mail, Radica's directors, officers and regular employees may solicit proxies from shareholders in person, by telephone, or otherwise. Brokers, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians have been requested to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of shares of Radica common stock held of record by them, and such custodians will be reimbursed by us for their reasonable expenses.

Householding

Householding is a program, approved by the SEC, which allows the delivery of only one package of shareholder proxy materials if there are multiple Radica shareholders who live at the same address. This means that, if your household participates in the householding program, you will receive an envelope containing one set of proxy materials and a separate proxy card for each shareholder account in the household. Please vote all proxy cards enclosed in the package. If you would like additional copies of this proxy statement because your household participates in the householding program or otherwise, you should contact Radica Enterprises, Ltd., 13628-A Beta Road, Dallas, Texas 75244, +1 (972) 490-4247.

THE AMALGAMATION

Background of the Transaction

For the past few years the Radica Board has been engaged in the process of evaluating different strategic alternatives to enhance Radica shareholder value. At a December 16, 2005 meeting, the Radica Board voted to select Navigant Capital to advise the Radica Board on strategic alternatives. The Radica Board authorized a special committee, or the committee of outside directors, which had been previously created, composed of two outside directors, Floyd W. Glisson and Richard E. Wenz, to negotiate an agreement to engage Navigant Capital. On January 5, 2006, Radica engaged Navigant Capital as a financial and strategic advisor in connection with, among other things, a possible sale of Radica.

In the first quarter of 2006, members of management and the committee of outside directors held a number of meetings with senior representatives of Navigant Capital in connection with its engagement. During this period, Navigant Capital and members of management prepared a Confidential Information Memorandum and identified parties to approach with regard to exploring a possible acquisition of Radica.

At a meeting on March 27, 2006, a representative of Navigant Capital discussed the process of Radica's potential sale to date with the Radica Board. The Radica Board authorized Navigant Capital to contact potentially interested parties to solicit indications of interest regarding an acquisition of Radica. This process was begun and publicly announced on April 3, 2006. Throughout April 2006, Navigant Capital was actively involved in contacting approximately 150 parties identified and determined by Radica with Navigant Capital's assistance, to be a party with whom an acquisition of Radica would be consistent with such party's business or strategy. These parties included operating companies in similar or complementary businesses and private equity funds. Out of the 150 parties approached, a total of 42 executed confidentiality agreements, and the Confidential Information Memorandum was mailed to the 42 parties.

In connection with this process, Navigant Capital requested that interested parties submit an indication of interest regarding a transaction by May 10, 2006. On April 28, 2006, Navigant Capital had a telephonic meeting with the Radica Board to discuss the status of the process. Navigant Capital advised the Radica Board that the process was proceeding with many parties conducting due diligence and that two lenders were prepared to consider providing financing to qualified bidders interested in such a transaction.

On May 5, 2006, Navigant Capital updated the Radica Board on the status of the process and Navigant Capital's communications with potential interested parties.

On May 10, 2006, Navigant Capital received two proposals from interested parties. On May 12, 2006, Navigant Capital received two additional proposals. Each of the four proposals contemplated an acquisition of all of the outstanding shares of Radica's common stock by such party. The four proposals each contained an initial indication of the per share range of values at which such bidder had arrived as a result of its due diligence. The per share values ranged from $9.61 to $15.36. Mattel's initial valuation resulted in a per share value range of $9.61 to $11.53. Each proposal described the various matters that such bidder would need to address in advance of proceeding with a transaction.

On May 17, 2006, the Radica Board had a telephonic meeting with Navigant Capital to review these four proposals. The Radica Board authorized the formation of a new special committee of outside directors, composed of Mr. Wenz and Frank J. O'Connell, or the special committee, to direct the continued effort related to the potential sale of Radica. The Radica Board determined to form a new special committee including Mr. O'Connell because the Radica Board believed that Mr. O'Connell's business experience would be beneficial to the process of evaluating and pursuing Radica's strategic alternatives. Following this meeting, the Radica Board authorized Navigant Capital to continue the process and to assist the bidders and their advisors in performing their analysis and due diligence investigation of Radica.

During May and early June 2006, Radica management made separate presentations to each of the four interested parties, and a virtual due diligence room of contracts and other materials was made available to the four interested parties as part of their due diligence investigation of Radica.

On June 6, 2006, Navigant Capital sent a letter to each of the four bidders requesting that each provide a written proposal related to the acquisition of Radica by June 21, 2006.

Edgar Filing: RADICA GAMES LTD - Form 6-K

On June 12, 2006, Navigant Capital was informed that one of the four bidders was dropping out of the bidding process.

On June 15, 2006, Navigant Capital was informed that the bidder that had submitted the highest initial per share range was also dropping out of the bidding process.

On June 21, 2006, Navigant Capital received proposals related to the acquisition of Radica from Mattel and one additional bidder that had previously sent a proposal. Mattel's proposal stated that its valuation analysis supported a per share price of $11.55, while the other bidder indicated that its valuation analysis supported a per share price of $11.00. On June 26, 2006, Navigant Capital and the special committee held a telephonic meeting with Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, or Sullivan & Cromwell, Radica's counsel, to discuss the two bids and the plan for continuing the process. Navigant Capital confirmed with the other two interested parties from the earlier round of due diligence that they were no longer interested in pursuing an acquisition of Radica.

On June 26, 2006, Navigant Capital sent a letter to each of the two remaining bidders along with a draft amalgamation agreement and requested that they submit a final bid on July 14, 2006, along with a draft of the amalgamation agreement reflecting their desired changes to the proposed terms.

On July 11, 2006, members of the Radica and Mattel management teams met in Radica's Dallas, Texas office to allow Mattel to conduct additional due diligence related to Radica's business and prospects.

On July 14, 2006, Navigant Capital received a final bid from Mattel at $11.55 per share and a revised draft of the amalgamation agreement. The other remaining bidder indicated that it would not be submitting its bid until early the following week.

On July 17, 2006, Navigant Capital, Sullivan & Cromwell, Mattel and Latham & Watkins LLP, or Latham & Watkins, Mattel's counsel, discussed on a conference call the issues raised by Mattel's desired changes to the draft amalgamation agreement.

On July 18, 2006, the special committee held a telephonic meeting with Navigant Capital and Sullivan & Cromwell to discuss Mattel's bid and the issues raised by Mattel's proposed draft of the amalgamation agreement, including the requirement to receive an agreement from Radica's largest shareholder, Richard H. Pickup and certain entities he controls, also referred to as the Pickup Group, to vote all shares Mr. Pickup beneficially owned in favor of the amalgamation and against certain alternative proposals from third parties, among other restrictions, which agreement would continue in effect for a specified period of time following termination of the amalgamation agreement. The special committee authorized Navigant Capital and Sullivan & Cromwell to proceed with negotiating an agreement involving the acquisition of Radica by Mattel. Navigant Capital confirmed with the other prospective bidder who had not made a final bid that it was no longer interested in pursuing an acquisition of Radica. Mr. Pickup was contacted by representatives of Radica to discuss his prospective willingness to obligate the Pickup Group to vote in favor of the amalgamation. Latham & Watkins circulated a draft voting agreement pursuant to which the Pickup Group would be obligated to vote for the transaction and against certain alternative proposals from third parties, among other restrictions, which agreement would continue in effect for a specified period of time following termination of the amalgamation agreement.

Between July 18 and July 23, 2006, Radica's advisors negotiated the amalgamation agreement with Mattel and its advisors, and such parties and counsel to Mr. Pickup negotiated the voting agreement. During such period, Mattel was given access to additional Radica documents and members of Radica's senior management for purposes of completing its due diligence investigation of Radica.

On July 23, 2006, the special committee held a telephonic meeting with Navigant Capital and Sullivan & Cromwell to discuss the status of negotiations with Mattel. During this call, Navigant Capital and Sullivan & Cromwell summarized the current draft of the amalgamation agreement and discussed outstanding issues related to the proposed transaction. Navigant Capital also provided an update regarding the status of its analyses underlying its opinion. The special committee authorized Navigant Capital and Sullivan & Cromwell to finalize negotiations with Mattel in anticipation of a special general meeting of the Radica Board to be held on July 25, 2006. Additionally, the special committee determined to recommend the amalgamation to the Radica Board.

On July 25, 2006, at a special general meeting of the Radica Board, Mr. Wenz, along with Radica's financial and legal advisors, reviewed for the Radica Board the process of soliciting parties interested in an acquisition of Radica, the status of negotiations related to the amalgamation and voting agreement and the recommendation of the special committee. Representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell reviewed the proposed terms of the draft amalgamation agreement with the Radica Board. Navigant Capital presented certain financial analyses with respect to the proposed amalgamation. Navigant Capital rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the Radica Board to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors, qualifications, limitations and assumptions in its opinion, the $11.55 per share in cash to be received by the holders (other than the executive officers and directors of Radica) of the outstanding shares of Radica common stock at completion of the amalgamation, was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. After consideration of the presentations by its outside counsel and financial advisors and its prior deliberations, the Radica Board unanimously approved the amalgamation and the amalgamation agreement and authorized management to complete and execute the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated therein.

On the afternoon of July 25, 2006, Radica and Mattel executed the amalgamation agreement and, on July 26, 2006, publicly announced the transaction prior to the opening of trading on Nasdaq.

Reasons of Radica Board for the Amalgamation

In making the determination and recommendation described below, the Radica Board considered a number of factors, including the following:

- the risks inherent in the electronic games industry, including the risks inherent in (i) the ability to consistently offer new products that appeal to Radica's target customers, (ii) maintaining relationships with large retailers that are Radica's key customers, and (iii) the uncertainty of meeting pressures posed by competitors with greater scale and scope;

- the opportunity that the amalgamation would secure a premium for shareholders over recent market prices of Radica common stock;
- Radica's business, financial condition, results of operations, assets, liabilities, business strategy and prospects, as well as various uncertainties associated with those prospects;
- current financial market conditions and historical market prices, volatility and trading information with respect to Radica common stock;
- the price to be received by the holders of Radica common stock in the amalgamation and a comparison of comparable business combination transactions;
- the belief that the terms of the amalgamation agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants and the conditions to their respective obligations, are reasonable;
- the alternatives to the amalgamation available to Radica;
- the fact that Mattel will pay cash consideration for the shares of Radica common stock, which eliminates any uncertainties in valuing the consideration to be received by Radica shareholders but also eliminates any potential upside in equity value;
- the fact that the Pickup Group was prepared to enter into a voting agreement supporting the amalgamation with respect to approximately 40% of Radica's outstanding shares;
- the amount of the fee payable and expenses reimbursable in the circumstances in which the amalgamation agreement may be terminated and the circumstances in which such fee may be paid and such expenses must be reimbursed;
- the provisions in the amalgamation agreement which limit Radica's ability to consider alternative proposals from third-parties to acquire Radica;
- the possibility that the amalgamation once announced might not be completed and the fact that in such event Radica's business and stock price may be negatively affected; and

- the opinion of Navigant Capital. The written opinion of Navigant Capital is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and should be read carefully and in its entirety.

The Radica Board concluded that the potential benefits of the amalgamation outweighed the potential negative factors considered.

Although the discussion above is not meant to be exhaustive, we believe it sets forth the material information and factors considered by the Radica Board in consideration of the amalgamation and the amalgamation agreement. In view of the wide variety of factors considered, the Radica Board did not find it practicable to, and did not make specific assessments of, quantify or otherwise attempt to, assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. The determination to unanimously recommend that Radica shareholders adopt the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby was made after consideration of all of the factors as a whole. In addition, individual members of the Radica Board may have given different weights to different factors.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

On July 25, 2006, the Radica Board unanimously (i) determined that the amalgamation and the amalgamation agreement are advisable and that the amalgamation is fair to, and in the best interests of, Radica and its shareholders, (ii) approved the amalgamation, the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (iii) recommended that Radica shareholders vote to adopt the amalgamation agreement and to approve the amalgamation.

Opinion of Radica's Financial Advisor

Navigant Capital acted as Radica's exclusive financial advisor in connection with the proposed amalgamation. Radica selected Navigant Capital as its financial advisor in connection with the amalgamation based on Navigant Capital's knowledge of Radica and its industry and Navigant Capital's qualifications, expertise, reputation and professional experience in amalgamations, mergers and acquisitions generally. Navigant Capital is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that regularly engages in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes.

The full text of Navigant Capital's written opinion to the Radica Board, dated July 25, 2006, which sets forth, among other things, the procedures followed, assumptions made and matters considered by Navigant Capital in connection with its opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. You should read Navigant Capital's opinion carefully and in its entirety. Navigant Capital's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to you on how to vote with respect to the amalgamation or how to act on any matter related to the amalgamation. The following summary, which is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Navigant Capital's opinion, discusses certain material terms of Navigant Capital's opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Navigant Capital:

- Reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Radica and the industry in which it operates;

- Reviewed the operations, financial condition, future prospects and financial forecasts relating to the business, earnings, cash flow, assets, liabilities and prospects of Radica prepared by management of Radica;
- Conducted discussions with members of management of Radica concerning the matters described in the first three bullets above;

- Visited certain facilities and business offices of Radica;
- Reviewed the historical market prices, trading activity and valuation multiples for the publicly traded securities of Radica and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies;
- Evaluated a discounted cash flow approach for Radica as a stand-alone entity;
- Reviewed the results of operations of Radica and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies;

- Compared the proposed financial terms of the amalgamation with the publicly available financial terms of certain other transactions;
 - Participated in certain discussions and negotiations among representatives of Radica and Mattel and their financial and legal advisors;
 - Reviewed the books, records and minutes of the Radica Board as well as reports of internal auditors and summaries of any pending litigation; and
 - Conducted such other studies, analyses and inquiries as Navigant Capital deemed appropriate.

In preparing its opinion, Navigant Capital assumed and relied upon, and did not independently verify, the accuracy and completeness of the information reviewed by it with respect to Radica and did not assume any responsibility or liability with respect thereto, and further relied upon the assurance of management of Radica that it was not aware of any facts that would make such information inaccurate or misleading in any respect material to its analysis. Navigant Capital did not assume any responsibility or liability for, nor did it make, any physical inspection or independent appraisal of any of the properties or assets of Radica, nor was Navigant Capital furnished with any such valuation or appraisal. In addition, Navigant Capital was not asked to, nor did it, evaluate the solvency or fair value of Radica under any state or federal laws related to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Navigant Capital's opinion was necessarily based on business, economic, market and other conditions existing as of the date of its opinion. With respect to the financial forecast information furnished to or discussed with Navigant Capital, Navigant Capital assumed, with Radica's consent, that such information was reasonably prepared in good faith and that it reflected the best currently available estimates and judgment of Radica's management as to the expected future financial performance of Radica. For purposes of its opinion, Navigant Capital assumed, with Radica's consent, that Radica was not involved in any material transaction other than the amalgamation and those activities undertaken in the ordinary course of business.

