Press Release of Navigator Holdings Ltd. dated November 4, 2014.

NEWS RELEASE

November 3, 2014

NAVIGATOR HOLDINGS LTD. ORDERS TWO HANDYSIZED LPG CARRIERS

London, England, November 3, 2014 Navigator Holdings Ltd. (NYSE: NVGS) today announces that the Company has ordered two 22,000 cubic meter semi-refrigerated liquefied gas carriers at Hyundai Mipo Dockyard (“HMD”) in South Korea at a construction cost of $51.0 million each. The vessels are scheduled to be delivered in January and March 2017 respectively.

These two LPG vessels will operate on agreed time charters for an initial term of five years from delivery, with a charterer’s option, exercisable prior to the delivery of the vessels, to extend the term for an additional five years making them each ten year time charters. The vessels will be built with the latest maritime technologies, maximum cargo capacities and fuel efficiencies as well as technical specifications which are unavailable on much of our existing fleet, and required by our charterer.

About Us

Navigator Gas is the owner and operator of the world’s largest fleet of handysize liquefied gas carriers and provides international and regional seaborne transportation services of liquefied petroleum gas, petrochemical gases and ammonia for energy companies, industrial users and commodity traders. Navigator’s fleet consists of 38 semi- or fully-refrigerated liquefied gas carriers, including thirteen newbuildings scheduled for delivery by the end of March 2017.

Forward Looking Statements

Statements included in this press release concerning plans and objectives of Navigator's (we, or our) management for future operations or economic performance, or assumptions related thereto, contain forward-looking statements. In addition, we and our representatives may from time to time make other oral or written statements that are also forward-looking statements. Such statements include, in particular, statements about our plans, strategies, business prospects, changes and trends in our business and the markets in which we operate as described in this press release. In some cases, you can identify the forward-looking statements by the use of words such as may, could, should, would, expect, plan, anticipate, intend, forecast, believe, estimate, predict, propose, potential, of these terms or other comparable terminology. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to:

- future operating or financial results;
- pending acquisitions, business strategy and expected capital spending;
- operating expenses, availability of crew, number of off-hire days, drydocking requirements and insurance costs;
- general market conditions and shipping market trends, including charter rates and factors affecting supply and demand;
- our financial condition and liquidity, including our ability to obtain additional financing in the future to fund capital expenditures, acquisitions and other corporate activities;
- estimated future capital expenditures needed to preserve our capital base;
- our expectations about the receipt of our thirteen newbuildings and the timing of the receipt thereof;

our expectations about the availability of vessels to purchase, the time that it may take to construct new vessels, or the useful lives of our vessels;

our continued ability to enter into long-term, fixed-rate time charters with our customers;

changes in governmental rules and regulations or actions taken by regulatory authorities;

potential liability from future litigation;

our expectations relating to the payment of dividends; and other factors discussed in Navigator's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

We expressly disclaim any obligation to update or revise any of these forward-looking statements, whether because of future events, new information, a change in our views or expectations, or otherwise. We make no prediction or statement about the performance of our common stock.