Navigant Capital's opinion only addressed the matters specifically addressed thereby. Without limiting the foregoing, Navigant Capital's opinion did not address: (i) matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other professional advice; (ii) the underlying business decision of Radica, its security holders or any other party to proceed with or effect the amalgamation; (iii) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the amalgamation not expressly addressed in Navigant Capital's opinion; (iv) the fairness of any portion or aspect of the amalgamation to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Radica, or any other party other than those set forth in Navigant Capital's opinion; (v) the relative merits of the amalgamation as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Radica or the effect of any other transaction in which Radica might engage; (vi) the tax or legal consequences of the amalgamation to Radica, its security holders or any other party; (vii) the degree to which the amount and nature of the compensation from the amalgamation benefits any individual officers, directors, employees or class of such persons, relative to the benefits to the shareholders of Radica; (viii) whether any security holder should vote in favor of the amalgamation; or (ix) the likely price at which the common stock of Radica would trade following an announcement of the contemplated amalgamation. Navigant Capital was not asked to, and did not, offer any opinion as to the terms of the amalgamation agreement or the form of the amalgamation.

Navigant Capital assumed, with Radica's consent, that the amalgamation would be consummated on the terms and conditions described in the amalgamation agreement reviewed by Navigant Capital, without material delay, waiver, amendment or modification of any material term, condition or agreement therein, and that the definitive amalgamation agreement and voting agreement would not differ in any material respect from the drafts reviewed by Navigant Capital.

Navigant Capital employed generally accepted valuation practices and methods in preparing its opinion. The following summarizes Navigant Capital's material financial analyses used in developing its opinion. The discussion herein does not constitute a complete description of Navigant Capital's analyses and the factors considered by Navigant Capital in connection with preparing its opinion, including the assumptions and methodologies that underlie the analyses that comprise Navigant Capital's opinion. The preparation of an opinion regarding fairness, from a financial point of view, is a complex process involving the application of subjective business judgment in determining the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, is not readily susceptible to summary description.

No company, transaction or business used in Navigant Capital's analyses as a comparison is identical or directly comparable to Radica, Mattel or the proposed amalgamation, and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the amalgamation or the other values of the companies, business segments or transactions being analyzed.

In performing its analyses, Navigant Capital made numerous assumptions with respect to financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Navigant Capital or Radica. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Navigant Capital are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses actually may be sold.

Navigant Capital's opinion was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Radica Board in making its determination to approve the amalgamation agreement and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Radica Board with respect to the amalgamation or the amalgamation consideration. Navigant Capital's opinion does not address the relative merits of the amalgamation or any alternatives to the amalgamation, the underlying decision of the Radica Board to proceed with or effect the amalgamation or any other aspect of the amalgamation. In furnishing its opinion, Navigant Capital did not admit that it is an expert within the meaning of the term "expert" as used in the Securities Act, nor did it admit that its opinion constitutes a report or valuation within the meaning of the Securities Act.

In arriving at its opinion, Navigant Capital considered all of the financial analyses it performed and did not attribute any particular weight to any specific analysis nor did it reach a conclusion based on any single analysis. Consequently, no single analysis should be considered independently as it may lead to a misleading conclusion about the amalgamation. Navigant Capital developed its conclusion on the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the amalgamation consideration based on its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses. Certain of the summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses used by Navigant Capital, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Accordingly, the analyses listed in the tables and described below must be considered as a whole. Considering any portion of such analyses and of the factors considered, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying Navigant Capital's opinion.

Selected Company Analysis. Navigant Capital compared the financial and market performance of Radica to a group of 5 selected companies. The group consisted of the following companies:

- Mattel;
- Hasbro Inc.;
- JAKKS Pacific, Inc.;

- Leapfrog Enterprises, Inc.; and
- RC2 Corporation.

To perform this analysis, Navigant Capital used financial information for the selected companies as of and for the 12 months ended March 31, 2006, except for Hasbro Inc. for which the relevant financial information was as of and for the 12 months ended April 2, 2006. Market price information was as of July 24, 2006 and taken from a nationally recognized financial services data provider. In examining these selected companies, Navigant Capital calculated the enterprise value, commonly referred to as EV, of each company as a multiple of its respective: (i) trailing twelve-month period for which financial data for the company at issue has been reported, commonly referred to as TTM revenue, (ii) TTM earnings before interest expense, taxes, depreciation and amortization, commonly referred to as EBITDA, and (iii) TTM earnings before interest expense and taxes, commonly referred to as EBIT. The EV of a company is equal to the value of its fully-diluted common equity plus debt and the liquidation value of outstanding preferred stock, if any, minus cash and the value of certain other assets, including minority interests in other entities. All historical data was derived from publicly available sources and all projected data was obtained from Bloomberg I/B/E/S Analyst's Earnings Estimates. Navigant Capital's analysis of the selected companies yielded the following multiple ranges:

Enterprise Value/	Average	Median	High	Low
TTM Revenue	1.0x	1.0x	1.5x	0.7x
TTM EBITDA	7.3x	7.0x	10.1x	4.5x
TTM EBIT	11.2x	10.0x	21.0x	5.8x

Based on an analysis of this data and Radica's TTM operating results, Navigant Capital estimated a value per share of Radica common stock ranging from $8.30 to $9.77, compared to the proposed price of $11.55 per share of Radica common stock to be received in the amalgamation.

Selected Transactions Analysis. Navigant Capital reviewed 10 merger and acquisition transactions that were consummated since January 1, 2003 involving United States acquisitions of companies in the toy and leisure products industries, for which data on such transaction was readily available. The selected group of business combinations consisted of the following:

Date	Acquiror	Target
2/10/06	JAKKS Pacific, Inc.	Creative Designs International Ltd.
2/1/06	Shuffle Master, Inc.	Stargames Limited
12/9/05	International Speedway	Action Performance Companies Inc.

Date	Acquiror	Target
9/16/05	Corporation.	Saucony, Inc.
3/22/05	The Stride Rite Corporation	Rossignol Group SA
11/10/04	Quiksilver, Inc.	Travis Boats & Motors, Inc.
9/15/04	Tracker Marine, LLC	The First Years Inc.
7/30/04	RC2 Corporation	Galaxy Balloons, Inc.
2/20/04	Boss Holdings, Inc.	Johnson Outdoors Inc.
7/9/03	JO Acquisition Corp.	WizKids, Inc.
	The Topps Company, Inc.

Edgar Filing: RADICA GAMES LTD - Form 6-K

In examining these acquisitions, Navigant Capital calculated the EV of the acquired company implied by each of these transactions as a multiple of TTM revenue, TTM EBITDA and TTM EBIT. Navigant Capital's analysis of these selected acquisitions yielded the following multiple ranges:

Enterprise Value/	Mean	Median	High	Low
TTM Revenue	0.8x	0.8x	2.2x	0.1x
TTM EBITDA	7.8x	7.2x	15.0x	3.4x
TTM EBIT	9.5x	8.8x	16.9x	3.4x

Based on an analysis of this data and Radica's historical operating results, Navigant Capital estimated a value per share of Radica common stock ranging from $7.57 to $9.04, compared to the proposed price of $11.55 per share of Radica common stock to be received in the amalgamation.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Navigant Capital performed a discounted cash flow, or DCF, analysis of the projected cash flows of Radica for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2006 through December 31, 2011, using projections and assumptions provided by the management of Radica. The values for Radica based on the DCF analysis were estimated using discount rates ranging from 18.0% to 20.0%, based on estimates related to the weighted average costs of capital of Radica, and terminal multiples of estimated EBITDA for Radica's fiscal year ending December 31, 2011 ranging from 5.0x to 6.0x. Based on this analysis, Navigant Capital estimated a value per share of Radica common stock ranging from $10.95 to $12.37, compared to the proposed price of $11.55 per share of Radica common stock to be received in the amalgamation.

In conjunction with its analysis, Navigant Capital discussed with the Radica Board the implication of the present value of the terminal multiples assuming material changes in the underlying assumptions. Such changes in assumptions included but were not limited to alternative discount rates, terminal multiples and earnings flows. Further, the values derived from this analysis do not indicate actual market values reflected by Radica's potential future trading price, actual performance of Radica during the period indicated or a market capitalization range at which Radica's common stock would trade.

Miscellaneous. In conducting its analyses and arriving at its opinion, Navigant Capital used a variety of generally accepted valuation methods. The analyses were prepared solely for the purpose of enabling Navigant Capital to provide its opinion to the Radica Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the amalgamation consideration to the shareholders of Radica, other than the executive officers and directors of Radica, to be received by such holders in the amalgamation and do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which are inherently subject to uncertainty. In connection with its analyses, Navigant Capital made, and was provided by Radica management with, numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Radica's or Mattel's control. Analyses based on estimates or forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual past or future values or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of Radica or its advisors, neither Radica nor any other person assumes responsibility if future results or actual values are materially different from these forecasts or assumptions.

Navigant Capital observed that the premiums over the closing price for Radica common stock on (i) March 3, 2006, thirty days prior to the announcement that Radica had retained Navigant Capital, was 27.4%; (ii) March 31, 2006, the day prior to the announcement that Radica had retained Navigant Capital, was 20.9%; and (iii) July 24, 2006, the day prior to the announcement of the proposed amalgamation, was 11.5% .

The terms of the amalgamation were determined through negotiations between Radica and Mattel and were approved by the Radica Board. Although Navigant Capital provided advice to Radica during the course of these negotiations, the decision to enter into the amalgamation was solely that of the Radica Board. Navigant Capital expressed no opinion as to the underlying business decision by the management of Radica or the Radica Board to engage in the amalgamation. The opinion and presentation of Navigant Capital to the Radica Board was only one of a number of factors taken into consideration by the Radica Board in making its determination to approve the amalgamation. Navigant Capital's opinion was provided to the Radica Board to assist it in connection with its consideration of the amalgamation and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how to vote with respect to the amalgamation or any other matter.

It should be understood that subsequent developments could affect the conclusions expressed in Navigant Capital's opinion if such opinion were rendered as of a later date, and Navigant Capital disclaimed any obligation to advise any person of any change in any manner affecting its opinion that may come to Navigant Capital's attention after the date of its opinion. Navigant Capital's opinion was delivered to the Radica Board subject to the conditions, scope of engagement, limitations and understandings set forth in its opinion and its retainer agreement with Radica, and subject to the understanding that the obligations of Navigant Capital in connection with its opinion are solely corporate obligations, and no officer, director, employee, agent, stockholder or controlling person of Navigant Capital shall be subjected to any personal liability whatsoever to any person, nor will any such claim be asserted by or on behalf of Radica or Radica's affiliates.

Radica has agreed to pay Navigant Capital a fee equal to 1.5% of the aggregate consideration paid or payable in connection with the amalgamation upon the consummation of the amalgamation. Of this amount, $550,000 has already been paid and is nonrefundable. Radica has also agreed to reimburse Navigant Capital for out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify Navigant Capital against certain liabilities, including any such liabilities that may arise under federal securities law, arising out of its engagement. Neither Navigant Capital's fee for rendering its opinion nor its expense reimbursement are contingent on the conclusions reached in its opinion.

Interests of Officers and Directors in the Transaction

Certain members of Radica's management and the Radica Board have interests in the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement that are in addition to their interests as shareholders of Radica and option holders. The Radica Board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Employment and Change in Control Agreements

Patrick Feely, David C.W. Howell, Jon N. Bengtson and Denis Horton have existing individual employment agreements with Radica. The employment agreements renew automatically on an annual basis unless 90 days notice is given by either party, for periods of two years each, from each July renewal date for Mr. Feely and from each December renewal date for Messrs. Howell and Bengtson. Mr. Horton's April 2003 employment agreement continues in force unless 12 months notice is given by Radica or 6 months notice is given by Mr. Horton. Each employment agreement is terminable by Radica for cause. Under their agreements, Messrs. Feely, Howell, Bengtson and Horton shall each receive minimum annual base salaries of $332,600, $250,000, $43,200 and $225,000 (the amount for Mr. Horton is stated in U.K. currency as £125,000), respectively. The agreement with Mr. Bengtson, in effect since December 1993, is for part-time services. The actual amounts paid as salary to Messrs. Feely, Howell, Bengtson and Horton in 2005 were $365,000, $250,000, $48,200, and $252,000 (£132,500), respectively. The current annual salary levels for such officers are $400,000, $260,000, $50,000, and $280,000 (£160,000), respectively. Under their employment agreements, Messrs. Feely, Howell and Horton are also entitled to receive their respective salaries for one year after termination if their employment agreements are terminated by the employee for good reason after the amalgamation or by Radica without cause. Furthermore, after a change of control, the salaries of Messrs. Feely, Howell and Horton may not be reduced below the level in effect immediately prior to the change of control.

Under the terms of their employment agreements, Messrs. Feely, Howell, Bengtson and Horton are eligible to participate in Radica's bonus plan. Messrs. Feely, Howell, Bengtson and Horton have also been granted certain stock options in connection with their employment with Radica. Please see "Equity Compensation Awards" below for a discussion of these stock options.

The employment agreements for Messrs. Feely, Howell and Horton contain certain restrictions on their involvement in businesses other than Radica during the course of their employment and certain provisions, applicable after termination of employment, which prohibit the solicitation of customers and other employees of Radica, employment or engagement with competing entities, or the disclosure of proprietary information of Radica. After consummation of the amalgamation, if the employment of any of Messrs. Feely, Howell and Horton is terminated either without cause, or by the employee for good reason, then such employee is entitled to all benefits and compensation at the rate most recently approved by the Radica Board for 12 months after such termination. Radica provides residences for David C.W. Howell and Laurence M. Scott in Hong Kong. The agreements described in this paragraph were filed as exhibits to Radica's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005.

In addition to the foregoing, the following executive officers executed change in control bonus agreements in March and April of 2006: Patrick Feely, David C.W. Howell, Denis Horton, Craig D. Storey, Robert Esterbrook, James M. Romaine, Kevin D. Brase, Larry C.N. Cheng, Louis S.W. Kwok, Lee Chun Wah Sean, Laurence M. Scott, Jr., Paul Fogarty and Christopher A. Wilson. Such agreements with Messrs. Feely, Howell and Horton provide that payments shall be made to such persons in the event that a change of control occurs on or before March 1, 2007 and that such employee remains employed by Radica at such date, or if not so employed, was terminated by Radica prior to such date without cause.

Such agreements with Messrs. Storey, Esterbrook, Romaine, Cheng, Kwok, Scott, Brase, Lee, Wilson and Fogarty, provide that payments shall be made to such persons in the event that a change of control occurs on or before April 3, 2007 and that such employee remains employed by Radica at such date, or if not so employed, was terminated by Radica prior to such date without cause. All such payments are to be made within ten days of the closing of any such transaction and are expected to be made as a result of the consummation of the amalgamation. The following table lists the change in control bonus payments referred to above to be made to our executive officers as a result of the amalgamation.

The following table lists the additional payments to be made under these agreements.

Employee	Payment at Effective Time
Patrick Feely	$730,000

Certain agreements described in this section for Messrs. Feely, Howell and Horton were filed as exhibits to Radica's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Prior to the closing of the amalgamation, Mattel intends to offer consulting agreements and/or stay bonuses to certain of Radica's key employees, all of which agreements or bonuses will be contingent on the closing of the amalgamation.

Equity Compensation Awards

The amalgamation agreement provides that at the effective time of amalgamation, each of the then outstanding options to purchase shares of Radica common stock, whether or not vested, including those held by our executive officers and directors, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the excess, if any, of $11.55 over the exercise price of the stock option for each share of our common stock subject to the option less applicable withholding tax. Based on the number of unexercised stock options, whether or not vested, outstanding as of July 31, 2006 and assuming that no stock options are exercised after that date and before the effective time of the amalgamation, upon completion of the amalgamation, the aggregate payments to our twenty-six executive officers and directors to cash out such stock options would be $5,371,692. Please see the table below regarding the consideration to be paid for the outstanding stock options held by our executive officers and directors at the effective time.

The aggregate payment to be made at the effective time to our twenty-six executive officers and directors with respect to their unvested restricted stock will be $649,213.95. Please see the table below regarding the consideration to be paid for the outstanding shares of restricted stock held by our executive officers and directors at the effective time. Indemnification and Directors and Officers Insurance

The amalgamation agreement provides that after the effective time of the amalgamation, Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises will jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless any director, officer and employee of Radica against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the amalgamation, including the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement but only to the extent permitted under Radica's memorandum of association and bye-laws and indemnification agreements, if any, in existence on the date of the amalgamation agreement.

In addition, for a period of six years after the effective time of the amalgamation, the amalgamated company will maintain and Mattel Foreign Holdings will cause the amalgamated company to maintain Radica's current directors' and officers' liability insurance under terms providing coverage limits in the aggregate for the entire six-year period that are not less than the annual limits in place immediately prior to the execution of the amalgamation agreement, provided, that if such coverage is unavailable, the amalgamated company shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain substantially equivalent coverage. In no event shall the amalgamated company be required to pay an amount per year in excess of 200% of Radica's current annual premiums for directors and officers liability insurance. In lieu of the foregoing, Mattel Foreign Holdings or Mattel Enterprises may obtain a "tail" policy of substantially equivalent coverage and amounts containing terms no less favorable to Radica's former directors or officers covering events occurring at or prior to the effective time of the amalgamation for a period of not fewer than six years after the effective time at a cost not to exceed 200% of the annual premiums paid by Radica for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Pursuant to the amalgamation agreement, Mattel fully guarantees the obligations of both Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises related to indemnification and maintenance of directors' and officers' liability insurance described in this section.

Completion and Effectiveness of the Amalgamation

The amalgamation will be completed after all of the conditions to completion of the amalgamation are satisfied or waived, including approval of the amalgamation proposal by the affirmative vote of the holders of three-fourths of the Radica common stock voting at the special general meeting. After satisfaction (or, to the extent permitted under the amalgamation agreement, waiver) of the closing conditions to the amalgamation, the amalgamation will become effective upon the issuance of a certificate of amalgamation by the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda. We intend to complete the amalgamation as promptly as possible following the special general meeting.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations

This section describes certain material United States federal income tax consequences of the amalgamation and related transactions. It applies to you only if you hold your Radica common stock as a capital asset for tax purposes. This section is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations, published rulings and court decisions, all as currently in effect. These laws are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis.

You are a U.S. holder if you are a beneficial owner of Radica common stock and you are:

- a citizen or resident of the United States,
- a domestic corporation (or other entity taxed as a corporation),
- an estate whose income is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source, or
- a trust if (1) a United States court can exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more United States persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) it has a valid election in effect under applicable United States Treasury regulations to be treated as an United States person.

A "non-U.S. holder" is a beneficial owner of Radica common stock that is not a United States person for United States federal income tax purposes. This section assumes that Radica is not a controlled foreign corporation for United States federal income tax purposes.

Consequences of the Amalgamation

U.S. Holders

The exchange of Radica common stock for cash pursuant to the amalgamation will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and may also be taxable under applicable state, local, foreign and other tax laws. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, a shareholder who receives cash as a result of the amalgamation will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the adjusted basis of the shares exchanged and the amount of cash received therefor. Any such recognized gain or loss will be capital gain or loss if the shares are held as capital assets by the shareholder, and will be long term capital gain or loss if the shareholder has held the shares for more than one year. Long-term capital gain of a non-corporate shareholder is generally subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15%. Gain or loss must be calculated separately for each block of common stock (i.e., shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) exchanged for cash in the amalgamation.

Non-U.S. Holders

If you are a non-U.S. holder, you will not be subject to United States federal income tax on gain recognized on receipt of the amalgamation consideration unless:

- the gain is "effectively connected" with your conduct of a trade or business in the United States; or
- you are an individual, you are present in the United States for 183 or more days in the taxable year of the sale and certain other conditions exist.

If you are a non-U.S. holder described in the first bullet above, you will be required to pay tax on the net gain derived from the sale under regular graduated United States federal income tax rates, and corporate non-U.S. holders described in the first bullet above may also, under certain circumstances, be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" at a 30% rate or at a lower rate if you are eligible for the benefits of an income tax treaty that provides for a lower rate. If you are an individual non-U.S. holder described in the second bullet above, you will be required to pay a flat 30% tax on the gain derived from the sale, which tax may be offset by United States source capital losses. You should consult any applicable income tax treaties that may provide for different rules.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

If you are a U.S. holder, payments you receive in connection with the Radica shares generally may be subject to the information reporting requirements of the Code and may be subject to backup withholding unless you (i) establish that you are a corporation or other exempt holder or (ii) provide an accurate taxpayer identification number on a properly completed Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 and certify that no loss of exemption from backup withholding has occurred. The amount of any backup withholding from a payment to you will be allowed as a credit against your United States federal income tax liability and may entitle you to a refund, provided that certain required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are a non-U.S. holder, you may be required to comply with certification and identification procedures in order to establish your exemption from information reporting and backup withholding. You generally may obtain a refund of any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules that exceed your income tax liability by filing a refund claim with the United States Internal Revenue Service.

Bermuda Tax Considerations

At the present time, there is no Bermuda income or profits tax, dividend withholding tax, capital gains tax or capital transfer tax payable by Radica shareholders as a result of the amalgamation.

Bermuda Tax Considerations

Pursuant to an assurance granted to Radica pursuant to The Exempted Undertakings Tax Protection Act, 1966, at the present time, there is no Bermuda income or profits tax, dividend withholding tax, capital gains tax or capital transfer tax payable by Radica shareholders as a result of the amalgamation. Such assurance shall not apply to prevent the application of any such taxes or duties to such persons as are ordinarily resident in Bermuda or payable pursuant to the Land Tax Act, 1967.

The income tax discussion set forth above is included for general information only and may not be applicable to shareholders in special situations such as shareholders who received their shares upon the exercise of stock options or otherwise as compensation, shareholders who are traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings and shareholders who are not United States persons. Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the specific tax consequences to them of the amalgamation, including the application and effect of federal, state, local, foreign or other tax laws.

Regulatory Approvals

As a condition to the amalgamation, the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 requires us and Mattel to observe the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act's notification and waiting period. The Hart-Scott-Rodino Act provides for an initial 30-calendar-day waiting period following the necessary filings by the parties to the amalgamation. We and Mattel have filed the Notification and Report Forms with the FTC and the Antitrust Division for review in connection with the amalgamation. The initial HSR waiting period will expire 30 calendar days after the filing was completed, unless a request is made for additional information or documentary material or the waiting period is earlier terminated. If either the Antitrust Division or the FTC makes a request for additional information or documentary materials, the waiting period will expire 30 days after substantial compliance with such request.

In addition, Mattel and Radica will be required to file a premerger notification with the German government's antitrust regulatory authority and to observe required waiting period(s) associated with such filing. Mattel and Radica have not yet obtained any of the governmental or regulatory clearances required to complete the amalgamation.

Radica does not believe that any other material pre-closing regulatory approvals, filings or notices are required by Radica in connection with the amalgamation, other than filings or notices required under federal securities laws and the filing of a certificate of amalgamation with the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

Under Bermuda law, in the event of an amalgamation of a Bermuda company with another company or corporation, any shareholder of the Bermuda company who did not vote in favor of the amalgamation and who is not satisfied that he has been offered fair value for such shareholder's shares may within one month of notice of the shareholders meeting apply to the Supreme Court of Bermuda to appraise the fair value of those shares. Within one month of the court's appraising the fair value of such shares, the Bermuda company shall be entitled either to pay the court appraised value to the dissenting shareholder or terminate the amalgamation. If the amalgamation has proceeded prior to the court's appraisal, then within one month of the court's appraisal, the amalgamated Bermuda company must pay the difference between the court's appraised value and the value actually received by the shareholder pursuant to the amalgamation. See Section 106(6) of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981, a copy of which is included as Annex D to this proxy statement.

No appeal shall lie from an appraisal by the Supreme Court of Bermuda and the costs of the application to the Supreme Court shall be in the discretion of the Supreme Court.

THE AMALGAMATION AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of certain provisions of the amalgamation agreement. This summary is not a complete description of the terms and conditions of the amalgamation agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amalgamation agreement, which is included as Annex A to this proxy statement.

The Amalgamation

The amalgamation agreement contemplates the amalgamation of Radica with Mattel Enterprises, a wholly owned subsidiary of Mattel Foreign Holdings, the result of which will be that the amalgamated company will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Mattel Foreign Holdings. Mattel Foreign Holdings is a wholly owned subsidiary of Mattel. As a result, upon completion of the amalgamation, the amalgamated company will be an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Mattel. Upon completion of the amalgamation, each share of Radica common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive $11.55 in cash. The effective time of the amalgamation will be the time set forth in the certificate of amalgamation issued by the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda in connection with the application for registration of the amalgamated company to be filed on the first business day on which the last of the conditions set forth in the amalgamation agreement is fulfilled or waived.

Directors and Officers

From the effective time of the amalgamation until successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the memorandum of association and bye-laws of the amalgamated company and applicable law, (i) the directors of Mattel Enterprises at the effective time of the amalgamation shall be the directors of the amalgamated company, and (ii) the officers of Mattel Enterprises at the effective time of the amalgamation shall be the officers of the amalgamated company.

Treatment of Options

At the effective time, each then outstanding option to purchase shares of Radica common stock granted pursuant to any Radica incentive plan, whether or not vested or unvested, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive from Mattel Foreign Holdings an amount of cash equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of $11.55 over the exercise price per share of each such option and (ii) the number of shares of Radica common stock issuable pursuant to the unexercised and outstanding portion of each such option, less any required withholding of taxes.

Representations and Warranties

In the amalgamation agreement, each party makes a number of customary representations and warranties to the other as to, among other things, organization and good standing, corporate authority and governmental approvals, no default, and brokers and finders.

We also make additional customary representations and warranties, including with respect to capitalization; compliance with laws; SEC reports and financial statements; no undisclosed liabilities; litigation; labor matters; insurance; real property; assets; affiliate transactions; foreign corrupt practices act; product liability; material contracts; absence of material adverse effect; employee benefit plans; intellectual property; taxes; anti-takeover statutes and charter provisions; opinion regarding fairness; and environmental matters.

Mattel Foreign Holdings has also represented that it has all funds necessary to satisfy all of its obligations in connection with the amalgamation.

Many of our representations and warranties are qualified by the absence of a material adverse effect, which, for purposes of the amalgamation agreement, means with respect to Radica, any change, event or effect that is materially adverse to the condition (financial or otherwise), properties, assets (including intangible assets), liabilities, business or results of operations of Radica and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, other than any such change, event or effect resulting from (i) any change in laws or GAAP or interpretations of GAAP applicable to Radica, (ii) any change in economic or business conditions generally or in the handheld games industry specifically (in each case, not having a materially disproportionate effect on Radica and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole), (iii) the public announcement of the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement, (iv) any change in trading prices of Radica's common stock in and of itself (provided, that the reasons for a change in the trading prices of the common stock may be considered when determining if a material adverse effect has occurred), or (v) the engagement by the United States in hostilities pursuant to the declaration of war, or the occurrence of any terrorist attack upon or within the United States.

The representations and warranties in the amalgamation agreement do not survive the effective time of the amalgamation.

In the amalgamation agreement, we agree:

- To (i) conduct our business in the ordinary and usual course consistent with past practice, (ii) consistent with the immediately foregoing clause, use all reasonable best efforts to preserve intact our business organization and maintain existing relations and goodwill with customers, suppliers, distributors and employees and (iii) pay taxes when due and payable, except to the extent that both (A) any such Tax is contested in good faith, and (B) adequate reserves shall have been provided for with respect to such tax;

- o authorize or enter into an agreement to do any of the foregoing.

No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals

In the amalgamation agreement, Radica agreed that neither it nor any of its subsidiaries nor any of their respective officers and directors shall, and that it shall not authorize or permit its or any of its subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives to, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit, encourage or otherwise facilitate any inquiries or the making of any competing acquisition proposal. Radica also agreed that neither it nor any of its subsidiaries nor any of their respective officers and directors shall, and that it shall not authorize or permit its or any of its subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives to, directly or indirectly, engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information or data to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to a proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal, otherwise facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an acquisition proposal, or enter into an agreement or agreement in principle with respect to an acquisition proposal.

An acquisition proposal is defined in the amalgamation agreement as any proposal or offer with respect to a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, amalgamation or similar transaction involving Radica, or with respect to any purchase, acquisition, assignment, lease or transfer of 25% or more of the consolidated assets of Radica or 25% or more of the equity securities of Radica, or any combination of the foregoing.

If after Radica receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal the Radica Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel and Radica's financial advisor, that such action is likely to be required in order for its directors to comply with their respective fiduciary duties under applicable law, then Radica may (i) provide information in response to a request by a person or entity who has made an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal if such person or entity executes a confidentiality agreement on terms no more favorable to such person or entity than those contained in the confidentiality agreement with Mattel, (ii) engage in any negotiations or discussions with any person or entity who has made an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal, (iii) recommend such an acquisition proposal to the shareholders of Radica, or (iv) enter into a binding written agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a superior proposal. Before taking any action referred to in clause (iii) or (iv) above, Radica has agreed that it will give Mattel Foreign Holdings at least five business days' prior written notice (which five business day period will recommence upon notification by Radica of any material change to the applicable acquisition proposal) of its intention to take any such action (including attaching the most current version of any binding written agreement referred to in clause (iv) above). Radica agreed that it will not recommend to the shareholders of Radica an acquisition proposal referred to in clause (iii) above or enter into a binding agreement referred to in clause (iv) above until, in each case, at least the sixth business day after it has provided the notice to Mattel Foreign Holdings required under the previous sentence. A superior proposal is defined in the amalgamation agreement as a bona fide written acquisition proposal that (i) if accepted the Radica Board determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor) has substantially the same likelihood of consummation as the amalgamation, taking into account all legal, financial and regulatory aspects of the proposal and the person or entity making the proposal and any adjusted, modified or amended terms proposed by Mattel Foreign Holdings, and (ii) would, if consummated, result in a transaction more favorable to Radica's shareholders from a financial point of view than the amalgamation. Radica further agreed to immediately terminate any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties with respect to any acquisition proposal.

In addition to the foregoing, Radica agreed that it would notify Mattel Foreign Holdings promptly (and in any event within twenty-four hours) upon receipt of any acquisition proposal by it or any of its representatives, including the material terms of such proposal, the identity of the potential acquirer, any information requested from Radica, or of any negotiations or discussions being sought to be initiated with Radica. Radica shall keep Mattel Foreign Holdings fully informed on a prompt basis with respect to any material changes to the applicable acquisition proposal, Radica's intention to enter into an acquisition proposal or any other material developments with respect to the foregoing. Furthermore, Radica will simultaneously provide to Mattel Foreign Holdings any non-public information concerning Radica provided to any person that was not previously provided to Mattel Foreign Holdings.

Employee Benefits

From the effective time until the second anniversary thereof, Mattel Foreign Holdings agrees to provide employees of Radica benefits under employee benefit plans that will be substantially similar in the aggregate to those currently in effect at Radica, subject to any current or future collective bargaining agreement that may be in effect.

Mattel Foreign Holdings will and will cause the amalgamated company to honor: (i) all employee benefit obligations to employees accrued as of the effective time; (ii) the severance and employment agreements set forth in the disclosure letter to the amalgamation agreement; and (iii) certain severance plan terms or agreements set forth in the disclosure letter to the amalgamation agreement without amendment for one year immediately following the effective time.

For the purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefit accrual (other than under any defined benefit pension plan), the service of our employees will be taken into account under comparable employee benefit plans of Mattel Foreign Holdings for which they are eligible for participation, subject to any current or future collective bargaining agreement that may be in effect.

Mattel Foreign Holdings or Mattel Enterprises will also pay in cash the amounts due to certain Radica officers under change in control provisions in their employment agreements. See "The Amalgamation" Interests of Officers and Directors in the Transaction on page 17.

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Mattel Foreign Holdings and the amalgamated company have agreed to jointly and severally indemnify the current and former directors, officers and employees of Radica and its subsidiaries to the extent permitted by its charter documents and indemnification agreements (if any are existing at the time of execution of the amalgamation agreement). In addition, for a period of six years after the effective time, the amalgamated company will maintain the current directors' and officers' liability insurance, provided that in no event will the amalgamated company be required to pay an amount per year in excess of 200% of Radica's current annual premiums for directors' and officers' liability insurance. In lieu of the foregoing, Mattel Foreign Holdings or Mattel Enterprises may obtain a "tail" policy of substantially equivalent coverage and amounts containing terms no less favorable to Radica's former directors or officers covering events occurring at or prior to the effective time of the amalgamation for a period of not fewer than six years after the effective time at a cost not to exceed 200% of the annual premiums paid by Radica for the year ended December 31, 2005. See "The Amalgamation" Interests of Officers and Directors in the Transaction on page 17.

Closing Conditions

The amalgamation agreement contains customary closing conditions for an amalgamation between two public companies or required by law, including the following conditions for both parties:

31

- approval of three-fourths of the outstanding shares of our common stock voting on the transaction;
- the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act having expired or been terminated and any other required regulatory approvals having been obtained; and
- no law or order by a governmental entity in effect that restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits the amalgamation.

The amalgamation agreement contains the following conditions to the obligations of Radica:

- true and correct representations and warranties of Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises disregarding inaccuracies which, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be likely to prevent or materially impair or delay Mattel Foreign Holdings or Mattel Enterprise's ability to consummate the amalgamation, and receipt by Radica of a certificate to such effect signed by an executive officer of Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises; and
- performance by Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises in all material respects of all obligations required to be performed by each under the amalgamation agreement, and receipt by Radica of a certificate to such effect signed by an executive officer of Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises.

The amalgamation agreement contains the following conditions to the obligations of Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises:

- true and correct representations and warranties of Radica, disregarding inaccuracies which, individually or in the aggregate, have not had or would not reasonably be likely to have a material adverse effect on Radica, or would not reasonably be likely to prevent or materially delay or impair Radica's ability to consummate the amalgamation, and receipt by Mattel Foreign Holdings of a certificate to such effect signed by an executive officer of Radica;
- performance by Radica in all material respects of all obligations required to be performed by it under the amalgamation agreement, and receipt by Mattel Foreign Holdings of a certificate to such effect signed by an executive officer of Radica; and
- no occurrence of a material adverse effect or any event or development that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Radica since the date of the amalgamation agreement.

Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement

Notwithstanding any approval of the amalgamation agreement by the shareholders of Radica, the amalgamation agreement may be terminated and the amalgamation may be abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the amalgamation:

- by mutual written consent of Radica and Mattel Foreign Holdings;
- by Radica or Mattel Foreign Holdings if the amalgamation has not been consummated on or before December 15, 2006; provided that if the only conditions to closing that remain unsatisfied on December 15, 2006 (other than conditions that by their terms only can be satisfied at the closing date) are either (i) the condition that the waiting period applicable to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act shall have expired or terminated and that all other regulatory approvals to consummate the amalgamation are obtained or (ii) the condition that no governmental entity shall have enacted any law or issued any judgment, decree, injunction or order that is in effect and restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits completion of the amalgamation, and such conditions are capable of being satisfied on or prior to January 31, 2007, then the December 15, 2006 date shall automatically be extended to January 31, 2007; provided that this right to terminate is not available to a party that has breached in any material respect its obligations under the amalgamation agreement in any manner that has been the cause of, or resulted in, the occurrence of the failure of the amalgamation to be completed;

- by Radica or Mattel Foreign Holdings if any governmental entity enacts, issues, promulgates, enforces or enters any statute, law, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the amalgamation that becomes final and non-appealable;
- by Radica or Mattel Foreign Holdings if the shareholders of Radica do not approve the amalgamation;
- by Radica if prior to obtaining the requisite approval of the shareholders of Radica: (i) Radica is not in material breach of any of the terms of the amalgamation agreement, and (ii) if permitted by, and in compliance with, the provision of the amalgamation agreement prohibiting Radica from soliciting alternative acquisition proposals, the Radica Board authorizes Radica to enter into a binding written agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a superior proposal;
- by Mattel Foreign Holdings if (i) the Radica Board withdraws or adversely modifies its approval or recommendation to its shareholders that they adopt the amalgamation agreement, (ii) the Radica Board recommends to its shareholders a competing acquisition proposal or fails to reconfirm its recommendation of the amalgamation agreement within five business days after a written request by Mattel Foreign Holdings to do so, or (iii) there has been any event, development or change of circumstance that constitutes, has had or could reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Radica and such material adverse effect is not cured within 20 days after written notice thereof; or
- by either party if the other party has breached any of its representations, warranties or covenants or agreements and such breach would cause the condition such that the related condition to close is not capable of being satisfied or is not satisfied within 20 days after written notice to the breaching party by the non-breaching party.

Termination Fees and Expenses

Radica is required to pay Mattel Foreign Holdings a termination fee equal to $6,940,764 and up to an aggregate amount of $1,500,000 for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Mattel Foreign Holdings and its affiliates in connection with the amalgamation if:

- the amalgamation agreement is terminated by Radica because the Radica Board, in compliance with the provisions of the amalgamation agreement described under No

Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals above, authorizes Radica to enter into a binding written agreement related to a transaction that constitutes a superior proposal (provided that Radica is not in material breach of any of the terms of the amalgamation agreement) or

- (i) the amalgamation agreement is terminated by Mattel Foreign Holdings because Radica has breached any of its representations, warranties or covenants or agreements and such breach would cause the conditions that (A) all representations and warranties are true and correct as of the closing date (subject to the standard of material adverse effect as defined in the amalgamation agreement) or (B) Radica shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under the amalgamation agreement not to be satisfied, and such conditions are not capable of being satisfied or are not satisfied within 20 days after written notice to Radica by Mattel Foreign Holdings and (ii) (A) an acquisition proposal shall have been made to Radica or its shareholders or any person or entity shall have publicly announced an intention to make an acquisition proposal with respect to Radica prior to such termination and (B) within 12 months of such termination, Radica consummates a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal (with all percentages in the definition of acquisition proposal increased from twenty-five to fifty percent).

The termination fee and expenses noted above shall be payable to Mattel Foreign Holdings: (i) in the case of the first bullet point above, upon termination of the amalgamation agreement, and (ii) in the case of the second bullet point above, upon the consummation of the definitive agreement in connection with the applicable acquisition proposal.

In addition, if the amalgamation agreement is terminated by Mattel Foreign Holdings because the Radica Board (i) withdraws or adversely modifies its approval or recommendation of the amalgamation agreement, (ii) recommends to the shareholders of Radica that they approve an acquisition proposal, or (iii) fails to reconfirm its recommendation of the amalgamation agreement within five business days after a written request by Mattel Foreign Holdings to do so, then upon termination of the amalgamation agreement, Radica shall pay to Mattel Foreign Holdings up to an aggregate amount of $1,500,000 for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Mattel Foreign Holdings and its affiliates in connection with the amalgamation; provided, however, that if within 12 months of such termination, Radica enters into or consummates a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal (with all percentages in the definition of acquisition proposal increased from twenty five percent to fifty percent), then Radica shall also pay to Mattel Foreign Holdings an amount equal to the $6,940,764 termination fee upon consummation of such definitive agreement (even if such consummation occurs following such 12 month period).

Finally, if the amalgamation agreement is terminated by Mattel Foreign Holdings or Radica because the requisite approval of the amalgamation and the amalgamation agreement by shareholders of Radica is not obtained, then, upon termination of the amalgamation agreement, Radica shall pay to Mattel Foreign Holdings up to an aggregate amount of $1,500,000 for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Mattel Foreign Holdings and its affiliates in connection with the amalgamation; provided, however, if (i) an acquisition proposal shall have been made to Radica or its shareholders or any person or entity shall have publicly announced an intention to make an acquisition proposal with respect to Radica prior to such termination and (ii) within 12 months of such termination, Radica enters into or consummates a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal (with all percentages in the definition of acquisition proposal increased from twenty five percent to fifty percent), then upon the earlier of the execution or consummation of such definitive agreement, Radica shall also pay to Mattel Foreign Holdings an amount equal to the $6,940,764 termination fee.

Radica's payment of the termination fee and Mattel Foreign Holdings' expenses in the circumstances described above shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises against Radica and its subsidiaries and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors or other representatives with respect to the breach of any covenant or agreement giving rise to such payment.

Cooperation and Furnishing of Information

Radica and Mattel Foreign Holdings shall cooperate with each other, and each shall use its respective commercially reasonable efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions, and do or cause to be done all things necessary, proper or advisable, under the amalgamation agreement and applicable laws to consummate and make effective the amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement as soon as practicable, including:

- preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary notices, reports and other filings; and
- obtaining as promptly as possible all consents, registrations, approvals, permits and authorizations necessary or advisable to be obtained from any third party (including shareholders) and/or any governmental entity in order to consummate the amalgamation or any of the other transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement.

Subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, to the extent practicable, Radica and Mattel Foreign Holdings shall have the right to reasonably collaborate in connection with any communication that Radica or Mattel Foreign Holdings makes to any governmental entity regarding the amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement before such communication is made.

Radica and Mattel have agreed that:

- Radica shall, upon request by Mattel Foreign Holdings, furnish Mattel Foreign Holdings, the SEC and any other governmental entities with all information concerning itself, its subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with this proxy statement or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Mattel Foreign Holdings to any third party and/or any governmental entity in connection with the amalgamation and the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement.

- Mattel Foreign Holdings shall, upon request by Radica, furnish Radica, the SEC and any other governmental entities with all information concerning itself and Mattel Enterprises and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with this proxy statement or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Radica or any of its subsidiaries to any third party and/or any governmental entity in connection with the amalgamation and the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement.

Access to Information

Upon reasonable notice and except as may otherwise be required by applicable law, Radica has agreed to afford Mattel Foreign Holdings's officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives reasonable access, during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the effective time, to its properties, books, contracts, records, officers, employees and representatives and to furnish promptly to Mattel Foreign Holdings, during such period, all information concerning its business, properties, contracts, financial data, personnel and other information as may reasonably be requested. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Radica will not be required to permit any inspection, or to disclose any information, that in the reasonable judgment of Radica would result in the disclosure of any trade secrets of third parties if Radica shall have used reasonable best efforts to obtain the consent of such third party to such inspection or disclosure. All requests for information described in this paragraph shall be directed to an executive officer of Radica or other individual designated by Radica. All such information is to remain confidential in accordance with the terms of the confidentiality agreement between the parties.

Publicity

Radica and Mattel Foreign Holdings agreed to make the initial press release with respect to the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement a joint press release and to thereafter consult with each other prior to issuing any press releases or otherwise making public announcements with respect to the amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement and prior to making any filings with any third party and/or any governmental entity with respect thereto, except as may be required by law or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of any national securities interdealer quotation service.

Guarantee

Mattel has agreed to guarantee the performance of all obligations of Mattel Foreign Holdings and Mattel Enterprises and any of their permitted assigns, and the due and punctual payment in full of any amounts payable by such parties under the amalgamation agreement.

Amendment of the Amalgamation Agreement

Subject to the provisions of applicable law, the amalgamation agreement may be amended or modified by the parties thereto at any time prior to the effective time of the amalgamation by a written agreement executed and delivered by duly authorized officers of the respective parties.

THE VOTING AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of certain provisions of the voting agreement. This summary is not a complete description of the terms and conditions of the voting agreement, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the voting agreement which is included as Annex B to this proxy statement.

Voting Obligation

Pursuant to the voting agreement, certain shareholders, comprised of Richard H. Pickup and certain entities he controls, also referred to as the Pickup Group agreed that at any annual, special or other meeting of the shareholders of Radica, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof, and in connection with any action of the shareholders of Radica taken by written consent, such shareholders would:

- (i) appear in person or by proxy at such meeting or otherwise cause shares constituting approximately 40% of Radica's outstanding shares to be counted as present at such meeting for the purpose of calculating a quorum; and
- (ii) vote (or cause to be voted) all of such shares in accordance with applicable procedures to ensure that such shares are duly counted for the purposes of recording the results of such vote:
 - (a) in favor of the approval of the terms of the amalgamation agreement, the amalgamation, the transactions contemplated thereby and any other actions required in furtherance thereof, and
 - (b) against (I) any acquisition proposal, (II) any proposal for any recapitalization, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, amalgamation, merger, sale of assets or business combination between Radica and any other person (other than the amalgamation agreement, the amalgamation and the transactions contemplated thereby), (III) any material change in the capitalization or corporate structure of Radica or any of its subsidiaries (other than the amalgamation agreement, the amalgamation or the transactions contemplated thereby), or any amendment to Radica's memorandum of association or bye-laws, or (IV) any action that would reasonably be expected to (A) result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Radica under the amalgamation agreement or of such shareholders under the voting agreement, (B) preclude fulfillment of any condition under the amalgamation agreement to the obligations of any party thereto to consummate the amalgamation, or (C) impede, interfere or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement or the voting agreement.

Restriction on Transfer of Shares

Pursuant to the voting agreement, and excepting any action expressly contemplated by the amalgamation agreement or the voting agreement, each member of the Pickup Group is restricted from (i) directly or indirectly transferring any shares covered by the voting agreement, (ii) granting a proxy or power of attorney, depositing into any voting trust, entering into any voting agreement or creating a lien on any of its shares of Radica covered by the voting agreement, or (iii) taking any action that would make any representation of such shareholder made in the voting agreement to be untrue or incorrect or that would have the effect of preventing, impeding, interfering with or adversely affecting such shareholder's ability to perform such shareholder's obligations under the voting agreement.

Non-Solicitation

Each shareholder subject to the voting agreement agreed that it would not, directly or indirectly: (i) initiate, solicit, encourage or otherwise facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to any acquisition proposal, (ii) engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information or data to, or have any discussions with, any person or entity relating to a proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal, (iii) otherwise facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an acquisition proposal, or (iv) enter into an agreement or agreement in principle with respect to an acquisition proposal. Each shareholder subject to the voting agreement further agreed that it would immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any acquisition proposal. Furthermore, each such shareholder agreed that it would notify Mattel Foreign Holdings promptly (and in any event within twenty-four hours) upon receipt of any acquisition proposal by it or any of its representatives, including the material terms of such proposal, the identity of the potential acquiror, any information requested or of any negotiations or discussions being sought to be initiated with such shareholder or Radica.

Termination of Voting Agreement

Subject to certain exceptions, the voting agreement will terminate upon the earlier of (i) the effective time of the amalgamation or (ii) the elapsing of nine months following termination of the amalgamation agreement; provided, however, if Radica enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal during such nine-month period, the voting agreement, its voting obligations, transfer restrictions and non-solicitation provisions will terminate only upon the termination or consummation of the definitive agreement related to the alternative acquisition proposal.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the voting agreement, including its voting obligations and transfer and non-solicitation restrictions, will terminate automatically on termination of the amalgamation agreement if the amalgamation agreement is terminated:

- by mutual written consent of Radica and Mattel Foreign Holdings;
- by either Radica or Mattel Foreign Holdings if any governmental entity enacts, issues, promulgates, enforces or enters any statute, law, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the amalgamation that becomes final and non-appealable;
- by either Radica or Mattel Foreign Holdings if the other party has breached any of its representations, warranties or covenants or agreements and such breach would cause the conditions that (A) all representations and warranties are true and correct as of the closing date (subject in case of a breach by Radica to the standard of material adverse effect as defined in the amalgamation agreement) or (B) Radica or Mattel Foreign Holdings, as the case may be, shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under the amalgamation agreement not to be satisfied, and such conditions are not capable of being satisfied or are not satisfied within 20 days after written notice to the breaching party by the non-breaching party, provided, that, prior to such termination by Mattel Foreign Holdings (i) no alternative acquisition proposal shall have been made to Radica or its shareholders and (ii) no person shall have publicly announced an intention to make an acquisition proposal with respect to Radica, and provided further, that, any termination by Mattel Foreign Holdings as a result of Radica's breach of its covenant not to solicit or negotiate an alternative acquisition proposal will not result in an automatic termination of the voting agreement);

- by Mattel Foreign Holdings if there has been any event, development or change of circumstance that constitutes, has had or could reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Radica and such material adverse effect is not cured within 20 days after written notice thereof; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ANNEX A

ARTICLE I

The Amalgamation; Closing; Effective Time

1.1. The Amalgamation. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Effective Time, Amalgamation Sub and the Company shall amalgamate (the Amalgamation) with the resulting company (sometimes hereinafter referred to as the Amalgamated Company) continuing to exist as a company incorporated and governed by the laws of Bermuda. The Amalgamation shall have the effects specified under Section 109 of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981 (the Bermuda Act). Prior to the Effective Time, the parties shall enter into the Agreement of Amalgamation, in the form attached hereto as Annex B, and undertake all such other matters, and do all such other things as may be necessary to effect the Amalgamation under Bermuda law.

1.2. Effective Time. On the first business day (the Application Date) on which the last to be fulfilled or waived of the conditions set forth in Article VII (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied on the Application Date, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions) shall be satisfied or waived in accordance with this Agreement and/or Laws, the Company and Parent will cause an application for registration of an amalgamated company, along with all required documentation, to be filed with the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda (the Bermuda Registrar) as provided in Section 108 of the Bermuda Act, unless another date or time is agreed to in writing by Parent and Company. The Amalgamation shall become effective at the time set forth in the certificate of amalgamation issued by the Bermuda Registrar in connection with the application for registration (the Effective Time).

1.3. Closing. The closing of the Amalgamation shall take place at the offices of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, 1888 Century Park East, Los Angeles, California at 9:00 A.M., or at such other time and place as the Company and Parent may agree in writing, on the business day on which the certificate of amalgamation with respect to the Amalgamation is issued by the Bermuda Registrar.

ARTICLE II

Memorandum of Association and Bye-Laws of the Amalgamated Company

2.1. Memorandum of Association. The memorandum of association of Amalgamation Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time (in the form attached hereto as Annex C-1) shall be the memorandum of association of the Amalgamated Company after the Effective Time (the Memorandum of Association), until thereafter amended as provided therein or by applicable Bermuda law.

2.2. The Bye-Laws. The bye-laws of Amalgamation Sub as in effect at the Effective Time (in the form attached hereto as Annex C-2) shall be the bye-laws of the Amalgamated Company after the Effective Time (the Bye-Laws), until thereafter amended as provided therein or by applicable Bermuda law.

ANNEX A

ARTICLE III

Officers and Directors of the Amalgamated Company

3.1. Directors. The directors of Amalgamation Sub at the Effective Time shall, from and after the Effective Time, be the directors of the Amalgamated Company until their successors have been duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the Memorandum of Association and the Bye-Laws.

3.2. Officers. The officers of the Amalgamation Sub at the Effective Time shall, from and after the Effective Time, be the officers of the Amalgamated Company until their successors have been duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the Memorandum of Association and the Bye-Laws.

ARTICLE IV

Effect of the Amalgamation on Capital Stock and Options; Exchange of Certificates

4.1. Effect on Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, as a result of the Amalgamation and without any action on the part of the holder of any of the shares of the Company:

(a) Amalgamation Consideration. Each share of the Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (a Share and, collectively, the Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Shares owned by Parent, Amalgamation Sub or any other direct or indirect subsidiary of Parent or Shares that are owned by any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company (each, an Excluded Share and collectively, Excluded Shares)) shall be converted into the right to receive, subject to any required withholding of taxes and without interest, an amount in cash equal to $11.55, subject to appropriate adjustment for any dividend of Shares, subdivision, reclassification, recapitalization, split, combination or exchange with respect to the Shares occurring after the date hereof and before the Effective Time (the Amalgamation Consideration). At the Effective Time, all Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each certificate (a Certificate) formerly representing any Shares (other than Excluded Shares) shall thereafter represent only the right to receive the Amalgamation Consideration for each Share formerly represented thereby.

(b) Excluded Shares. Each Excluded Share shall be cancelled by virtue of the Amalgamation without payment of any consideration.

(c) Amalgamation Sub. Each share of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Amalgamation Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Amalgamated Company.

4.2. Payment for Shares.

(a) Paying Agent. As of the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with a paying agent selected by Parent with the Company's prior approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld (the Paying Agent), for the benefit of the holders of Shares (other than Excluded Shares), amounts sufficient in the aggregate to provide all funds necessary for the Paying Agent to make payments pursuant to Section 4.1(a) (the Payment Fund).

(b) Payment Procedures. Promptly after the Effective Time, but in no event later than the fifth business day following the Effective Time, the Amalgamated Company shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each holder of record of Shares (other than holders of Excluded Shares) (i) a letter of transmittal specifying that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) to the Paying Agent, such letter of transmittal to be in such form and have such other provisions as Parent and the Company may reasonably agree, and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates. Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Paying Agent together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor payment in the amount of the Amalgamation Consideration for each Share formerly represented thereby (after giving effect to any required tax withholdings) to which such holder is entitled, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on any amount payable upon due surrender of the Certificates. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Shares that is not registered in the share register of the Company, the Amalgamation Consideration to be paid upon due surrender of the Certificate therefor may be paid to such a transferee if the Certificate formerly representing such Shares is presented to the Paying Agent, accompanied by all documents reasonably required to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. If any payment is to be made to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor, it shall be a condition of such payment that the Person requesting such exchange shall pay any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or shall establish to the reasonable satisfaction of Parent or the Paying Agent that such tax has been paid or is not applicable.

(c) Transfers. At the Effective Time, the share register of the Company shall be closed and thereafter, there shall be no transfers on the share register of the Company of the Shares that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(d) Termination of Payment Fund. Any portion of the Payment Fund (including the proceeds of any investments thereof) that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of the Company for one year after the Effective Time shall be paid to Parent. Any shareholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with this Article IV shall thereafter look only to Parent for payment of cash upon due surrender of their Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Parent, the Amalgamated Company, the Paying Agent or any other Person shall be liable to any former holder of Shares for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws.

(e) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and delivery by such Person of an indemnity in favor of the Company in respect thereof, the Paying Agent will pay in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate and such an indemnity, the amount to which such Person is entitled upon due surrender of and deliverable in respect of the Shares formerly represented by such Certificate pursuant to this Agreement.

(f) Withholding. Parent and the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any Company shareholder such amounts as Parent and the Paying Agent are required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any other applicable Tax Law with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Parent or the Paying Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Company shareholders in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by Parent or the Paying Agent.

4.3. Stock Options. At the Effective Time, each then outstanding option granted under the Company's 1994 Stock Option Plan, as amended and restated (the "1994 Stock Plan") and under the Company's 2004 Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan (the "2004 Stock Plan", together with the 1994 Stock Plan, the "Stock Plans"), to purchase Shares (a "Company Option"), whether vested or unvested, shall be canceled and converted into the right to receive from Parent an amount of cash equal to the product of (x) the amount, if any, by which the Amalgamation Consideration exceeds the exercise price per Share subject to such Company Option (whether vested or unvested) and (y) the number of Shares issuable pursuant to the unexercised and outstanding portion of such Company Option, less any required withholding of taxes. Each of Parent and the Company shall, prior to the Effective Time, take any necessary action in connection with the foregoing sentence. Any amounts to be paid by Parent pursuant to this Section 4.3

shall be in addition to any amounts to be paid by or on behalf of Parent pursuant to Section 4.2.

4.4. Dissenting Shareholders. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, any Shares that are held by shareholders of the Company who did not vote in favor of the Amalgamation shall be cancelled at the Effective Time and converted into the right to receive the Amalgamation Consideration for each Share formerly represented thereby, subject to the rights of shareholders of the Company ("Dissenting Shareholders") who are not satisfied that the Amalgamation Consideration constitutes fair value of their Shares and require appraisal of the fair value of their Shares ("Dissenting Shares") under Section 106 of the Bermuda Act. In the event that the Company decides to proceed with the Amalgamation pending the determination of any appraisal proceedings initiated by Dissenting Shareholders, the Dissenting Shareholders shall receive the Amalgamation Consideration for each Share formerly represented thereby upon compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 4.2. The Company shall give Parent (i) reasonably prompt notice of any written demands by Dissenting Shareholders for appraisal of Dissenting Shares or withdrawals of such demands received by the Company pursuant to the Bermuda Act and (ii) the opportunity to participate to the extent permitted by applicable Bermuda law in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands by Dissenting Shareholders for appraisal of Dissenting Shares under the Bermuda Act. Except as required by Section 106 of the Bermuda Act, prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall not make any payment with respect to any demands by Dissenting Shareholders of Dissenting Shares or offer to settle or settle any such demands.

4.5. Further Action. If, at any time after the Effective Time, any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement and to vest the Amalgamated Company with full right, title and possession to all assets, property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Company, the officers and directors of the Amalgamated Company are hereby fully authorized in the name of the Company or otherwise to take, and will use all good faith efforts to take, all such lawful and necessary action in connection therewith, so long as such action is not inconsistent with this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

Representations and Warranties

5.1. Representations and Warranties of the Company. Except as set forth in the disclosure letter delivered to Parent by the Company on or prior to entering into this Agreement (the Company Disclosure Letter) (it being agreed that disclosure of any item in any part of the Company Disclosure Letter shall be deemed disclosure with respect to any other part to which the relevance of such item is reasonably apparent), the Company hereby represents and warrants to Parent and Amalgamation Sub that:

ANNEX A

(a) Organization, Good Standing and Qualification. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its respective jurisdiction of organization and has all requisite corporate or similar power and authority to own, lease, license and operate its properties and assets and to carry on its business as presently conducted. Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries is qualified or licensed to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where the ownership, leasing, licensing or operation of its assets or properties or conduct of its business requires such qualification or license, except where the failure to be so organized, qualified, licensed or in good standing or to have such power or authority, would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. The Company has made available to Parent a complete and correct copy of the Company's memorandum of association and bye-laws, each as amended to date.

(b) Capital Structure. The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 100,000,000 Shares, of which 19,405,736 Shares were outstanding as of the close of business on July 14, 2006. Since July 14, 2006, no Shares have been issued except pursuant to the exercise of Company Options. All of the outstanding Shares have been, and all Shares that may be issued pursuant to the exercise of outstanding Company Options will be, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable. The Company has no Shares reserved for issuance, except that, as of June 30, 2006, there were 970,178 Shares reserved for issuance under outstanding Company Options issued pursuant to the 1994 Stock Plan, which plan has terminated, and there were 47,500 Shares reserved for issuance under outstanding Company Options issued pursuant to the 2004 Stock Plan. Section 5.1(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter sets forth a correct and complete list, as of the date hereof, of the prices at which outstanding Company Options may be exercised, the number of Company Options outstanding at each such price and the vesting schedule of the Company Options. Each of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company's Subsidiaries is duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and owned by the Company, free and clear of any lien, pledge, security interest, claim or other encumbrance. Section 5.1(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter sets forth a true and complete list of the Company's Subsidiaries, including the name, jurisdiction of incorporation or formation and the Company's percentage ownership, direct or indirect, of capital stock or other equity interests of each such Subsidiary. Except as set forth above, there are no preemptive or other outstanding rights, options, warrants, conversion rights, stock appreciation rights, redemption rights, repurchase rights, agreements, arrangements, calls, commitments or rights of any kind that obligate the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to issue or sell any shares of capital stock or other securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any securities or obligations convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for, or giving any Person a right to subscribe for or acquire, any securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, and no securities or obligations evidencing such rights are authorized, issued or outstanding. There are no outstanding contractual obligations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries restricting the transfer, affecting the voting rights or requiring the registration for sale of any Shares or any capital stock of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

(c) Corporate Authority; Approval and Fairness. (i) The Company has all requisite corporate power and authority and has taken all corporate action necessary in order to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement and to consummate, subject only to shareholder approval of this Agreement by at least three-fourths of those voting at the Company Shareholders Meeting (the Company Requisite Vote), the Amalgamation and the other transactions involving the Company contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement has been duly authorized and executed by the Company and is a valid and binding agreement of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles (the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception).

(d) Governmental Filings; No Violations; Certain Contracts. (i) Other than the filings and/or notices (A) pursuant to Section 1.2, (B) under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), (C) to comply with state securities or "blue sky" laws, (D) required to be made with the Nasdaq National Stock Market, (E) required to be made under applicable foreign antitrust and competition laws and (F) pursuant to the Bermuda Act, no notices, reports or other filings are required to be made by the Company with, nor are any consents, waivers, registrations, approvals, permits, authorizations, notices or filings required to be made or obtained by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to or from, any domestic or foreign governmental or regulatory authority, agency, commission, body or other governmental entity (Governmental Entity), in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company and the consummation by the Company and its Subsidiaries of the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated hereby, except those that the failure to make or obtain would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect or to prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of the Company to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(ii) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Company do not, and the consummation by the Company of the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated hereby will not, constitute or result in (A) a breach or violation of, or a default under, the memorandum of association or bye-laws of the Company or the comparable governing instruments of any of its Subsidiaries, (B) a breach or violation of, or a default, termination or cancellation under, or the acceleration of any obligations or the creation of a lien, pledge, mortgage, security interest, charge or other encumbrance (each, a Lien) on the assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (with or without notice, lapse of time or both) pursuant to, any Contracts (including Material Contracts) binding upon the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any Law or Order applicable to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or by which its or any of their respective properties is bound or affected or (C) any change in the rights or obligations of any party (including requiring any consents or waivers) under any of the Contracts, except, in the case of clause (B) or (C) above, for any breach, violation, default, termination, cancellation, acceleration, Lien or change that, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect or to prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of the Company to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) Company Reports; Financial Statements; Undisclosed Liabilities. (i) The Company has timely filed all registration statements, reports, proxy statements, information statements, forms or other documents, including any exhibits, annexes and any amendments thereto, required to be filed by it with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) since December 31, 2003, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 (collectively, including any such documents filed subsequent to the date hereof and as amended, the Company Reports). As of their respective dates (or, if amended, as of the date of such amendment), the Company Reports (i) complied in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act and Exchange Act, and (ii) did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances in which they were made, not misleading. Each of the consolidated balance sheets included in or incorporated by reference into the Company Reports (including the related notes and schedules) fairly presents the consolidated financial position of the Company and its Subsidiaries as of its date, and each of the consolidated statements of income, of shareholders' equity and of cash flows included in or incorporated by reference into the Company Reports (including any related notes and schedules) fairly presents the results of operations, retained earnings, changes in financial position and cash flows, as the case may be, of the Company and its Subsidiaries for the periods set forth therein (subject, in the case of unaudited statements, to notes and normal year-end audit adjustments that will not be material in amount or effect), in each case in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) consistently applied during the periods involved, except as may be noted therein. Except for liabilities and obligations set forth in the Company Reports and except for liabilities and obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business, the Company has no liabilities or obligations of any nature (whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise) required by GAAP to be set forth on its consolidated balance sheet or in the notes thereto which, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect or to prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of the Company to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. No enforcement action has been initiated, or to the knowledge of the Company, threatened, against the Company by the SEC relating to disclosures contained in any Company Reports. The books and records of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries have been, and will be, maintained in accordance with applicable legal and accounting requirements in all material respects.

(ii) The Company and its Subsidiaries are in compliance in all material respects with the provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 that are applicable to the Company and its Subsidiaries.

(f) Absence of Certain Changes. Except as disclosed in the Company Reports, since December 31, 2005, the Company and its Subsidiaries have conducted their respective businesses only in the ordinary and usual course of such businesses and there has not been (i) any change in the financial condition, properties, business or results of operations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would be reasonably likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect; (ii) any material damage, destruction or other casualty loss with respect to any material asset or property owned, leased, licensed or otherwise used by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, whether or not covered by insurance; (iii) any declaration, setting aside or payment of any dividend or other distribution in cash, stock or property in respect of the capital stock of the Company, other than the Company's regular quarterly cash dividend of $0.05 per share payable on July 31, 2006 and October 31, 2006, or any redemption, purchase or acquisition of any shares of any class or series of the capital stock of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; (iv) any change by the Company in accounting principles, practices or methods; (v) any transfer, lease, licensing, sale, disposition or encumbrance of any business unit or any material assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, other than sales of inventory in the ordinary course of business; (vi) any acquisition by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries by merger, consolidation, acquisition of all or substantially all the assets or capital stock or other similar transaction of any corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other business organization, except for purchases of inventory in the ordinary course of business; (vii) any write-down of assets, including inventory or accounts receivable, other than as required by GAAP; (viii) any amendment of the memorandum of association or bye-laws or similar organizational documents of the Company, or any alteration in any material respect through merger, liquidation, reorganization, restructuring of corporate structure or ownership of the Company or any of its Significant Subsidiaries (within the meaning of Rule 1-02(w) of Regulation S-X promulgated by the SEC); (ix) any new, or change in any, material Tax election; any material settlement or compromise of any claim, notice, audit report or assessment in respect of Taxes; any change in any annual Tax accounting period; any adoption or change in any method of Tax accounting; any filing of any amended material Tax Return; any entrance into any Tax allocation agreement, Tax sharing agreement, Tax indemnity agreement or closing agreement relating to any material Tax; any surrender of any right to claim a material Tax refund or any consent to any extension or waiver of the statute of limitations period applicable to any material Tax claim or assessment; or (x) any agreement to take any of the foregoing actions.

(g) Material Contracts. (i) Except as disclosed in the Company Reports, none of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any Material Contract. As used in this Agreement, "[Material Contract]" means any (A) Contract that would be a contract required to be filed pursuant to Instruction 4 under "[Instructions as to Exhibits]" in Form 20-F, (B) Contract providing for aggregate expenditures to or by the Company in excess of $5,000,000, or annual expenditures to or by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in excess of $2,500,000 (other than Contracts (I) pursuant to which the amount of royalty payments vary with the amount of sales of a product to which the Contract relates, and (II) for which such royalty payments have not exceeded $2,500,000 for any of the years ended December 31, 2003, 2004 and 2005), (C) partnership, joint venture or limited liability or management agreement with any Person (other than as solely between or among the Company or any of its Subsidiaries), (D) except for this Agreement and any other document executed in connection with the Amalgamation, Contract relating to any merger, consolidation, business combination, share exchange, business acquisition, or for the purchase, acquisition, sale or disposition of any assets (other than the sale of inventory in the ordinary course of business) of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case in which the consideration would have a value in excess of $2,500,000, (E) Contract containing a non-compete or exclusivity provision that materially limits the right (geographically or otherwise) of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to conduct any line of business or compete with any Person, or (F) any material IP License that relates to a Key Product.

(ii) Each Material Contract is (A) a valid and binding obligation upon the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that is a party thereto, (B) to the knowledge of the Company, a valid and binding obligation of each other party thereto, and (C) in full force and effect. No event has occurred that, with or without notice, the passage of time or both, would constitute a default by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or any other party thereto, under any provision thereof or that would permit modification, cancellation, foreclosure, imposition of any Lien, prepayment or acceleration or termination of any Material Contract by any other party thereto or by it, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. None of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries has received any written notice regarding any violation or breach of, or default under, any Material Contract, or any intention to terminate any such Material Contract prior to the expiration of its stated term, except for any violation or breach of, default under or intention to terminate any Material Contract which would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(h) Litigation. Except as disclosed in the Company Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement, (i) there are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, and (ii) neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is subject to any outstanding Order, in each case, which would individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect or to prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of the Company to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(i) Employee Benefits. (i) All benefit and compensation plans, contracts, agreements, policies or arrangements covering current or former employees of the Company and any of its Subsidiaries (the "[Employees]") and current or former directors of the Company, including, but not limited to, "[employee benefit plans]" within the meaning of Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), and each material employment, consulting, severance, termination, retirement, profit sharing, bonus, incentive or deferred compensation, retention or change in control plan, program, arrangement, agreement or commitment, and each bonus, stock option, restricted stock or other equity-based, profit sharing, savings, life, health, disability, accident, medical, insurance, vacation, other material fringe benefit or other employee compensation plan, program, arrangement, agreement or policy (the Benefit Plans) are listed on Section 5.1(i) of the Company Disclosure Letter. True and complete copies of all Benefit Plans listed on Section 5.1(i) of the Company Disclosure Letter, including, if applicable, any trust instruments and insurance contracts forming a part of any Benefit Plans, all amendments thereto and the most recent determination letters issued by the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS), all government and regulatory approvals received from any foreign governmental authority in respect of any Non-U.S. Benefit Plans (defined below), the most recent summary plan descriptions (including any material modifications), the two most recent annual reports on Form 5500 (including all attachments thereto), the two most recent actuarial reports and the two most recent audited financial reports for any funded Benefit Plan, have been made available to Parent.

(ii) All Benefit Plans, other than multiemployer plans within the meaning of Section 3(37) of ERISA (each, a Multiemployer Plan), and all benefit plans maintained outside of the United States primarily for the benefit of Employees working outside of the United States (Non-U.S. Benefit Plans), are in substantial compliance with ERISA, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and other applicable Laws. Each Benefit Plan which is subject to ERISA (the ERISA Plans) that is an employee pension benefit plan within the meaning of Section 3(2) of ERISA (Pension Plan) and that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code, has received a favorable determination letter from the IRS, covering all tax law changes prior to the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 or has applied to the IRS for such favorable determination letter within the applicable remedial amendment period under Section 401(b) of the Code, and the Company is not aware of any circumstances likely to result in revocation of any such favorable determination letter or the loss of the qualification of such plan under Section 401(a) of the Code. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has engaged in a transaction with respect to any ERISA Plan that, assuming the taxable period of such transaction expired as of the date hereof, could subject the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to a tax or penalty imposed by either Section 4975 of the Code or Section 502(i) of ERISA in an amount which would be material. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has incurred nor reasonably expects to incur a material tax or penalty imposed by Section 4980F of the Code or Section 502 of ERISA.

(iii) Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries, nor any entity which is considered one employer with the Company under Section 4001 of ERISA or Section 414 of the Code (A) maintains or contributes to or has within the past six years maintained or contributed to a Pension Plan that is subject to Subtitles C or D of Title IV of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code or (B) maintains or has an obligation to contribute to or has within the past six years maintained or had an obligation to contribute to a Multiemployer Plan. (iv) As of the date hereof, there is no material pending or, to the knowledge of the Company threatened, litigation relating to the Benefit Plans and no Benefit Plan is the subject of an audit or investigation by the IRS, the U.S. Department of Labor, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or any other federal, state or local governmental agency, department or authority or any foreign governmental agency, department or authority. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has any obligations to provide health, accident, disability, life insurance or death benefits with respect to any current or former employees, consultants or directors or any retirees of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or the spouses, dependents or beneficiaries of any of the foregoing, beyond the termination of employment or service of any such employee, consultant, director or retiree, whether under any Benefit Plan or otherwise, other than as required under Section 4980B of the Code or other applicable Law. The Company or its applicable Subsidiary may amend or terminate any such plan at any time without incurring any liability thereunder other than in respect of claims incurred prior to such amendment or termination.

(v) There has been no amendment to, announcement by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries relating to, or change in employee participation or coverage under, any Benefit Plan which would increase materially the expense of maintaining such plan above the level of the expense incurred therefor for the most recent fiscal year. None of the execution of this Agreement, shareholder approval of this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, either alone or in combination with another event (whether contingent or otherwise), will (A) entitle any current or former employee, consultant or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to any payment, (B) increase the amount of compensation or benefits due to any such employee, consultant or director, (C) accelerate the vesting, funding or time of payment of any compensation, equity award or other benefit, (D) result in any [parachute payment] under Section 280G of the Code (whether or not such payment would be considered reasonable compensation for services rendered) or (E) result in payments which would not be deductible under Section 162(m) of the Code.

(vi) To the extent the Company or any of its Subsidiaries has made any payments or provided any benefits to any [service provider] that would constitute [deferred compensation], in each case within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code, such payments have been made, and such benefits have been provided, in good faith compliance with IRS Notice 2005-1, the proposed regulations promulgated under Section 409A of the Code prior to the date hereof, or with the provisions of Section 409A of the Code.

(vii) All stock options granted under the Stock Plans have been granted in compliance, in all material respects, with the terms of applicable Law and the applicable Stock Plans and the exercise price of each such option was determined in accordance with the applicable Stock Plan.

(viii) With respect to each Non-U.S. Benefit Plan: (A) each such plan has been administered in all material respects in accordance with its terms and all applicable Laws, (B) all contributions, premiums, accruals, payments or reimbursements required by applicable Law or the terms of the applicable plan for all periods ending prior to or as of the date hereof have been made, and (C) the current value of liabilities under each such plan do not exceed the assets and reserves set aside under such plan as of the date hereof in an amount that would be material.

(j) Compliance with Laws; Permits. (i) The Company and each of its Subsidiaries are in compliance with all federal, state, local and foreign laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, judgments, orders, injunctions, decrees, licenses and permits of any Governmental Entity (collectively, [Laws]) applicable to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or by which its or any of their respective properties is bound or affected, except for such non-compliance that, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(ii) The Company and each of its Subsidiaries has all permits, licenses, orders and other governmental authorizations, consents and approvals necessary to own, lease or operate its properties and to conduct its business as presently conducted (collectively, the [Permits]), except those the absence of which would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. There has occurred no default, revocation or suspension under any such Permit, and no event has occurred that permits, or upon the giving of notice or passage of time or both would permit, revocation, non-renewal, modification, suspension, limitation or termination of any Permit that is currently in effect, except in each case for any default, revocation, suspension, event, non-renewal, modification, suspension, limitation or termination that individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(k) Takeover Statutes. No [fair price,] [moratorium,] [control share acquisition,] [business combination] or other similar anti-takeover statute or regulation or any anti-takeover provision in the Company's memorandum of association and bye-laws is applicable to the Company, the Shares, the Amalgamation or the other transactions contemplated hereby.

(l) Environmental Matters. (i) Except as set forth in the Company Reports filed prior to the date hereof (A) to the knowledge of the Company, the Company and its Subsidiaries are now and have always been in compliance, in all material respects, with all applicable Environmental Laws and have all permits necessary to conduct current operations; and (B) there have not been any Hazardous Substances used, generated, treated, stored, transported, disposed of, or released on, under, about, or emanating to or from any property currently or previously owned, leased or operated by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries at the time such property was owned, leased or operated by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries except as permitted under applicable Environmental Laws.

(ii) Except as set forth in the Company Reports filed prior to the date hereof, the Company and its Subsidiaries (A) are not the subject of any pending written notice from any Governmental Entity or any other Person alleging a material violation of, or liability under, any applicable Environmental Laws nor, to the knowledge of the Company, is the Company or any Subsidiaries aware of any probable basis for such a notice; and (B) are not, to the knowledge of the Company, currently subject to any investigation, court order, administrative order or decree arising under any Environmental Law. No deficiencies for Taxes of the Company or its Subsidiaries have been claimed, proposed or assessed by any authority and, as of the date hereof, there are not pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened, any audits, examinations, investigations or other proceedings in respect of Taxes or Tax matters. No claim has ever been made by an authority in a jurisdiction where the Company and its Subsidiaries do not file Tax Returns that any of them is or may be subject to taxation by that jurisdiction. The Company has made available to Parent true and correct copies of all Tax Returns filed by the Company and its Subsidiaries for each of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 (if any), 2004 and 2003, and complete and accurate copies of all examination reports and statements of deficiencies assessed against, and received by, or agreed to, by any of the Company and its Subsidiaries (and their respective predecessors) since December 31, 2001. The Company is not currently the beneficiary of any extension of time within which to file any Tax Return. No power of attorney (other than powers of attorney authorizing employees of the Company to act on behalf of the Company) with respect to any Taxes has been executed or filed with any authority.

(ii) The unpaid Taxes of the Company did not, as of the date of the most recent Company financial statements included in the Company Reports, exceed the reserve for Tax liability (excluding any reserve for deferred Taxes established to reflect timing differences between book and Tax income) set forth on the face of the balance sheets (rather than in any notes thereto) contained in the most recent Company financial statements included in the Company Reports. Since the date of the most recent Company financial statements included in the Company Reports, the Company has not incurred any liability for Taxes outside the ordinary course of business or otherwise inconsistent with past custom and practice.

Copies of the lease agreements under which each Leased Property is leased (the [Leases]) have been made available to Parent. No event has occurred that, with or without notice, the passage of time or both, would cause a breach or default under any such Lease, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be likely to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(ii) The Company and each of its Subsidiaries has good and valid title to, or, in the case of Leased Properties and other leased assets, valid leasehold interests in, all of its material tangible properties and assets, real, personal and mixed, used or held for use in its business, free and clear of any Liens, easements, title defects,

(g) Intellectual Property. (i) Section 5.1(q) of the Company Disclosure Letter sets forth a list of (A) all registered patents, trademarks, copyrights, mask works and applications therefor owned by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, indicating the name of the registered owner, the registration or application number and the applicable filing jurisdiction. (n) neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries will authorize or enter into an agreement to do any of the foregoing.

6.2. Acquisition Proposals. (a) The Company agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of their respective officers and directors shall, and that it shall not authorize or permit its or any of its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives to, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit, encourage or otherwise facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, amalgamation or similar transaction involving the Company, or with respect to any purchase, acquisition, assignment, lease or transfer of 25% or more of the consolidated assets of the Company or 25% or more of the equity securities of the Company, or any combination of the foregoing (any such proposal or offer being hereinafter referred to as an Acquisition Proposal). The Company further agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of their respective officers and directors shall, and that it shall not authorize or permit its or any of its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives to, directly or indirectly, engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information or data to, or have any discussions with, any Person relating to a proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal, otherwise facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Acquisition Proposal or enter into an agreement or agreement in principle with respect to an Acquisition Proposal.

(b) The provisions of Section 6.2(a) shall not prevent the Company or its Board of Directors, prior to obtaining the Company Requisite Vote and subject to complying with the terms of this Agreement, from (A) complying with its disclosure obligations under applicable Law; (B) providing information in response to a request therefor by a Person who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal if the Board of Directors receives from such Person requesting such information an executed confidentiality agreement on terms no more favorable to such person than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement (it being understood that such confidentiality agreement need not prohibit the making, or amendment, of an Acquisition Proposal); (C) engaging in any negotiations or discussions with any Person who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal; (D) recommending such an Acquisition Proposal to the shareholders of the Company; or (E) entering into a binding written agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a Superior Proposal, if, (i) in each case referred to in clause (B), (C), (D) and/or (E) above, the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel and the Company's financial advisor that such action is likely to be required in order for its directors to comply with their respective fiduciary duties under applicable Law and (ii) in each case referred to in clause (D) and/or (E) above, (x) the Company has given Parent five business days' prior written notice (such five business day period to recommence upon notification by the Company of any material change to the applicable Acquisition Proposal) of its intention to take any such action (including attaching the most current version of any such binding written agreement referred to in clause (E) above) and (y) at the end of such five business day period, after taking into account any adjusted, modified or amended terms proposed by Parent, the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor) that such Acquisition Proposal, if accepted, has substantially the same likelihood of consummation as the Amalgamation, taking into account all legal, financial and regulatory aspects of the proposal and the Person making the proposal, and would, if consummated, result in a transaction more favorable to the Company's shareholders from a financial point of view than the Amalgamation (any Acquisition Proposal as to which the Company's Board of Directors make such good faith determination being referred to in this Agreement as a Superior Proposal). The Company agrees that it will not recommend to the shareholders of the Company an Acquisition Proposal referred to in clause (D) above or enter into a binding agreement referred to in clause (E) above until, in each case, at least the sixth business day after it has provided the notice (or revised notice, as the case may be) to Parent required under the previous sentence. The Company agrees that it will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal.

(c) The Company agrees that it will notify Parent promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) upon receipt of any Acquisition Proposal by it or any of its representatives, including the material terms of such proposal, the identity of the potential acquiror, any information requested from the Company, or of any negotiations or discussions being sought to be initiated with the Company. The Company shall keep Parent fully informed on a prompt basis with respect to any material changes to the applicable Acquisition Proposal, the Company's intention to enter into an Acquisition Proposal or any other material developments with respect to the foregoing. The Company will simultaneously provide to Parent any non-public information concerning the Company or its Subsidiaries provided to any Person that was not previously provided to Parent.

6.3. Company Shareholders Meeting. The Company will take, in accordance with applicable Law and its memorandum of association and bye-laws, all action necessary to convene a meeting of holders of Shares (the Company Shareholders Meeting) as promptly as practicable after the date hereof to consider and vote upon this Agreement. Subject to fiduciary obligations under applicable Law, the Company's Board of Directors shall recommend approval of this Agreement and shall take all lawful action to solicit such approval. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall prevent the Company's Board of Directors from withholding, withdrawing, amending or modifying its recommendation that the Company's shareholders vote in favor of this Agreement if the Company's Board of Directors determines in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel and the Company's financial advisor that it is necessary to do so in order to act in a manner consistent with their fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided that Section 6.2 shall govern the withholding, withdrawing, amendment or modifying of such recommendation in the circumstances described therein.

6.4. Information Supplied. (a) The Company agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information included or incorporated by reference (i) in the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto, at the date of mailing to shareholders and at the time of the Company Shareholder Meeting, and (ii) in any other filings required to be made by the Company with the SEC in connection with the Amalgamation, or any amendment or supplement thereto (collectively, the Other Filings), at the time of filing and at any distribution or dissemination thereof, will contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, however, that the Company's covenants contained in clauses (i) and (ii) above will not apply to statements or omissions included in the Proxy Statement or any Other Filings based upon information furnished in writing to the Company by Parent or Amalgamation Sub specifically for use therein. The Company agrees that the Proxy Statement and any Other Filings, and any amendments or supplements thereto, when filed by the Company with the SEC, or when distributed or otherwise disseminated to the Company's shareholders, as applicable, will comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Exchange Act (including a form of proxy statement that complies as to form in all material respects with the requirements of Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act as if such section were applicable to the Company) and other applicable Laws.

(b) Parent agrees, as to itself and Amalgamation Sub, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it or Amalgamation Sub in writing specifically for use in (i) the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto, at the date of mailing to shareholders and at the time of the Company Shareholders Meeting, or (ii) any Other Filing, at the time of filing and at any distribution or dissemination thereof, will contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

6.5. Filings; Other Actions; Notification. (a) In connection with the Company Shareholders Meeting, the Company shall as promptly as reasonably practicable prepare a proxy statement relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Amalgamation (the Proxy Statement) in accordance with applicable Law, including the Bermuda Act, and shall file or furnish the Proxy Statement with the SEC no later than thirty (30) days after the date of this Agreement. The Company shall mail the Proxy Statement to its shareholders as promptly as reasonably practicable thereafter. The Company shall as promptly as practicable notify Parent and Amalgamation Sub of the receipt of any oral or written comments from the SEC relating to any request from the SEC for amendments of, or supplements to, the Proxy Statement, as well as any request by the SEC for additional information relating to the Proxy Statement. The Company (in consultation with Parent and Amalgamation Sub) shall use its reasonable best efforts to respond to the comments of the SEC, if any, with respect to the Proxy Statement (including filing all exhibits and other document required to be so filed with the SEC in response to such comments). The Company shall provide Parent and Amalgamation Sub with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on drafts of the Proxy Statement (including each amendment or supplement thereto) and all responses to requests, if any, for additional information by and replies to comments of the SEC, prior to filing such with, or sending such to, the SEC. If at any time prior to the Company Shareholders Meeting, any information should be discovered by any party that should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement, so that the Proxy Statement would not include any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other parties hereto and, to the extent required by applicable Law, an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed by the Company with the SEC and disseminated by the Company to the shareholders of the Company; provided that prior to such mailing of any amendment or supplement, the Company shall provide Parent with the right to review and comment on such amendment or supplement as described in this Section 6.5. Subject to Section 6.2, the Proxy Statement shall contain the Company Recommendation.

(b) The Company and Parent shall cooperate with each other and use (and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to use) their respective commercially reasonable efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, necessary, proper or advisable on its part hereunder and applicable Laws to consummate and make effective the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated hereby as soon as practicable, including preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary notices, reports and other filings and to obtain as promptly as practicable all consents, registrations, approvals, permits and authorizations necessary or advisable to be obtained from any third party (including shareholders) and/or any Governmental Entity in order to consummate the Amalgamation or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby. Subject to Section 6.5(a) and applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, to the extent practicable, Parent and the Company shall have the right to reasonably collaborate in connection with any communication that Parent or the Company makes to any Governmental Entity regarding the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated hereby before such communication is made.

(c) The Company shall, upon request by Parent, furnish Parent, the SEC and any other Governmental Entities with all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Proxy Statement or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Parent to any third party and/or any Governmental Entity in connection with the Amalgamation and the transactions contemplated hereby.

(d) Parent shall, upon request by the Company, furnish the Company, the SEC and any other Governmental Entities with all information concerning itself and Amalgamation Sub and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Proxy Statement or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to any third party and/or any Governmental Entity in connection with the Amalgamation and the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) The Company and Parent each shall keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby, including promptly furnishing the other with copies of notice or other communications received by Parent, Amalgamation Sub, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, from any third party and/or any Governmental Entity with respect to the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

6.6. Access. Upon reasonable notice, and except as may otherwise be required by applicable Law, the Company shall (and shall cause its Subsidiaries to) afford Parent's officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives reasonable access, during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time, to its properties, books, contracts, records, officers, employees and representatives and, during such period, the Company shall (and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to) furnish promptly to Parent all information concerning its business, properties, Contracts, financial data, personnel and other information as may reasonably be requested, provided that the foregoing shall not require the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to permit any inspection, or to disclose any information, that in the reasonable judgment of the Company would result in the disclosure of any trade secrets of third parties if the Company shall have used reasonable best efforts to obtain the consent of such third party to such inspection or disclosure. All requests for information made pursuant to this Section shall be directed to an executive officer of the Company, as the case may be, or such Person as may be designated by the Company's officers, as the case may be. All such information shall be governed by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

6.7. Publicity. The initial press release with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby shall be a joint press release and thereafter the Company and Parent each shall consult with each other prior to issuing any press releases or otherwise making public announcements with respect to the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated hereby and prior to making any filings with any third party and/or any Governmental Entity (including any national securities interdealer quotation service) with respect thereto, except as may be required by Law or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of any national securities interdealer quotation service.

6.8. Certain Notices. From and after the date of this Agreement until the Effective Time, each party hereto shall promptly notify the other party hereto of (a) the occurrence, or non-occurrence, of any event that would be likely to cause any condition to the obligations of any party to effect the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement not to be satisfied or (b) the failure of the Company or Parent, as the case may be, to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it pursuant to this Agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in any condition to the obligations of any party to effect the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement not to be satisfied; provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 6.8 shall not cure any breach of any representation or warranty requiring disclosure of such matter prior to the date of this Agreement or otherwise limit or affect the remedies available hereunder to the party receiving such notice.

6.9. FIRPTA Certificate. Prior to the Application Date, the Company shall deliver to Parent such forms and certificates, duly executed and acknowledged, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent, certifying that the Amalgamation is exempt from withholding under Section 1445 of the Code.

6.10. Benefits. Subject to the terms of any collective bargaining agreement currently in effect or which may be in effect in the future, Parent agrees that, during the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on the second anniversary thereof, the employees of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries will continue to be provided with benefits under employee benefit plans that will be substantially similar in the aggregate to those currently provided by the Company and each of its Subsidiaries to such employees. Parent shall, or shall cause the Amalgamated Company to, honor in accordance with their terms: (a) all employee benefit obligations to current and former employees of the Company accrued as of the Effective Time, (b) to the extent set forth in the Company Disclosure Letter, all employment or severance agreements entered into prior to the date hereof and (c) the severance plan terms set forth in the Company Disclosure Letter without amendment for one year immediately following the Effective Time. Subject to the terms of any collective bargaining agreement currently in effect or which may be in effect in the future, Parent will cause each employee benefit plan of Parent in which employees of the Company are eligible to participate to take into account for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefit accrual (other than benefit accrual under any defined benefit pension plan) thereunder the service of such employees with the Company as if such service were with Parent to the same extent that such service was credited under a comparable plan of the Company.

6.11. Expenses. The Amalgamated Company shall pay all charges and expenses, including those of the Paying Agent, in connection with the transactions contemplated in Article IV, and Parent shall reimburse the Amalgamated Company for such charges and expenses. Whether or not the Amalgamation is consummated, except as set forth in Section 8.5(b), Section 8.5(c) and Section 8.5(d), all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such expense.

6.12. Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance. (a) Parent and the Amalgamated Company jointly and severally shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the extent permitted under the Company's memorandum of association and by-laws and indemnification agreements, if any, in existence on the date of this Agreement, each present and former director, officer and employee of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries (collectively, the Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, including the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under paragraph (a) of this Section, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify in writing Parent or the Amalgamated Company, but the failure to so notify shall not relieve Parent or the Amalgamated Company of any liability it may have to such Indemnified Party if such failure does not materially prejudice Parent or the Amalgamated Company. In the event of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) Parent or the Amalgamated Company shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and neither Parent nor the Amalgamated Company shall be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if Parent or the Amalgamated Company elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are issues which raise conflicts of interest between Parent or the Amalgamated Company and the Indemnified Parties such that it would be unethical or inappropriate for the same counsel to represent both the Indemnified Parties, on one hand, and Parent and Amalgamation Sub, on the other hand, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them, and Parent or the Amalgamated Company shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties reasonably promptly as statements therefor are received; provided, however, that Parent and the Amalgamated Company shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph (b) to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties (in addition to any local counsel) unless the use of one counsel for such Indemnified Parties would present such counsel with such a conflict of interest, (ii) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter and (iii) neither Parent nor the Amalgamated Company shall be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; and provided, further, that neither Parent nor the Amalgamated Company shall have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party if and when a court of competent jurisdiction shall ultimately determine, and such determination shall have become final, that the indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable Law. Parent may not agree to any settlement of any such claim or action, other than solely for monetary damages for which Parent shall be responsible hereunder, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, unless such settlement includes an explicit and unconditional release from the party bringing such claim. In any action hereunder as to which Parent has assumed the defense thereof, the Indemnified Party shall continue to be entitled to participate in the defense thereof, with counsel of its own choice, but Parent shall not be obligated hereunder to reimburse the indemnified party of the costs or expenses thereof, except as otherwise provided in this Section. If the indemnity provided for by this Section is not available with respect to any Indemnified Party, then the Amalgamated Company and the Indemnified Party shall contribute to the amount payable in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect relative faults and benefits.

(c) The Amalgamated Company shall maintain, and Parent shall cause the Amalgamated Company to maintain, the Company's existing officers and directors liability insurance for a period of six years after the Effective Time (provided that coverage limits in the aggregate for the entire six-year period are not less than the current annual limits, provided, further, that if such coverage is unavailable, the Amalgamated Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain substantially equivalent coverage) with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event shall the Amalgamated Company be required to expend more than an amount per year equal to 200% of current annual premiums paid by the Company for such insurance; provided further, however, that if the premiums for such coverage exceed such amount, the Amalgamated Company shall purchase a policy with the greatest coverage available for such 200% of the current annual premiums paid by the Company. In lieu of the foregoing, Parent or the Amalgamated Company may obtain a "tail" policy of substantially equivalent coverage and amounts containing terms no less favorable to such former directors or officers covering events occurring at or prior to the Effective Time for a period of not fewer than six (6) years after the Effective Time at a cost not to exceed 200% of the current annual premiums paid by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2005.

(d) If Parent or the Amalgamated Company or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) shall consolidate or amalgamate with or merge into any other corporation or entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) shall transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any individual, corporation or other entity, then, and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or the Amalgamated Company shall assume all of the obligations set forth in this Section.

(e) The provisions of this Section are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each of the Indemnified Parties, their heirs and their representatives.

6.13. Guarantee. Mattel hereby fully and unconditionally guarantees to the Company the performance of all obligations hereunder of Parent, Amalgamation Sub and any of their respective assignees permitted under Section 9.13 (the Permitted Assignees) and the due and punctual payment by Parent, Amalgamation Sub and any of their respective Permitted Assignees in full of any amounts payable by Parent, Amalgamation Sub and any of their respective Permitted Assignees pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

Conditions

7.1. Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Amalgamation. The respective obligation of each party to effect the Amalgamation is subject to the satisfaction or waiver at or prior to the Application Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) Shareholder Approval. This Agreement shall have been duly approved by holders of Shares constituting the Company Requisite Vote in accordance with applicable Law and the memorandum of association and the bye-laws of the Company.

(b) Regulatory Consents. The waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Amalgamation under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated and, other than the filing provided for in Section 1.2, all notices, reports and other filings required to be made prior to the Application Date by the Company or Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries with, and all consents, registrations, approvals, permits and authorizations required to be obtained prior to the Application Date by the Company or Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries from, any Governmental Entity in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the Amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated hereby by the Company, Parent and Amalgamation Sub shall have been made or obtained (as the case may be).

(c) Litigation. No Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any statute, law, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) (collectively, an Order[□]) that is in effect and restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits consummation of the Amalgamation or the other transactions contemplated hereby.

7.2. Conditions to Obligations of Parent and Amalgamation Sub. The obligations of Parent and Amalgamation Sub to effect the Amalgamation are also subject to the satisfaction or waiver by Parent at or prior to the Application Date of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of the Company set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Application Date as though made on and as of the Application Date (except to the extent any such representation or warranty expressly speaks as of an earlier date), and Parent shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by an executive officer of the Company to such effect; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this subsection shall be deemed to have been satisfied even if such representations or warranties are not so true and correct unless the failure of such representations or warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, has had, or would reasonably be likely to have, a Company Material Adverse Effect or would reasonably be likely to prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of the Company to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, further, that in determining, solely for purposes of this subsection, whether the failure of such representations or warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, has had, or would reasonably be likely to have, a Company Material Adverse Effect, any materiality exceptions contained in such representations and warranties shall not be considered.

(b) Performance of Obligations of the Company. The Company shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Application Date, and Parent shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by an executive officer of the Company to such effect.

(c) No Company Material Adverse Effect. Since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred any Company Material Adverse Effect or any event or development that would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

7.3. Conditions to Obligation of the Company. The obligation of the Company to effect the Amalgamation is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver by the Company at or prior to the Application Date of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Parent and Amalgamation Sub set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Application Date as though made on and as of the Application Date (except to the extent any such representation and warranty expressly speaks as of an earlier date), and the Company shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Parent by an executive officer of Parent and an executive officer of Amalgamation Sub to such effect; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this subsection shall be deemed to have been satisfied even if such representations or warranties are not so true and correct unless the failure of such representations or warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be likely to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Parent and Amalgamation Sub. Each of Parent and Amalgamation Sub shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Application Date, and the Company shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Parent and Amalgamation Sub by an executive officer of Parent and an executive officer of Amalgamation Sub to such effect.

ARTICLE VIII

Termination

8.1. Termination by Mutual Consent. This Agreement may be terminated and the Amalgamation may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after the approval by shareholders of the Company referred to in

34

ANNEX A

Section 7.1(a), by mutual written consent of the Company and Parent by action of their respective Boards of Directors.

8.2. Termination by Either Parent or the Company. This Agreement may be terminated and the Amalgamation may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time by action of the Board of Directors of either Parent or the Company if (a) the Amalgamation shall not have been consummated by December 15, 2006, whether such date is before or after the date of approval by the shareholders of the Company (the Original Termination Date); provided, however, that if the only condition to the closing that remains unsatisfied (except for any condition that by its terms can only be satisfied at the Closing) on the Original Termination Date are any or all of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1(b) and Section 7.1(c) hereof, and such conditions are capable of being satisfied on or prior to January 31, 2007 (such later date being referred to herein as the Outside Termination Date), then the Original Termination Date shall be automatically extended to the Outside Termination Date without further action by or consent of any of the parties hereto, (b) the approval of the Company's shareholders required by Section 7.1(a) shall not have been obtained at a meeting duly convened therefor or at any adjournment or postponement thereof or (c) any Order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the Amalgamation shall become final and non-appealable (whether before or after the approval by the shareholders of the Company); provided, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to clause (a) above shall not be available to any party that has breached in any material respect its obligations under this Agreement in any manner that has been the cause of, or resulted in, the occurrence of the failure of the Amalgamation to be consummated.

8.3. Termination by the Company. This Agreement may be terminated and the Amalgamation may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time, by action of the Board of Directors of the Company:

(a) if, prior to obtaining the Company Requisite Vote, (i) the Company is not in material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement, and (ii) if permitted by, and in compliance with, Section 6.2, the Board of Directors of the Company authorizes the Company to enter into a binding written agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a Superior Proposal; or

(b) if there has been a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement made by Parent or Amalgamation Sub in this Agreement, or any such representation and warranty shall have become untrue after the date of this Agreement, such that Section 7.3(a) or 7.3(b) would not be satisfied and such breach or condition is not curable or, if curable, is not cured within 20 days after written notice thereof is given by the Company to Parent.

8.4. Termination by Parent. This Agreement may be terminated and the Amalgamation may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time by action of the Board of Directors of Parent if (a) the Board of Directors of the Company shall have withdrawn or adversely modified its approval or recommendation of this Agreement, recommended to the shareholders of the Company that they approve an Acquisition Proposal or failed to reconfirm its recommendation of this Agreement within five business days after a written request by Parent to do so, (b) there has been a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement made by the Company in this Agreement, or any such representation and warranty shall have become untrue after the date of this Agreement, such that Section 7.2(a) or 7.2(b) would not be satisfied and such breach or condition is not curable or, if curable, is not cured within 20 days after written notice thereof is given by Parent to the Company, or (c) there has been any event, development or change of circumstance that constitutes, has had or could reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect and such Company Material Adverse Effect is not cured within 20 days after written notice thereof.

8.5. Effect of Termination and Abandonment. (a) In the event of termination of this Agreement and the abandonment of the Amalgamation pursuant to this Article VIII, this Agreement (other than as set forth in Section 9.1) shall become void and of no effect with no liability on the part of any party hereto (or of any of its directors, officers, employees, agents, legal and financial advisors or other representatives); provided, however, except as otherwise provided herein, no such termination shall relieve any party hereto of any liability or damages resulting from any willful or intentional breach of this Agreement.

(b) Without limiting Parent's rights under Section 8.5(c) or 8.5(d), the Company shall pay Parent a termination fee of $6,940,764 (the Termination Fee), plus up to an aggregate amount of $1,500,000 of all out-of-pocket expenses of Parent and its Affiliates, including fees and expenses of financial advisors, outside legal counsel, accountants, experts and consultants incurred by Parent and its Affiliates or on their respective behalf in connection with or related to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (the Parent Expenses) in the event that this Agreement is terminated (i) by the Company pursuant to Section 8.3(a), or (ii) by Parent pursuant to Section 8.4(b), if, solely with respect to the foregoing clause (ii), (A) an Acquisition Proposal shall have been made to the Company or its shareholders or any Person shall have publicly announced an intention to make an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company prior to such termination and (B) within 12 months of such termination, the Company consummates a definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (with all percentages in the definition of Acquisition Proposal increased to fifty percent (50%)). In the event of a Termination Fee and Parent Expenses payable pursuant to Section 8.5(b)(i), such fee and expenses shall be paid to Parent upon termination of this Agreement, and in the event of a Termination Fee and Parent Expenses payable pursuant to Section 8.5(b)(ii), such fee and expenses shall be paid to Parent upon the consummation of the definitive agreement in connection with the applicable Acquisition Proposal.

(c) If this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.4(a), then, without limiting Parent's rights under Section 8.5(b) or 8.5(d), upon termination of this Agreement, the Company shall pay to Parent an amount equal to the Parent Expenses; provided, however, that if within 12 months of such termination, the Company enters into or consummates a definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (with all percentages in the definition of Acquisition Proposal increased to fifty percent (50%)), then the Company shall also pay to Parent an amount equal to the Termination Fee upon consummation of such definitive agreement (even if such consummation occurs following such 12 month period).

(d) If this Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.2(b), then, without limiting Parent's rights under Section 8.5(b) or 8.5(c), upon termination of this Agreement, the Company shall pay to Parent an amount equal to the Parent Expenses; provided, however, that if (A) an Acquisition Proposal shall have been made to the Company or its shareholders or any Person shall have publicly announced an intention to make an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company prior to such termination and (B) within 12 months of such termination, the Company enters into or consummates a definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (with all percentages in the definition of Acquisition Proposal increased to fifty percent (50%)), then upon the earlier of the execution or consummation of such definitive agreement, the Company shall also pay to Parent an amount equal to the Termination Fee.

(e) The Company's payment of the Termination Fee and Parent Expenses, as applicable, shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of Parent and Amalgamation Sub against the Company and its Subsidiaries and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors or other representatives with respect to the breach of any covenant or agreement giving rise to such payment. Parent and the Company acknowledge that the agreements contained in this Section 8.5 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and that, without these agreements, Parent would not have entered into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the Company fails to pay promptly any amount due pursuant to this Section 8.5 and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent commences a suit that results in a judgment against the Company for the amount set forth in this Section 8.5, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit.
